LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING AT HOPEWELL.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democrats of Hopewell and vicinity, was held at that place on Thursday, the 10th inst.—It was organized by the appointment of EDWARD PEARSON, Esq., President—Richard Langdon, Thomas W. Horton, John Nelson, Jacob Fluck and Jacob Diehl, Esqrs., Vice Presidents, and R. Mosen and Jas. Horton, Esqrs., Secretaries, all of whom took their seats.

The meeting was then addressed in an able manner by Hon. Wm. P. Schell, General. Bowman, and Major S. H. Tate. One of the many gratifying incidents that took place at this meeting was the noble conduct of RICHARD LANGDON, Esq., an Old Line Whig, who came forward and acted as a Vice President.

It is worthy of note that Mr. Langdon was named as an officer of the Wilnot meeting, on Tuesday night, of Court week, but did not serve. His manly and straight forward course will meet with the approbation of every honest man in the county.

After the speeches were over, the meeting adjourned, every Democrat present feeling confirmed in his political faith, and refreshed in his veneration for the principles of his party.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY AT WOODBERRY.—On Saturday last, a Democratic meeting was held in the town of Woodberry, at which upwards of one hundred citizens of that place and the adjacent country, were in attendance. The meeting was called to order by Major Patton, of Pattonville, on whose motion, Dr. SAMUEL SMITH, was appointed President, George Potter, John Wisegarver, David Ditz, David Brown and Patrick Burns, Esqrs., Vice Presidents—and Zachariah Wolfe and David Working, Esqrs., Secretaries. G. H. Spang, Esq., was then called out, and addressed the meeting in a logical, eloquent and forcible speech, carrying conviction home to the minds of all who heard him. Mr. Spang was followed by R. F. Meyers, who addressed the meeting in both the English and German languages. The crowd present were full of enthusiasm, interrupting the speakers, with frequent bursts of applause. The meeting closed with three hearty cheers for the State and County Tickets.

THE LOST DAUGHTER AND OTHER TRUE STORIES OF THE HEART, is the title of a new posthumous work of the late lamented and distinguished authoress, CAROLINE LEE HENTZ. It will be published by T. B. PETERSON, No. 306, Chestnut street, Philadelphia, complete in one large duodecimo volume, neatly bound in cloth, for $1.25 per copy, or in two volumes, paper cover, for $1.00. The book will be ready for sale on the 26th inst. The same publisher has also in press, Mrs. HALE'S RECEIPTS FOR THE MILLION, being a complete Family Guide and household directory, containing 800 pages of receipts, &c., bound in cloth. Price, $1.25 per copy.

WE WERE THERE, a few days ago, a drawing of the plan of the new building about to be erected immediately opposite the Gazette office, by Cal. E. L. Anderson. The plan is a very tasteful one, and is drawn in beautiful style. Dr. Heckok is the artist. The erection of the building in question, will be a great improvement to the locality in which it is to be situated, and for which the enterprise of Col. Anderson, certainly deserves much praise.

M. T. LILLIFERRO, military store-keeper at Fort Leavenworth, K. T., returned to his old home in this town, a few days ago. We are sorry to learn that Mr. Major is in feeble health, and that it was owing to this cause that he left the Territory. He brings us Kansas papers of a late date, for which he will please accept our thanks. Everything was quiet in the Territory when he took his departure.

WE ATTENDED a mass meeting of the Democrats of Cumberland Valley, in the town of Centerville, in that township, on Tuesday last. There was a large attendance, and every thing passed off finely. We will give the particulars next week, as they are crowded out of this number.

AN ADDRESS will be delivered at the lecture room of the Presbyterian Church, by Dr. Heckok, to the Teachers attending the Teachers School, in the evening of the 24th inst., at 7 o'clock. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

A LARGE AND SPIRITED meeting of the Buchanan Club was held at the usual place of meeting, on Saturday evening last. Speeches were made by Messrs. Schell and Bowman.

THE CORNER HOUSE fronting on Pitt and Juliana streets, and owned by Mr. David Macy, is about being fitted up for a Fancy Store.

SERGEANT MAJOR BECKER, U. S. A., is present staying in our town. The Sergeant is well known in this community, and is highly respected by all who are acquainted with him.

OUR THANKS are due to Hon. J. GLANCY Jones, for a copy of the "Address and Correspondence of the Democratic State Committee."

THE BEDFORD SPRINGS COMPANY, after an unusually successful season, closed their business Monday last.

MRS. CUNNINGHAM BURDELL has been released on bail.

RUFUS W. GRISWOLD, the Author and Compiler is dead.

HON. G. G. DUNN, M. C. from Indiana, a man of brilliant talents, died last week.

THE duties of this institution will be resumed on Monday, Aug. 21st. Owing to the limited accommodations of the Seminary Building, the number of pupils will be limited. It is important, therefore, that applications for admission be made at an early day. Those who enter before the expiration of half the quarter, will be charged for the whole quarter; those who enter after the expiration of half the quarter, will be charged for half the quarter. No deduction made for absence except in cases of protracted illness.

In this school Students are prepared for the higher classes of any College, or to enter at once upon the active duties of life. Whilst special care is taken to form in our pupils habits of order, strict punctuality and thoroughness, their Physical, Moral and Social Education is not neglected.

The government of the school is designed to be parental. It is the aim of the Principal and his associates to excite in their pupils a love of right doing; and to awaken within them some proper consciousness of the dignity of humanity. Parents may rest assured that any gross delinquency on the part of their children will be reported to them immediately, should circumstances require it, or the discipline of the school fail to accomplish the desired reformation.

Bedford, August 14, 1857.

EXTENSIVE SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

ON the head waters of Dunning's Creek, in Bedford County, Pa. The undersigned will offer at Public Sale, on TUESDAY the 26th Oct. next, being the first Tuesday after the election, on the premises, in St. Clair Township, several adjoining and contiguous tracts of land, containing in all 871 Acres, now divided into 5 tracts, 4 thereof containing 150 acres each, and the other being the Saw-mill tract, containing 250 acres. These tracts will be sold as they are, or subdivided to suit purchasers.

The Saw-mill tract contains a FIRST CLASS SAW-MILL, with a never failing head of Water, and is in the midst of a TIMBER REGION, unsurpassed for the quality of timber. One other of the tracts contains an enviable site for a TAN YARD, with all the advantages of WATER, and along side of Chestnut Ridge, where the resources for BARK are inexhaustible at $2.50 per Cord.

200 acres of the land is bottom land, mostly covered by large Sugar Trees. 300 acres are cleared and in a good state of cultivation, and the balance well timbered.

There are FOUR DWELLING HOUSES upon the premises, and FOUR BARNs, with other out-buildings.

THE FRUIT is choice and in abundance, upon some of these tracts.

This property lies 12 miles North of Bedford, and in a country noted for its good roads, leading North, South, East and West, to Bedford, Hollidaysburg, Johnstown and other points, on the Penna. Central Rail Road.

Farmers, Lumber men, Tanners and Speculators should examine the premises, as the undersigned is determined to sell, on account of being too largely engaged in other business, to give these fields of enterprise the proper care and attention.

TERMS—One third in hand on the 1st of April, 1858, when possession will be given, and the balance in two equal annual payments, without interest. The title is warranted good.

Drafts will be had on day of sale, or can be seen with the undersigned in Bedford at any time, showing the shape and locality of the lands.

NICHOLAS LYONS. Aug. 21, 1857.

WM. SHAFPER, Merchant Tailor.

Continues to carry on the above business, in all his branches, at his old stand in Juliana st. and is prepared to accommodate all who may favor him with their custom, on reasonable terms. He constantly keeps on hand a large assortment of ready-made Clothing of a good and substantial quality. And, having in store a choice selection of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, Drillings, &c. &c. he invites all in want of Clothing to give him a call, as he feels confident he can please all who do so.

Bedford, July 3, 1857.

Notice. The subscriber being much annoyed and damaged by fishers and hunters, running over his property is determined to put a stop to the same; he therefore hereby cautions all persons, that if found trespassing upon his farms, by either fishing or hunting, he will not sit out immediately against them.

ONE PERSON for the office of Sheriff of said county.

ONE PERSON for the office of Treasurer for said county.

ONE PERSON for the office of Commissioner for said county.

ONE PERSON for the office of poor house director.

ONE PERSON for the office of Auditor for said county.

The election to be opened between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock in the forenoon, by public proclamation, and to keep open till 7 o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN: That every person, exercising jurisdiction of the peace, who shall hold any office of appointment of profit or trust under the United States, or of this State, or any city or corporate district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer, agent who is or shall be employed under the legislature, executive or Judiciary department of this State, or of any city, or of any incorporated district, or of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, or Commissioners of any incorporated district is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the time the office of appointment of Judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no inspector, judge or other officer of such election shall be eligible to be then voted for.

And the said act of assembly, entitled "an act relating to elections of this Commonwealth," passed July 31, 1857, further provides as follows, to wit:—That the inspectors and judges, shall meet at the respective places appointed for holding the election in the district at which they respectively belong, before 8 o'clock in the morning of the 2d Tuesday of October, and each said inspector shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of such district. In case the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for inspector, shall not attend on the day of any election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for Judge at the preceding election, shall act as inspector in his place. And in case the person who has received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend, the person elected Judge shall appoint an inspector in his place, and in case the person elected Judge shall not attend then the inspector who appointed a judge, in his place, and if any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election, the qualified voters for the township, ward or district for which such officers shall have been elected, present at the election, shall elect one of their number to fill such a vacancy. It shall be duty of the several assessors respectively to attend at the place of holding every general, special, or township election during the whole time such election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such election, and on such other matters in relation to the assessment of voters, as the said assessors or either of them shall from time to time require.

The United States who has previously been a qualified voter of this State, and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district and paid taxes, aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this State six months: Provided, That the white freemen, citizens of the United States between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years, who have resided in the election district ten days aforesaid shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid tax.

No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants furnished by the Commissioners, unless: First, he produce a receipt of payment, within two years of State or County tax assessed agreeably to the Constitution, and give satisfactory evidence on his own oath or affirmation of another that he has paid such a tax, or in a failure to produce a receipt shall make oath to the payment thereof, or second, if he claim a right to vote by being an elector between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years shall depose on oath or affirmation, that he has resided in the State at least one year next before his application, and make such proof of residence in the district as is required by this act, and that he does verily believe, from the account given by him, that he is the person aforesaid, and give such other evidence as is required by this act whereupon the name of the person so admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the inspector, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid tax, or the word "age" if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of age, and in either case the reason of such a vote shall be called out to the clerks, who shall make the like note in the lists of voters kept by them.

In all cases where the name of the person claiming a right to vote is not found in the list furnished by the commissioners, or assessors, or his right to vote whether found thereon or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of the inspectors to examine such person on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within the State for one year or more, his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof, but he shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector that he has resided within the district for more than ten days immediately preceding said election, and shall himself swear that his bona fides, in pursuance of his lawful calling, he has resided in the district, and that he did not remove in the district for the purpose of voting therein.

Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof if required, of his residence and payment of taxes, as aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward or district in which he shall reside.

If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any other of an election under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such elector, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere with any elector, or obstruct or hinder any elector, or attempt to block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be held, or shall riotously disturb the peace of such election, or shall use or practice any intimidation, threats, force or violence, with the design to influence unduly or restrain the freedom of choice of such person, on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars and to be imprisoned for any time not less than one nor more than twelve months, and if it shall be shown to the Court where the trial of such elector shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward or district, or township where the said offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, then, on conviction, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.

If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of any election with the Commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager either by verbal proclamation, or by any written or printed advertisement, challenge or invite any person, or persons to make such bet or wager, upon conviction thereof he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet or offered to be bet.

NOW THEREFORE, be it known, by an Act of the Legislature of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that I, Hugh Moore, Sheriff of the County of Bedford, do hereby certify, that the proposed Amendments to the Constitution, approved May twelfth, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, is provided as follows, to wit:—

SECTION 1. That, for the purpose of ascertaining the sense of the citizens of this Commonwealth in regard to the adoption or rejection of said amendments, or either of them, the Governor of this Commonwealth shall issue a writ of election, directed to the Sheriff of each and every County of this Commonwealth, commanding them to give notice in the usual manner, in not less than two newspapers in each County, (provided that so many are published therein,) that an election will be held in each of the townships and districts therein, on the second Tuesday of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, for the purpose of deciding upon the adoption or rejection of the said amendments, or any of them; which said election shall be held at the places, and opened and closed at the time at which the General Election of this Commonwealth are held, opened and closed, and it shall be the duty of the Judges, Inspectors and Clerks of each of said townships, wards and districts, to receive at the said election, tickets, either written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, from citizens duly qualified to vote for the said amendments, or any of them, and to deposit them in a box or boxes to be for that purpose provided by the proper officers; which tickets shall be respectively labelled on the outside, "First Amendment," "Second Amendment," "Third Amendment," and "Fourth Amendment," and those who are favorable to said amendments, or any of them, may express their desire by voting each as many separate written or printed ballots or tickets, containing on the inside thereof the words, "For the Amendments," and those who are opposed to such amendments, or any of them, may express their desire by voting each as many separate written or printed ballots or tickets, containing on the inside thereof the words, "Against the Amendments."

SECTION 2. That the election on the said proposed Amendments shall, in every respect, be conducted as the General Elections of this Commonwealth are now conducted; and it shall be the duty of the year, of the respective Counties and districts thereof, first having carefully ascertained the number of votes given for or against each of said amendments in the manner aforesaid, to make out and file returns thereof, expressed in words in both words and in figures, only one of which returns so made shall be lodged in the Prothonotary's Office of the Court of Common Pleas of the proper County, and the other sealed and directed to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and by one of said judges deposited with the most convenient Post Office.

And the Judges of the respective Districts aforesaid, are required to meet at Bedford, on the Friday next following the holding of said election, then and there to perform those things required of them by law.

Given under my hand, at my office in Bedford, this 11th day of August, the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and the 52d of Independence of the United States.
