

4-H Achievement Days

(Continued from page B15)

First place Senior Hippology team at the 4-H Achievement Days was from Indiana Co. From left, Katie Lampert, Sarah Miller, Briana Taylor, and Coach Julienne Derringer. Unavailable for photo: Janelle Hegland.

The winning team in the Horse Bowl at the 4-H Achievement Days was from Indiana Co. From left, Hannah Caldwell, Erin McKinney, Joe Risinger, and Josh Risinger.

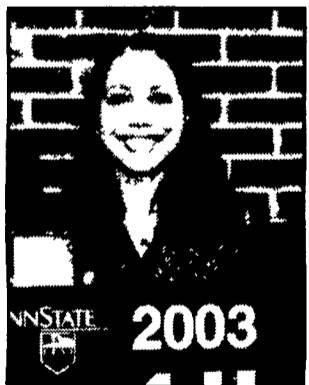

First place Junior Horse Judging team at the 4-H Achievement Days was from Cambria Co. From left, Jennifer Bogus, Beth Hartzog, Heather Heck, and Coach Nile Hartzog.

First place team in Junior Meat Grading at the 4-H Achievement Days was from York Co. From left, Eric Bankert, Zachery Schell, and Luke Warner.

High scoring individual in Junior Horse Judging at the 4-H Achievement Days: Jamie Lau, left, York Co., and her coach, Gwen Spencer.

High scoring individual in Public Speaking at the 4-H Achievement Days: Brittany Ceasing, Cambria Co.

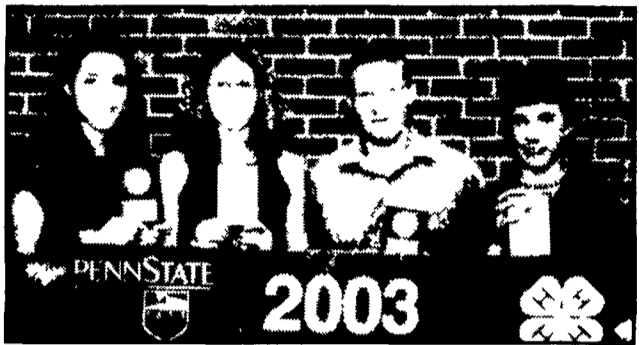

First place Textile Scientist team at the 4-H Achievement Days was from Lehigh Co. From left, Jessica Mangold, Rachel Rennie, and Renee Ruhe.

High scoring individual in Senior Horse Judging: Nicole Palumbo, left, Clearfield Co., and her coach, Billie Palumbo.

High scoring individual in the Livestock Judging Competition: Donald Sunday, York Co.

The first place Rabbit/Cavy team was from Washington Co. From left, Sabrina Bavaro, Alia Pajak, and Julie Pajak.

High scoring individual in the Canine Super Bowl competition: Kate Cobbs, left, Montgomery Co., and her coach, Lisa Guerriero.

High scoring individual in the Rabbit/Cavy competition: Sabrina Bavaro from Washington Co.

High scoring individual in the Junior Meat Judging competition: Zachary Schell, York Co.

First place Senior Livestock Judging team at the 4-H Achievement Days was from York Co. From left, Kelly Jo Bankert, Travis Flory, Herman Hake, and Donald Sunday.

The winning team in the Canine Super Bowl at the 4-H Achievement Days was from Susquehanna Co. From left, Heather Clarke, Hilary Clarke, Monica Turner, Jennifer Young, and Coach Joe Fuller.

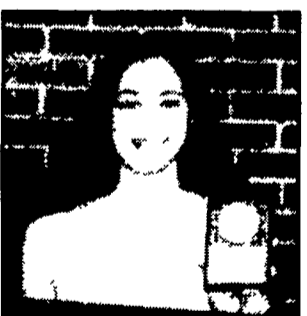

The winning team in the Avian Bowl at the 4-H Achievement Days was from Montgomery Co. From left, Kiamasha Kulp, Andrew Pullen, Kyle Rank, and coach LuAnn Pullen.

The first place Food and Nutrition team at the 4-H Achievement Days was from Westmoreland Co. From left, Gwen Falbo, Jesse Milowicki, Sara Steele, Heidi Torock, and Coach Dori Donough.

High scoring individual in the Food and Nutrition competition: Renee Norman from Tioga Co.

High scoring individual in the Textile Science competition: Erin Bensing, Lancaster Co.

High scoring individual in the Senior Hippology competition: Hayley Glass, left, from York Co., and her coach, Deb Jeffrey.

High scoring individual in the Senior Meat Judging competition: Kim Angstadt, Berks Co.

Penn State's College of Agricultural Sciences awarded seven youths with the 4-H Member Recognition Award for their excellence in leadership, communication and community service July 29 during 4-H Achievement Days. Pictured are, from left, Daney Jackson, associate director of cooperative education; Jessica Landis, Somerset Co.; Jennifer Pavlik, Beaver Co.; Emille Miller, Berks Co.; Brandy Bankert, York Co.; and Christy Bartley, state 4-H program leader. Award winners not pictured are Jennifer Adamitis, Wayne Co.; Ryan Ayers, McKean co.; and Dustin Forte, Erie Co.