

BY GEO. W. BOWMAN.

Freedom of Thought and Opinion.

TERMS, $2 PER YEAR.

VOL. XXIV, NO. 7.

NEW SERIES.

BEDFORD, PA. FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 28, 1855.

Select Poetrn.

Fruit and Flowers. When God first framed this world of ours, For beauty and for fove, Each attribute would try its powers, Its varied skill would prove.

All, all but Mercy had a share, And she stood silent by, Gazing upon the work so fair, With earnest, longing eye.

The Father saw her darling face, And read her wishes too, And said, it is a sinless place What is there yon can do ?"

She quickly sent her searching eye Through our earth's fresh green bowers, Then murmured with a gentle sigh, "There's neither fruit nor flowers."

A smile the wished commission gave Then swift as light she flew, Her wings of violet to lave In Eden's morning dew.

Up rose the sun; but what a sight Met his admiring view -The bursting buds speak their delight Through tints of richest hue.

The flowers on every side look up With wonder to the sky: While nestled in each tiny cup, Fruit germs lay lovingly

New songs were borne upon the breeze, New joy earth's dwellers feel: For e'en the birds and humming bees Their bliss cannot conceal.

But when this happiness to spoil, The monster sin appeared, Thistles and thorns from out the soil Their heads as quickly reared.

Then Mercy wept, for well she knew She had no power to stay The curse that man upon him drew, By leaving wisdom's way.

But still her work she must pursue, And solten his sad hours-Choice fruit opon the rough thorns grew, Upon the thistles, flowers.

From the Pennsylvanian THRTY THOUSAND FREEMEN IN CODNEIL

To acknowledge Fealty to the Constitution of their Country, and Abash the Foes of Liberty and Equality ! !

and elicited general admiration. Last night was a glorious one for the Democracy of Philadelphia, because the theme was one which gladdens the heart with patriot-

There are moments when the human soul It catches inspiration from its own harmony, tra Pennsylvanian-Expose of the Know Noth- things, frequently go against either his judgand imparts the fullness of joy to all within its ings." It is needless to say that they found a ment or his oath; and that too were the most influence. Who could restrain their feelings ready sale for their extras, and reaped a rich vital interests of his country may be involvat a sight like that in Independence Square, with such an event to commemorate ? A CON-STITUTION, framed by the wise and valiant, to lift man from his degredation, the world over, and make him the peer of his fellow ? Ob ! what a theme for eloquence! The loftiest thought that ever animated the brain of the ancients, fell far short of this great reality. How ground. lected by the God of Nature as the sponsors of son. Liberty, and He has made our hearts its chosen sinctuary. Shall we shame their memories by a forfeiture of the security, or defile the abode with the presence of prejudice ? Never, never ! music. Why then should puny his sepulchral voice 1 man desire to mar the harmony of Nature, by attempting to build up offensive distinctions in society. The human heart is not "all evil," and he erous cheering followed. The human heart is not "all evil," and he erous cheering followed. The different Ward Associations then follow-hundred votes, thus giving to a few personal is the effect of that Christianity which recog- blems of the party. nizes all as brethren. Why should the Secret Order, in its warfare upon the sons of other the yard, the beautiful piece of fireworks in climes, seek to destroy the vital element of front of the main stand, the "Sun of Freedom," Christianity? Why strive to arm brother a- accidentally took fire. The utmost consternagainst brother, and disgrace a Union cemented tion prevailed for a few minutes, and a numlegacy-and while the patriot's heart feels the ealivening glow, our Constitution will be de-The "Sun of Freedom" was bound to shine, lended against all profanation. What a gratifying assurance we had last plaudits of the assembled multitude. night from thirty thousand voices, that no sacwas no unmeaning annunciation-for it sprang from hearts determined to beat in the full enjoyment of freedom, or cease their throbbings derment. forever. Resolute in their own resistance to tyranny, they will repel every attempt to establish a degraded caste among our citizens, or to interfere with the rights of our Southern thousands gathered within the shadows of In-1 set of demagogues, who, not content with mo-1 this too, under the responsibilities of an extra-1 thrown out of employment by the failure of the dependence Hall last night, attests the sinceri- nopolizing the "intensely American feeling," judicial oath. It is utterly impossible that such firm they worked for, and after struggling along ty of their hearts. Equal and exact justice to without claim or ability, are attempting to mo- a party can long exist.-PITTSBURG (WHG) with great difficulty finally committed the above all, of whatever clime or creed, is both the nopolize all the offices. spirit and letter of our Constitution, and adopt- The fusion between Democrats and old line ing it as the motto of the gallant Democracy of Whigs is an honorable one, because it is only the whole Union, with a resolution to cling to on local issues. Each party preserves its Nathe whole Union, with a resolution to ching to on local issues. Each pury provide the first day of October, 1855. We lay it beand the South, are equals in the Confederacy, anti-republican and dangerous institution, founand the rights of each, are the rights of all .- ded in corruption, and kept alive only by hy-Let no miscreant hand attempt to detract from pocricy and deception.

either. It was a glorious sight to behold thirty thou- the old office hunters, where Whigs and Demo- are to be the Judges, and, as they decide, so let sand freemen, with their patriotic banners and crats have banded together, not in such a mangallant devices, marching to the sound of enli-vening music, to acknowledge their fealty to themselves, but by oaths, blindly to follow the the Constitution, under whose protection we behests of the fungi that has clung for years to have grown to unparalleled greatness as a Na-tion. Gn our prosperity the people of Europe more patriotically speaking, "Americanism."— fine not exceeding $50, with imprisonment not exceeding one month, for selling, and affording look with a longing eye, while the Despots "Poverty makes strange bed-fellows," saith the a place, inducement, or any other convenience, view us with an envious frown. Why should old adage, and, it never was better exemplified where intoxicating liquor may be sold and of the Constitution. Friend grasped the hand Whigs, going hand in hand with ultra, but bro- a place for drinking, or for aiding or abetting. of the Constitution. Friend grasped the hand of friend with delight, as he uttered a patriotic sentiment. No mean and narrow prejudice disgraced the scene; but all were indeed breth-disgraced the scene; but all were indeed by profuse promises of loaves and fishes.

the provided they be of temperate habits, and give the processions from the several Wards began to arrive, with their lanterns and banners, nothing could exceed the storm of welcome in open day, by delegates chosen by that party of all laws relating to the sale of said liquors, which greeted their presence. On they came and not voted for in the secret councils of the to be filed in Court; on which bond, fines and from every portion of our extended City, amid Know Nothings. The honorable Whigs, who costs may be collected, upon the conviction of from every portion of our extended City, and peel on peal of cheering. The bands, which were more numerous than we have ever before seen on any occasion, burst out into the very soul of melody, and filed every one with glad-the same and there is not a shadaw of doubt. Costs may be collected, upon the conviction of the principal. The applicant for license must present his petition, bave it hawfully adverti-sed, and the Court shall fix a time when objec-covered in this city. Another lot consist ness. Never before was Independence Square the same, and there is not a shadow of doubt filled with so many voters. All doubt of suc-cess in October, was scattered to the winds, and on, will be most triumphantly elected. Who thirty thousand voices responded to the senti- can doubt the issue, when it is a fusion of hon- by any measure whatever, and no unnaturalized ment, that "we must be victorious, because our orable men, openly formed to elect men to officause is one of Truth and Justice." The speak- ces qualified to fill them, against a cabal of poing was of a most excellent character, and eve- htical renegades whose aspirations to fill office toxicating beverages, except when mixed with ry one present felt assured that the Constitu- are not warranted by honesty, qualifications, or other medicines. tion will be preserved in all its purity and natural abilities ? strength. The main stand was most tast-fully decorated.

Secret Political Parties.

A temporary arched gas pipe, with innumerable burners extended over the entire front of it. ingism, Gen. Rusk, United States Senator from granted for less than $30. In the centre was a very handsome star formed Texas, says : of a large number of jets of gass. Being directly in the middle of the main pathway, the ef-tect from the southern gate was grand. Temdo not openly and distinctly avow their princi-this act, punished according to the second secporary gas pipes were extended some distance ples. The oaths which it is understood they The entire stand was most elaborately fes- take are illegal, tyrannical and at open war with the fundamental principles of our govern- inflaces, kept in , violation, of this act, fined, not tooged with the Ameican flag, while the strings mat personal neerty and motivioual responsions-Immediately in front of the stand at an eleva- ty which is the very ground work of our free institutions. It is the highest privilege as well tion, was a large and magnificent piece of fireworks intended to represent the "Sox or FuEE, as the sacred duty of every American citizen to age, without appraisement and license; comtion, was a large and magnificent piece of are-works intended to represent the "Son of FREE, pom." It was one of Mr. Jackson's best efforts, of his own best judgment. How can be surrenorks intended to represent the cost of the measures and men under the guidance of his own best judgment. How can be surren-and elicited general admiration. As early as hall-past six o'clock, there were himself by oath to carry out what they may over filteen hundred persons in the yard, wit- himself by oath to carry out what they may nessing the preparations being made for the dictate, and fulfil his obligations to himself, his monster meeting, while the air resounded with country and his God as a freemen ? The thing some score of juvenile voices, crying out, "Ex- is absurd! He must, in the very nature of fore the public so that the Freemen of Bedford culty with his uncle, a drayman, in regard to Let the intelligent voter look to the fusion of visions on the second Tuesday of October. They

GAZETTE. The Liquor Law. The following is a brief synopisis of the K.

it be

THE ACT TO RESTRAIN THE SALE, &C.

1. All Drinking Houses Prohibited, and a view us with an envious frown. Why should we not cheer the former, by our example, to the accomplishment of their own liberties ? At an early hour, the Square was joyous with the presence of thousands of the triends where intoxicating fiquor may be sold and than in the fusion of the old office paupers, who, under a specious cry of "Down with Foreigners and the Pope," boasted that they would destroy with the presence of thousands of the triends whith the presence of thousands of the triends than in the fusion of the old office paupers, who, under a specious cry of "Down with Foreigners and the Pope," boasted that they would destroy both parties. The rankest and most intolerant whith and with ultra, but bro-person, under any circumstances. 4. Druggists are prohibited from selling in-

5. Clerks of Quarter Sessions cannot issue a

In a late letter on the subject of Know-Noth- three times the present amount ; but no license

6. Persons licensed to sell by the quart, and three months.

8. Importers may sell in the original pack-

Powder in Railroad Cars.

grand the conception :- now enhobing the pa-triotism! With ardent love should we cherish the inheritance-with what valiant breast de-ized, showing that the Democratic fire now of found to contain what they were taken for, by were filled, with the exception of just ugh dry goods to prevent the kegs from ratig, with gun powder ! There were some bity persons assisting on the occasion, and it ing their friends with a vengence : e easily imagined what was their indignaic and alarm at this disclosure. With sparks tration has forfeited our confidence ; that a mainsmoking cinders all around them, and with or hundreds of pounds of powder in close viwhad resorted to such means of deception. inhus jeopardized numerous lives. hen the fire was extinguished, it had reach- tiring members should be carefully supplied dithin three or four inches of the powder with pure, upright and honorable men. ts some of the boxes being slightly scorched, aunder these circumstances, had the train becompelled to run three miles instead of onhe result must have been fearful. There ar words that can fairly express the feelings sylvania has never seen so vast a crop of buck-her children, contrary to the laws of Louisi-He is required to take an oath to keep secrets, thean be no blame attached to the railroad fume. Not alone the rich valleys, but the rules, irksome and offensive and wholly useless rulstrictly adhered to, and they honestly to enable him to discharge his duties as a citizen. tods freight as it was marked, "Dry Goods," Until lately he was not permitted to acknowl- anwhich it had every appearance. But it grace to the landscape. Never did this grain edge his membership in the Order, or the place is the shippers of these cases that the of its meeting, or admit even its very existence. For the purpose of saving a few During the evening reports were heard from If he was an upright man this led to continual pacents and gaining a little time, they re- Though the uses of buckwheat are few in our difficulties and disagreeable evasions, as disa-greeable as disgraceful. That it led to a wide-accies before the fact to a wholesale mur-cattle and poultry, especially for mixing, and spread and systematic course of falsehood and del as such they should be exposed and se- thus the crop becomes important, in releasing deception cannot be denied. Even now a verunished .- Boston Times.

dreadful deed.

Extensive Larceny.

er of Allegheny, named Nicholas, had a diffi-culty with his uncle, a drayman, in regard to "When 1 am dead!" is uttered calmly ; but County may pass their judgment upon its pro- the amount of drayage to which the latter was what a calm !- such as the tornado leaves when entitled. Nicholas made his bill ten dollars silence broods over desolation. The voice proless than the drayman alleged he was entitled nouncing that despairing phrase, has not all its to, and, by way of retaliation, gave informa- mournfuiness from itself. The listening ears tion to Esquire Simms, of Birmingham, to the hear nothing more; for from those words the effect that the said iron dealer was engaged in groans of high asperations quenched, and hopes receiving and selling stolen property. About the same time a letter was received by Mayor sity, come up, phantom-like, amid the ghastly Adams' police, to the same effect. Warrants scenes of the buried past. were issued for John Lythe and Henry Nicholas, both second-hand dealers of Allegheny, and they were arrested on Friday, and committed the departed to its final rest. The last word

> -and in Cambria county succeeded in arres- the echo fades amidst encircling mist, and the ting twenty-six men who are supposed to have been concerned in the larceny. They are now lodged in the county jail. The parties were all in the employ of the State, and were en- are wider than the globe, higher than the stars. gaged on the Portage Railroad. The iron was Not the mind's eye, not the anxious soul, can cut up and shipped in barrels to various points glance through the barrier-the boundary be-in the West. Thirteen barrels have been re-tween Time and Eternity.

Another lot consisting of thirty-four barrels, which is supposed to be a part of the stolen nature, or a perversion of its end, may these metal, will likely be recovered also. The po-lice are busily engaged in ferreting out those When the aged man, whose steps have grown concerned in the transaction. Some shipments feeble in the walks of goodness, and whose have been made to Cincinnati, and to other hand tremble with the fruits of his oft given points on the Ohio river. There is no doubt charity, utters these words, they fall from the but that the greater portion of the iron will be lips as a prayer to heaven. In them his will found. It is worth about two cents per pound, harmonizes with his destiny, and the tear that and was sold for old iron. The total value of starts for a superior soul about to leave its clay, license until the bond has been filed, fees paid, the amount alleged to have been stolen would glistens in the light of happiness gleams out of > gaged in this infamous business for some months of the fount of Nature's Poesy, may murmur past, and that there are many more implicated "When I am dead !" but death to such a one, who will yet be arrested .- Pittsburg Union, is better, perhaps, than life. His heart holds 10th himself to go to Mount Holly; but before leav- and warm with sympathy for all of loveliness, ing she desired to change her seat to the oppo- sighs, like the south wind, "When 1 am dead !" scene. He first found that the car in which he the rocks of a destructive shore. left his wife was nearly all dashed to pieces.

On that side of the car where the ladies had the plaint of a ghost on the tempest and mid-On the afternoon of the 7th instant, as a been sitting previous to their changing at Bur- night wind. But we most all say it some time; eight train was on its way from Boston to Al- lington, there was not a single seat that had not for the grave lies at hand, yawning through a any, on the Western railroad, when about a been destroyed-a few seats were whole on the bed of thorns or gleaming like a white avenue nile from Greenbush, one of the cars took fire. side on which he left his wife. This circum- of hope leaning against illed with merchandise, the engineer hastened was unable to find his wife. He found under import hath it to the utterer, but it is a weak stance gave Mr. J. some faint hope, although he harvest for themselves. At half-past 7 o'clock, the Philadelphia Brass Band appeared on the Stand and struck up Band appeared by the "Star Spathe car off and so curiously had the fire burned dress, but felt satisfied it was not of his wife's. will move none-all will be as before. When round all the corners, that the sides fell out After examining the dead bodies for a long time, he, and you, and we, gentle reader, are folded wo-thirds full, though not a single one of the Vard Associations had yet appeared on the round. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed among the he freight, several cases marked "Dry Goods," her, in an adjoining field, where they had taken all begun to flow. The heart that beats with refuge from the hot sun. rapture against our own will freeze above our memory in a brief time-briefer than woman's

"When I am Dead !" In the dim crypts of the heart, where despair abideth, these words seem written. A strange meaning-a solemn intimation unfolds itself at their utterance. Four simple liltle monosyllapale and bleeding upon the sharp rocks of adver-

"When I am dead !" We have heard it often, like the pealing bell that tolls the body of "dead" lingers strangely and echoes sadly in the ear, and through the portals of the sympa-In the meantime officer Hague received in- thizing soul. Dead-dead-dead-and the

"When I am Dead !" more or less signifies resignation, or dependent wo, a fulfilment of the heart at the prospective reward of the fu-It is supposed that these men have been en- ture. The lips, too, that never pressed the rim no music, chiming in cadences to weal or wo; AN INCIDENT OF THE BURLINGTON ACCIDENT. face of his being, checkered though not bright--The Trenton Gazette, of the 31st, has the following: "Mr. Joseph O. Johnson and wile Mr. Johnson had left her in the train, intending bins of the main the train, intending harvest for themselves. gled Banner."

down the walk from the stand.

below.

fend the sacred trust! Our fathers were se- burns as brightly as it did in the days of Jack- person chooses to unite with any open political agated lamps, and during the interval between can keep him out, or prevent his enjoyment of the speeches, was entertained by a band of all the rights and privileges of a freeman and a nusic. The meeting organized at 20 minutes be- with one of these secret parties be must be ad-workings. From what springs that expansive ed each other in rapid succession. Each Asso- enemies, or persons interested in keeping anothbenevolence which marks the history of this ciation was accompanied by a Band of Music, er out, a power unknown to the whole spirit age? It ramifies the globe, and exalts man- and banners and lanterns almost without num- and nature of our government. Thus is the kind wherever it flows. Its quenchless spirit ber, each having the various devices and em- very entrance to the secret party rendered hu-

As the Ninth Ward Association was entering and self-respect. ith the blood of all nations? Priceless is the ber of persons fled precipitately from the stand, and it did shine most brilliantly, amidst the riligious hand shall strike one truth from the the little mortar, and fireworks were burning in Declaration of Independence, or one right from various parts of the yard, which, with the thouthe Constitution of our Country. And this sands of brilliantly illuminated lanterns, and inspiring and patriotic music from the various bands, made it a scene of wonder and bewilbrethren. The States entered the Confederacy as equals, and as such they must continue, or the brightest hopes of mankind will have per-the brightest hopes of mankind will have per-

From the Hollidaysburg Standard. FUSION.

By this time the Square was earnest and zealous opposition. Its charactertwo-thirds full, though not a single one of the istics are slavery and proscription-slavery of Ward Associations had yet appeared on the its members and proscription of all others. A law, and equals the grave proclaims us with fore 8 o'clock, amidst the wildest enthusiasm. mitted by the votes of others sitting in secret, At ten minutes past 8 o'clock, JACKSON's where his character is canvassed without any little mortar and a brilliant rocket announced opportunity of defence or reply. He is not adthe arrival of the first of the Ward Associations matted, either, by a majority. The revelation (the Seventh) on the ground. The most vocit- published in the Chambersburg Whig showed that it only took five blackballs to nullify five miliating to the last degree to a man of spirit

The lower Stand was illuminated with vari-

If he gets in he is in no better condidtion .before he knows what he will have to keep, and is rendered amenable to a code of laws or member is not permitted to tell who else are members, even when the question is directly the brightest hopes of mankind will have per-ished for ages in the future. But no such calamity can happen our Union, for can our naturalized citizens be reduced to bor can our naturalized citizens be reduced to ing, in strange company, out it is equally true sent to such interaction of the times demanded liber-a crafe, while justice animates the Democratic that the exigency of the times demanded liber-trols his whole political conduct, and even delies were found lying on the floor. grum and lethargic, while he of theantmeal Last year when fruits were scarce, sugar was a coste, while justice animates the Democratic that the exigency of the times demanded ther-trois his whole pointear control, and ville and and the supported themselves by working at will have exhibit and contentment low. We cannot make things come out right, gauzation. The cheering exclamations of the fused, to secure the overthrow of a despicable however, obnoxious, or not vote at all, and all the facture of straw bonnets, but were of spirit .-- Ledger.

BACKING ITS FRIENDS .--- The following res- trust or man's period of goodness. olution was adopted by the Whig Convention on Wednesday last. We would call this back-

Resolved, That the present State Adminisjority of the last Legislature, by its corruptions, tollies and meanness, its disregard of the known iy, no wonder that curses, not loud but deep, will of the majority of the people, and its re- day last, and nominated a full ticket. S. H. peated violations of public and private right, betrayed the people and disgraced the character of Pennsylvania, and that the places of its re- Democratic State Convention.

Buckwheat.

In the memory of man, the State of Pennwheat as now whitens the fields with its rich perators of such an outrage. Of course blossoms, and fills the air with fragrant percony, as it is one of their rules that no pow- rough hill countries, appear to have every a- to say she had a frightful dream, and had seen dell be transported over the road, This vailable spot whitened with this delicate plant. her grandmother. At this season, when fruits take the place of flowers, the buckwheat blossom adds peculiar its full weight of the farmer's wheat and corn that breaks up pride and leads to repenfor the general market.

But it is well thus : 'tis the world's custom and nature's law. We weep not for the dead but while they die. We shall soon be with them; and it may be good to go early to their parrow homes.

NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY .- The Democratic Convention of Northumberland met on Mon-Zimmerman was nominated for Assembly, and D. B. Montgomery appointed Delegate to the IFIn New Orleans, lately, a man named Hunter was sentenced to pay a fine of $1,000, undergo an imprisonment of six months, and forfeit certain slaves whom he illegally sold in such a manner as to separate the mother from ana.

IFA lady sent for doctor, in great tronble

"What did you eat for supper ?" "A mince pie."

"Mr. Jones, don't you think marriage is a means of grace ?" "Certainly-anything is a means of grace tance,'

Scene closes with a broom handle.

"Ir is very sickly here," said a son of the Emerald Isle the other day to another. "Yes," replied his companion, "a great many have died this year who never died before."

BAD FOR PRESERVING .- Just at the season something is always dear or scarce.

EDY IN NEW YORK CITY .- Two Ger- Buckwheat cakes! One buckwheat cake put. His only resort is in silence or evasion. maers, named Stein, who, with a little boy, is different from another yet not one in a thou-In fact, in every aspect in which it can the of them, had been living in one sand is made right. Yet of all things it is the be surveyed, a member of a secret political par- roca dwelling house in the Bowery, New easiest to cook, if the meal is made rightly.-We this day place at the head of our col-ty such as the Know-Nothings is in a state of Yd great distress, were found on Thurs-To every three bushels of buckwheat add one brethren. The States entered the Confederacy umns the fusion ticket formed by the Whig and constraint near akin to moral and mental sla-