LEESPORT (Berks Co.) — Doug Sattazahn is wrapping up his 4-H dairy show career this season in grand fashion, exhibiting two champion cows at the Reading Dairy Show this week. Sattazahn, 18, led both his junior 2-year-old Holstein and his 4-year-old Red and White cow to overall grand championships at the new site of Reading Fair here Wednesday. Two years ago, Sattazahn traveled to the Buckeye Classic Sale In Ohio to purchase the winning Holstein, Schugs Leader Melanie. She was a calf at the time. "She has a good frame, dairy-ness, and a good, level udder," Sattazahn said of his champion. Sattazahn is a member of the Western Berks 4-H Dairy Club, and a 2003 graduate of Conrad Weiser High School. He helps on the 55-milking cow dairy of his parents Dennis and Betsy Sattazahn, Zahncroft Farm near Womelsdorf. His twin brother, David, is an avid Brown Swiss showman. Doug is enrolled at Penn State this fall, where he plans to major in dairy and animal science. Elmoak Mayo Nickey-Red is the name of Sattazahn's champion Red and White cow. Randall Zimmerman of Bernville exhibited the reserve champion Holstein, a 5-year-old cow named Ju-Vindale Highlife Casie. Zimmerman is also a member of the Western Berks 4-H Dairy Club. Other grand champion exhibitors were Kevin Buch, Ayrshire;

Colored breed champion exhibitors, with judge David Castrogiovanni (second from right), are Kevin Buch, Ayrshire; Jaylene Leshner, Jersey; Laura Leshner, Milking Shorthorn; Natalie Buch, Brown Swiss; Amber Hollowell, Guernsey; Doug Sattazahn, Red and White; and Kyle Kulp, Lineback.
