The Conferees from this county are uninstructed, but the understanding in Convention, when they were appointed, was that they should support Mr. REILLY if the Conferees from Franklin would he favorable to his re-nomination.

The Philadelphia Argus thus speaks of the distinguished head :

Judge Conrad was about fifty years of age. Some of his literary productions were of a high order of excellence and gave him an enviable reputation. As a politician he was unsuccessful, although he filled at one time the important office of Mayor of the city, and subsequently that of Judge of the Court of Common Pleas.

Mr. Tyson was somewhat older than Judge Conrad; he died the fifty-fifth year of his age, universally respected and beloved for his manly integrity, general benevolence, and warm devotion to the interests and prosperity of this great Commonwealth. He has occupied a proud member of the State Legislature and that of Representative in Congress. He leaves an unsulfied reputation, and his death will be universally deplored.

COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS, Is one of the best purgative and liver medicines now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder, and more effectual than any other medicine milder, and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experenced in the operations of most Catharties.
