

Fyock Acres

Windber, Somerset County

Mark and Roseann Fyock and their son Terry – fresh out of high school – operate this 50-cow dairy. The 100-acre home farm has been in the family for more than 100 years. Mark's father, Wayne Fyock, grew up on the property and eventually purchased the farm from his uncle. Mark began milking cows here in 1989. His father still helps out with farm chores.

The Fyocks grow corn, alfalfa, oats, and grass hay on the 200 acres of land they own. The crops provide forages for the herd and also generate additional income from hay sales.
