CANOFY .--- We saw yesterday a very nice hing at the marble shop of Sayers & Rinehart, in this place. It is a Canopy, made of brown stone, having a base, a body, on the top of this four pillars supporting a roof, and above this, an ornament of brown stone. Under the roof and inside the pillars a marble figure a of little child in repose is placed. The whole design is beautiful, surpassing anything we over saw. It will surely be a foring tribute to the momery the child over whose graye it may be placed. We under stand it is for sale.
