They were tinkerers, tinkerers, tinkerers!-

BEDFORD, PA. FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 5, 1855.

For the Bedford Gazette. My Mountain Home. ere is a cherished spot Far out in the mountains placed, e main and humble cot the futures charmes is graced.

High mountains tower around. With grand majestic form, And the trees which stud the ground With boldness face the store

Here the haunts of my childhood are Mid the woods and the cloistered grove of the prospect stretching far Which, to view, I was wont to love.

Here flows the little stream

Where the spotted trout I caught:

And many familiar spots are seen

Which never can be forgot.

In childhood's hours I met, Have passed away from the verdant eart Though their traces linger wet. Yes, they are laid in the site at tomb.

And drives away all tears.

And contentment a sure retreat. . One Messa of my feart he copy the Concluding portion of it, and beg our Whigh Thy scenes can never he forest.

While inward thought may start. T. R. W. act upon it. It shows have

We find in the time diagon (Ga.). We first on the lith inst., any couponal deports of the lith inst., any couponal deports of the lith was willing to the was will not the ches delivered at a grand mass meeting of pocrats and anti-Know Nothings following ha, Ga., on Thursday, the 6th ult., from fight, and on the ground he would cry out awe clip the following extracts from the against this seven headed Know-Nothing Mon-is made by the Hon. A. H. Stephens, ster which attacked the liberties of the people, a candidate for re-election to Congress He had heard his friend (Mr. Ward) described to the congress of the people. The remarks of Mr. Stephens, the shifts to which these men were driven .while read with interest. He is every where First, the ten articles—then the Philadelphia Platform—then the Macom Platform—then the Platform—then the Macom Platform—then the Platform—then the Macom Platform—then the Platform—the orrence of the Secret Order-are in Savannah Platform-then this Warrenton Plat- sun .- Pennsylvaniun. nict accord with the views of all National form-tinkerers tinkerers all the time. Let bigs, whether North or South.

60v. McDonald opened the proceedings, and They drew in their heads, and then drew in Il. Stephens, whose appearance was greeted in, and that is their tails. Let the people not ras with cheer upon cheer of congratulation and be deceived-let them jump on the monster, r fathers, or did they want another? We Our forelathers guarded our liberties with checks owers for its secret National Council alone. He had confidence in the people, and he knew look on apparently as much interested as another Constitution for us. Would a freeman bands—the damsels tell their sweet hearts to 50 or 60 feet. a new government? Were they tired of the try.

He said that a good deal had been said, about a phrase of his, in reference to the "dry rot" into concealed places, hide beneath the beds, the manner in which it was performed.

reans and Preston King, Banks, of Massachusetts, than with those who had it. Every man who and men of the South; peacefully and harmofought by his side for the Kansas bill—he meant niously unite in all the offices of brotherly love from the North-called himself a Democrat; and self-sacrificing kindness. How all party from the North—called himself a Democratic part of the North—called himself a Democratic part of the North—called himself and self-sacrificing kindness. How an party spirit and bigotry pale before this sublime picture, and bide their diminished heads! Before partisan strile has taken its phrensied hold upon our community, and severed the ties which bind us as a people, let us learn these important and self-sacrificing kindness. How an party spirit and bigotry pale before this sublime picture, and hide their diminished heads! Before partisan strile has taken its phrensied hold upon our community, and severed the ties which bind us as a people, let us learn these important partisans from the North or South, no mathematically the house of a rich planter, who took him in, led, lodged, and sent him on his way with a blessing. Those kind attentions cheered his heart and inspired ter what he called himself, when he stood up tant lessons from the present afflictive dispen- insttant lessons from the present anictive dispension of Providence—namely, that we all must be strange to say that the majority of the sation of Providence—namely, that we all must be strange to say that the majority of the sation of Providence—namely, that we all must be strange to say that the majority of the stacles of life. Years rolled roung: Providence days and nights, when he was fighting for Kandays and nights, when h A man who has been very much abused, it the chief aim of our being to exercise towards. cules and on the fatal day when it came to sion; his host had died; the cormorants that to him in return. the chief and of our being to excise the distribution of the New York delegation. He scriptures, is said to be a greater virtue than faith and hope."

as he had himself, not in Colleges, but at the We respond to the noble sentiments of Dr. BRYANT, with all our heart, and urge them upoth an Irish lisp and an Irish accent, a true on that proscriptive party, which seeks to disand a true Irishman, but who had as true franchise a fellow-citizen, because of his birth his answers were, and could be no other than warm and tenacious gratitude was now added lere I join with my youthful friends In solemn prayer and praise.

While the heart of each with the other Heart of the ordinary motive connected with the program of the Secret Order, by the self-sacrific motive of the ordinary motive connected with the program of the Secret Order, by the self-sacrific motive of the ordinary motive connected with the program of the Secret Order, by the self-sacrific motive of the ordinary motive connected with the program of the Secret Order, by the self-sacrific motive of the ordinary motive connected with the program of the Secret Order, by the self-sacrific motive of the ordinary mo this Southern audience, he called for the Church, amid the pestilence of Norfolk.—
the Southern audience, he called for the Church, amid the pestilence of Norfolk.—
To them, death has had no terrors, when it Gires cheers went up from about 4000 throats, stood in the way of their duty. Bound to time? He was playing at the time in the jail, the house "that orphan boy stands before which were worthy of Tammy itself, and thich, we hope, some friendly wind bore to the ears of Mike himself.)

Christianity by chords which reached to Heaven, no persecution could sever them—no altimate in the ears of Mike himself.)

The was playing at the time to the part of the ears of Mike himself.

The was playing at the time to the part of the ears of Mike himself.

The was playing at the time to the part of the ears of Mike himself.

The was playing at the time to the part of the ears of Mike himself. After dinner several further addresses were Prompted by the workings of that gentle spirit, that, when upon the scaffold, he begged to be which is ever ready to succor those in distress, permitted to pray—which was granted—and Stephens, he made a short, pith, and elo- they flew to the assistance of suffering mortals, then he commenced to cry! Oh! what a hornt speech, which raised the assemblage to and with woman's fortitude grappled with the rible sight it was! highest pitch of enthusiasm. We copy the monster disease, indifferent as to their own fate, so that humanity could be vindicated. Will so that humanity could be vindicated. Will the Secret Order now dare to say, after such The scenes can never be forest.

While inward theight may start. T. R. W. act upon it. It shows how the Whigs of Georgia, on Kiray and Freedom of the Catholic Church, that there are to be prosented as unworthy of the Catholic Church, that there are to be prosented as unworthy of the Catholic Church, that there are to be prosented as unworthy of the Christian name?

In the heroic labor of love, eacon passed with pastilence have both Provided and Cubelian an

WONDERFUL JUGGLING.

the people watch them well. They were now hen introduced to the audience, the Hon. A. their claws, but one thing they never can draw India. The scene of occurrence is laid in Mad- and all due diligence, vigilence and precau-

—not to their hearts but to their heads. He bove.) He thought some of his Democratic the woman kneel down field her arms behind the accident, altogether, was one of those exhappy." He thought some of his Democratic the woman kneel down field her arms behind the fair, fasfidious, and be fide there present rather considered min a great bagnet made open with meshes of rope, includers, and be fide the saw them, as then, feeling an interest applies of the saw them, as then, feeling an interest applies of the saw them, as then be saw them, as then, feeling an interest applies of the saw them, as then, feeling an interest applies of the saw them, as then, feeling an interest applies of the saw them, as then, feeling an interest applies of the saw them, as then, feeling an interest applies of the saw them, as then, feeling an interest at the put it over the woman and laced up the applies of the day. The Know-nouth, fastening with knotted intertwining at the put it over the woman and laced up the applies of the day. The Know-nouth, fastening with knotted intertwining at the put it over the woman and laced up the applies of the day. The Know-nouth is a possible of the day of the put it over the woman and laced up th then he saw them, as then, feeling an interest appelly on the measures of the day. The Knowa public affairs, and determined to examine inlamin. The question was merely this. Were
They said it was corrupt and tyrannical, and to Incompany is concerned.

There are many good reasons for this rule.—

There are many good reasons for this rule. ey willing to nive under the Constitution of escape its tyranny, they went and took an oath. man then took a closely-woven wicker basket far as this or any other company is concerned, They went into a party where they had the that narrowed at the top, lifted the woman in an accident, similar in character, if not in reright to put a new plank into their platform, the net from the ground, and placed her in it, sults, might every day occur, if there were peothe difference was about a form of government.

The Know-Nothings propose to substitute their operation of the National Council overrulled it. That though it was not without some exertion that the very jaws of death. No precaution, complete council for the present Government, was a glorious night, and a glorious escape of tyranny! Those men had scuttled the gallant differ Constitution of the Constitution of Which was country. Let the people choose. Which would they have—the Constitution of their country. Those men had scuttled the gallant differ the country. Let the people choose. Which would they have—the Constitution of their country. Those men had scuttled the gallant differ the country. Let the people choose. Which would they have—the Constitution of their country. The country is a crafted position, the put the cover upon the country in the very jaws of death. No precaution, comparison to the very jaws of death. No precaution to the very jaws of death. No precaution to the very jaws of death. No precaution to the very jaws of death athers, or that of the Know Nothing Conneil? were crying out "Whig, Whig," just as cloth hiding it completely. In a moment pla- on railroad tracks at the rate of ten miles an hat was the real question. He had the Know Dives cried from the fiery pit to Lazarus in the cing his hand under the cloth he drew out the hour. All the engineers, conductors, and bothing Constitution in his hand. It was gen-bosom of Abraham. He wanted to be undernet quite united and disentangled. He took a brakesmen in the world could not guard a frain long and he knew it. It declared that the Sustain. He went for substance. He went for long straight sharp sword, muttered some words against it, simply because it is an impossibility. oreme National Council should "decide all mat- the South. He went for the Constitution. He to himself, while he sprinkled the dust upon the The moment we have no more Dr. Hennikens, desappertaining to National politics," that it cared nothing for names. Let the people think cloth, and put some upon his forehead, then from that moment similar accidents cannot octional have power to "tax" and power to of this K. N. Constitution. Let them remem-"punish" without limitation or restriction. This ber it-powers to decide national politics- the sword suddenly into the basket prepared as a jewel."-Germanlown Telegraph. as more power than was claimed for Congress. powers to tax the people-powers to punish, in some degree we were for this and knowing yes to punish the freemen of these United that it was only a deception it was yet impossiand balances. It made the Senate a check up- States. Fight against this monster-fight for ble to see it without a cold creeping horror. the House-the President a check upon the the Constitution of your country. Don't stop The quiet and energy with which he repeated the Constitution of your country. Don't stop The quiet and energy with which he repeated makes no difference—thus warms young men to be be the constitution of your country. Don't stop the quiet and energy with which he repeated makes no difference—thus warms young men to be stop the constitution of your country. Don't stop the stop the constitution of your country. Don't stop the stop the constitution of your country. Don't stop the stop th President. But this party claimed all there tober next, so that it will trouble you no more, through the basket, while the other jugglers power to tax and to punish—power over the day of the election, spread yourselves, for the Stopping after he had riddled the basket, he constitution. To the old and young man, the again scattered dust upon its top, lifted its lid, great powers of government in the hands of rich and the poor man, he would say, spread took up the basket from the ground, showed it a few men, and men not chosen by the people yourselves. He would even appeal to his count to us empty and threw it away. At the same

What was the question? Did the people want science and for the Constitution of the coun-moved from the rest of their party. The basket stood by itself on the hard earth, and so Franklin? They must choose between them.

They must say whether they wanted another form of Government. He half a his board the true in the history of the vellow, fever at Norform of Government. He held in his hand the ture in the history of the yellow fever at Nor- by what means the woman invisibly escaped, two Constitutions. The one made by our fathers, the other by the Nrow-Nothings. Choose the other by the Nrow-Nothings the Nrow-Nothin waist, make a cool and suitable dress for far- he like perpetual motion or a cure for sea sick- being made in the world, and when fatigued by

they would think in a common sense manner benefit of the Orphan Assylum and Free school, about this shocking impropriety .- Onto FAR- of that city, related the following anecdote.

but he was erected and buried by the time they sent for the nearest council to commit her cause came to Alexandria. On the day before he to him, and that council proved to be the orpeace with God, and why he did not pray ?- and Mr. Stephens added with an emphasis of His answer was-"I have been hung many a emotion that sent an electric thrill throughout

Yes, and what a shameful sight it was for the people of Louisiana, that hanging of a boy ten years old! If the people in that region burn a pestilence, have both Protestants and Catholics | The Executive Committee of the Camden Constitution, said:—

"He was willing to be exhausted in the cause the was willing, if need be, to die in the harder of the Constitution. He was willing, if need be, to die in the harder of the Constitution. He would fight till be fell, and falling he would fight till be fell, and fa lence so disinterested and exalted, as the Sisters that "in all particulars the law of the State the same side, unite in matrimony, the conseof Charity, could no more have preceded rev- and the regulations of the Company were fully elation, than light could have preceded the complied with by these agents and employees having charge of the trains on the 29th Augast," and in a word that "the proper lookout on the part of the brakesman, conductor and We extract the following from an article in the Crayon, descriptive of travels in British the Crayon, descriptive of travels in British and lawful; the warning whistle was sounded, of legal relationship. tion were studiously and scrupulously practis-

"But the most wonderful performance that ed." and mash it to pieces, head, claws, tail and all, we saw this morning was a feat of pure jugear his words and temember them. He came a Whig. (He here explained what he did say ward upon the gravelled and hard trodded got over, whatever may be their responsibiliary to be the responsibiliary speak not to their passions, but to their responsibility on get to Heaven.

The here explained what he did say ward upon the glavened and hard trouded got over, whatever may be their responsibility on get to Heaven.

The first best to their passengers.

18 IT 80 ?

Somebody-we don't know who, and it

"Young man! keep your eyes open when there was power to decide our national politics they would do it. Go ont, from now till the selves, were very dramatic and effective.— you are after the women! Is the pretty dress they would do it. Go ont, from now till the selves, were very dramatic and effective.— Flounces, boy, are no consequence. A pretty face will grow old. Paint will wash off. The sweet smile of the flirt will give way to the at that. What then was the use of our Constitrywoman to come into the contest. Let mothlution or cut the word of the termagant. The neat form will moment we saw the woman approaching us the titched into called. Another and far differtrywoman to come into the contest. Let moth-moment we saw the woman approaching us be ritched into calico. Another and far differ-some contest and their sons—the wives tell their hus-from a clump of trees, at a distance of at least be ritched into calico. Another and far differ-some contest and their sons—the wives tell their hus-from a clump of trees, at a distance of at least and their sons—the wives tell the wives ent being will take the place of the lovely god- a visit to our city le week, and attracted con- tected by R. R. Robinson & Co., in a large dess who smiles sweet and eats candy. Keep siderable attention arrayed it his fantastic package of notes he had received from Phila-Throughout the whole of this inexplicable dess who since sweet and ears calley. Reep startage attention at the same attention of the battle, and spread themselves.— Throughout the whole of this inexplicable dess who since sweet and ears calley. Reep startage of this level to the same attention of the battle, and spread themselves.— Throughout the whole of this inexplicable dess who since sweet and ears calley. Reep startage of this level to the same attention of the battle, and spread themselves.— Throughout the whole of this inexplicable dess who since sweet and ears calley. Reep startage of this level to the same attention of the battle, and spread themselves.— Throughout the whole of this inexplicable dess who since sweet and ears calley. The same attention of the battle, and spread themselves.— Throughout the whole of this inexplicable dess who since sweet and ears calley. The same attention of the battle, and spread themselves.— Throughout the whole of this inexplicable despite the same attention of the battle, and spread themselves.— Throughout the whole of this inexplicable despite the same attention of the battle, and spread themselves.— Throughout the whole of this inexplicable despite the same attention of the battle, and spread themselves.— Throughout the whole of this inexplicable despite the same attention of the same attention o wour eye open, boy, when you are after the women. If the little dear is cross and scolds at her mother in the back room, you may be sure that you will get particular fits all around the

Mr. Comstock his reded in a cave near York, in circulation at a distance, and some of them house. If she apologises for washing dishes, you may need a girl to fan her. If she blushes he removed his able to Marchester woods, redeemed before the fraud is detected.—R. D. you may need a girl to lan her. It she oldshes the removed the strictly temper- Hicks, Esq., Cashier of the Farmers' Bank says rolled up, be sure, sir, that she is snobbish, lit- ate and scrypulous honest. He never solici- in a published card they were presented at the the breeding and little sense. If you marry a ted, nor has he er obtained alms from the counter on Saturday morning.—Wilmington Je, this day, which of the two ye will have.

He said that a contract of the two ye will have.

He said that a contract of the two ye will have.

He said that a contract of the two ye will have.

The feat is not a very uncommon one, but no one who had seen it, ever gave me a clue to girl who knows nothing but woman slaughter one who had seen it, ever gave me a clue to girl who knows nothing but woman slaughter one who had seen it, ever gave me a clue to girl who knows nothing but woman slaughter one who had seen it, ever gave me a clue to girl who knows nothing but woman slaughter one who had seen it, ever gave me a clue to girl who knows nothing but woman slaughter one who had seen it, ever gave me a clue to girl who knows nothing but woman slaughter one who had seen it, ever gave me a clue to girl who knows nothing but woman slaughter one who had seen it, ever gave me a clue to girl who knows nothing but woman slaughter one who had seen it, ever gave me a clue to girl who knows nothing but woman slaughter one who had seen it, ever gave me a clue to girl who knows nothing but woman slaughter one who had seen it, ever gave me a clue to girl who knows nothing but woman slaughter one who had seen it, ever gave me a clue to girl who knows nothing but woman slaughter one who had seen it. music ever got up. Find one_whose mind is fers to kalk, anden in the most unfrequented music ever got up. Find one state of the address of the period of the pe geville and cut off the "dry rot" part of it, and telused to acknowldge such men as the Van Bu-

"A poor little boy in a cold night, with no home or roof to shelter his head, no paternal or Alexandria, La., August, 27 .- The execu- maternal guardian or guide to protect or direct strange to say that the majority of the him with fresh courage to battle with the obthere was not a dozen people there! Some prey on the substance of man had formed a conpass, there was not a dozen people there: Some prey on the substante of the widow her estates. She prive forty miles to witness this painful drama, spiracy to get from the widow her estates. She called to face death, some gentlemen visit- phan boy years before welcomed and entertainbim, and propounded questions to him; but by her deceased husband. The stimulous of a

Marrying Cousins.

The N. Y. Day Book has the following paragraph in regard to a very interesting question: whether a man may marry his cousin .-Some fearful examples in the deformity of posterity were cited to prove that such near relations should not intermarry. Instances of blindness, clubleet, &c., were mentioned. The Roman Catholic and Episcopal Churches both forand intelligent? We explain the matter in this things. from the mother, no such result will follow. It is the uniting of similar organizations, no mat-

How to be Happy.

any one would be without knowing them; but exclaim to raise up his means to his desires while the other did his best to bring down his desires to his means. The result was, the one who covdesired but little was always contented.

My third rule is, "Look on the sunny side of things."

Look up with hopeful eyes, Though all things seem follows: The sun that sets to-night fill rise

Again to-morrow morn the waters. Two aged women lived in the loss by observing the name of the teller. lighted up with joy.

Foxes of a Jourgey.

Parly and Sectarian Struc.

Dr. Bryant, of Philadelphia, one of the noble extend half way between the knee and ankle.

Dr. Bryant, of Philadelphia, one of the noble extend half way between the knee and ankle.

No other skirt is necessary.

Parly and Sectarian Struc.

Dr. Bryant, of Philadelphia, one of the noble extend half way between the knee and ankle.

No other skirt is necessary.

Pennsylvania Inquirer, after referring to the scenes of sorrow and distress caused by the eppoint opposed that bill, went and pitched into the same pool with Banks. Such Whigs as they were, he never had been, and so help bim God, he he never had been, and so help bim God, he he never had been, and so help bim God, he never had been, and so help bim God, he never had been as abroad, here, in the city of pestilence, and while politicians are full minuting their anathems abroad, here, in the city of pestilence, he never had been as a proceeding to the strength of the structure of the structure.

Parly and Sectarian Structure of the noble extend half way between the knee and ankle.

No other skirt is necessary.

It is takes in he of the structure of the structure.

A Touching Story.

The Hon. A. H. Stephens, of Georgia, in an address at a meeting in Alexandria, for the structure of the structure of the structure of the structure of the structure

&c., and says he would not change his manner of living and situation with any man in the universe .- Newburyport Herald, Sept. 2.

Two Laws for the Ladies.

1. Before you bow to a lady in the street permit her to deciede whether you may do so or not, by at least a look of recognition.

2. When your companion bows to a lady, you should do the same. When a gentleman hows to a lady in your company, always bow

"Nothing is so il! understood in America as those conventional laws of society, so well understood and practised in Europe. Ladies complain that gentlemen pass them by in the streets unnoticed, when, in fact, the fault arises from their own breach of politeness. It is their duty to do the amiably first, for its a privilege which ladies enjoy of choosing their own associates or acquaintances. No gentleman likes to risk the being cut in the streets by a lady through a premature salute. Too many ladies, it would seem 'don't know their trade' of politeness.— Meeting ladies in the streets whom one has occasionally met in company, they seldom bow uniess he bows first, and when a gentleman never departs from the rule of good-breeding, except occasionally by way of experiment, his acquaintances do not multiply, but he stands probably charged with rudeness. The rule is plain. A A mong other profound subjects discussed by lady must be civil to a gentleman in whose comhe association for the advancement of science, company she is causually brought; but a gentleat Providence, Rhode Island, was the question man is not upon this to presume upon acqain-whether a man may marry his cousin.— tanceship the first time he afterwards meets her in the street. If it be her will, she gives some token of recognition, when the gentleman may bow; otherwise, he must pass on, and consider himself a stranger. . No lady need hesitate to bow to a gentleman, for he will promptly and oid such narriages: but in the face of scien- politely answer even if he has forgotton his fair ific and ecclesiastical authority we ask what saluto. None but a brute can do otherwisewill the objectors to the marriage of cousins do should he pass on rudely, his character is declarwith those cases where children the result of ed, and there is a cheap riddance. Politeness, such tharriages are more than usually beautiful or good-breeding, is like law-"the reason of

JUST ONE SHADE GREENER .- A lady of this city-when young, a great belle-shopping one day, called for some green silk as piece was produced—that would not do; another, another, and yet another, was brought forth by the quences will be most disastrous; but if cousins, marry who are entirely disimilar, one having salesman, but of no avail; none there among inherited a consitution from the father and other the ample pile that suited the fastidious lady's taste

> "A deep, very deep and dark green is what I wish," said the fair customer.

The shelves were then again ransacked by the attentive attendant—deeper and still deeper glowed the green, until it emerged into a dark sea tint, but none had been displayed suiting I will give you two or three good rules the lady's fancy. At length, fairly out of pa-He understood that he had been reported to say gling, of which I have never been able to find behalf, as connected with the late dreadful catas— which may help you to become happier than tience with his customer, the irritated salesman that you do not know what shade of green you tain king, "till I began to take pleasure in the tidious, and witty one; "select a pattern just

How often are we disappointed in our We deserve but little, we require but little, mer? After carefully curing and smoking, hopes of having sweet hams during the sumand shetter is little, with the fear of God, than and then sowing them up in bags, and whitewashing them, we find that either the fly has commenced a family in our hams, or that the choice parts round the bone are tained, and the whole spoiled.

Now, this can be easily avoided by packing eted much was always repining while he who hot the weather, nor how thick the flies, hams will keep sweet.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS .- We were shown a day or two since three counterfeit notes, of the denomination of two dollars, on the Farmers' Bank of Delaware, at Wilmington .- The The skipping lamb, the siging lark and the plates are so exceedingly well executed, and leaping fish tell us that hppiness is not con- exactly like the genuine, that it would take a fixed to one place. God n his goodness has keen eye to detect the fraud. But those who spread it abroad on the efth in the air and in take the trouble to examine may guard against some cottage, one was aways fearing a storm, "C. C. Torbert" on the counterfeit, whereas and the other was alway looking for sunshine. the genuine bears the signature of our friend Hardly need I say wich it was wore a for- W. W. Torbert, who resigned the situation of bidding frown, or which it was whose face was teller in the bank some time since. The signature of D. C. Wilson is also distinguishable from that of the counterfeit. These fraudulent The Eastern Hemit and his Tame notes are dated March I, 1851, while we are informed the Bank issued no $2 notes in March Johnny Comstoc the Eastern hermit, paid of 1851. The counterfeits we saw were de-

Presence of Mind .- A gentleman residing at