National Broiler Market At A Glance
Atlanta, Ga.

January 22, 2003

Report Supplied By USDA

Trade sentiment was barely steady to at times weak in the East, steady elsewhere. Retail demand was limited to fair with few features. Food service was slow to moderate, best for fast food promotions and into hotel restaurants in the Midwest. Supplies of all sizes were more than sufficient to satisfy trade needs with heavier sizes frequently more available. In the parts structure, breast items were no more than adequate to tight and clearing well of an active call. Interest for wings was not as assertive as previous weeks, but was strong enough to keep supplies close to well cleared. Leg quarters were moving well, but the remaining dark meat items were readily available. In production areas, live supplies were moderate at weights in a full range
