COUGHING IN CHURCH.—The Greensburg Intelli-gencer of May 26, 1853, pays the following compli-ment to Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Cough Syrup, a new remedy that is greatly in vogue now for the cure of Coughs, Celds, floarseness, and incipient Pulmonary

From the Greensburg Intelligencer, May 26, 1853. THE WEATHER, for a week past, has been quite cool, and, to us, very unpleasant. Besides being 7 00 cool, and unpleasant in that way, it is exceedingly 7 00 cool, and unpleasant in that way, it is exceedingly to obtain the late of the day. On Wednesday, the 18th, the thermometer stood between 80 and 90 in the shade, most of the day. The next day, overcoats and fires were necessary to comfort; and on Friday morning, there was quite a hard frost in this vicinity, though nothing was seriously injured thereby. As a consequence of these sudden changes, many people are afflicted with bad colds and coughs. We observed a lady in the other evening so much anotysed with a with bad colds and coughs. We observed a lady in church the other evening, so much annoyed with a hard cough, that we really felt alarmed for her safety; so much so, that it was with some effort that we could refrain from "talking" out in meeting," and recommending her forthwith to procure a bottle of Keyser's Pectoral Syrup, to give her immediate relief. For sale by Rupp & Osier of this place, and Colvin & Robeson Schellsburg.

WAS a SPRING and SUMMER MEDICINE, 5 00 Carter's Spanish Mixture stands pre-eminent above 5 00 all others. Its singularly efficacious action on the 5 00 blood; its strengthening and vivifying qualities; its tonic action on the Liver; its tendency to drive all humors to the surface; thereby cleansing the system according to Nature's own prescription; its harmless, 10 50 and at the same time extraordinary good effects, and 7 00 the number of cures testified to by many of the most respectable citizens of Richmond, Va., and elsewhere, must be conclusive evidence that there is

The past history of the Academy will, we trust, be a sufficient guaranty of its future of the same as heretofore. To master principles will be considered the most important pursuit of the pupils; and 7 00 7 00 while it will be the constant business of the pupils; and while it will be the constant business of the Instructor to impart knowledge, it will also be his aim to lead his pupils to make a practical application of their acquisitions. To load the mind with innumerable formulas, without causing it to use them, would be like playing a bow in a child's hand, without teaching him blow to bend it. In fine, it shall be our object, as it has ever been, to lead the pupil to 7 00
