

National Broiler Market At A Glance

Atlanta, Ga.
August 13, 2003

Report Supplied By USDA

Trade sentiment was fully steady in the West, steady at best in the East depending on size, and steady elsewhere. Retail demand was light to moderate, food service was fair to good, best for fast food. Supplies were usually sufficient for trade needs; however, in the Northeast, heavier sized product was more available and often discounted. In the parts structure, wings were adequate to tight and continued to move well, and dark meat was mostly sufficient. Breast items were irregularly available, with some areas showing an increase, but others were closer balanced. In production areas, live supplies were moderate. Weights were desirable to heavy, but mostly desirable.
