Gehl Returns To Farm Show

WEST BEND, Wis. — Gehl Company will be back at the Pennsylvania Farm Show this year, representing their full line of agricultural and construction equipment.

Terry Lefever, manager of shows and special events for the Wisconsin-based company, said Gehl had returned to the Farm Show this past January after a hiatus of about 15 years.

According to Lefever, reasons for Gehl's return included the new Exposition Hall, the way Farm Show management addressed equipment manufacturers as part of a renewed focus on agriculture, and the urging of local dealers.

The Gehl exhibit this year will again offer farmers the opportunity to familiarize themselves with Gehl products, including forage harvesters, mixer/feeders, mower/conditioners, skid loaders, and manure-handling equipment.

"We'll have a complete display representing our complete line of products," Lefever said.

The exhibit will also feature new offerings from Gehl, including a hay windrow merger.

Submit Pa. Holstein Futurity Entries By Dec. 15

STATE COLLEGE (Centre Co.) — The 2006 Keystone Holstein 3-year-old Futurity entries are being accepted.

The Keystone Holstein Futurity is a project of the Pennsylvania Holstein Association to stimulate interest in breeding and developing outstanding registered Holsteins for production and type regardless of individual herd size.

Three nominations are required for each animal that competes. The first payment for the 2006 Futurity is due Dec. 15. Any breeder may nominate as many heifer calves as they wish. There is a guaranteed purse of $500 to the winner.

Eligibility: Any registered Holstein female of 87 percent parentage or higher bred and born in Pennsylvania between Sept. 1, 2002 and Aug. 31, 2003 is eligible for the Keystone Holstein Futurity.

Fees: First payment of $3/head with nomination paid by Dec. 15, 2003; second payment of $11/head paid by Sept. 15, 2004; and third payment of $20/head paid by Sept. 15, 2005.

Purse: All Futurity monies will be used only for Futurity purposes. The purse in this event will be divided, with 50 percent or at least $500 being awarded to the first place animal. The remainder will be divided among those competitors who show in the 2006 Futurity Class.

Refunds: All nomination fees are committed to the purse. No refunds will be made whether an animal competes or eligibility is discontinued.

Maintaining eligibility: Eligibility after an animal has been nomiinated is maintained by making subsequent payment by due dates as specified. Any animal sold after being nominated will remain eligible, as long as the animal meets all other Pennsylvania Holstein Show eligibility requirements. The owner will be notified when payments are due. Failure to make the next payment cancels eligibility.

Entries are due for the 2006 Keystone Futurity by Dec. 15, 2003.

Send entries and payment to: Pennsylvania Holstein Association 839 Benner Pike State College, PA 16801.

For more information, contact the association at (814) 234-0364.
