

The Waynesburg Republican.

UNION REPUBLICAN TICKET. STATE. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL: J. F. Hartman. FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL: Jacob M. Campbell.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION. The Delegates elected by the several Townships in this County will meet in Convention at the "GREENE HOUSE," in Waynesburg, on the 17th DAY OF APRIL NEXT, Tuesday of Course.

"ALL HUNKEY-DORA!"

This is the cock that crowed in the morn: That roused the Rebels all forenoon: To tear the bands with bugle and horn That wakened the Yankees.

Have You Heard from New Hampshire!

GOOD NEWS AND TRUE!

"THE CONSTITUTION AND THE FLAG" IN GOOD HANDS!

Congress Sustained, The President Condemned!

3500 MAJORITY FOR THE REPUBLICANS!

"BULL-EE!" SET 'EM UP!"

Here this, no doubt, nearly every loyal heart in the land has been made glad by the joyous news of last Thursday's victory in New Hampshire.

It is great cause for rejoicing, voiced in the proper light. Being the largest vote ever polled in that State.

It is great cause for rejoicing, voiced in the proper light. Being the largest vote ever polled in that State. We have made a gain at a time least expected.

The significance of our victory is doubly great when the intelligence of these 7500 voters is taken into consideration.

Mr. Seymour, in his recent speech to the New York Democratic Convention, gives Pendleton and his rag currency doctrine a blow between the eyes that will completely unfit him for the Presidential office.

Mr. Seymour, in his recent speech to the New York Democratic Convention, gives Pendleton and his rag currency doctrine a blow between the eyes that will completely unfit him for the Presidential office.

Mr. Seymour, in his recent speech to the New York Democratic Convention, gives Pendleton and his rag currency doctrine a blow between the eyes that will completely unfit him for the Presidential office.

Mr. Seymour, in his recent speech to the New York Democratic Convention, gives Pendleton and his rag currency doctrine a blow between the eyes that will completely unfit him for the Presidential office.

Mr. Seymour, in his recent speech to the New York Democratic Convention, gives Pendleton and his rag currency doctrine a blow between the eyes that will completely unfit him for the Presidential office.

Mr. Seymour, in his recent speech to the New York Democratic Convention, gives Pendleton and his rag currency doctrine a blow between the eyes that will completely unfit him for the Presidential office.

Mr. Seymour, in his recent speech to the New York Democratic Convention, gives Pendleton and his rag currency doctrine a blow between the eyes that will completely unfit him for the Presidential office.

THE CAPITAL.

The Impedimental Situation Congress Ready for the Trial—Attorney General Stanbery's Resignation—How it is Mr. Johnson's Chief Counsel.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 12.—Everything is in readiness on the part of Congress to-night for beginning the impeachment trial to-morrow.

The managers on the part of the House were in session all day. They examined the President's private secretary and two newspaper correspondents, the main object being to find out how far Mr. Johnson had gone in declining to recognize Mr. Stanton and in recognizing Mr. Thomas as Secretary of War.

Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, further replied on the part of the managers, and expressed surprise that so able counsel should construe the rule as they had done.

There was an uneasy feeling over a large part of the audience. It began to look as if needless delay in the trial would yet be caused by the President's party, and this feeling was somewhat strengthened by the order submitted by Mr. Edwards as a substitute for the President's request.

Upon this Governor Morton immediately moved that the Senate retire to the marble room and be absent two hours and ten minutes.

IMPEACHMENT.

Return day of the summons—The Senate Chamber Through—Arranged in the Senate Chamber—Solemnity of the Opening Proceedings—Andrew Johnson Called to Appear—His Attorney Answers for Him—Forty Days Asked for Preparation—Ten Days Granted by the Court—When the Trial Shall Commence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 12, 1863.—The galleries were opened at ten o'clock and at eleven nearly all the holders of tickets were present.

Precisely at 1 o'clock Mr. Wade vacated the chair for the Chief Justice who took it, and directed the Sergeant-at-Arms to make the proclamation, which, though now so familiar to the country, still sounds strange and solemn here.

While reading the Journal was in progress, the managers appeared at the outer door of the Senate, and waited until it was finished.

The statement that almost every circumstance of the trial is without precedent has already become an old story, and yet as these successively arise they fix the attention of all.

This was succeeded by a general quiet and all eyes were turned to the door leading towards the President's room, as if Mr. Johnson would possibly appear in person.

At the head of the table of the House managers sat Mr. Bingham, facing the President's counsel; to his left, along the table, were Boutwell, Wilson and Stevens in the order named, and on his right Logan, Williams and Butler.

At this point the speaker of the House, accompanied by his officers, and followed by a majority of the members appeared at the bar.

At this point the speaker of the House, accompanied by his officers, and followed by a majority of the members appeared at the bar.

ing the body, as so many had come in advance no one expected their formal appearance. Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, however advancing to the bar called out in an under tone heard all over the Chamber.

The Chief Justice then directed the counsel for the President to put in their reply to the articles, whereupon Mr. Stanbery exhibited authority for the President and in his name announced the following named counsel, to wit: Henry Stanbery, J. S. Black, Wm. M. Everts, B. S. Curtis, and Thomas A. Nelson.

Mr. Bingham, on the part of the managers, in brief remarks, maintained that under the rule adopted, a plea must be entered and the trial proceed.

To this Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, further replied on the part of the managers, and expressed surprise that so able counsel should construe the rule as they had done.

There was an uneasy feeling over a large part of the audience. It began to look as if needless delay in the trial would yet be caused by the President's party.

Upon this Governor Morton immediately moved that the Senate retire to the marble room and be absent two hours and ten minutes.

IMPEACHMENT.

Return day of the summons—The Senate Chamber Through—Arranged in the Senate Chamber—Solemnity of the Opening Proceedings—Andrew Johnson Called to Appear—His Attorney Answers for Him—Forty Days Asked for Preparation—Ten Days Granted by the Court—When the Trial Shall Commence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 12, 1863.—The galleries were opened at ten o'clock and at eleven nearly all the holders of tickets were present.

Precisely at 1 o'clock Mr. Wade vacated the chair for the Chief Justice who took it, and directed the Sergeant-at-Arms to make the proclamation, which, though now so familiar to the country, still sounds strange and solemn here.

While reading the Journal was in progress, the managers appeared at the outer door of the Senate, and waited until it was finished.

The statement that almost every circumstance of the trial is without precedent has already become an old story, and yet as these successively arise they fix the attention of all.

This was succeeded by a general quiet and all eyes were turned to the door leading towards the President's room, as if Mr. Johnson would possibly appear in person.

At the head of the table of the House managers sat Mr. Bingham, facing the President's counsel; to his left, along the table, were Boutwell, Wilson and Stevens in the order named, and on his right Logan, Williams and Butler.

At this point the speaker of the House, accompanied by his officers, and followed by a majority of the members appeared at the bar.

At this point the speaker of the House, accompanied by his officers, and followed by a majority of the members appeared at the bar.

men of New Hampshire, unanswered by influence and unbought by gain, have caused the wires to dance with joy to-night to every loyal heart from ocean to ocean.

The Chief Justice then directed the counsel for the President to put in their reply to the articles, whereupon Mr. Stanbery exhibited authority for the President and in his name announced the following named counsel, to wit: Henry Stanbery, J. S. Black, Wm. M. Everts, B. S. Curtis, and Thomas A. Nelson.

Mr. Bingham, on the part of the managers, in brief remarks, maintained that under the rule adopted, a plea must be entered and the trial proceed.

To this Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, further replied on the part of the managers, and expressed surprise that so able counsel should construe the rule as they had done.

There was an uneasy feeling over a large part of the audience. It began to look as if needless delay in the trial would yet be caused by the President's party.

Upon this Governor Morton immediately moved that the Senate retire to the marble room and be absent two hours and ten minutes.

IMPEACHMENT.

Return day of the summons—The Senate Chamber Through—Arranged in the Senate Chamber—Solemnity of the Opening Proceedings—Andrew Johnson Called to Appear—His Attorney Answers for Him—Forty Days Asked for Preparation—Ten Days Granted by the Court—When the Trial Shall Commence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 12, 1863.—The galleries were opened at ten o'clock and at eleven nearly all the holders of tickets were present.

Precisely at 1 o'clock Mr. Wade vacated the chair for the Chief Justice who took it, and directed the Sergeant-at-Arms to make the proclamation, which, though now so familiar to the country, still sounds strange and solemn here.

While reading the Journal was in progress, the managers appeared at the outer door of the Senate, and waited until it was finished.

The statement that almost every circumstance of the trial is without precedent has already become an old story, and yet as these successively arise they fix the attention of all.

This was succeeded by a general quiet and all eyes were turned to the door leading towards the President's room, as if Mr. Johnson would possibly appear in person.

At the head of the table of the House managers sat Mr. Bingham, facing the President's counsel; to his left, along the table, were Boutwell, Wilson and Stevens in the order named, and on his right Logan, Williams and Butler.

At this point the speaker of the House, accompanied by his officers, and followed by a majority of the members appeared at the bar.

At this point the speaker of the House, accompanied by his officers, and followed by a majority of the members appeared at the bar.

overthrowing the Government solely by the wise and patriotic stand taken by a loyal Congress.

Resolved, That we add our voice to the loud acclaim in favor of Ulysses S. Grant as the Republican candidate for President of the United States, and in so doing we feel that we are not simply responding to the wishes of our constituents, or helping to pay a portion of the debt we owe to that great soldier; but that we are preparing the way for that substantial triumph which, while perpetuating the Republican party, preserves and perpetuates the Republic's creeds.

Resolved, That we earnestly call upon the Senate of the United States sitting as a Court of Impeachment, to proceed without fear, favor, or affection. And that the people of Pennsylvania will stand by and maintain the just judgment of the law.

Resolved, That the soldiers and sailors of the Union who fought and conquered armed rebellion in the field and stand true to the principles which they vindicated and the flag which floated over them and led them to victory, are entitled to the undying gratitude of all loyal people.

Resolved, That we tender our most cordial thanks to the Hon. Edwin M. Stanton for the firmness, courage and patriotism, with which he has maintained the majesty of the law and the rights of the people against the attempted invasion of a faithless Executive and his purchased instruments.

Resolved, That as experience is alike the best instructor of men and nations, so the experience of the Rebellion has given us renewed confidence in the pledges and precepts of the Declaration of Independence, and that with these as our guiding stars, the Republican party must always succeed.

Resolved, That the purity of the ballot-box should be carefully guarded as of vital importance to the best interests of the country, and that this Convention deem a just and impartial registry law to be necessary to protect from the astounding frauds which have heretofore been perpetrated.

Resolved, That no contrast so eloquent could be presented as that between the loud professions of Andrew Johnson and the silent patriotism of Ulysses S. Grant, that as the one deals in promises to deceive, the other deals in acts that convince; and that, while Johnson has fallen rapidly away from his many voluntary covenants, Grant has accepted equal justice and radical Republicanism as a part alike of conscience and of duty.

Resolved, That we cordially endorse the administration of State affairs by Governor John W. Geary, in which he has proved himself efficient in the cabinet as in the field, an able and successful statesman since the war, as he was an able and successful general during the war, and he merits the confidence of the people of Pennsylvania, and we pledge him the continued support of the Republican party of the State.

Resolved, That the public debt incurred for the purpose of preserving the existence of the nation, is a sacred obligation, binding the people to its payment in the utmost good faith, and to the full extent of its legal requirements. That the greatest prudence, judgment and skill are requisite, and should, as far as attainable, be employed at once to maintain the public faith and credit, and render the burden, of which no loyal citizen should complain, as light as practicable upon the productive industry of the country and the wages and proceeds of labor.

Resolved, That it is the dictate of the soundest policy, as well as of the greatest wisdom, that the domestic industry of the country should be sustained and protected against foreign competition by adequate tariff laws, and that in whatever particulars the existing laws on the subject are defective, they should be amended and made efficient for that purpose, as well as for the purpose of raising revenue for the Government.

Resolved, That by the election of Gen. Grant to the Presidency all domestic discussions and factions opposition to the complete Reconstruction of the Union, on the firm foundations laid by wise and judicious legislation of Congress, will be immediately suppressed and harmony and good feeling restored, settled relations of business established, and the revival and improvement of all the disturbed sources of national wealth and prosperity will be secured, when it is once made manifest that the people of this country are firmly fixed in their determination that the fruit of the late bloody and obstinate struggle shall not be lost, and that the factious and rebellious resistance to the laws shall be effectually overthrown as the military hostility which attempted to subvert the Government by savage cruelty, rapine and murder.

Resolved, That Pennsylvania proudly tenders to the loyal people of the Union Hon. Andrew G. Curtin, her great war Governor and the soldiers' friend.

Resolved, That every American citizen, whether by birth or adoption, is entitled to the protection of the nation and its flag, and while it is incumbent on the Government to initiate negotiations for the establishment of an international law of expatriation, recognizing naturalization by one nation as terminating the allegiance due to another, and conferring all rights of citizenship, it is no less its duty to vindicate its people of all charges from oppression or interference at home and abroad when in the legitimate and peaceful exercise of their legal and personal rights.

Resolved, That in General John F. Hartman and Colonel Jacob M. Campbell, our nominees for re-election to the important State offices of Auditor General and Surveyor General, we recognize brave soldiers who led and shared with the gallant "boys in blue," in the sanguinary strife against rebels in arms, and who have since proved themselves to be competent, faithful, and upright officers in the time of peace; and we confidently commend them to the suffrages of a people who have not forgotten to be grateful to the defenders of the life of the nation, and who love to honor those who exposed themselves, in toil and trial, in camp and bivouac, on the weary march, and the imminent front of battle, that the people might be safe, and the country free and united.

Resolved, That the delegates from Pennsylvania to the National Republican Convention to be held in Chicago in the ensuing month of May, be and they are hereby instructed to cast their vote as a unit, through the chairman, in favor of Ulysses S. Grant for President, and Andrew G. Curtin for Vice President, they being the distinctly declared choice of the people of this State for those positions; and that the right of substitution for absent delegates shall be solely with the delegation from the State.

MR. JEFFERSON DAVIS and Major General Hancock have been riding out together in New Orleans, receiving the homage of the unconquered.

New Advertisements.

WM. BISHAM, JR., 54 7th St. Pitts., Pa., is the authorized agent for the Republicans, in that city.

APPLICANTS FOR TAVERN LICENSES AT APRIL TERM 1863. Henry J. Johnson, Clerk of the Court, City of Waynesburg, Pa.

SHERIFF'S SALE. By virtue of a writ of F. Fa. issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Greene County, Pa., and to me directed, there will be exposed to public sale at the Court House, in Waynesburg, on the SATURDAY, THE 11th DAY OF APRIL, next, at 1 o'clock, P. M., the following property, viz: All the right, title, interest and claim of Jacob Lindhart of, in and to a certain tract of land situated in Franklin Township, Greene County, Pa., adjoining lands of David Huns, Daniel Huns, and William Williams, and others, containing two hundred and sixty-three acres, more or less, about two hundred of which are cleared, and has erected thereon a large brick dwelling house, two stories high with a large chimney, and a large barn, and other improvements of an excellent quality, with abundance of timber, also, apple orchard, cherry and other fruit trees, and a well situated mill race, and all the appurtenances thereto.

By virtue of a writ of F. Fa. issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Greene County, Pa., and to me directed, there will be exposed to public sale at the Court House, in Waynesburg, on the SATURDAY, THE 11th DAY OF APRIL, next, at 1 o'clock, P. M., the following property, viz: All the right, title, interest and claim of Jacob Lindhart of, in and to a certain tract of land situated in Franklin Township, Greene County, Pa., adjoining lands of David Huns, Daniel Huns, and William Williams, and others, containing two hundred and sixty-three acres, more or less, about two hundred of which are cleared, and has erected thereon a large brick dwelling house, two stories high with a large chimney, and a large barn, and other improvements of an excellent quality, with abundance of timber, also, apple orchard, cherry and other fruit trees, and a well situated mill race, and all the appurtenances thereto.

By virtue of a writ of F. Fa. issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Greene County, Pa., and to me directed, there will be exposed to public sale at the Court House, in Waynesburg, on the SATURDAY, THE 11th DAY OF APRIL, next, at 1 o'clock, P. M., the following property, viz: All the right, title, interest and claim of Jacob Lindhart of, in and to a certain tract of land situated in Franklin Township, Greene County, Pa., adjoining lands of David Huns, Daniel Huns, and William Williams, and others, containing two hundred and sixty-three acres, more or less, about two hundred of which are cleared, and has erected thereon a large brick dwelling house, two stories high with a large chimney, and a large barn, and other improvements of an excellent quality, with abundance of timber, also, apple orchard, cherry and other fruit trees, and a well situated mill race, and all the appurtenances thereto.

By virtue of a writ of F. Fa. issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Greene County, Pa., and to me directed, there will be exposed to public sale at the Court House, in Waynesburg, on the SATURDAY, THE 11th DAY OF APRIL, next, at 1 o'clock, P. M., the following property, viz: All the right, title, interest and claim of Jacob Lindhart of, in and to a certain tract of land situated in Franklin Township, Greene County, Pa., adjoining lands of David Huns, Daniel Huns, and William Williams, and others, containing two hundred and sixty-three acres, more or less, about two hundred of which are cleared, and has erected thereon a large brick dwelling house, two stories high with a large chimney, and a large barn, and other improvements of an excellent quality, with abundance of timber, also, apple orchard, cherry and other fruit trees, and a well situated mill race, and all the appurtenances thereto.

By virtue of a writ of F. Fa. issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Greene County, Pa., and to me directed, there will be exposed to public sale at the Court House, in Waynesburg, on the SATURDAY, THE 11th DAY OF APRIL, next, at 1 o'clock, P. M., the following property, viz: All the right, title, interest and claim of Jacob Lindhart of, in and to a certain tract of land situated in Franklin Township, Greene County, Pa., adjoining lands of David Huns, Daniel Huns, and William Williams, and others, containing two hundred and sixty-three acres, more or less, about two hundred of which are cleared, and has erected thereon a large brick dwelling house, two stories high with a large chimney, and a large barn, and other improvements of an excellent quality, with abundance of timber, also, apple orchard, cherry and other fruit trees, and a well situated mill race, and all the appurtenances thereto.

By virtue of a writ of F. Fa. issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Greene County, Pa., and to me directed, there will be exposed to public sale at the Court House, in Waynesburg, on the SATURDAY, THE 11th DAY OF APRIL, next, at 1 o'clock, P. M., the following property, viz: All the right, title, interest and claim of Jacob Lindhart of, in and to a certain tract of land situated in Franklin Township, Greene County, Pa., adjoining lands of David Huns, Daniel Huns, and William Williams, and others, containing two hundred and sixty-three acres, more or less, about two hundred of which are cleared, and has erected thereon a large brick dwelling house, two stories high with a large chimney, and a large barn, and other improvements of an excellent quality, with abundance of timber, also, apple orchard, cherry and other fruit trees, and a well situated mill race, and all the appurtenances thereto.

By virtue of a writ of F. Fa. issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Greene County, Pa., and to me directed, there will be exposed to public sale at the Court House, in Waynesburg, on the SATURDAY, THE 11th DAY OF APRIL, next, at 1 o'clock, P. M., the following property, viz: All the right, title, interest and claim of Jacob Lindhart of, in and to a certain tract of land situated in Franklin Township, Greene County, Pa., adjoining lands of David Huns, Daniel Huns, and William Williams, and others, containing two hundred and sixty-three acres, more or less, about two hundred of which are cleared, and has erected thereon a large brick dwelling house, two stories high with a large chimney, and a large barn, and other improvements of an excellent quality, with abundance of timber, also, apple orchard, cherry and other fruit trees, and a well situated mill race, and all the appurtenances thereto.

By virtue of a writ of F. Fa. issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Greene County, Pa., and to me directed, there will be exposed to public sale at the Court House, in Waynesburg, on the SATURDAY, THE 11th DAY OF APRIL, next, at 1 o'clock, P. M., the following property, viz: All the right, title, interest and claim of Jacob Lindhart of, in and to a certain tract of land situated in Franklin Township, Greene County, Pa., adjoining lands of David Huns, Daniel Huns, and William Williams, and others, containing two hundred and sixty-three acres, more or less, about two hundred of which are cleared, and has erected thereon a large brick dwelling house, two stories high with a large chimney, and a large barn, and other improvements of an excellent quality, with abundance of timber, also, apple orchard, cherry and other fruit trees, and a well situated mill race, and all the appurtenances thereto.

By virtue of a writ of F. Fa. issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Greene County, Pa., and to me directed, there will be exposed to public sale at the Court House, in Waynesburg, on the SATURDAY, THE 11th DAY OF APRIL, next, at 1 o'clock, P. M., the following property, viz: All the right, title, interest and claim of Jacob Lindhart of, in and to a certain tract of land situated in Franklin Township, Greene County, Pa., adjoining lands of David Huns, Daniel Huns, and William Williams, and others, containing two hundred and sixty-three acres, more or less, about two hundred of which are cleared, and has erected thereon a large brick dwelling house, two stories high with a large chimney, and a large barn, and other improvements of an excellent quality, with abundance of timber, also, apple orchard, cherry and other fruit trees, and a well situated mill race, and all the appurtenances thereto.

By virtue of a writ of F. Fa. issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Greene County, Pa., and to me directed, there will be exposed to public sale at the Court House, in Waynesburg, on the SATURDAY, THE 11th DAY OF APRIL, next, at 1 o'clock, P. M., the following property, viz: All the right, title, interest and claim of Jacob Lindhart of, in and to a certain tract of land situated in Franklin Township, Greene County, Pa., adjoining lands of David Huns, Daniel Huns, and William Williams, and others, containing two hundred and sixty-three acres, more or less, about two hundred of which are cleared, and has erected thereon a large brick dwelling house, two stories high with a large chimney, and a large barn, and other improvements of an excellent quality, with abundance of timber, also, apple orchard, cherry and other fruit trees, and a well situated mill race, and all the appurtenances thereto.