PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE Coal and Timber Lands and Hotel Property.

THE subscriber will offer at Public Sale, at the St. Nicholas Hotel, in Cumberland, ON FRIDAY THE 15TH DAY OF JUNE, 1855, the following valuable property in Allegheny County:

That valuable Tract of COAL LAND, known as 'MAIDEN'S DELIGHT,' containing 11½ ACRES, more or less, situated on Moore's Run, near the George's Creek Railroad, and within three miles of its junction with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. It is entirely underlaid with the 'BIG VEIN' of COAL, fifteen feet in thickness. Its soil is good for agricultural purposes and is now covered with a fine growth of Oak and other valuable Timber. This piece of property is admirably adapted for the basis of a Coal Company, equal, if not superior, to any in the State, and can be put in operation at a small expense.

ONE OTHER TRACT OF LAND CONTAINING 100 ACRES, MORE OR LESS, KNOWN AS 'MILLER'S' or 'COBB'S' Farm, on Jackson's Run, near the George's Creek Railroad, and underlaid with the 'BIG VEIN' of COAL, which is easy of access. The soil is of good quality, and is now under cultivation. It is well supplied with buildings and all other improvements necessary for farming purposes.

One other Tract of Land called 'GLORY,' containing 100 acres, situated on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, at Everett's Tunnel, underlaid with the 'BIG VEIN' of COAL, 6 feet, 5 feet, and 4 feet in thickness, accessible at the very edge of the Railroad; it also contains a vein of valuable IRON ORE, 8 feet in thickness, now open.

ONE OTHER TRACT OF LAND, CALLED 'Perry's First,' containing 169 ACRES, more or less, covered with a fine growth of White Pine and other Timber, from which Lumber of excellent quality can be manufactured. The soil is well adapted for pasturage or farming purposes. The situation is only a short distance south west of Forstburg.

ALSO—THE Saint Nicholas Hotel, on the corner of Baltimore and George Street, Cumberland, nearly opposite the proposed depot of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad, and the new depot of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. It is new, and built in the most substantial manner, replete with every convenience. It contains ample accommodations for 250 persons. All the apartments are large and commodious, well lighted and ventilated.

ON THE PREMISES—A BRICK CARRIAGE HOUSE AND STABLE, WITH SLEEPING APARTMENTS FOR SERVANTS ATTACHED.

This Hotel is considered equal to any in the State. The Furniture is of the most costly kind, all new, and can be purchased with the property if desired.

TERMS—Easy, and will be made known on the day of sale.

Capitalists wishing to secure valuable property are respectfully invited to give any or all of the above property an early examination.

Should any information be required please address the undersigned at Potomac Furnace, Loudon Co. Va.

Bedford Academy AND FEMALE SEMINARY.

W. W. CAMPBELL, Principal.

This Institution, hitherto under the care of Rev. John Lyon, will henceforth be conducted by the present Principal. The past history of the Academy will, we trust, be a sufficient guaranty of its future efficiency. The branches taught will be the same as heretofore. To MASTER PUPILS will be considered the most important pursuit of the pupils; and while it will be the constant business of the Instructor to impart knowledge, it will also be his aim to lead his pupils to make a practical application of their acquisitions. To load the mind with unnumbered formulas, without causing it to use them, would be like placing a bow in a child's hand, without teaching him how to bend it. In fine, it shall be our object, as it has ever been, to lead the pupil to think.

We look forward confidently to the patronage of this community, which has thus far been so generously extended, and by an undiminished assiduity, we hope to merit your support.

NEW STORE And New Goods.

GREAT BARGAINS, AND NO MISTAKE! FISHER

Would respectfully avail himself of this method of informing the citizens of Bedford and vicinity that he has opened an entirely new

Dry Goods, Grocery, and Fancy Store, in the Borough of Bedford, in the room formerly occupied by Dr. Hofius, and second door west of Dr. Harry's Drug and Book Store, where he has just received from the cities of one of the most elegant assortments of Goods ever brought to Bedford, which, having been purchased for cash, under the most favorable circumstances, he feels warranted in saying that he can sell them at prices so low as to astonish the purchaser, and all in want of good Goods, at the shortest possible profit, are invited to give him a call. His stock embraces every variety of

Ladies Dress Goods, such as Silks, Satins, Delaines, Bombazines, Spring Shawls, novelties in Lawns, British Prints, Plaid Gingham, Underclothes from 12½ cents up, Hosiery in every variety, Shoes, Boots and Slippers, for Ladies and Children—in fact almost every article adapted to a Ladies' wardrobe, which it would require too much space to enumerate in detail. His stock of FLATS and BONNETS for Ladies, Misses, and Children, is large, rich and cheap.

His Groceries, Teas, Spices, Syrup, &c. &c. are all of the very best quality.

He will consider it no trouble to show his Goods, and he hopes the LADIES especially will call and examine his assortment whether they purchase or not. Always remember, however, that ELI FISHER'S is the place for BARGAINS!!!

CARPETINGS—Ingrain, Wool, Fig, Ragette the Bedford Hotel, where he will be and Listing Carpets, and Matting for sale by RUPP & OSTER, as on hand, and will be constantly kept, an assortment of JEWELRY, and will receive a liberal share of patronage, as he trusts him with their work. His terms moderate.

has on hand Gold and Silver Watches, Spoons, Thimbles, Butter Knives, Gold Pen and Pencils, &c. &c.

He still continues the Gunsmithing, at his old stand, in the East end of where he has a good and competent workman constantly employed.

D. B.

27, 1855.

Jas. K. Hallam

Would announce to his friends and the public that he has purchased the entire Store of late James M. Gibson, and intends to continue business at the old stand. He has on hand an assortment of Dry Goods, Groceries, Teas, Segars, Jewelry, &c. &c. together with Confectionaries of every description. In a short time he will replenish his stock, so as to make it an inducement to purchasers to give him a call.

He has on hand a good supply of FLOUR, and will make every effort to accommodate the people in this line of his business, either wholesale or retail. He will also keep Bacon, Fish, Salt, Molasses, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Brooms, Brushes, Patent Medicines, Drugs, Dye-stuffs, and every article usually kept in a retail store.

PAPER HANGING and UPHOLSTERING will be attended to as usual with promptness and despatch—and he would take this occasion to say that he has now on hand, and will furnish to order, on the most favorable terms, every description of WALL PAPER and BORDERING.

By unremitting attention to business, and a disposition to please, he hopes to merit and receive liberal encouragement.

Bedford, April 6, 1855.

FIRST ARRIVAL OF New Spring and Summer Goods.

The undersigned, thankful to his friends and patrons for the kind and very liberal patronage extended to them heretofore, would respectfully solicit a continuation of the same, and also inform them that they are now receiving from the eastern cities, and opening at

CHEAP SIDE! A large and handsome assortment of new style SPRING AND SUMMER GOODS.

Comprising a great variety of Ladies' DRESS GOODS, of the latest and most fashionable styles, together with every other article adapted to the every day wants of the people, all of which they are prepared to sell

CHEAP FOR CASH and approved produce, or upon a short credit to good and punctual customers.

OUR MOTTO, "Short profits, many sales and quick returns," will still continue the ruling feature.

Come, then, and see the bargains, and buy only when satisfied that it's your interest to do so, whether you wish to purchase or not.

All kinds of produce taken in exchange for goods.

RUPP & OSTER, April 6, 1855.

NEW GOODS.

The undersigned respectfully announces that they have just opened a large and well assorted supply of SPRING AND SUMMER GOODS! In an advertisement we cannot give an idea how cheap we are selling—nor do we desire to attract customers by publishing prices of leading articles.

We embrace this opportunity of thanking all who have so liberally patronized us during the last five years—and, while soliciting their continued favors, assure them a call will convince them that we are selling good Goods as low—if not lower than can be purchased elsewhere in Bedford.

Select Poetry.

A Glorious Land

BY W. J. PARODIE.

Our country! 'tis a glorious land! With broad arms stretched from shore to shore The proud Pacific chafes her strand, She hears the dark Atlantic roar; And, nurtured on her ample breast, How many a goodly prospect lies In Nature's wildest grandeur drest, Enamell'd with her loveliest dyes.

Rich prairies deck'd with flowers of gold, Like sunlit oceans roll afar; Broad lakes her azure heavens behold, Reflecting each clear trembling star, And mighty rivers, mountain born, Go sweeping onward dark and deep, Through forests where the bounding lawn Beneath their sheltering branches leap.

And cradled 'mid her clustering hills, Sweet vales in dreamlike beauty hide, Where love the air with music fills, And calm content and peace abide.

For plenty here her fullness pours, In rich profusion o'er the land, And sent to seize her generous store, There prowls no tyrant's hireling band.

Great God! we thank thee for this home— This hallowed birthland of the free; Where wanderers from afar may come, And breathe the air of liberty! Still may her flowers untrampled spring, Her harvests wave, her cities rise; And yet, till Time shall fold his wing, Remain Earth's loveliest paradise!

Where are they? Where, where are all the birds that sang A hundred years ago? The flowers that all in beauty sprang A hundred years ago?

The lips that smiled, The eyes that wild In flashes shone, Soft eyes—gone!

Where, O! where are lips and eyes, The maiden's smiles, the lover's sighs, That lived so long ago?

Who peopled all the city streets A hundred years ago? Who filled the church, with faces meek, A hundred years ago?

The plot that worked A brother's hurt; Where, O! where are plots and sneers, The poor man's hopes, the rich man's tears, That lived so long ago?

Terrific Storm in East Mississippi—Houses blown down—Narrow Escape of a Husband, and Heroic Conduct of a Wife.—A storm rarely paralleled in violence recently passed over portions of the counties of Newton, Neshoba, &c., during the appalling prevalence of which, houses were hurled to the ground by the strong breath of the tempest; trees, in multitudes, torn up by the roots, pin houses destroyed and fences prostrated in every direction. Fortunately, amid this terrific element of war, there was no actual loss of life, although many were crippled and otherwise mutilated. There was one escape from imminent peril which we feel called upon to place on record. A young married couple were alone in the forest, occupants of a new home, and distant two miles from the nearest neighbor. They had retired to rest, and were absorbed in slumber, when the roar of the hurricane came, like a sonorous warning through the primeval trees, and the fierce winds struck their houses tumbling the logs around and about them. The lady, after much effort, succeeded in extricating herself, but found, to her momentary dismay, that her husband was entombed in the wreck of their dwelling, and that it would be impossible for her to relieve him unaided.—She reflected but a moment, when, turning to her husband, she uttered some cheering words, announcing her determination to go in quest of assistance. Forth she went, in the midst of the howling storm, the winds singing a requiem over the ruin they had caused, and the stately trees still crushing crackling in their fall before the omnipotence of the tempest. But she heeded not the danger; buoyed up by a strong affection, she moved onward, an incarnation of heroism and self-sacrificing love, through the hurricane's track, and reached unharmed the residence of her neighbor. Assistance was procured, and her husband restored to as true a wife as ever hallowed with felicities the life of man.—Paadria Clarion.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—On Wednesday last, a little past noon, a fire broke out in the town of Blacksville, twelve miles south of this place, on the Virginia State line, which proved more destructive, in proportion to the size of the place, than any fire we recollect ever to have heard of. The town comprised from 25 to 30 buildings, over twenty of which were entirely consumed, together with most of their contents. The fire originated from a kitchen stove-pipe, in the dwelling of Mr. Jacob Lantz, whence it spread throughout the entire building, and thence over the town. Two or three store-houses, with a considerable proportion of the goods, were destroyed. A number of private dwellings were consumed with all, or nearly all, of the household furniture in them. We regret to learn that our friends, F. Brock, Esq., Mr. Wm. Pratt, John Brock, and many others, whose names we do not now remember, were among the sufferers. There was no insurance on any part of the property destroyed.—Waynesburg Messenger.

SEEING THE ELEPHANT.—Passengers (says the Tribune) who travel by the New York and New Haven cars have a grand chance of seeing the elephant? Going from New York the cars pass the farm of P. T. Barnum, a mile or so before reaching Bridgeport, Connecticut. On the farm, and in plain view from the railroad, an elephant may be seen every pleasant day, attached to a large plow, and doing up the "sub-soiling" in first-rate style, at the rate of about three distinct double horse teams. The animal is perfectly tractable. His attendant rides him, while a colored man guides the plow. The elephant is also used for carting large loads of gravel in a cart arranged purpose for him, and in drawing stone on a stone boat or drag, in piling up wood, timber, &c., and in making himself generally useful.

Terrible Storm at Buffalo! LOSS OF LIFE!

From a passenger who came up in the cars from Brockport, yesterday, we have received the following memorandum of the particulars of a terrible tornado which swept over the region of country along the line of the Rochester and Niagara Railroad, yesterday morning, about 7 o'clock:

At Brockport, the wind was so violent as to tear down fences, uproot and twist off trees, and demolish chimneys by the wholesale. Huge hailstones as big as hen eggs, fell in large quantities.

At Albion the blow was not so violent, but it was very dark; obliged to light lamps to see to eat breakfast. (Was eating mine when the blow came on, there.) The Irishmen on the canal-enlargement ran, terrified, for shelter. All along the road between Brockport and the Suspension Bridge, the fences were strewn like cob houses kicked by punky boys. In many places large trees were blown or twisted off at their trunks. Near Pekin, Niagara county, several large trees were blown across the railroad track. Three or four houses in that neighborhood were blown down. Heard a farmer say, who got on the cars at Pekin station, that timber in his woods had been damaged to the extent of twelve or fifteen hundred dollars.

At Niagara—south of the river—the extensive car manufactory of Brainard, Pierce & Co., was almost entirely demolished; damage about $20,000. The building was of wood, some two hundred feet long, and about seventy wide. A great number of dwellings were unroofed, and some utterly ruined. The gable end of the Scotch Presbyterian church was blown in, slick and clean, and the building generally injured. A daguerrotype standing in the street was leveled over, and the artist and his little son seriously hurt, the latter supposed fatally. A railroad car standing on the track was lifted up, bodily, and carried some four rods. Two schooners, seen just before the blow came up, off Niagara, were not to be seen after it had passed over, and were supposed to have foundered.

At the Suspension Bridge the blow was most violent, doing more or less damage. The men who had just commenced work on the bridge, painting, &c., ran off when they saw the gale coming, and some were blown violently from one side to the other; one narrowly escaped being blown over into the river. The wind howled and screamed through the gorge, with a perfect rush. The bridge, however, sustained not the slightest injury, and no vibration was perceptible when the gale was at its highest pitch.

SINKING OF A BRITISH VESSEL BY A WHALE.—The London Shipping Gazette of the 26th March, publishes the following report of Captain Jones, of the British schooner Waterloo, of Portmadoc, which was sunk in the North sea by a whale.

"The Waterloo sailed from Linn for Shidam (with barley) on the 19th instant. At 10, A. M., of the 21st, Lowestoft bearing W. by N. distant about 50 miles, wind E., strong gale and high seas, vessel in under double reefed canvas, upon a wind, on the part tack, perceived a large whale to windward, coming down for the vessel, partly out of the water, and swimming at a very rapid rate; and when about 10 yards from the ship's side, dipped, and struck the vessel, under water, abreast of the fore-rigging, on the port side, with his head, with a fearful blow, when the vessel was perceived to heel and crack; and after striking the vessel, the whale plunged in the deep headforemost, and rose, his tail on high, nearly touching the foreyard, and then disappeared.

"The pumps were fixed and worked, but by half-past 12 found she had five feet water in the well, and settling down fast, when the long boat was cleared and lashings cut away, and nearly floated off the decks, when all hands (six in number) jumped into her, without food or water, and the master, mate, and two men, without jackets, and only one car and a piece of another in the boat, with the sea running very high. In about twenty minutes after abandoning the vessel she capsized, and floated for about the same space of time on her side, and then disappeared headforemost, at about half-past 1 P. M.

"At the time she capsized there was a French fishing boat about four miles to windward, and on perceiving her capsized, immediately bore up for the sinking vessel. The boat proved to be No. 22, Captain Joseph Leelong, of Calais, which took all the crew on board at about 2 P. M., where they were all most kindly treated, and landed at Calais at midnight, where they were provided for and furnished with jackets by—Bonham, Esq., H. B. M. consul, and sent to London."

A VALUABLE HORSE POISONED.—A correspondent of the Greensburgh Argus, writing from Saltsburgh, states that Mr. Getty, of Conemaugh township, had his favorite horse poisoned on the night of the 24th ultimo. The stomach was removed and taken to Saltsburgh, in order to have it analyzed. The mucous membrane was destroyed where the poison came in contact. The membranous substance and its muscular fibers presented unmistakable evidence of inflammation—confirming the suspicion that violence had been resorted to. The animal was worth three hundred dollars.
