A friend who counted 30 to 22. the number of persons present at the meeting when in full blast, assures us that it did not exceed eighty-seven, or eighty-eight, all told!

By dint of hard labor, the Abolition boss-politicians, of whom Mr. F. Jordan and Mr. J. H. FILLER, seemed to be the most active, finally succeeded in organizing the meeting. They managed to raise a President and were so extraordinarily successful as to obtain the consent of two men to act as Vice Presidents. Indeed, they were even so wonderfully fortunate as to secure the services of a few secretaries, whom they were compelled to take from Bedford Borough, for, Bedford Railroad, and showed clearly that the had they taken them from the rural districts, there would have been great danger that no material wouldremain whereof to construct the committee on resolutions, which was to be composed of one man from each district. After the "heavy work" of organizing the meeting was at last finished, Mr. Jondan, of Simon Cameron and "Buzzard Feast" notoriety, stated the object of the meeting and moved the appointment of a Committee of one from each election district to draft resolutions. Mr. JORDAN called over the townships and boroughs, but only eight men could be found who were willing and ready to assist him in punctuating his resolutions. When MR. Jordan called out Cumberland Valley, his Fr. Jordan, Job Mann, Nicholas Lyons. face wore a most lugubrious expression, and he could not refrain from making a fling at the glorious Democracy of that ever faithful town-There was no response from "Little when Abolitionism called upon its name! Whilst MR. JORDAN and his committee were out tinkering at their resolutions, Mr. Monday evening, to obtain subscriptions to the JOHN H. FILLER, entertained (?) the large and Bedford Railroad, met on Tuesday, at the office enthusiastic audience with one of his most brilliant and elaborately written out, though badly lowing Township Committees. committed, lectures on-bosh! Mr. FILLER's platitudes fell forceless upon his hearers, and it seemed that not even the strong flavor of the sweet scented negro, with which his speech was so delightfully perfumed, could induce his Abolition friends to sit still long enough to hear him out. Seeing that his efforts were thinning the meeting, he cut short his remarks and retired. in evident disgust at the dullness of his hearers in not appreciating his most remarkable and extraordinary address. Mr. Filler in the course of his speech, undertook to say that under the English Kansas Bill lately adopted by Congress, Kansas could not be admitted into the Union until 1860, or until a remote period, unless she would accept the Lecompton Constitution, and, therefore, would be compelled to remain a Territory for years to come. Now a certain Governor Walker, whom Mr. Filler gladly accepted as authority a short time ago, denies this in toto. He (Walker) says that Kansas will have the requisite population to entitle her to one member of Congress in a very short time, and, therefore, the people of that Territory will not have to labor under the disability of which Mr. Filler complains. We opine, however, that the longer Kansas will be kept out of the Union, the better Mr. Filler and his party will like it. It is but a short time ago since we heard Mr. Filler publicly declare that he and his party did not desire that the Kansas question should be settled and that they wanted Kansas to remain as it is. This we can prove and we dare Mr. Filler to deny it. His tears over this matter, therefore, are not genuine. Like will show his position. We give it without many others of his political friends, he is con- comment: siderable of a crocodile about the region of Washington City, House of Representatives.

After Mr. Filler had concluded his speech, To the Editor of the Union Committee on resolutions returned from their this redoubtable Committee, we shall speak at determining my vote on so vexed a question. length in our next. We can only, at present, add that a more miserable abortion in the shape of a political meeting than the one under consideration, has never come within our knowledge.

RAIL ROAD MEETING!

Pursuant to public notice, a meeting of the Commissioners of the Bedford Rail Road Company, was held in the Court House, on Monday evening last. Major Washabaugh was called to the Chair, and Joseph W. TATE, ALEX. FLETCHER and THOMAS H. MURRAY, Esgrs., were appointed Secretaries.

On motion, the meeting was addressed by Hon. WM. P. Schell, who referred at length to the advantages to be derived by the citizens of the county, from the construction of the project of building the said Railroad, is at present entirely feasible. Among other important statements which he made during the course of his remarks, he announced the fact that the sum of $75,000 has already been subscribed to the road by capitalists in the East. After Mr. Schell had concluded his speech, Francis Jordan, Esq., was called for, who responded in an able effort in favor of the Railroad.

On motion, a Committee of nine was appointed to take subscriptions. The following gentlemen compose the Committee:

E. L. Anderson, Daniel Washabaugh, J. W. Tate, John Alsip, W. P. Schell, O. E. Shannon,

The above named Committee were empowered to appoint Township Committees, to assist them in procuring subscriptions. The meeting hen adjourned.
