NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The attention of our readers is specially directed to the following advertisements, which appear for the first time in our paper to-day.

Administrator's Notice.—Jno. M. Kent, Auditor's Notice.—D. R. H. Jones, To Farmers and Others.—T. J. Bingham & Co.

Mon. Nat. Co.—W. Bakewell, 1808—Pittsburgh Branch, Notice in Bankruptcy.—L. W. Jones.

LEAF YEAR.—The first day of January, which, it is probable, all well-informed folks are aware, began leap year. During that year the ladies claim the privilege of "popping the question" to bashful swains, who, though they are generally dying to do it, always get a fit of what is commonly called the "Buck Age" about that time. We don't speak from experience in this matter, for we have never "been there," but get our knowledge direct from those who have. Waynesburg, like all other cities and towns of its size and pretensions, contains its share of ambitious and well-to-do young men, who are anxious to pay the board and buy the clothes of the young lady "as long as they both shall live," anxious to feed a gal in order that she may sit at the head of his table and sew his shirt buttons on, and it is to be expected that there are young ladies in this place who are just as anxious to fill such situations. We hope these gentle damsels will not neglect the opportunity thus afforded them. Remember it only comes like a Presidential election, once in four years.

This way to avoid many of the thousand ills the human family is heir to, is to drop into M. C. & H. Bell's, Sayer's corner, and get yourself a pair of their nice, cheap and durable water-proof Boots or shoes, and keep your feet dry this sloppy weather. If you think you can't afford a new pair, get a pair of gums and put over the old ones.

PHENIX JOKES.—The number of this excellent journal for January contains much of interest to everyone. Fowler & Wells, Publishers, New York.

LOST AT LAST.—Frank McGurran, can supply his many customers with the best Dry Goods, etc., not having permitted his stock to run down.

THE INSTITUTE.—The first Annual Teachers' Institute held in this County under the requirements of the law, convened here on the 31st ult., and continued in session days and evenings until Saturday noon last. A large number of teachers were present from all parts of the county and not a few from adjoining counties. Among these were S. S. Jack, State lecturer, Prof. J. C. Glick, Superintendent of Washington County, C. W. Wane, Superintendent of Fayette County, and others who contributed immeasurably to the interest and enjoyment of the occasion. Office duties prohibited the pleasure we should have experienced in being present throughout the entire proceedings, merely being granted the privilege of attending two nights. And if the exercises of these two evenings may be cited as criteria of the Institute could be justly characterized as a "feast of reason and flow of soul." The College Chapel was full to repletion, notwithstanding the inclement weather and the muddy condition of streets and sidewalks. Exercises in music, reading, recitation, practical remarks and a lecture made up the programme. A happy spirit prevailed and everything passed off with marked good humor and relish. A feature not the least enjoyable was the sermon given the guests of the Institute in the Literary Societies' halls, on Thursday evening after the regular proceedings in the chapel. With promenade and chat about two or three hours pleasantly passed. But an inadequate idea of the "doings" of the Institute is all we can give, the full report, we trust, will be handed us in time for next week's issue. We have a word to say in commendation of the worthy efforts of our county Superintendent, Mr. T. J. Teal. Although several able men who he assured the public would be present, failed to appear, yet the array of talent presented was creditable in the extreme and the gentleman whose services were so kindly proffered, and rendered, won hosts of friends among the citizens of our place and county. Mr. Teal has a heart in the work and will return principal and interest for every cent expended.

FIRE AT CLARKSVILLE.—We learn from the Washington Review, that about half past three on the morning of the 25th ultimo, the wagon maker shop of Michael Arnold, in Clarksville, this county, was discovered to be on fire. The fire had made such headway, that not even his books, or a new wagon in the building could be saved. The flames spread to the dwelling of Mr. A., and there was barely time to remove furniture, etc., before it was also burned. Mr. Arnold's loss is not less than $1,800, upon which there is no insurance. This is a severe loss upon an industrious and deserving mechanic, and we are glad to be able to state that Mr. Arnold is already prepared to carry on his business in all its departments. This manly energy should secure a liberal patronage.

MED.—Is the staple product of our streets. It is a fine, heterogeneous conglomeration, cultivated by the Town Council and not restricted by side walks from attaining luxurious growth. We have none for export, the home demand exhausting the supply.

ANOTHER GRETNA GREEN.—Esquire Mayes, of West Alexander, Washington Co., Pa., since his election to office in May, 1892, has married 340 couples. The father of the worthy husband, during a period of 56 years as a Justice of the Peace in the same village, married 930 couples. The Washington Reporter asks, is not West Alexander our Gretna Green? And Esquire Mayes a second Paisley?

APPOINTED.—Mr. Ayers L. Myers, of this place has received the appointment of Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue, for this county, in D. E. A. White dec'd. The gentleman has entered upon the duties of the office. Possessing the ability, we doubt not, he will fill it satisfactorily for all parties.

DIED.—MOSS—December 18th, 1892, of Typhoid fever, Mrs. Eleanor Moss, wife of Jennings J. Moss, of Allepo Tp., Greene Co., Pa., in the fifty-eighth year of her age.

AFFIRMATION.—The inclination of the boxes around the shade trees, on the square, to re-cline upon the bosom of Mother Earth.

The plan of the Washington Library Company of Philadelphia, for the enjoyment of the Riverside Institute for Soldiers and Sailors Orphan, is one that has been laid out in strict accordance with the terms of the charter as granted for this purpose by the Legislature of Pennsylvania. This charter of the Washington Library Company legalizes the very acts which its members are performing for this noble object. The plan, as most of our readers are aware, consists in selling stock at $1 per share, each share or shares being accompanied by a handsome fine steel-plate engraving, worth fifty per cent. more than is actually paid for the stock. Besides this, every share of stock secures one present in the great distribution of presents to shareholders. Of these presents the aggregate value is $300,000, one of them being worth the enormous sum of $40,000, and another $30,000, another $25,000 each, several worth $1,000 each, and so on. This is simply the plan in brief as adopted and presented to the public. Every shareholder will obtain some present in the great distribution, besides the beautiful engraving at the time of purchase, and each one has an equal chance of getting a small fortune.

ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—For January this journal is unusually interesting. It contains useful knowledge on many subjects. Letters of Travel in Europe by Bayard Taylor. Parson's "Ritzburg," a picturesque delineation of the wonders and sights in and around Iron city. The last article is worth ten times the price of the Magazine. Ticknor & Fields, Boston.

NEW POST OFFICE.—A new Post office has been erected in Gilmore Tp., this county, called "Tom's Run," and Jacob Lough, Esq., appointed Post Master.

THE JURY COMMISSIONERS met on Monday last to select Jurymen for the coming year.

Why can we not have the street lamps lighted these dark nights? Why?

SIX PA.—Painters—Preachers—

Players—Printers and Politicians—all suffer from Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaints, and all diseases which they may cure or prevent by the use of Platanus Bitters. If those sufferers took these Bitters, the Poetry would be purer, the Paintings grander, the Sermons livelier, the Acting truer, the Printing neater, and the Politics homelier. This splendid tonic invigorates the system, and enables the brain to work healthily.

Perhaps no article was ever so well endorsed by all who have used it.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—A delightful toilet article—superior to Cologne and at half the price.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On the 19th ult., Mr.

Hugh Hamilton, of Springhill Tp., this county, was killed on the road near Oron's schoolhouse, Wayne Tp. Mr. Hamilton, as we are informed, in company with his son, both deeply intoxicated, were driving a two-horse wagon and at the place mentioned, ran off the road, the fatality injuring the father and severely wounding the son. He leaves a large family.

The circumstance is a deplorable one and a sad commentary upon the evil of Intemperance.

NICE.—That New Years gift of a half bushel of apples. "All hands" at the Republican return thanks.

THE pike (so-called) is in a horrible condition in places East of town. Toll should cease to be collected until repairs are made.

Married.

NOTICES OF Marriages and Deaths inserted free of all Tributes of Respect and Obituaries charged eight cents a line. The money must be advanced to secure their insertion.

JORDAN-STOY.—On the 25, ult., by Rev.

Dr. Sloan, Mr. Jno. J. Stoy, of Washington

Co., and Miss Kate E. Jordan, of this place.

All are extended the happy pair in acknowledgment of the splendid cake sent us.

McDONALD—ROSEBERRY—Dec. 15, by

Jas. Call, Esq., Mr. Henry McDonald and

Miss Sarah Roseberry, both of Jackson Tp., of this county.

STEWART—SHAW—Dec. 22nd, inst., by the same, Mr. Andrew Stewart, and Miss Elizabeth Shaw, both of Centre Tp., this Co.

MORDECK—RANDOLPH—By Rev. J. S.

Gibson, Dec. 17th, 1892, Mr. George Mordock, to Miss Emily A. Randolph, both of Greene County, Pa.

Died.

MOSS—December 18th, 1892, of Typhoid fever, Mrs. Eleanor Moss, wife of Jennings J.

Moss, of Allepo Tp., Greene Co., Pa., in the fifty-eighth year of her age.
