THE OATH OF A KNOW NOTHING.

IT It is now admitted, and not denied, that Know Nothings are bound together by an oath administered on the Holy Bible-an oath which obligates them to persecute, to the bitter end, all persons who tant from this glorious land of liberty. It is also adand malignant has that hatred become, that Know Nothings cannot speak of Foreigners or Catholics, without branding them with epithets of the most infamous and degrading character. Through the evil spirit thus engendered, Foreigners, including wofrom the fact that they all voted to sustain his point. in Pennsylvania were closed, there would be more

In the 22d c. of S. MATTHEW, 36, 37, 38, 39, and 40 v. we find the following:

36. Master, which is the great commandment in 37. Jesus said unto him, Thon shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul,

38. This is the first great commandment. 39. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love

S. JOHN, 15th c. 12 v. reads thus:

12. This is my commandment that ye love one a-nother, as I have loved you. In the First Epistle General of JOHN, 2d c. 9, 10 and 11 v. stands recorded these words:

9. He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.
10. He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.

11. But he that hateth his brother is in darkness. and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.
