The little Misses Stover returned the next day and promptly told the lady that they were not coming to school any more. When questioned as to the reason, they, with child-like simplicity, raid:  "Grandpa sigs we are going to more back to Temescon in April t."  I seven see a person proud of his fine dress but I think: "Well he has only cast off clothes after all, he has the jacket of the lamb, and the great coat of the sheep; from head to foot he is dressed in what the trees or the animals have used bufore him. His shoes are made of hides, his stockings of the cotton shrib, his shirt of the flax plant, his hankerchief is spon by the caterpillar, and his gloves are the waistcoat of the Angora."  SPIRITIAL FACTS.  Whiskey is the key by which many gain an entrance into prisons and alms houses.  Brandy brands the nesses of those who can not govern their appetites.  Whe causes many to take a winding way home.  Punch is the cause of many unfriendly punches.  Ale causes ailings, and heer stretches many upon their bier.  Champagne is the cause of many real pains. Gin slings have slain more than the slings of old.  A clearwas, while sitting in the gallery of the Connecticut legislature when that body was putting through divorce cases, wrote the following impromptu:  "For cut ling all connect in two, Each legislator seems to say, What you connect I cut away."  "Mormen?" exclaimed an inflected young lady, just home from boarding school, "mother! here is a grammatical error in the Bible!" Law sakes! replied the old lady, all its home from boarding school, "mother! here is a grammatical error in the Bible!"
