REPUBLICANISM.

The Platform by which it is Supported Law, Liberty, Justice and Equality

Great Truths for a Great People.

GRANT, COLFAX AND VICTORY.

The following platform, reported by the Com-nuittee on Re-solutions, was unanimously adop-ted by the National Republican Convention in accession at Chicago in the 23st uit. That, We congratulate the country on the magnet success of the reconstruction projects of congress, as evinced by the adoption, in a ma-jority of the States lately in rehealdon, of consti-utions securing equal, civil and political rights to all, and regard it as the daty of the Govern-ment to astate of anarchy. Minimum to a state of anarchy. Becond, The guarantee of Congress of equal minimg to all loyal men at the South was de-manded by every consideration of publicastry, of gratitude, and of justice, and must be main-land, while the question of suffrage in all the loyal states property belongs to the people of these States. Thick We demounce all forms of reputitation hose States. Third. We denounce all forms of repudiation ata national crime, and national honor re-quires the payment of the public indeptedness in the utmost good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the laws under which it was con-

the spirit of the laws under which it was con-tracted. Forrch, It is due to the labor of the nation that taxation should be equalized, and reduced as rapidly as the national fullw will permit. Fifth. The mational debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for all time to come, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Con-gress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can possibly be done. Bixth, That the best polley to diminish our burden of debt is to so inprove our credit that explained will seek to loan us money at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and must continue to pay so long as repudiation, partial or total, open or covert, is threatened or sus-period.

Faction is not so strong nor patriotism so weak amongst Republi-"Bloated Bo cans, but that the great mass of the party will cheerfully ratify their action. Only let the selection be made with reference to our best interest. In the event of the impossibility of Capt.

Donley being nominated-the injustice of which it is to be hoped will dawn upon the minds of delegates from sister counties-it will be the province of our delegates to select the man most eligible and who can benefit really we have none other than our candidate and the county's next best interest. We leave it to our delegates plain enough.

juriously to the party, district, state cers and hangers-on about the cities, it juriously to the party, district, state and country. Conferees who fail to exhibit a capacity to do anything, will not increase their reputation as Franklin, bearing the weight of heavy business men. We therefore beseech military titles, and like many others, you one and all to rise above mere never mentioned in connection with preferences and prejudices and go for operations in the field, were conspicupreferences and prejudices and go for the good of your country, the whole glean the following details, incidents, country and all will be well.
