

Canvass. Friend Ayer—In this age of quacks, charlatans and mere windy gasconade pretenders to talent, who blow at every corner, and in the face and ears of all men, their loud, blaring Jericho trumpets and other noisy boisterous wind instruments of marvelously twisted brass, in such a woefully sham riddle as this I say, it is comforting. Nay even cheering to the earnest well-wisher of his race to know that there arrived in this world a genuine physician—to light once more upon something besides mere Sanguines and Don Mercurial Pills, with their phlebotomies, poison and warm water.

Your Charitable Pills, and Cherry Pectoral, carry us forward to Halleys days—to millennial Pharmacopoeias, when science, deep diving down into the principles of things, shall, with infinite cunning, bring out the genuine Elixir Vitæ; for of a truth there is manifestly enough something of that same Life Elixir in your subtle vegetable distillations and compounds.

You realize to us the visions of those painless smothered Aethyriums—those seekers—streaming among retorts and crucibles, tracing the quaint, essential hidden virtue of the universe, which should animate, disperse, and break for man the Wheel of Time.

A CANDID CONFESSION.—Mr. John B. Ellwood, a prominent politician in Rome, New York, of the Free-Trade school, has been spending some time in Kansas. In writing home to his friends, he does the administration the justice to say:

"I will do the administration the justice to concede that I do not believe they mean to interfere in behalf of the 'riffians,' and which, as you know, I could not say of its predecessor. At least I will say this for its predecessor, Secretary Stanton, who came in with us yesterday, addressed us on the boat before arriving here, and also the citizens here after his arrival. If he acts as the index of the administration, I repeat I think they mean to act fairly and impartially between the free-State and pro-slavery voters of the Territory. In saying this, I do not understand me as relinquishing my conviction that Congress is the proper body to legislate for the Territories; but, as that cannot be hoped, & it is to be left to the people of the Territory to decide as to the character of their institutions, it is gratifying to believe that they will have a fair opportunity of doing so, and which has heretofore been denied them."

Here is the most ample evidence that every pledge made by the friends of the new administration has been fully redeemed. If every black republican would be equally candid, and frankly speak the whole truth, we should hear no more of disturbances in Kansas, and the country would cease to be agitated in relation to that Territory.

NOTICE.—The following notice of Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup, is from the Evening Chronicle published in Pittsburg, Pa. Keyser's Pectoral, a friend observes, is the next thing to health itself. We may here observe, as we mention no names, that this friend was off on election night, and anxious to hear the news from Maine, which long on the coast. The news came, but not until he had absorbed sufficient damp to give him the chills. Another friend invited him to take a glass of Scotch ale, which was put upon very black bottles. Our friend's illness was huge, and was only quenched after a number of empty bottles stood before him; a cold in the head was the consequence, which consequence was cured in six hours by Keyser's pectoral.

To be had at the Store of Mr. Samuel Brown in Bedford—and at Mr. Colvin's Store in Schellburg.

NO HOMBURG.—R. B. HUTZ'S Celebrated Tetter Wash is the only safe and sure remedy ever discovered for curing the Tetter, Ringworm, and all eruptions of the skin. It is so infallible a remedy, that a perfect cure in all cases of Tetter is guaranteed, if attentively applied. In ordinary cases one bottle will be sufficient to perfect a cure. In bad cases with a Tetter of long standing, one or two bottles will be necessary. For Sale at Dr. Reamer's Drug Store, Bedford, Pa. May 22, 1857—ly.

IN PEOPLE WOULD LISTEN TO REASON, as readily as they do to what is called "medicine." They would not be in the choice of remedies for disease. They would undoubtedly prefer the Clickener Sugar-coated Vegetable Purgative Pill to all other purgatives of this class, because they possess all the essential requisites of a perfect remedy. They are of vegetable origin; they are palatable; they neither grip nor redden; they go directly to the seat of disease; they never fail to effect a permanent cure in all cases where they are recommended. All this can be substantiated by testimonials from ladies and gentlemen of the highest respectability and most undoubted integrity. They all concur in the opinion, that Clickener's Sugar-Coated Vegetable Pills, when properly administered, have never been known to fail in curing complaints of the liver, consumption, jaundice, whooping cough, fevers of all kinds, indigestion or dyspepsia, headache, gout, dropsy, scurvy, small-pox, or cholera morbus. They have likewise been eminently successful, when the disease had defied the efforts of the most skillful physicians.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR.

The great and principal characteristic of DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR consists: 1st. Of its never-failing and unique property, as soon as applied to any external injury, to CHECK INFLAMMATION instantly, and rapidly to reduce it. This feature constitutes its great power to alleviate the pain of burns and scalds, and of other painful diseases, so to relieve the patient of the pain, and as will appear from the testimonials hereunto annexed. Every intelligent mind is fully aware that, in all cases of external injury, the pain is produced by inflammation of the injured part; and, therefore, if you remove the cause, the effect must cease.

2d. Its particular property, to neutralize the poison that may be in the system, and will, when applied to the sores, draw rapidly all impure matter to the surface, and eject it—hence the great discharge it produces from sores occasioned by burn—and when applied to old and inveterate sores, Salt Rheum, or other cutaneous diseases.

Each box of DALLEY'S PAIN EXTRACTOR with its use, is a Steel Plate Engraved Label with the signature of C. V. CLICKENER & Co., proprietors, and PENNY DALLEY, manufacturer. Price 25 cents per box.

All orders should be addressed to C. V. Clickener & Co., 81 Barclay street New York. May 8, 1857—2m.

Batheloh's Hair Dye, Warranted to dye brown or black, so as to defy detection, without the least injury to the hair or skin. It is the admiration of the critical, the envy of imitators—never fades. It is the perfection of the art, as it is the original—Made and sold, or applied, at the Wig Factory 223 Broadway, New York. A steel plate-label with W. A. Batheloh is on each box of genuine, all others are counterfeit.

May 8, 1857—1m.

At this season of the year it is always prudent (if not necessary) to take a few bottles of Hurley's Sarsaparilla. This invaluable medicine strengthens the system, renders the blood pure, circulation vigorous, and by keeping up the secretions, insures a healthy condition of the body. To be had, or sent if it is of unequalled benefit. Give it a trial.—Sarsaparilla (Cath. Ess.)
