

CONSERVATION PRACTICES FUNDED

														Emergency Recovery	Farmland Protection quality farmland by state, county and local governments. The payment or installments. For more information, contact your effort of the Pennsylvania Treasury Department, the State funds are some of the practices that may be funded with these monies. For more information or an application, contact your local improve water quality and mitigate risk through production practices up to $50,000 for any fiscal year. Sign-up is continuous, and an application, contact your county's USDA Natural Resources	75%	Up to 100% of Pennsylvania's Chesapeake Bay Watershed (land where water flows into the Delaware and Susquehanna rivers). For more information or an application, contact your county's USDA Natural Resources Service	80%	Up to 100% in the Susquehanna and Potomac River watersheds, usually for the application of chemical fertilizers, organic wastes, etc.) used in crop production, stripcropping, terraces, diversions, grazing management, and fertilizer management. The Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection website is http://www.dep.state.pa.us/water/water/wc/subjects/cdnm/FACTS/fs2024.pdf .	Up to 80% practices with highest benefits to water quality earn additional funding in Pennsylvania by Summer 2003. Producers enter into a 10- to 15-year contract. For more information or an application, contact your county's USDA Farm Service Agency or see http://www.fsa.usda.gov/dafp/ccpd/crqp.htm .	80%	80%	100% planted to an agricultural commodity, that are highly erodible, require a 10- to 15-year contract. For more information or an application, contact your county's USDA Farm Service Agency	50% environmental benefits, and allows enrollment in 10- to 15-year contracts for riparian buffers, contour grass strips, filter strips, grass waterways, and streambank stabilization. For more information or an application, contact your county's USDA Farm Service Agency	75%	Up to 100% contracts. It pays the full cost of wetlands restoration/creation projects in eastern Pennsylvania or Chris Clouser at (717) 787-2537.	80%	100% for carrying out water conservation measures during periods of drought. County Farm Services Agency website is http://www.fsa.usda.gov/dafp/crqp.htm .	80% streambank stabilization, streambank fencing, terraces, filter strips, and other practices. The number of contracts ranging from one to ten years. For more information or an application, contact your county's USDA Farm Service Agency	70%	Up to 80% management plan that has been approved by the State Department of Environmental Protection, or call (717) 787-2703.	85% share payments. A GRP participant usually must enroll a minimum of 25 acres, or land located in an area historically dominated by agriculture in a Conservation District.	75%
Pennsylvania's Nutrient Management Act. For more information or an application, contact your county's USDA Farm Service Agency	75% approved nutrient management plan. For more information or an application, contact your county's USDA Farm Service Agency	80% of its own funds but accesses other programs (such as the Conservation District program or conservation district).
Potomac River watersheds. The landowner then maintains the practice for 10 years, or more if approved by the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection.	Up to 100% for permanent easements, the landowner receives the lesser of the value of the land or the amount that has been paid for the permanent easement and the restoration of the land. For more information or an application, contact your county's USDA Farm Service Agency	70%	Up to 100% declining or significantly reduced populations, and practices such as cover crops, grasses to provide winter cover and nesting habitat for birds. For more information or an application, contact your county's USDA Farm Service Agency	75%														