Watch/Clock Museum Commemorates 9/11

COLUMBIA (Lancaster Co.) — The National Watch and Clock Museum had a free admission day, Sept. 11, to celebrate America's freedoms.

The day included special screenings of HBO's Emmy award-winning documentary "In Memoriam: New York City, 9/11/01." According to an HBO summary, the one-hour documentary follows former Mayor Rudolph W. Giuliani and the staff of city hall from their first realization of the attack, "through despair and tears, to a newfound strength that would emerge in the spirit of a new America."

The museum also showcased a special exhibit entitled Home Front to Battlefield: Keeping Time in the Civil War. Highlights of the exhibit include the first public display of the pocket watch belonging to Lt. George Dixon, captain of the Confederate submarine H.L. Hunley.
