

Supreme Court.

The People of Bedford County will be gratified to learn that the Judges of the Supreme Court have determined to hold a Session of that Court in Bedford to commence on the 10th of August...

We trust the Judges will be so much pleased with our place that they will hereafter make it one of their permanent places of holding Court, as they have the right to do, under a late Act of Assembly.

LETTER OF REV. JOHN A. COLLINS.

We re-publish to-day the able and eloquent Letter of Rev. JOHN A. COLLINS to which we alluded in the Gazette of last week. It will be found on the first page. It is one of the eminent productions of the age; and, coming from such a source, will command general respect and admiration.

The country, to a great extent, owes its present state of WICKEDNESS and DEBAUCHERY to the conduct of the "Three Thousand New England Clergymen" and their Allies in the MINISTRY, (together with the aid of certain RELIGIOUS (?) newspapers,) than to any other cause, a state of things clearly predicted in this masterly Letter, which has never been answered except by an anonymous scribbler in a scurrilous political newspaper!

The Examiner on Pollock Again!

We invite especial attention to an article on the first page of the Lancaster Examiner in reference to the appointments of Governor POLLOCK. The Examiner, be it remembered, was one of Pollock's warmest supporters at the last election. Know Nothingism is in a pitiable condition, truly.

The Know Nothing Whigs ought to get a few more FOREIGN GERMANS to write letters in favor of "Americans ruling America," as they did in Virginia—they ought to get a few more old gray-headed men to insult Democratic meetings by commanding "SAM" to "STAND UP" and exhibit himself after the manner in which the keepers of a "Menagerie" stir up the Monkeys—and they ought to perpetrate a few more Puns to the effect that "all Democrats will like WISE perish!" Perhaps it might relieve their distresses somewhat!

The Hon. H. A. STEPHENS, of Georgia, for many years one of the leading WHIG members of Congress, has published a Letter declining to be a candidate for re-election, on the ground that the Whigs, as a Party, have joined the Know Nothings, to which he can never belong. We publish a portion of his letter on the first page, with the expectation that it will be read with thrilling interest by all our patrons. This is the way for a Whig to speak who professes to be opposed to the Dark Lantern Order!

The Liquor Law.

Of all the laws that have ever been passed in this or any other Commonwealth in the Union, we think the Know Nothing Liquor Law passed by the Legislature of Pennsylvania last winter is the meanest, silliest, and most contemptible that any people have ever yet called upon to witness. If it had emanated from a Lunatic asylum instead of a Pennsylvania Legislature, it could not have presented a more sickly hotch-potch of double distilled nonsense. No body pretends to understand it, and almost every Judge in the State seems to have placed a different construction upon its provisions. In some counties all Licenses have been refused—while in others they have been granted until October. Whilst one section positively and unqualifiedly repeals the power of County Treasurers to issue Licenses to Stores and Eating houses to sell Liquors, Beer and Ale, Mr. Pollock's Attorney General has issued an official circular constraining the Law as giving the right to this class of dealers in Liquor to sell until the first of October!!! Now, his opinion is worth nothing more than that of any other Lawyer in the State; and if men are sought up" by adopting his opinion as the Whigs of Virginia and elsewhere were in betting their money on "Sam's Oath," some of them will find themselves in Prison at a time, perhaps, when they considered themselves as safe as the Know-Nothings of Bedford did their candidate for Governor of the old Dominion on last Monday morning, when they firmly believed his majority would reach 40 or 50,000!!! Even the most blind and benighted followers of Know Nothingism have not the hardihood to defend this Law, notwithstanding it is the legitimate, tantling of a Know Nothing Legislature, and received the "approval" and signature of a Know Nothing Governor—and, the people of BEDFORD COUNTY will not fail to remember that they are especially and personally indebted to FR. JORDAN for the passage of this contemptible Bill, in the Senate, where it only carried by one vote! Now, if Mr. Jordan had apprized the people of this District that he intended to vote for an abomination like the liquor law about which we are speaking, we do not believe he could have received a thousand votes in the three counties. We are told that Mr. Jordan was a great man at Harrisburg—that he made speeches by the hour!—a point we have no disposition to argue. We would remark, however, that Lawyers of small calibre always try to hide their natural deficiencies by a continued gabble, and in this way never fail to acquire the contempt of all-right thinking men.

The following article from the Philadelphia Aves, a Know Nothing paper, of Saturday last, is in point:

When doctors disagree, who shall decide?—The Liquor Law passed by the late Legislature seems to receive as many different constructions as there are Judges in the State. Attorney General Franklin has given a written opinion, that the existing laws regulating the Liquor traffic will continue in force until October next, the time the New Law goes into operation, and this opinion is coincided in by Judge Pearson, of the Dauphin District, Judge Higgins, of the Schuylkill District, and others, and seems to us to be the plain common sense construction of the law, if any such can be applied to it.

Other Judges differ, however, with the Attorney General and those coinciding with him. Among these is Judge Jordan of the Northumberland District. He, we notice, decided at the session of the Montour County Court, that County Treasurers cannot issue licenses at all under the present law. Judge Galbreath of the Erie District, has, on the other hand, decided that the new law repeals all the laws now in force, and that until October next, anybody may sell liquor that chooses, with or without license.

These conflicting opinions and decisions of a number of our ablest lawyers and soundest jurists are a sad commentary on the crude character of the law, and are, in themselves, ample evidence that it was not framed with that care, nor passed in that cautious spirit, which should ever characterize legislation on so important a subject, and which is likely to affect the rights and interests of so large a portion of the business of the Commonwealth.—Phila. Vets.

Democratic Prospects.

The prospects of the Democratic Party were never brighter than they are just now.—All the indications on this point are clear and unmistakable. Pennsylvania will be redeemed next fall beyond the shadow of a doubt, thus securing a Democratic U. S. Senator for the old Keystone—and, the result of the election in Virginia settles the question of the next Presidency in favor of the Democracy, a fact admitted by the New-York Herald the leading organ of Know Nothingism.—All honest Democrats who were deceived will come back, and be true to their former faith than ever—and, for every disappointed office-seeker we lose we will gain ten honest men from the ranks of the old Whig line, who refuse to be sold like cattle in the market. There are now but two parties in this country—the Democratic and the Know Nothing. There is no neutral, no middle ground, and all who do not rally under the Flag of Democracy, must rally under the black Flag of Know Nothingism, no matter what their professions. He that is not for us is against us.

The following communication from one of our most worthy citizens should command the earnest attention of those to whom it is directed:

For the Bedford Gazette.

A TOWN CLOCK.

Is there any good reason why we should not have a Town-Clock in Bedford? The cost of such a useful and necessary article is not great. Many a town of less pretensions and ability than ours, has its useful and highly-valued Clock.—We have a most admirable place for one—the cupola of the Court House. Our citizens have shown themselves public-spirited and generous, on several occasions, when some important improvement was needed. Now, here is a small and comparatively unexpensive improvement—not a mere ornament—but one of the necessities of civilized life. Can we not have it? If our Town Fathers were to go on, and procure the Clock at the public expense, would not every tax-payer commend them for their enterprise and well-doing—for their wise regard to the public welfare? If it were thought best to raise the amount required by subscription, who, in our town, or the country around it, would not cheerfully contribute to so useful an undertaking?

"Time is money," and the "Dollar and Cents" argument ought to induce every citizen to urge forward this project. I feel persuaded, that, for want of a public regulator, time is squandered away, in Bedford, at the rate of hundreds, perhaps thousands of dollars annually.—Every man of business habits—every woman who wishes to be methodical in her household arrangement, daily feels the want of a well-regulated public Time-Piece—a great Clock, that, day and night, would, in ponderous tones, teach the important lesson that time is fleeting, and that what our hands find to do, we should do it quickly. A well-kept Clock upon the Court House, by which all the time-pieces in town and country could be regulated—and which also would be the standard for religious and other meetings—for funerals, and business engagements, would add immensely to the comfort of every person of proper feelings and habits in our community. As a general thing I do not approve of "stealing," and I am not fond of "striking;" but in the matter of a Town-Clock, give me a "good striker"—and one that can speak as well as strike—one that, with every stroke, will lift up its voice, and cry—"Unto you, O men, I call. The time is short. Be diligent in business. Be punctual to your engagements. And good people all, remember, that the day is rapidly passing, and the night of death draws near!"

THE TRUE AMERICAN PARTY.—Some of the Democrats of New Orleans wrote to Robert C. Wickliffe, asking for the use of his name as a candidate for Governor of Louisiana at the ensuing election. He declines, and in his reply remarks that "The true American party in this land is the Democratic Party. It proscribes no man on account of his birth or his religion, it adopts as its own the principles contained in the declaration of American Independence. There rests not upon the statue book of our country one measure which has added to its greatness that has not the stamp and impress of Democracy. Under the Democratic rule and policy we have grown from infancy to vigorous manhood. Ours is the greatest, the happiest, and the best country God has given to man. Democracy has made it such, and the Democratic party will continue it so."

PRESBYTERIAN OPPOSITION TO THE K. N.'S.—The Presbytery of Shenango, of the Associate Presbyterian Church, at a meeting held at New Wilmington, on the 17th ult., adopted the following resolution with reference to Secret Societies:

Resolved, That in the judgment of this Presbytery, the principles of our Church exclude from communion the members of the Secret Society, called Know-Nothing, and the members of all such Secret Societies, and that the Presbytery direct sessions to enforce this opinion.

ALL HAIL VIRGINIA!!! The "Mother of States and Statesmen" saved from the blighting Curse of Know Nothing Rule! Democracy Sweeps the State by nearly Eight Thousand Majority!!!

On Thursday last, the 21st inst., the great contest took place in Virginia, in which the great triumph was secured for the Democratic party over the combined forces of Whiggery and Know-Nothingism. HENRY A. WISE (the gifted and eloquent champion of Democracy) is elected Governor by a majority of about 8,000 over FLOURNOY, his Know-Nothing Whig competitor—and thus, too, the spirit of the masses and hardest-contested campaigns ever witnessed in the Old Dominion.

His Democratic colleagues on the State Ticket are also elected by a majority fully equal to that given for Mr. Wise, and every Congressional district in the State has been carried by the Democracy! So also an increased majority in the Legislature.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

From the Pennsylvania.

Glorious Old Virginia.

Doubly has she earned the title of the "Mother of Heroes, Patriots, and Statesmen." While her generous spirit has nurtured the noblest spirits of America, she has also nurtured the noblest spirits of the world, who have shaken her bloody hand over the rest of the Union, only to fall paralyzed, when it is waved in threatening gesture over a soil which has never been polluted with the gore from her reeking fingers. All hail to the noble bosom against which the treacherous blow of a scolding woman rebounded with violence to the assailant. Our appeal to her has not been fruitless. Always first in the list of States, she now towers above them all in her pride of place. Too intelligent to be lured from their love of Constitutional freedom, her gallant Democracy have stayed the dissolving trend of Know-Nothingism, and it is now doomed to perish of the innate corruption which has long been festering in its organization. Ever true to her high calling as the just umpire between her sister States, faction holds its vigor when it approaches the soil which holds the remains of WASHINGTON and JEFFERSON, and she punishes the traitors of the remnant of her austere patriotism. The Demon of Anarchy starves before the holy altar of civil and religious liberty, reared in Virginia for the protection of man's loftiest rights, and guarded by the ever waving sword of Justice and Reason. Back to the murky days of the Revolution, the foul spirit of Know-Nothingism has driven by Virginia's many sons, and reeling under the strokes of freedom, too brave to be frightened at the hideous aspect of a prowling antagonist, and too generous to forsake the foster brethren of her household, invited to her table by the Fathers of our Constitution, that she might be a witness to the triumph of the noblest cause that the world has ever known. The people whole that with the conquest of Virginia, the whole South would yield to the degrading embrace of Know-Nothingism, has only paralyzed the tongue that uttered the foul aspersion upon Virginia's heroic virtue.

While examining the returns from our pre-eminent State, I determined to see that which would be the Know-Nothing Organ in its vicinity, has kept in motion for an hour or two, suddenly ceased its joyous notes, and was silent for the remainder of the night. What silenced its premature melody? Did the more patriotic sound from Rockingham and Shenandoah, together with the voice of their instruments? Or did Roman's horn, as its echoes reverberated through the gorges of the Alleghenies, and floated in wail-like accents over the valleys of our State, frighten the "wild birds of night" from their croaking choruses? We are permitted to believe that the "Know-Nothing Order" are fleeing to their Lodge Rooms, to seek consolation from each other's folly. Degraded miscreants,—had they not read that Mount Vernon holds the ashes of WASHINGTON, and that the Author of the Declaration sleeps beneath the tomb at Monticello, and that the voice carries a dagger to their prejudices, had they never learned that Patrick Henry's voice had penetrated into every tenement in Virginia, and rendered loyal to the Constitution all her Democratic sons? Aye—snark away to you converts at the voice of Virginia's chivalrous children, and let us see how you will stand in the day of our prospects; but a humanizing sound to agonizing liberty. Immortal Virginia! the Vestal Virgins were not purer in their lives, in the days of their greatest purity, than you in your political creed. Who dare now say, that Treason can sever this noble Union, and that the blood of our fathers, shed in the name of our country, or the lawless violence of a misguided mob? To Virginia, her Sisters can appeal with safety, because Justice, Honor, Valor, and Magnanimity, are the jewels which adorn her coronet. Her position is indeed to be envied—but it is such every as the good of the order, and the voice carries a dagger to their prejudices, had they never learned that Patrick Henry's voice had penetrated into every tenement in Virginia, and rendered loyal to the Constitution all her Democratic sons? Her position is indeed to be envied—but it is such every as the good of the order, and the voice carries a dagger to their prejudices, had they never learned that Patrick Henry's voice had penetrated into every tenement in Virginia, and rendered loyal to the Constitution all her Democratic sons? Aye—snark away to you converts at the voice of Virginia's chivalrous children, and let us see how you will stand in the day of our prospects; but a humanizing sound to agonizing liberty. Immortal Virginia! the Vestal Virgins were not purer in their lives, in the days of their greatest purity, than you in your political creed. Who dare now say, that Treason can sever this noble Union, and that the blood of our fathers, shed in the name of our country, or the lawless violence of a misguided mob? To Virginia, her Sisters can appeal with safety, because Justice, Honor, Valor, and Magnanimity, are the jewels which adorn her coronet.
