Mrs. Barmingbam, after sinking twice, was caught by the man in the tree, and held until persons from shore came to their relief, in about three quarters of an hour. The only injury Mrs. B. sustained was the chafing of her arms in holding to the tree, and severe cold. After the gentleman had secured a footing in the tree he found he had a necklace, in the shape of a rattlesnake. He succeeded in relating himself from this dangerous companion without injury.

Novel and Extraordinary! NEW SCHEDULE OF PREMIUMS of the

of the UNITED STATES JOURNAL

Ohl why should the spirit of mortal be proud?
Since the pride, which is earthly, must ever be bowed:—

We enjoy but the shadow, and know but the name.
The glory and power of earth—where are they?
They are broken and shivered, like idols of clay!
They are broken and shivered, like idols of clay!
The empires men founded—the deeds they have done, Are but wrecks, and a vanity under the sun.
The brightest and fairest must fade and decay, A doom, that nor beauty nor manhood can stay;
Our pathway is clouded with pain and with sorrow—And the joy of to-day brings the grief of to-morrow.
Oh! why should the spirit of mortal be proud?
Since the ermine and robe must give place to the shroud.
There they mingle—the greatest and least—in the dust.
Where nothing remains, save a hope and a trust;—

The Agent for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter in regard to the Restorative, a few weeks since:

DEEP RIVER, CON., July 29, 1858.

Mr. Levenworth—Sir: I have been troubled with dandruff or scurf on my head for more than a year, my hair began to come out, scurf and hair together, I saw in a New Haven paper about "Wood's Hair Restorative" as a cure. I called at your store on the 1st of April last, and purchased one bottle to try it, and I found to my satisfaction it was the thing, it removed the scurf and new hair began to grow; it is now two or three inches in length where it was all off. I have great faith in it. I wish you to send me two bottles more by Mr. Post, the bearer of this.—I don't know as any of the kind is used in this place, you may have a market for many bottles after it is known here.
