DREADFUL RAILROAD ACCIDENT .- Two Persons Killed and Twelve or Fourteen Injured -An accident occurred on the Portage Railroad, a few miles west of Holliday sburg, on Monday evening week, of such fearful extent as to startle our whole community and sadden all our people. The circumstances, as nearly as we have been able to gather them, appear to be that in the morning a number of young folks-male and female-went up to the mountain to gather blackberries, and were returning in the evening on the locomotive and ten-About the time of their returning a very heavy rain occured, a land slide took place on the track, which was not observed in time to stop the train, and the locomotive and tender were thrown off the track and down an em-bankment of some 30 or 40 feet, more or less crushing and mangling some 15 or 16 of those on board, killing one on the instant and mortally injuring another .- Hol.
