WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

During the last Presidential campaign, WM. H. KOONTZ, and FRANCIS JORDAN, Were employed in making Fillmore speeches at various points in this county, and were then recognised as the stump orators, par excellence, of the "American" party in this region. At the same time, ALEXANDER KING, S. L. RUSSELL, and JOHN H. FILLER, were the Fremont speakers. and the champions of what they called "Re-"Americanism." Now we see all these men, Koontz, Jordan, King, Russell and Filler, anso loud in their declarations of fidelity to "A-mericanism," flattering themselves that, as they were successful in gulling the "American" par-for Wilmot, the pimp of Horace Greeley, who ty of this county into voting the Fremont Electoral Ticket, last Fall, they will be able again to delude them into supporting the enemy of was the representative in the last campaign, and Fillmore, have gone, over to the Fremont which Fillmore declared to be fraught with speakers, King, Russell, and Filler, to assist them in building up the Abolition party-the party against which Mr. Fillmore again and selves, turn away from them in disgust, and ABOLITION CANDIDATES, FOR ASagain warned his fellow citizens. That is what give a deaf ear to their reckless asseverations? it means and nothing else.

MAJOR DAVIS.

Measure these men is a man with whom one needs only become you with impunity. thoroughly acquainted to like and respect him. He is emphatically one of the people; a man who hides under a careless exterior, a warm and honest heart. His past life has built up such a character for him as will pass through the slanderous assaults of his political enemies. unspotted and unscathed. The fierceness and insidiousness with which they are secretly working against him, shows plainly enough that they believe him invincible in a fair and open fight. When they find that the Democratic party of Bedford county, is determined to burl back the insult offered it by asking some of its members to vote for that representative of Know Nothing Abolitionism, Mr. George Oster, and when they see, as they will see, that party present an unbroken front, in support of Maj. Davis, then will their despair be black indeed, for every hope of success that ever cheered their sorrowing hearts, will have taken its flight.

Let it be remembered that every man on and shot from which we can draw ammunition David Wilmot, the man, who, the Whigs said two horses very straight, will be poured into support for the most trifling position. We in 1846, would "stink forever in the nostrils him. of every true-hearted Pennsylvanian." This cannot be denied. Will any of the opposition candidates dare to say that he will not vote for David Wilmot for Governor, and that he is a supporter of Isaac Hazlehurst? We challenge them to do so. The candidate for Poor House Director, Thomas Imler, said a short time ago, that he was in favor of Mr. Hazlehurst, but on being interrogated on the subject by the abolitionists, remarked that he was "only in fun when he said so." The truth is, neither he, States, and provide for all their wants twelve logical debater, and decidedly popular with the nor any of the men on his ticket, dare define months afterwards.
