

THE BEDFORD GAZETTE.

Bedford, Sept. 14, 1855.

G. W. Bowman, Editor and Proprietor.

Democratic Candidate for Canal Commissioner,

HON. ARNOLD PLUMER, OF VENANGO COUNTY.

Honesty of the Editor.

In consequence of the indisposition of the Editor, the Gazette of this week does not contain its usual amount of editorial matter.

A Quarterly Meeting of the M. E. Church of Bedford Station, will commence on Saturday next, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Col. Black.—There was a grand Democratic mass meeting at New Lisbon, Ohio, on Monday last, at which Gov. Medill and our fellow citizen, Col. Black, were the principal speakers.

Philadelphia Nominations.—The Democratic County Convention of Philadelphia, has made the following excellent nominations:

Assembly—First District, Chas. M. Leisinger; Second, John McCarthy; Third, John Thompson; Eighth, Joseph Hunker; Ninth, John Hancock; Tenth, Townsend Yeasley; Eleventh, Chas. Carty; Twelfth, Frederick Walter; Thirteenth, Samuel Hibbs; Fourteenth, John Roberts; Fifteenth, Richardson L. Wright.

Register of Wills—Charles W. Carrigan. Clerk of Orphan's Court—John Sherry.

The City Convention has nominated the following Legislative ticket: Fourth District, Ignatius Donnelly; Fifth, Aaron Coburn; Sixth, Peapertown Morris; Seventh, George Smith.

MISSISSIPPI.

The gallant Democracy of Mississippi are doing their work nobly. Messrs. McWillie, Wright, Bennett, Barksdale, Quitman, and McRae, are laboring like faithful servants in the Democratic vineyard.

There was a gathering of from 800 to 1000 on the occasion of a Democratic barbecue and mass meeting. The Know Nothings were invited to participate in the discussion, and Messrs. A. R. Johnston and G. L. Potter appeared as the forlorn defenders of their cause.

Gen. Miles, of Mississippi, a distinguished Whig, in a late speech at Jackson, said—"If I were a citizen of New Orleans, I expect to be in New Orleans when the election shall come on; but on the morning of the first day I intend to take the cars at eight o'clock, and travel eighty-four miles to Osyka, and then, for the first time in my life, I intend to vote the full Democratic ticket.

Know Nothingism Sinking. From almost every part of the country, as well as in our own county, we have the most unquestionable evidence of the sinking condition of the Know Nothing order.

Blair County. The Whigs of Blair county, at a Convention held a few days since, nominated the following ticket: Assembly, Col. David H. Hofins; Associate Judge, Joseph Feany; Commissioner, Daniel C. Gibboney; Sheriff, Samuel McCamant.

OLD-FASHIONED MORALITY.

If all our clergymen are not baxters, Barrows, and Whitfields, their influence upon the people for good or for evil is beyond all calculation. Those who do the most good, however, are the men who most closely study the character and the example of the early teachers of Christianity.

"I am now in my 78th year, and have been in the ministerial office a little upward of half a century. During the long course of my ministry—ten years occupying the old homestead, and upwards of forty in my present location, and under different phases of the political atmosphere—I never saw it my duty, or felt the slightest inclination to preach what is generally called a political sermon.

From the Somerset Democrat.

COMING OUT FROM THE FOUL PARTY.

Below will be found a letter of renunciation from a citizen of Milford township, to which we direct the attention of our readers. We are always glad to record such instances of manly independence, and trust that Mr. Friedline's noble example will be imitated by others whom we know have become disgusted with the Order, and who regret the day that they ever bowed the knee to such a monster of iniquity.

MILFORD TWP., Somerset County. C. F. Mitchell: Dear Sir—I was induced through the persuasion of persons who professed to be my friends to become a member of the Know Nothing party, on the positive assurance that there was nothing wrong or immoral in it.

Gen. Washington's Last Vote. A correspondent of the Charleston Courier relates the following interesting circumstances: "I was present when Gen. Washington gave his last vote. It was in the spring of 1779, in the town of Alexandria. He died the 11th of December following.

Blair County. The Whigs of Blair county, at a Convention held a few days since, nominated the following ticket: Assembly, Col. David H. Hofins; Associate Judge, Joseph Feany; Commissioner, Daniel C. Gibboney; Sheriff, Samuel McCamant.

Francis Carr, who has taught school in Indiana for several years, was driven from Mooresville a few evenings ago, by a gang of seven or eight Know-Nothings, who shouted "kill him knock his brains out."

SCAMP.

A young scamp, about 25 years of age, is at present traversing Pennsylvania, Ohio, and the adjacent states. He is a man of short stature, with black hair, and a rather narrow countenance, and is not heavily built. He pretends to be deaf and dumb, which, however, is very doubtful. He writes in English capitals and his orthography is very bad.

WELL RAVAGES OF THE YELLOW FEVER.—BIRMINGHAM, Sept. 4.—The Norfolk boat arrived this morning. She brings awful tidings of the ravages of yellow fever at that place. A letter from Dr. Morris states that 64 deaths had occurred in Norfolk on Monday. The Herald gives the names of 35 that died on Sunday.

WHIG RESOLUTIONS. Whereas, It is due to the citizens of Philadelphia in the present confusion of politics, that we should make known wherein we are distinguishable from another Convention assembled in the Whig name—Therefore,

THE YELLOW FEVER AT PORTSMOUTH VA.—By a letter from a Philadelphia physician, now at Norfolk, Va., ministering to the comfort of the sick and afflicted, we learn there were five hundred and thirty cases of yellow fever in that city on Saturday, in a population of from eight to nine thousand.

RAILROAD.

On Saturday evening last, the passenger train had passed upon the track near Markiesburg, a heavy iron on the return of the train the obstruction observed by the brakeman on the passenger, which was in front coming down, and alarm was given, but not in time to enable engineer to stop the train until it had passed thereal. Fortunately the train was not on the track, the road being perfectly clear where the obstruction was placed.
