Pay of Members of Congress.

The New York Tribune, of the 18th, contains an article denouncing the members of Congress who voted for the bill increasing their own compensation to $3,000. In this instance, that paper has acted independently of party considerations, and the force of its condemnation falls on the heads of Giddings and a large number of other Black Republicans who voted for the bill. The Tribune gives the ayes and nays on the passage of the bill. From the list it appears that of the members from the slave holding States, thirty voted for the bill and forty-three voted against it. Seventy free State members voted for the bill and fifty-five against it. The entire Massachusetts delegation voted in favor of it. The Rhode Island delegation voted for it in solid column, (two deep.) Vermont and Connecticut gave each one vote against it. the delegations of all the New England States together, the bill had a majority in its favor of two to one. Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Florida and Virginia gave but one vote each in favor of the bill. Mr. Ritchie, of this city, voted against the bill. Mr. Purviance, who represents the 22d District, as also Mr. Covode, of Westmoreland, voted in favor of it. Upon a fair review of the vote, we have David Laury. no disposition to prevent the Tribune, if we Charles Kessler. could do so, from indulging in the following James Patterson. strictures :

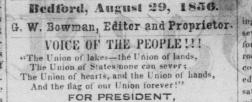

"It was just forty years ago that the Congress of that day undertook to increase the pay of Thomas Osterhout. members. They put it up to barely $1,500 a year, which is about what they now receive, on the average, at the old charge of eight dol-lars per day. We believe they did not make the rise retrospective, as the new act does .--Yet this $1,500 a year demolished nearly all who were concerned in it. Henry Clay, who had not had a competitor at the polls for some time previous, barely saved himself from defeat by superhuman exertions, unrivaled ability on the stump, by appealing to his great and admitted public services, and by virtually confessing that he had done wrong, and promising to do better. Members of moderate abilities and ordinary services went-down before the surge of public indignation like dry grass before a prairie fire. The new Congress hastened to repeal the Compensation Act and go back to the eight dollars per day, which did not look so insignificant to their constituents at their lonely firesides as to the dispensers of millions at Washing-

"But the retrospective feature of the new act is most indefensible. Every member now in Congress virtually contracted to serve through the last term for $720. Instead of that, a majority have now voted to take to themselves $3,000 for that service. This is not exactly stealing, but it is a very sharp kind of conveying. See if it does not howl down a good many of those engaged in it ! We earnestly advise all parties not to put up members who voted for not be safe.

Mr. Buchanan and the Old-Line Whigs!

DO last Saturday, week, Mr. BUCHANAN was Eedford, and, having stepped into the house of Mr. SCHELL for a short time, a number of persons called in to take him by the hand. Read Carefully the First Page.

DF The first page is full of interest. Read it carefally-but especially read the masterly and convincing Letter of RUFUS CHOATE to his Whig brethren of Maine, by which it will be seen that this distinguished Whig proclaims for Buchanan. In speaking of the letter, the Philadelphia Argus says:

The nationality of Mr. Choate is well known, but even those friends who knew him best were hardly prepared for such fearless and emphatic avowals of thorough Unionism, and such a decided and prono ced step. The National Democracy most respectful-Witnesses, your right hand resting on this Holy Bi-ble and Crois and your left hand raised towards by and heartily welcome Rufus Choate into their Heaven, in token of your sincerity, do solemly pro- crowded and augmenting tanks. What a splendid demonstration of the truth and soundness of our principles it is, that the very flower of the patriotism, learning, talent, and virtue of the late Whig party is compelled, by the mere course of events, to take refuge under the banners of Democracy ! Rufus Choate is the peer of the pet rhetorician of Free Soilism-Charles Summer himself—in eloquence and learning, and his superior in common sense and massive intel-lect. Choate's constitutional ideas and sympathies Charles Sumner himself-in eloquence and learning, were formed and matured under the majestic auspithis order is concerned, comply with the will of the majority when expressed in a lawful manner, though serene and impartial Constitutionalism and Nationality, Rufus Choate readily perceived the narrowness and shallowness, and evasiveness of what dubs itself uternalicanism?? He views the slavery cuestion "Republicanism." He views the slavery question "Republicanism." He views the slavery question calmly and practically, from a stand point that em-braces the whole country within its range of vision. His unfaltering intellect always keeps itself in rela-tion with the nation's common inter-ests. He thinks, "not as a Northern man, not as a unworthy person for initiation, nor suffer it to be done if in your power to prevent it. Democratic Meeting in Schellsburg.

Old Napier, Juniata, and the surrounding neighborhood assembled in mass meeting at Schellsburg on Wednesday atternoon, Aug. 20, and presented an appearance calculated to cheer the heart of every appearance calculated to cheer the heart of every True patriot. No house in town was large enough to hold the people who had thus gathered together, and the consequence was that they had to repair to the commodious barn of A. J. Snively, Esq., and even this was not large enough for the eccasion. Many were compelled to remain outside. On motion of JOHN S. SCHELL, Esq. the assemblage was organ-ized by calling to the chair that old veteran, Maj. JAMES-BURNS, now in the 96th year of his age-the names of the other officers have escand our me. the names of the other officers have escaped our me-mory, the list not having been handed to us. Hon. JOHN CESSNA first addressed the meeting in an animated and forcible speech, such as he al-ways makes, and which was received with great enthusiasm. He concluded by introducing to the au-dience Hon. H. S. MAGRAW, formerly of Pittsthusiasm. now they are meek and humble, and hope to see the subject ignored or forgotten. It only goes to show how debased politics can make some men, who will bate (for better lawyers and abler advocates are few) he presented a tissue of arguments with a force and clearness that chained his auditors to the truth and creatness that chained his additions to the truth of every thing he presented. His speech on this oc-casion was one of the best of his life. Among other things he said that the Fremont Abolitionists now pointed to Washington as their first leader in antislavery doctrine; but forget or wilfully hide the fact that in Washington's administration Kentucky and Tennessee, two Slave States, were admitted into the Union. That they also hold up to view the immortal Jefferson as the embodiment of their political he that performs as the embourhent of their pointed here resies on the slavery question; but keep in obscurity that portion of the history of his administration which says that it was he (Jefferson) who purchased Louisiana from the French, the territory of which then included that State, Arkan as, Missonri, and Kansas and Nebraska. That he took it with Slave-ve attached and stimulated among other through that ry attached, and stipulated, among other things, that the rights of the Masters should be protected, and pever attempted or suggested a slavery restriction. That Mr Madison signed the bill for the admission of Lonisiana as a State-that these Fathers of the agreement are now claimed by the abolitionists, and that the policy initiated by them was against the ad-mission of Slave States into the Union, and its re-striction to those of the thirteen States which had slavery at the time of the adoption of the Constitu-tion. These and the like pretensions of the Fremont

These men now profess to have a holy horror for civil war and alledged frauds upon the horror for eivil war and alledged frauds upon the ballot box in Kansas; notwithstanding they are the identical conspirators who originated the famous "Buckshot War" for the avowed purpose of treating the election in the good old State of Pennsylvania as though it had never occurred! The speaker drew a vivid picture of the manner in which they manfac-tured majorities of thousands in townships that could only claim a few hundred legal voters! And how their champions fled from the back windows of the Senate chamber and bid among the tomb-stones of a grave yard near at hand when the bonest Freemen of the Keystone appeared at the Capitol demanding that the Laws should be respected, and that the ma-jority should rule at all bazards! The worst feature of the "Kansas Outrages," as represented by the a-bolitionists, did not half equal the outrages attempt-

At the Hopwell meeting, in reply to a remark from Mr. SCHELL, touching this point, Mr. King said that the Filmore men only asked 7 electors, and that they got all they asked.
