

Antique Hunting, Fishing Show, Sale Is Aug. 2

LANCASTER (Lancaster Co.) — The 23rd Antique Hunting and Fishing Show and Sale will be conducted at the Lancaster Farm and Home Center, Arcadia Road, Lancaster.

Approximately 100 collectors and dealers will display and sell some of the following items: antique hunting and fishing licenses, shell boxes, old lures, plugs, reels, decoys, fishing rods, books, game posters, knives, guns, traps, pictures, patches, and related hunting and fishing items.

Collectors and dealers from many states will have many items for you to buy or trade. Visitors may bring items to sell or trade. Admission is $3. Children under 14 years free when accompanied by a parent.

Show hours are 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Door prizes also given away. An early bird admission at 8 a.m. costs $10 if you want to beat the crowd. Breakfast and lunch available by the Eastern Lancaster County Sertoma Club.

This show, known as the Lancaster Show is one of the best on the East coast and is held rain, snow, or shine. It is held inside an air conditioned building. 8-foot tables are available for rent.

For information and details, contact Ron Funk (R&S Enterprises), 34 N. Vintage Rd., Paradise, PA 17562 or phone (717) 442-4279 evenings.
