NOT A CARDIDATE,-Mr. J. M. Harper, of Cumberian I township, wishes us to say that he declines being a candidate for the Forty-

Arst Congress.

TEMPERANCE.—The temperance men will make a good fight, the coming Court, against licensing liquor selling in our borough. It all rests in the "beck-bone" of the Judges, the case being extremely bad for applicants.

Snow .- Old Winter, as if reluctant to release his grasp upon Nature, has been cutting her with keen winds of late, and spitefully spitting snow. Last Saturday morning the ouse-tops were white with his "expectorate."

COAL SHAFT, -The coal shaft in Washington has proved a success. The proprietors are now farnishing the citizens of Washington with good coal at six and seven cents per bushel, which is less than Pittsburgh pays for the article.

Moving Dar .- Good weather made "file ting" pleasant for those who had to "pull up stakes." There are no changes of note among our business men. Every thing available in the ships of a house is occupied, an I the demand is for more. When shall that demand be estisfied?

DEDICATION.-The new Methodist Church, recently erected on Tom's Rin, Jackson towaship, this county will be dedicated to Wood, Emaline R. Waters, Emma Wise, (of the service of Almighty Gol on the flest Sab. Sol.) bath in June The exercises will be conducted by Rev. J. H. Hull and Rev. C. P. Jordan.

He pect is for an abundance. The crops are was arrested and held to bail but afterwards provisions we note an active inquiry and a tenpromising. Wheat and rye are plentifully moved to this city. It was thought that he sowed and we are assured by the farmers had moved here to evade the charge against never looked better. If Providence continues him and his bail surrendered him. With the Flour has been active all week. Prices generalto smile there are better times ahead.

Mentronious.-It is always great pleasure to sea business enterprise and "give it a lift" if possible.. D. Shirk, the enterprising young merchant, is the case in point. He has opened business in the right way and in striving to win the attention and patronage of the public shows that he means honest dealing. Consult his advertisement in another column, and our word for it, you will be impressed with the truth of what he says.

Maxr week being Court week will afford all persons in arrears for subscription, advertising and job-work, an excellent opportunity to call and liquidate their indebtedness. We can't ting out of order, take Plantation Bitters. We doubt care a continental about it—but there are some to whom we are indebted who desick and don't know that alls you? We are should "come to time" and in the wood market during the past week, except perhaps an increased firmness in the price of good light lots of coarse and medium fleece and super pulled, which in some instances have order that we may do so, we must call upon Plantation Bitters—which we did with great B. STORIE ADRIANCE : OR. TEYING THE WORLD. -This is the name of a new Novelet by Amanda M. Douglas, the tilented author of "In Trust," "Stephen Dane," &c. It is the story of a young orphan girl's experiences.

It is now being published in The Saturday
Eccasing Poet, and will run through from fifteen to twenty papers. One dollar sent to the publishers, H. Peterson & Co., Philadelphia, will secure the Post for six months, including this and other deeply interesting stories.

In Luca, Unna Dissicultura.-The Moundarille National of last week, tells us of mild. Swaney, one of the convicts in the Pseuloptiary, at that place, receiving information a few days ago that an uncle, who resided is Ireland (recently decessed,) had jeft him the next little sum of $35,000. He will his under the necessity of waiting for the period of features months before he can enjoy the inheritance, as he is under obligations to labor for the State for that length of time.

Oucz von ALL!-Newspaper laws we have blished time and again and yet some people are wofully ignorant either from natural deficiencies or intentional design. We mean those who are indebted to us for one, two or more years' subscription, and send us a third of what is due with the demand that we "stop the paper!" As a general thing we do stop on such and hurry them up by a summon The thing is so contemptibly mean that we believe no decent man would be guilty of it and consequently we are in great haste to sever all business relations. This we hope will meet the eye of all who contemplate that our cutting tham off will relieve them of the debt eye Potatoes. They are the best seed Potaand we especially dedicate it to those who think themselves beyond our reach! We assure all, that the friends of this paper at home have placed us upon a sure and substantial footing and, if we are compelled to lose a few hundreds of dollars, wasted in trying to impart a sence of self-respect and manhood to those scarce of the article all attempts to beat us down or blow us up will be in vain! We can respect a man who pays for his paper and stops it, but one who waits to be cut off or partially
