WE PUBLISH THIS DAY, DEC. 11, 1854,
FANNY FERN'S
NOVEL,
Ruth Hall.

A TALE OF DOMESTIC LIFE.
400 pp. 12mo. Cloth. Price, $1 25.
Every body knows FANNY FERN; every body has laughed and cried over her sparkling, dashing, truthful, genial writings; every body will wish to read this, her first novel, and every one who does read it will pronounce it her greatest work. Says an able critic who has read the proof sheets, "Ruth Hall is a work which not only exceeds any thing which Fanny Fern has before written, but which in many respects passes any other work whatever. For intense and sustained interest of narrative, for originality of conception and treatment, for scorching sarcasm and withering rebuke of pretensions and hypocrisy, for elevation of moral tone and wisdomness of religious inculcations, for vigor, freshness, simplicity, directness and fascination of style, we have never seen its equal."

The story takes possession of our hearts at once; we follow "Ruth" through her trials with as much interest as though she were our own sister; she breathes not a sigh, she suffers not a sorrow, which the reader does not feel as acutely as though the first came from his own heart, and the second were one of his own sad experiences. The characters are such as we are constantly meeting in every-day life; and how boldly and skillfully they are drawn, how powerfully the story is told, how touching is its pathos, how sparkling its wit, how irresistible its humor, how severe its satire, and how true its moral, no adequate idea can be gained except by reading it."

RUTH HALL will be for sale by booksellers generally. To any one sending us the retail price, we will send a copy of the work, post-paid. Published by MASON BROTHERS,
Dec. 8, 1854.—2t. 27 Park Row, New-York.

PULMONARY DISEASE.—There is a remedy prepared by Dr. Geo. H. Keyser, of 140 Wood St., Pittsburgh, Pa., that has won great renown in the way of curing the various incipient diseases of the lungs and pulmonary apparatus. Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup is no quack nostrum, but has won and kept the confidence of men of the highest standing. Dr. Keyser prepares and mixes all the ingredients of the Pectoral Syrup with his own hands, and says that he will continue to do so. If you wish a good medicine for a cough or cold, you can buy it at RUPP & OSTER'S in this place and at COLVIN & ROBINSON'S, Schellsburg.

JOY FOR THE INVALID.—We cut the following from the Philadelphia Saturday Gazette, and recommend our readers to peruse it carefully, and those suffering should not delay purchasing:
"DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS."

This celebrated medicine, prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON, at the imposing German Medicine Store, No. 120 ARCH street, is exciting unprecedented public attention, and the proprietor, who is a scientific physician, is selling immense quantities of it. The virtues of this remedy are so fully set forth in the extended notice of it, to be seen in our advertising columns, that there is hardly any room left for us to speak of it. This much we may add—Of the long train of physical ills to which humanity is heir, there is none more distressing than general derangement of the digestive apparatus, which never fails to accompany a disordered state of the liver. Headache, piles, languor, fretfulness, a bilious tongue, a morbid breath, loss of appetite—in short, an indigestible wretchedness of existence, are its insufferable and life-wasting attendants. These diseases, which have baffled the skill of the ablest Doctors, have been radically cured by Hoofland's German Bitters."—See advertisement.

PALPATION OF THE HEART. Nervous Diseases, Liver Complaint, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Costiveness and Piles, are all relieved and cured in an incredible short space of time, by Carter's Spanish Mixture, the great tonic and purifier of the blood. It contains not a particle of Mercury, Opium, or any noxious drugs; is perfectly harmless, and has cured more than five hundred cases of disease. We can only refer the reader to the certificates, a few of which may be found in another column, and all of which are detailed in full around the bottle. It is the greatest of all Spring and Fall Medicines, and possesses an influence over the blood truly remarkable. See advertisement.

THE MARKETS.
Flour in all the Eastern markets commands from $8 50 to $9 50 according to quality. Wheat $2 to $2 05 per bushel. The Bedford market is as high as Baltimore or Philadelphia!
