

The Waynesburg Republican. WAYNESBURG, PENNA. Wednesday, Nov. 20, '67. DEMOCRACY VS. NEGRO.

The question of abandoning the negro to his enemies both North and South now seems to engage the attention of pseudo Republicans throughout the land. It is argued that necessarily the idea of giving him equal political rights must be deferred or the party that liberated him and saved the Union must perish. No elaborate reasoning is required to confront such argument. We have asserted and still maintain that the cry of reaction is not warranted because of the temporary success of our adversaries. There is nothing to prove it. No amount of figuring will wipe out the fact that the recent elections were allowed to go by unchallenged by our stay-at-home voters, partly as a rebuke to our leaders, partly from a division on local issues and more especially to secure their own continuance for the Presidency in '68. The negro is Democratic stock-in-trade and has been so years. Unwillingly we are dragged into the contest and, so the Free Press truly remarks, the Democracy expends its force and eloquence in defining him. That journal is equally true in its assertion, that Democracy's highest strain is that this is a white man's government, which is true as a matter of fact, since of thirty millions of people only four are colored. But it is wholly untrue as an argument for the exclusion of colored men from suffrage, for there has never been a time in the history of the country when they have not voted in some of the States. By incessant denunciations of "nigger equality," as well as by the most contemptible falsehoods, the Democratic party tries to inflame the hostility of race. While in the city of New York and elsewhere in the North there is no degree of hostility into which a white human being can sink so low that he is not still a good enough voter and an intelligent fellow-citizen, yet the colored man everywhere is the necessity of an inferior race, semi-civilized, a barbarian, ignorant and degraded. The staple of Democratic speeches is ridicule of the negro, or a solemn effort to prove his total incapacity for intelligent citizenship. Now we ask for a single evidence of that incapacity as a class which is not equally true of the foreign-born voters of the city of New York as a class. And we ask any man who wishes the speedy return of peace and prosperity to the country whether he trusts the statesmanship of a party which systematically excites hostility between the Irish-born and the colored population. It is the old tactics of the slaveholding oligarchy which always fostered the mutual jealousy of the poor whites and the slaves.

The Democratic party claims to be peculiarly conservative. Conservative of what? Of the great principles of liberty, of equality before the laws, of equal defenses of rights, of governments of all the people? By no means. It is merely conservative of the traditions of caste and slavery, which the country has outgrown; of class supremacy, of class legislation, of unequal laws, of governments from which half of the people are arbitrarily excluded. Of what is the Democratic party conservative? Is it of the Constitution? One of its chief candidates for the Presidency, Mr. Horatio Seymour, attacks the Senate as unjustly constituted. Is it of the national good faith and fame? The other of its Presidential candidates, Mr. Pendleton, demands reparation. It will not be denied that the most intelligent and highly civilized parts of the country are politically Republican; and the most ignorant sections Democratic. In the city of New York it can not be disputed that the parts which are the least enlightened give the heaviest Democratic majorities. Now is ignorance truly conservative? Does any body who is competent to pronounce suppose that the political majority in the city of New York represents as real a conservatism as the majority in the State of Iowa or Massachusetts?

We repeat that the policy of the Democratic party in the present situation of the country is founded upon bitter hostility to a part of the population, and upon disregard of the principles of the Constitution and of public honor. It is conservative in no other sense whatever than that of the old Tory conservatism in England which protested that to abolish the death penalty for stealing a leg of mutton was to sweep away the bulwarks of the Constitution. Its whole course is a series of tactics for getting into power. There is no evidence any where of a serious desire to deal fairly with the pressing questions of the country. The only thing everywhere apparent is that it has changed no opinions, that it holds as strongly as ever to the spirit of the Virginia and Kentucky resolutions of '98; that it honors and trusts most the men who were the most subservient to the domination of slavery in the government; and that it wholly and contemptuously denies that government should rest upon the expressed consent of the governed. Should it return to power we must expect every question settled by the war to be reopened. We must anticipate repudiation and a commercial convulsion such as no country ever experienced. We must be prepared for a policy toward the freedmen upon which the civilized world would cry shame. The success of the Democratic party would be the restoration of the rebellion to power.

THE Democratic President makers are seriously looking about them for some one who is willing to endure the martyrdom of a nomination. McClellan, Seymour, Pendleton, Vallandigham, Sherman, and yet others, are spoken of, with the chances in favor of Pendleton. They will have a hard time in making a decision. All with the exception of Sherman are eligible so far as record goes. He, having been engaged in the war on the Union side, and having warred so effectively, too, would be nauseating to the radical and rebel wing of the party. They cannot consistently choose him nor any man that has a corresponding war record. Pendleton is undoubtedly the man. He who in his political career "never voted a man or a dollar to sustain the war." That is the idea exactly and should be incorporated in their next platform. Either of the others would do for the Vice-Presidency, but a thoroughly Democratic ticket cannot be made out without Ohio Val., the prince of Copperheads, unless the Ohio Legislature appease him with the Senatorship. Shape it as they may, it is easy to foresee that defeat only awaits them if they fight the battle on cardinal principles.

ARE YOU DOING IT? Republicans are you laboring for the success of our principles? With the sting of defeat yet ranking in your bosoms do you still consecrate yourselves to the demon Apathy? Remember the tortoise was the race if this antagonist sleeps.

More than one half of the Republicans in our country are not subscribers to their local organ, and but few of the opposite party have the advantages of reading sound political doctrine. Show them we are not afraid to contest our views in the light of truth and reason, by placing the REPUBLICAN or other genuine reading in the hands of every voter. Do it now, let them have time for thought. Republicanism follows Intelligence and Reflection as certain as effect follows cause.

THE PUBLIC DEBT. It appears that during October the Treasury Department has issued $14,000,000 of Five Per Cent. Bonds, called Ten-Forties. Since the publication of the Debt, Secretary McCulloch has announced that there will be no further sale of this class of securities by the Government for the present.

The contraction of Legal Tenders has been up to the full amount allowed by law—four millions of dollars—and fourteen million of Compound Legal Tenders, also, have been cancelled.

The most important feature of the report, however, is the amount of Floating Debt which has been turned into long obligations. Of all this class of securities there are but two kinds now afloat—the last two series of Seven-thirties. Of these issues, which amounted to five hundred and thirty millions of dollars, about two hundred millions have been converted into 5-20s, and the remaining ones are being redeemed at the rate of one million per day.

The amount of debt bearing coin interest was Nov. 1st, $1,778,110,991; bearing currency interest, $426,768,640; bearing no interest, $133,948,399; matured debt not presented for payment, $18,237,538. Amount of debt, less cash in treasury, $2,491,504,450. Reduction since last statement, $3,782,996.

CONGRESS meets on the 21st of November. This is only the continuation of the last session by an adjournment. The first regular session commences on the first Monday of December being the 2d day. The President's Message and the Department Reports will probably not be presented till the regular session commences. Attorney Gen'l, Stanberry has unofficially declared that the session is unconstitutional.

It is estimated that one million and a half of souls have been sacrificed on this continent to the demon of Slavery. For Slavery substitute its synonym Democracy and then contemplate the fearful peril that overshadows the country in the success of its advocates.

NEW YORK CITY ELECTION. The New York Citizen, edited by Col. Halpine, ("Miles O'Reilly") a staunch Democrat, discloses the following relative to the recent election:

"It is notorious that the organization, utterly unscrupulous, and with uncontrolled access to the City Treasury, must have spent an aggregate of not less than $300,000 of private and public money in the recent contest. All the pay-rolls of the city departments for the past two months have been lengthened and strengthened by thousands upon thousands of sincere 'inspectors' and other place-holders—assigned to nominal duty, but really with no other charge than to elector for the candidates.

"It is notorious, also, that with the enormous money power thus placed under its control, there was an enormous illegal or 'repeating' vote organized and registered—say not less than from 17,000 to 20,000 fraudulent votes—of which not less than from 10,000 to 12,000 reached the ballot-box; the remainder being either scared off by the activity and early arrests of the police, or being unable, from sheer lack of time between sunrise and sunset, to vote in as many election districts as they were registered in—one case having been trustworthily reported to us of a man who was registered in no less than 58 election districts!

Men elected by this means would administer and make laws to suit themselves. This accounts for the squandering of public funds in that State. The principal Senators are of the ring; the Assemblymen are from the grog shops, and there are several prize-fighters among the elect. But they are all Democrats, and that covers the whole as with a cloak.

An important practical question bearing on the trial of Jefferson Davis will be whether the jurors shall be drawn from the white population only, or from the entire population of the county, irrespective of color. In the former case, a jury of ex-rebels may safely be expected. In the latter case, the jury would be likely to contain Union men. The trial of Jefferson Davis, for leading the rebellion in behalf of Slavery, should be before a jury made up in part of freedmen, if only for the historic justice not to say the dramatic beauty and harmony, of such a denouement.—Horace Greeley.

There has been too much "dramatic beauty and harmony" depicted in this travesty already. The "dramatic beauty" has been the fire, smoke and carnage that lit our hundreds of battlefields. "Harmony" to the tune of $2,500,000,000 expended by the nation, mingled with the wallings of the bereaved. It is time the curtains should fall upon the scene.

THE Republican party has had no control over the executive department of the Government since the murder of Lincoln. It is the easiest matter in the world for its enemies to attribute the shortcomings of the Administration to the party in power. It is capital to magnify and dwell upon the wrongs and burdens endured, and all the more agreeable because it can be done over our shoulders. The prudent man will at once detect the purpose of these scheming plunderers and whilst he will hold Congress in some measure responsible, he will not fail to charge the real grievances to their proper authors—the Democracy.

"MARYLAND REDEEMED." Among the telegraphic dispatches of the Philad. Daily News of the 5th, (a Johnson paper) we find the following:

"BALTIMORE, Nov. 4.—Mayor Banks is to be inaugurated at noon to-day, when Mayor Chapman retires, handing over to him the books, great seal, etc. Large crowds will attend the inauguration.

Captain William Robinson, of the Confederate army, will be his private secretary, and Hon. John L. Thomas having resigned the office of City Solicitor under Chapman, William H. Harris, who was judge advocate of the military courts under Jefferson Davis, is to have the important position.

Such are the fruits of the "Democratic" victories, over which the papers of that party in this State are now shouting so lustily.

GEN. McCLELLAN did not return to this country in the Scotia. Private business will detain him in Paris until spring. Public business will keep him out of the White House longer than that.

THE STATE GUARD, is the name of a new paper to be started next month, at Harrisburg. The editorial managers are J. Robley Dunglison and Wien Forney, publisher Levi Kaufmann. It is to be Republican in politics.

"A. J." was sermoad last week and responded with four pages of fool-cap. The only extemporary remark he made was, "Good night, God bless you!" Like the old drone that doles out blessings from the Vatican he is hated and pitied.

THAD. STEVENS has written a letter favoring the payment of government bonds in greenbacks and denunciation of National Banks. This unexpected alliance of the "old Commoner" with his opponents will create new apprehensions on the subject. However, it is the opinion of but one man, and displays a spirit of independence we rather like.

PRENTISS says Brownlow may go to the Upper House in this world, but in the next he will go to the lower. To which the Fort Wayne (Ind.) Gazette retorts: "We presume so; he has always been found in the midst of Democrats, fighting them."

TWENTY deaths have resulted from the recent explosion in Pittsburgh. More than $5,700 has been subscribed for the sufferers. The Smoky City sustains the good name gained her during the war.

THE subject of converting the common grounds of Allegheny into public parks is being agitated again by the citizens of the different corporations with some show of success.

THE WEST STEADY. The reports from Wisconsin, says the Missouri Democrat, indicate a Republican majority of about six thousand, against about ten thousand at the last gubernatorial election. In Minnesota, again, the Republican majority is larger than it was at the last State election; it was then about three thousand, and reports now claim five thousand perhaps more. In Chicago, the election on Tuesday resulted in a Republican majority of 3,979, against 3,933 at the city election, the Republicans gaining also in the council. In St. Louis, the election of Radical county judges shows a Radical gain since the vote of last fall, and in the Third district the negro returns received give hope of the election of a Radical in the district carried last fall by a large majority by the conservatives. Kansas also elects Republicans, though by a reduced majority, while Iowa, Nebraska and Colorado, it will be remembered, show Republican gains.

On the whole, then, the reaction does not prevail to any extent in the Northwest. Solid votes, stately ranks, majorities undiminished or increased, are the rule with the sturdy Republicans in this section, and if, in any locality, losses have appeared, they are due to exceptional causes, or to that over confidence which frequently loses elections of minor consequence. The reaction is an Eastern plant; it does not thrive in the Northwest.

A SINGULAR spectacle, remarks the Har. Telegraph, will shortly be before the world. Jeff Davis, a traitor to free government, who warred for five years to perpetuate slavery, will be on trial for treason in the new world. Garibaldi, a friend of freedom and equality, who had just opened his first battle to secure the nationality of his country, and who was arrested there, will be up for trial for treason in the old world. Davis shed oceans of blood in a cause whose success would have been death to freedom. Garibaldi was just beginning the fight for the right. The tyrants of the world hope for Davis' release while they plot for Garibaldi's death. Another dispatch from Europe says that Garibaldi will not be tried, but that he and his two sons will be exiled to the United States. If this be true, the heroes will receive the grandest welcome any people ever accorded to patriotic men.

SAYS the Harrisburg Telegraph, the funding of the national debt, and the extension of the time for its general liquidation is now being thoroughly discussed in financial circles. It is proposed to consolidate the debt, bring it all under a uniform rate of interest, and then provide, by a judicious and equal system of taxation, for its future payment. Any measure to secure this debt will of course be popular with the people. The idea of immediate liquidation was never feasible. The present generation made the sacrifice of limb and life to secure the Union and Government, so that it is as little as future generations can do to pay the debts incurred to save the nation.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Of a boy about twelve years of age, rather slender of his years, with black eyes, dark hair, and had on a suit of very dark gray, home made flannel, a low crowned black hat, stiff brim, and calf-skin high shoes. He left the home of his parents in Salem township, Westmoreland county on the 21st of October, and is supposed to have made his way toward Pittsburgh. He is a smart boy a pretty good scholar for his years. His distressed parents will thankfully receive any information of him addressed to A. M. WOLF, Salem X Roads, Pa.

ON the 7th a terrible hurricane devastated the southern portion of the island of Porto Rico, one of the West Indies. Two hundred lives were lost and four thousand families rendered destitute. Provisions were to be landed free of duty for two months. Tortola a small island—containing forty-eight square miles—was submerged by the flood, which followed the wind storm, and ten thousand lives are reported to have been lost. The loss to the steam ship company at St. Thomas—also occasioned by the hurricane—will reach twelve millions of dollars.

THE cost of the original Capitol at Washington city was $400,000. The additions; now nearly completed, will cost $12,000,000.

THE Southerners are delighted with what they call the reaction. Progress and reform are dead ducks to them now and their jubilees are long and deep. One Southern paper is so impressed with the belief that all progress has stopped, but retrogression has begun, that it openly changes its grammar and spelling and now spells music, music, honor, honor, and says, the editor, his leader, instead of the editor's leader. Would it not be well to call the self-styled Democrat's retrogressors.—Pitts. Gazette.

It is proposed to hold a national convention of manufacturers (of all kinds) at Cleveland, Ohio, on Wednesday December 18, to plan for joint action for the early repeal by Congress of internal taxes on manufactures and productions, except luxuries. This step is taken to meet a wide desire for the relief of our productive industry from heavy burthens which are redeemed wholly unnecessary.

MR. EDWARD M. MCCOKE, Consul at Honolulu, writes to the Secretary of State, affirming that all that has been said in favor of the climate and the resources of Sitka is true; that the temperature is mild, the soil good, the fisheries abundant and remunerative, and the lumber good and inexhaustible. Sailing vessels have gone from Honolulu and from San Francisco to Sitka in ten days, and returned in equal time.

It is authoritatively announced, that at the termination of the present brief tour of the Tom Thumb troupe, the renowned Commodore Nutt (of twenty five pounds) will lead to the altar the sweet little Minnie Warren (of twenty pounds). Their united fortunes, accumulated by their public exhibitions within six years, are said to amount to a quarter of a million of dollars.

THE Philadelphia North American well remarks that "General Grant has set an example that Congress would do well to imitate. He applied the pruning knife boldly, and kept off excesses and done a great deal of good work. Every million thus saved is so much surplus to be applied to the contraction of the principle of the interest-bearing debt."

THE Copperheads began to crow over the late elections in West Virginia; "but that was before they were out of the woods." The Republicans have increased their strength in the State Senate, and hold their last year's vote of four to one in the House. We like such Republican defeats.

WASHINGTON, November 16.—A formal petition for the pardon of Dr. Samuel A. Mudd, now confined at the Fort Tompkins, as one of the conspirators in the murder of Mr. Lincoln, will shortly be presented to the President. It is believed that a number of prominent citizens of the North will sign it.

TEXAS is fast filling up with German emigrants who seek that State to engage in grazing large herds of cattle. If the unimportant traitors do not molest this industrious German population, Texas will soon become one of the most prosperous sections of the country.

HORSE meat is decidedly becoming the fashion. Two new horse butcheries have been opened in Paris—one in the Rue Navarin and another in the Rue de Commerce. They have now eighteen shops entirely devoted to the sale of this new food.—Chronicle.

THE Tribune predicts that George H. Pendleton must inevitably be the next Democratic candidate for the Presidency. The party, elated by its success this year, feels strong enough to take up a man after its own heart, instead of a cold-blooded, undecided leader like McClellan.

THE Memphis Post says that about the doors of every corner grocery in the country towns in that region may be found a half a score of men, smoking cob pipes, and demanding vehemently, "Where the dash shall we get labor to raise our cotton?"

THREE thousand emigrants arrived at New York last week. Total, since January last, two hundred thousand.

PROSPECTS: 1868

THE PITTSBURG GAZETTE.

The largest daily paper in the State of Pennsylvania, enters the business of the year with increased facilities for disseminating the current news of the day, and for rendering good political service in an important Presidential campaign of 1868. The forthcoming session of Congress promises to give us one of the most important bills since the formation of the Government, and the proceedings will be carefully watched by the public. The Gazette will be in view of the deep interest centered in the proceedings, the most complete and accurate of the most important bills for daily dispatches and letters during the session, from a daily intelligent correspondent, who enjoys the confidence and friendship of the leading members of the Senate and the House of Representatives, and the leading politicians who frequent Washington, so that readers can depend on receiving the best, fullest, and most reliable intelligence from the seat of Government.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE has been enlarged to the same size of the Daily, and is now the largest, cheapest and best weekly family newspaper in the State. It should be in the home of every farmer, mechanic and business man. It gives more news, more columns of current news by telegraph and mail, the leading editorials of the day, and a choice selection of literary and scientific treatises, together with every thing important pertaining to the world of politics. Its agricultural columns will be edited in such a manner as to favor the farmer and gardener, and the market reports of the WEEKLY GAZETTE, by continuous connection, acknowledge to be the standard authority for both farmers and sellers, and in commercial circles in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and Western Virginia are without equal. The price of the WEEKLY GAZETTE, per annum, in advance, is $1.00. It is sent by mail, free of charge, to subscribers in the State of Pennsylvania, and to those in other States, on receipt of the price in advance. It is published every week, except on Sundays and public holidays.
