Henry Clay on Disunion.

Henry Clay had freely, on many occasions, deneunced the schemes of Abolitionism and of a Sectional party. He said in 1839.... "Abolitionism should no longer be regarded as an "Abolitionism should no longer be regarded as an imaginary danger. The Abolitionists, let me suppose, succeed in their present aim of uniting the inhabitants of the free States as one man against the inhabitants of the slave states. Union on one side ill beget union on the other, and this process of eciprocal consolidation will be attended with all reciprocal consolidation will be attended with all the violent prejudices, embittered passions, and implicable animosities which ever degraded or deformed human nature. Virtual dissolution of the Union will have taken place, whilst the forms of its exist-once remain.

One section will stand in menacing and hostile array against the other. The collision of opinion will ray against the others. The consists of opposite with second be followed by the clash of arms. I will not attempt to describe scenes which now happily lie concealed from our view. Abolitionists themselves would shrink back in dismay and borror at the con-templation of desolated fields, conflagrated cities, lered inhabitants, and the overthrow of the fairest fabric of human government that ever lose to an-imate the hopes of civilized man."

WHITE LABORERS LOOK HERE!

THENRY CLAY in a letter to Mr. Colton, danan of the dangers of Abolitionism: Mr. C. said: "But the great aim and object of your tract should be to arouse the LABORING CLASSES in the Free he to arouse the Labourton Characteristic terms of immediate abolition. The slaves being free would be dispersed throughout the Union; they would enter into competition with the free laborer, with the American, the Irish, the German; reduce his wages; he confounded with him; and affect his moral and social standing. And as the ultras go for both Abolition and Amalgamation, show that their object is to unite in marriage the laboring white man and the laboring black woman, and to reduce the laboring man to the despised and degraded condition of the Black man.

HENRY CLAY.

The Philadelphia News, a FILMORE paper, of Sept. 10, publishes the Letter from which the above startling extract is taken, and says: At this mo-ment, when some of our best citizens who have been whigs, are denounced because they will not join the Black Republican ranks, this letter from Henry Clay Black Republican ranks: this letter from Henry Clay is most apposite. It points out briefly and clearly the baneful tendencies of Black Republicanism, its cruelty, its ingratitude. Its falsehood, its hostility to the Constitution, its hostility to LABOR. And what would be the feelings of Henry Clay, if he were now living, and saw Black Republicanism making an open issue against the Union? Indeed he proies the present fearful state of things when he phecies the present learner state of things state all supon Mr. Colton to show that the agitation in the free States will first destroy all harmony, and

NOW LOOK UPON THIS PICTURE!

JOSHUA R. GIDDINGS, who is the acknowledged head of the FREMONT party, says:

"I look forward to the day when there shall be a servile insurrection in the South; when the BLACK man, arned with BRITISH bayonets, and led on by BRITISH officers, shall assert his Freedom, and wage a war of extermination against his master; when the torch of the INCENDIARY shall light up Slavery; and though I may not mock at their ca lamity, nor laugh when their fear cometh, yet will I hail it as the dawn of a political millenium."

Ansom Burlingame, now travelling the country making Freemont speeches, says;

"The times definand that we must have an anti-slavery Constitution, an Anti-Slavery Bible, and an Anti-Slavery GOD."

Seward, Wade, Banks, Spalding, Webb, Greely, Garrison, Sammer, Erastus Hopkins, Addison, Foster, Beecher, Remond, Brewster, Emerson, Ross, Garrison, Wilson, Horace Mann, Philips, and all the other son, Wisson, Horace Mann, Philips, and all the other prominent Fremont leaders employ similar language to the above, which we omit for want of room.

The Harrisburg Telegraph, the organ of Gov. Pollock, (edited by Col. M'CLURE,) of Sept. 11, contains the following savage sentiment in a letter from Wooster, dated August 29, giving an account of a fremont meeting held in that place:

"Two CAMPAIGN companies of ferocious looking ows, styling themselves "Buck Hunters" and Racky Mountain Rangers," paraded the ground The latter (these two companies) were dressed in booting shirts, after the fashion of pioneers, carrie Rifles, and had Marderous looking KNIVES in their Belts."

The same paper, same date, says editorially: "The South would not and DARE NOT dissolve the Union if the North in its majesty should elect fred. Douglas (a NEGRO!!!) President."

And these are the men and these the principles which Fr. Jordan & Co. are so anxious to form more men of Bedford county, what say you to such a union—and more especially as Mr. Filmore has assured you that the election of Fremont would result in a Dissolution of the Union!
