

Pieces Of History Found In Antique Quilts

The Red Rose Quilters Guild welcomes guests to attend, for a $3 guest fee, their regular meetings. The meetings are conducted on the second Tuesday of the month at the Landis Homes Community Room, Landis Homes, Lancaster. Meetings start at 6:30 p.m. with socializing followed by a business meeting, show-and-tell, and then a featured speaker or program. There are no membership requirements excepting the annual dues of $20.

The guild averages about 120 members per year. Members receive a membership card, a subscription to the guild newsletter, and may attend all guild meetings and programs. In addition, the guild sponsors classes, bus trips, a new member tea, an annual retreat, and a mystery quilt overnight "lock-in."

The guild, which has been operating since the 1950s, has donated many quilts to charity — 258 quilts were donated by 2001. For more information e-mail redrosequilters@hotmail.com or write to Red Rose Quilters Guild of Lancaster County, NQA Guild 295 PA State Guild 17, PO Box 8684, Lancaster, PA 17604-8684.

Second Fraktur Workshop Offered

SCHAEFFERSTOWN (Lebanon Co.) — Due to popular demand a second session of the fraktur workshop will be conducted on Saturday, Nov. 22, from 1 p.m. until 3 p.m. at the Brendle Museum, 111 N. Market Street, Schaefferstown.

Learn about the Pennsylvania German art of painted greetings and documents known as fraktur. Traditional fraktur artist Carolyn Dibert of Lebanon will teach this introductory class, which will complete a holiday greeting in the fraktur style.

All materials to complete one fraktur piece and a quill pen to take home are included in the $9 fee. Members of Historic Schaefferstown receive a discount. Class size is limited to 12 people and is designed for ages 9 and up.

This is one of Historic Schaefferstown's Saturday, hands-on workshops teaching colonial era and Pennsylvania German crafts and traditions. Advance registration and payment are required by Nov. 14 for this workshop. To register, send participant's name, mailing address, phone number, and workshop fee to Historic Schaefferstown, Inc., P.O. Box 307, Schaefferstown, PA 17088.
