

The Waynesburg Republican.

UNION REPUBLICAN TICKET. STATE. FOR ADDRESSES: Gen. JOHN F. HARRIS, Of Montgomery County.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION. The Delegates elected by the several Townships in this County will meet in Convention at the "GREENE HOUSE," in Waynesburg, on the 17th DAY OF APRIL NEXT.

AS EXPECTED. That our County is entitled to the next Congressman, as advocated in our last issue, meets with a hearty "aye," from her Republican citizens.

How mighty quiet some people have kept about the "bond-barons," "money-kings," etc., since it has been definitely settled that the people will pay the national debt according to the letter of the contract!

There are two potent reasons, then, for granting the honor to our County. First that it is in all fairness and equity, our turn. Second, we are tired of being "let alone!"

"JERE" BLACK, private counselor and man Friday for Andy Johnson, withdrew from the impeachment case last week. This bodes no good for the impeached. Black requested him to resign and escape the ignominy consequent to a finding of "guilty" by the Court, which Johnson refused and hence the withdrawal.

Four millions and a half bushels of coal left Pittsburg for the country below, during the present rise of the river.

WHO ARE THE BONDHOLDERS?

The New York Evening Post has ascertained, by careful inquiry, that of the five richest men in New York city only two are holders of United States bonds, and these only to a very inconsiderable amount.

The Life Insurance Companies of New York hold twenty millions of the bonds as security for the persons, in all parts of the country, who hold their policies, and the Fire Insurance Companies hold forty-six millions as security for their customers.

These are the persons Democracy would make penniless and bankrupt. It is not strange that they would now recede with the tide of public opinion. This cannot be! They have made them a record of infamy in war, and in peace they shall be branded as thieves and banditti.

Our friends will learn with pleasure that the bill lately passed through the House of Representatives, at Harrisburg, to allow Michael Roup and other citizens of Jackson township to cast their votes in Gilmore, was killed in the Senate on the 27th inst.

Among the items of the State appropriation bill we find one of $400,000 for pensions to the soldiers of 1812. This attempt to do justice to the survivors of that war, will, in the greater part, go into the pockets of claim agents and swindlers.

Is the Virginia Convention on the 24th, the amendment to disfranchise all who voted for avowed secession candidates to the seceding Convention was indefinitely postponed.

WAYNESBURG COLLEGE.

Dr. Miller, President of our Institution, in the last issue of the Presbyterian, speaks thus encouragingly and pointedly concerning the interests and condition of the school:

The last session of the College was a very pleasant one, and prospects indicate a large increase of students next term. Never were the general prospects of the College better than at this time.

It is the desire and intention of the Board of Trust to collect all notes due at the earliest possible period. Aside from other advantages that will be gained by having the endowment fund collected, it is known to some of our readers that the School Department is looking to arrangements designed to aid the colleges of the State, and one condition on which such aid will be granted is that the college receiving it must have a certain amount of invested funds.

Those acquainted with the operations of the College during any part of its history need not be told that it has accomplished a good work. It has originated an influence that can never die. Each year that influence widens and deepens.

As has already been announced, a bill is before the Legislature authorizing the construction of a railroad from Brownsville to Greensburg, which is intended to cross the Youghiogheey river at or near Dawson's Station.

It is said the Pennsylvania Railroad offers to contribute $10,000 per mile towards its construction. While that road had its foot on the Conneville road, nothing could be got out of it towards a road in this region, but now it is anxious to injure and cripple it.

Grant is a Methodist by trade, a tyrant by instinct, a drunkard by nature, and a bigoted Know Nothing by descent; according to the drivel account published by that dilapidated patch of old book leather the paternal Grant, the remote ancestor of Ulysses was the Mayflower convict.

What a terrible climax! The Gazette is evidently unhappy. It has a persistent troublesome nightmare, and in all its dreams, waking and sleeping sees General Butler back again on Federal Hill, and his cannon pointing toward Baltimore street.

THE Montgomery Mail hoists the name of Andrew Johnson to the head of its columns, accompanied by the legend "For President."

THE REDUCTION OF TAXES.

Our cumbersome system of Internal Taxation, remarks the N. Y. Observer, has been a trial and vexation to the people.

The house may pass bills reducing expenditures, but as Senator Morrill truly said: "It has been found, that whenever a bill proposing increased expenditures comes up here, enough are always ready to pass it; and to suppose that an appropriation bill from the House will pass the Senate without an addition of thirty to forty millions of dollars, is the sublimity of humbugery."

Secretary McCullough, in a recent letter to the Senate Finance Committee on this measure, argues the passage of the bill will not only result in the loss to the Government of the revenues heretofore derived from those articles, but in a reduction of the custom receipts.

We hope that this tax will be removed from all our manufacturing interests, even if our expenses are not curtailed; but a good part of the benefit to be derived will be lost, if a large reduction in expenditures, which is perfectly feasible is not also made.

Positively his Last Appearance. The following announcement is printed by special request: GRAND FAREWELL TOUR.

Mr. A. Johnson, the great American Somersault, being about to close his engagement at Washington, owing to circumstances over which he has no control, has the honor to announce that he will, during the coming summer, perform his great feat of General U. S. Grant being confined at Washington by pressing engagements, and having passed a Bad Card on the previous tour, Remains at Washington, his place in the Troupe being supplied by Gen. Ad. Interim Thomas, whose GRAND TRANSFORMATION FEAT of being Adjutant General, then Secretary of War, then Adjutant General again, all in twenty minutes, time, have secured for him a national reputation.

Special Announcement.—Verbatim Reporters and all other Improper Characters will be Rigidly Excluded.

A penny pamphlet of General Grant is out, nominating him for President, on the vignette title page of which is a device representing the Constitution of the United States resting upon a cannon.—N. Y. Express.

AN EXCHANGE advises the Democrats to vote for Andrew Jackson, and adds: "It is true he's dead, but his ghost will make a better officer than any living Democrat."

EXTENSIVE FIRE.

About five minutes before nine o'clock last Saturday night a fire broke out in the nail factory of Messrs. Graft, Bennet & Co., located in Monongahela borough, nearly opposite the foot of Market street.

The building with the factory was the sheet and nail mill, and with such rapidity did the fire spread that the whole building was enveloped in flames in a few moments. It was framed, was 130 by 80 feet, and stood on the banks of the Monongahela river.

The cause of the fire is at present a mystery. Work was stopped in the factory at noon on Saturday, and the fire did not break out until nine o'clock that night. The loss will probably reach $50,000, of which we believe there is an insurance $20,000, divided among the following companies: Eureka, German and North American, of Pittsburg.

The Wisconsin State Journal gives the following exposure of the Bates Flag-March through the South:

The whole affair was arranged by some Copperhead politicians for a little cheap buncombe. Sergeant Bates, for some time before the beginning of his "march," lived at Edgerton, a small village on the railroad about 25 miles east of this city.

NEW HAMPSHIRE being won, Connecticut is the battlefield on which the friends of universal liberty are next to join issue with the sham democracy. The election there will take place Monday, April 6th, and the Republicans, we learn, mean to recover the ground they lost last year.

A LITTLE boy in New Bedford, Massachusetts, in giving an account to his brother of the Garden of Eden, said: "The Lord made a gardener and put him into the garden to take care of it, and to see that nobody hurt anything, or patted bills on the trees."

LAST week a sword on exhibition at the Patent Office, and valued at $10,000 to $15,000 was stolen. It was presented by the Viceroy of Egypt to Commodore Biddle many years ago, and was studded with diamonds.

THE funny man of the Chicago Post remarks that Mr. Johnson "is attempted another scriptural character—that of the D. Slave. He wants to reign forty days and forty nights more."

ANOTHER veto message, the last we may hope, from Mr. Johnson. He returned on the 25th, with his objections to the bill regulating appeals to the Supreme Court, and his veto meets with the usual fate.

A WESTERN MAN, travelling in Europe, being asked if he had seen Mount Vesuvius, replied, "Yes, I saw her spouting away, and made up my mind we must have a mountain just like her near Chicago."

REPUBLICAN Michigan declares for Grant and Colfax, and announces her determination to fight on the line of impartial suffrage, and equal justice.

A Bloody Revenge.

A young man is now stopping at the Key City House, by the name of George W. Porter, whose parents, brothers, sisters and relatives were all murdered at Redwood, Minn., in the great Indian massacre of 1861.

He is the sole survivor, and was the only one left to communicate the mournful intelligence to the nearest settlement. Bereft in our brief hour of all that he held dear on earth, and with the victims of savage ferocity extended in death before him, he took a solemn vow of vengeance.

He carries with him a piece of cambric, about twelve inches in length and whenever he killed an Indian he would make a notch on this. One hundred and eight notches are to be counted on the piece of cambric to the last one being on Christmas 1866. Surely young Porter has been an avenging Nemesis on the footsteps of those who have slaughtered his kindred.

THE proceedings of the Court of Impeachment on the 24th, were brief and of little interest. The Managers of the House presented their reply to the President's answer, a very brief document, denying "each and every averment in said several answers, or either of them, which denies or traverses" the charges of the Articles of Impeachment.

HOPE, DAVID WILMOTA well-known Pennsylvanian, died at his residence in Towanda, on March 16, after an illness of six days. He was born in Bethany, Wayne county, in this State, January 20, 1814; was educated at an academy in that town, and subsequently read law.
