

Md. Pasture Walk To Focus On Extending Beef Grazing Season

UPPER MARLBORO, Md. — A pasture walk and tour will be presented by the Maryland Grazing Lands Conservation Initiative Coalition at the Clark and George Aist beef farm Saturday, Sept. 13 from 9:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Topics to be covered on the tour of this grass-based beef farm include:

- Finishing beef on grass, by Ed Rayburn, West Virginia State University forage specialist and livestock producer;
- Season-long grazing;
- The use of traditional fescue for stockpiling;
- Healthy endophyte fescues and their establishment and management;
- The value of overseeding of clovers in pasture;
- Nutrient timing: learn when and how much fertilizer to apply on your pasture; and
- Strip grazing.

The farm is located south of Upper Marlboro at 11601 Van Brady Road.

Contact Elmer Dengler at (443) 482-2922 by September 8 if you would like to attend.
