DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS: HON. WILSON REILLY, Of Franklin County.

ASSEMBLY: JAMES BURNS, of Bedford county. DAVID HAY, of Somerset county.

COMMISSIONER: JACOB BECKLEY, Of St. Clair tp.

CORONER: CAPT. JOHN LONG, Of Liberty tp.

POOR HOUSE DIRECTOR: JOHN AMOS, Of Bedford tp.

AUDITOR: JAMES C. DEVORE, Of Londonderry tp.

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS!

The Democracy of Bedford County, will hold meetings for the purpose of discussing the issues, and presenting in their true light, the political questions, at present agitating the public mind, at the following places and times:

At MICHAEL WYANTS, in Union tp., on Tuesday evening, October 5th, at early candle-light.

At PLEASANTVILLE, in St. Clair tp., Saturday evening, October 9th, at early candle-light.

At HARTLEY'S SCHOOL HOUSE, in Snake Spring tp., on Friday evening, October 8th, at early candle-light.

At SCHELLSBURG, Saturday, 24 of October.

At BARLEY'S SCHOOL HOUSE, in Bedford tp., Monday, 4th of October.

At LOUISVILLE, in Union tp., Tuesday, 5th of October.

At STONERSTOWN, Wednesday, 6th of October.

At BUENA VISTA, Thursday, 7th of October.

At CHENEYSVILLE, in Southampton tp., Friday, 8th of October.

At CENTREVILLE, Cumberland Valley tp., Saturday 9th of October.

All the above named meetings will commence at 1 o'clock, P. M., with the exception of that at BARLEY'S SCHOOL HOUSE, which will begin at early candle-light. Other meetings will be held, if desired. Able speakers will be present to address the people at all the above mentioned places. Rally, Democrats Rally!

By order of the Democratic Co. Com. JACOB REED, Chairman.

THE ITINERANT CANDIDATE.

Mr. EDWARD MCPHERSON, who is at present asking the people of this Congressional District to send him to Congress, is pre-eminently entitled to the sobriquet of the "Itinerant Candidate." He has been a kind of political pedlar, offering his wares to the public wherever he supposed they would meet with a ready sale. Now we find him in Pittsburg, publishing tirades against the Catholics, and anon he is in Harrisburg, a penny-a-liner in a small way, doing up the "Harrisburg Correspondence" for some city newspaper. Presto! he is translated to Adams county, and lo! he is made the Abolition nominee for Congress in the 17th District. The question, therefore, is whether this "Itinerant Candidate" is a citizen of the District? Is he not as much a Pittsburg, or a Harrisburg, or as he is a resident of Adams county? Is he not a mere roving adventurer without a local habitation, or a name? pitching his tent wherever he expects to find office, or emolument, and caring not a straw whether it be in the East, or the West, the North, or the South, so that it brings him a mercenary reward?

THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

A better ticket than that presented to the voters of Bedford County, by the late Democratic County Convention, has never been nominated. JACOB BECKLEY, of St. Clair, for Commissioner, is a man of sterling integrity, a first rate business man, and a good citizen. His opponent, GIBSON D. TROUT, is not to be compared with him in point of ability. Mr. Trout is a bad financier, a poor manager, as is proved by his heavy indebtedness. A man who cannot keep his own affairs in order, especially with the opportunities that Mr. Trout has had, would make a very unreliable agent for the people. The County needs just such a man as Jacob Beckley to help it out of debt.

JOHN AMOS, of Bedford tp.,

is well known to our readers as a man of good, strong, common sense and as a Democrat who has never flinched. He is the very man for Poor House Director. CAPT. JOHN LONG, of Liberty, for Coroner, has long been known as one of the worthiest citizens of our county. He is a man for whom the people can vote without ever regretting that they cast their suffrage in his favor.

JAMES C. DEVORE, of Londonderry, comes from the old Devore stock, which has always maintained a high character for its intelligence, probity and irreproachable citizenship. Mr. Devore, for Auditor, should receive the support of every citizen of Bedford county who desires an honest and intelligent officer in the Board of Auditors.

DEMOCRATS, TO THE RESCUE!

Election-day is fast approaching. Are you prepared to do your duty when it shall have arrived? Are you ready to go to the polls to deposit your own vote and to see that your neighbor is not defrauded of his? Democrats, there is not a vote to be lost! The glorious cause for which many of you have battled a life-time, is in jeopardy and demands that you should redouble the efforts which formerly crowned it with victory. The enemies of our party, the revilers of Democratic men and the foes of Democratic measures, are busy at work. No labor is too hard, no intrigue too dark, no trick too mean for their leaders to engage in, if they have any hope thereby to increase their ranks. Shall we, therefore, stand idle? Shall we suffer our unscrupulous opponents to profit by our own neglect? No! a thousand times NO! Let us rally in our strength! Let us go to the polls and vote the whole Democratic ticket and see that our friends do likewise! "Come like the winds come when forests are roused!" Come as the waves come when navies are stranded!

RALLY! RALLY!! RALLY!!!

Democrats of Bedford county! The Democracy of the entire state look to you for an exhibition of your whole and undivided strength at the coming election. The standard-bearers of our party look to you for a noble effort in behalf of the great principles for which they are leading on the fight. Rally, therefore, and strike once more for your cause! Rally, and let the poll-books tell a glorious tale for old Bedford on the twelfth of October next!

Strike till the foe in fear retires! Strike for your altars and your fires!

BEWARE OF SPURIOUS TICKETS!

We are informed that the Abolitionists have printed and are distributing bogus tickets of various kinds where-with to deceive the unwary. Be careful of whom you take your tickets. Trust none but true and tried Democrats.

MANNER OF VOTING.

Our friends will please bear in mind that the ticket for Supreme Judge must be cut off from the balance of the ticket and folded separately. This done, the remainder of the ticket, with Canal Commissioner at the head, is folded and the two slips may then be tied together and this presented to the officer at the window. Don't forget to vote for Supreme Judge, as it is important in the highest degree that the Democratic candidate should be elected.

VOTE THE WHOLE TICKET!

Let no man who votes the Democratic Ticket because he believes the principles of his party to be correct, scratch a single name when he goes to vote. If you vote the whole ticket, you vote on principle. If you vote only a part, you vote merely for men. Remember, that by omitting a part of the ticket, or by voting for some of the Opposition candidates, you strike at the very doctrines you love and cherish. Vote the whole Democratic ticket and you will never regret it.

DEMOCRATIC TRIUMPHS.

At the late election in Wilmington, Delaware, the Democrats were victorious. This is the first time for many years, that Wilmington gave a Democratic majority.

At an election held in the city of New Haven, Conn., a few days ago, the Democracy were successful.

In Maine, the Democrats have done nobly. The Republicans have lost some 10,000 on their vote of last year, whilst the Democracy have gained some 3,000. It is believed that two Democrats have been elected to Congress. The entire Maine delegation in the present Congress, is "R-publican."

MR. MCPHERSON AT HOME.

We are reliably informed that Mr. McPherson, the Abolition candidate for Congress in this district, will fall greatly behind the remainder of the Opposition ticket in his own county (Adams). His bitter and malignant proscription of the Catholics, in his speeches and writings, will drive hundreds of votes from him and his having been one of the scullions in Wilmot's kitchen, will cause many more who once were Whigs to oppose him. This is as it should be. The man who denies to his brother that freedom of conscience which the Constitution guarantees to every citizen, would be a tyrant if he had the power to tyrannise, and he who assisted in breaking up the Whig party, as did Mr. McPherson, can have no claims upon the sympathy of any members of that once honorable, though now defunct, organization.

The hotel kept at Rainsburg, by our friend, Joshua Filler, is one of the best country inns we have ever stopped at. Filler's table can't be beaten.

Our friend Berkheimer, of the St. Clair Inn, St. Clairsville, keeps a good house. Concerning the excellence of the culinary department we can testify particularly.

Mrs. S. E. Potts has received a large and elegant assortment of Fall and Winter goods. Go and see.

THE "SOMERSET HERALD AND WHIG."

In the Gazette of week before last, we printed an editorial in which we proved to a demonstration that the party calling itself "Republican," or the "People's Party," is nothing more nor less than a party of Abolitionists. Our article was void of all personality and referred to the Somerset Herald and Whig merely as a journal that had committed itself to the doctrines of Abolitionism. That sheet, in its issue of last week, instead of replying to us in the same spirit in which we addressed ourselves to its editors, makes use of the vilest ribaldry in attempting to respond to our article. Such slang terms as "nigger," "beet-heels," "hang-dog," &c., &c., are freely and abundantly showered upon us. All this is, no doubt, very argumentative; one thing is certain—it argues the writer anything else but a gentleman. Besides the billingsgate of the Herald and Whig, about one half of its article is a wholesale falsehood. We never made any selections for that paper, and last of all would we have published the burlesque entitled "A suitable Democratic Platform." In regard to the editorial which we are charged with having written, the following which we addressed to the Senior Editor of the Herald and Whig, when in Somerset some days ago, will afford a sufficient answer:

Somerset, Penna., Sept. 21, 1858.

Ed Scull, Esq., Editor Somerset Herald & Whig: Allow me to thank you for the very flattering notice you are pleased to take of me in your issue of this week. Your manliness in asking me to write you an editorial embodying my opinions and afterwards trying to palm it upon the public as setting forth my own sentiments, is exceedingly praiseworthy; and when I reflect upon it, I cannot refrain from expressing my sincere admiration of your honor as a man and your fairness as an editor.

Yours, &c., B. F. Meyers.

This is all we can have to say in reply to the Somerset Herald and Whig. The motive of the Editor of that sheet in attacking us personally, as he has done, is well understood here, and when we inform our readers that that Editor is the same Scull whom his own brother-in-law, the lamented A. J. Ogle, once threatened to cowhide and would have done so had not other parties interfered, they will be able to form some opinion of the man who wrote the article that was copied into the Abolition organ of last week, under the caption of "The Bedford Gazette."

ARE YOU ASSESSED!

The law requires that every voter above the age of 22 years, must be assessed ten days before the election to entitle him to a vote. Saturday, the second day of October is the last day for this purpose. See to it, therefore. Examine the Assessment lists and do not let it be said of you that through your own neglect you were deprived of the right of suffrage.

THE PEOPLE AROUSED! THE DEMOCRACY RALLYING!! DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETINGS!!!

Pursuant to previous notice, the Democracy of Broad Top township assembled at Hopewell, on Thursday the 23d ult., and organized their meeting by the appointment of THOMAS W. HORTON, Esq., President; Ed. Pearson, Michael Fluck, Richard Langdon and Michael Griffith, Esqs., as Vice Presidents, and Jeremiah Thompson and John Nelson, Secretaries. Speeches were then made by MESSRS. CESSNA, SCHELL and TATE, who were listened to with profound attention and interrupted by frequent plaudits from the audience. The Broad Top Democracy are sound to the core and understand perfectly the efforts of Opposition demagogues to humbug them on the Tariff question. They are too intelligent a body of men to allow themselves to be misled by the hypocrisy of the supporters of FREE TRADE READ and that other Wilmot-low-Tariff man, Edward McPherson.

AT RAINSBURG,

On Saturday last, the gallant Democracy of Colerain township, held a large meeting which was organized on motion of Col. J. M. Van Horn, by the appointment of CAET. A. McCLELLAN as President; Wm. Adams, Esq., Jas. Cessna, Esq., Thos. H. Murray, Esq., and Hugh Wilson, were appointed Vice Presidents, and Capt. P. M. Cessna, D. F. Beagle, Secretaries. Speeches were then made by B. F. Meyers and John Cessna, Esqs. The meeting was a good one, full of enthusiasm, and adjourned with three loud and hearty cheers for the whole Democratic ticket. Colerain will speak in tones of thunder her approbation of Democratic principles on next election-day.

AT ST. CLAIRSVILLE,

On Tuesday, the 28th ult., the sturdy Democracy of St. Clair township, had a meeting which was characterized by much enthusiasm and good feeling. On motion of Col. F. D. Beagle, JOHN H. BOWSER was called to the chair. Adam Oster, John Horstine, Thomas B. Wise-gardner, Henry Yont, Philip Stambaugh, Jacob Acker, Jos. P. Carver, and Geo. Beagle, were appointed Vice Presidents and A. Ake and Sam'l. Berkheimer, Secretaries. The meeting was then addressed by John Lingenfeller, O. E. Shannon and B. F. Meyers. St. Clair will do her duty.

We understand the Opposition meeting at Hopewell on Saturday last, was a complete farce and ended in a row. The Free Trade Read and McPherson men who were present did not seem to be in favor of a Tariff on "Parker whiskey."

The meeting of the "Buchanan Club on Saturday evening last, was large and spirited. Speeches were made by Messrs. Cessna, Schell and Meyers.

FROM WASHINGTON.

[Correspondence of the Bedford Gazette. WASHINGTON, SEP. 11, 1858.]

Gentlemen:—

The proceedings of your late great Democratic meeting have been received here and read with lively interest, embracing, as they do, the sentiments of all reliable Democrats. The resolutions are strong and to the point, just such as were expected from the noble-hearted Democracy of Bedford county. On examining the list of officers, committee-men, and Speakers, I notice an array of the best and most influential men in the county, among the number our excellent friends Rob't M. Taylor & Nicholas Kegg, Esqs., (who, misled by the wily artifices of an unscrupulous enemy, for a short season) have returned to their "first love" more enthusiastic in defence of correct principles than ever. With such a Ticket as floats at your mast-head, and such a body of men to lead the column as composed the meeting, your success is certain. A re-nomination was eminently due both to Gen. Burns and Mr. Hay. The General made a noble run on a former occasion—in fact he added much strength to our entire Ticket, and would have been elected, by a handsome majority, could we have induced our active men to believe that he stood any chance of success. Many believed that he would be beaten by from 600 to 1000 votes, and, under this impression, a number of Democrats, neighbors of the opposing candidate, voted for him as a mere personal compliment, supposing their votes, for this part of the Ticket, would be lost should they cast them for the Democratic nominee. It is to be hoped that no Democrat will jeopardize his party thus in the future, but that all will rally as one man to the support of the whole Ticket. Only think of a Democratic candidate losing his election, in the counties of Bedford and Somerset, by 9 votes!! Let it be the ambition of every Township to try and add to the vote of Burns and Hay at least the number by which Burns was beaten last Fall. "Little Berks," (Cumberland Valley) can "do better"—so can glorious old Southampton. Only "light up the fires," and all will be right.

Your unanimous re-endorsement of Hon. WILSON REILLY was a high compliment to his worth, both as a citizen and Representative in Congress. No man labored harder for the interests of his District than did Mr. REILLY, and the people could not be represented by a safer man. He very candidly told you, in his great speech at Bedford, that, before he had time to examine the Kansas question in all its details, he was opposed to its admission under the Lecompton Constitution—but, after he had ascertained the whole truth, he was compelled, as an honest man, acting under his oath of office, to vote for the acceptance of that Constitution. This declaration exhibits the true character of a true man. All are liable to err, and nothing places a man so high in the estimation of his fellow-citizens as a bold acknowledgment of error, when satisfied of the fact. The vote received by Mr. Reilly, at home, in October, 1856, is the best re-utation that could be desired of any slanders that may pursue him in the present contest. From the information I have from all the counties composing our District, I have not the shadow of a doubt of his triumphant re-election—but every man should work as though the election depended upon his own vote.

G. W. B.

WASHINGTON, Sep., 24, 1858.

Gentlemen:— The time is close at hand, and every Democrat will esteem it a pleasant privilege, as well as a duty, to be at his post, nobly contending, by his voice and vote, for the glorious principles to which we are indebted for all that has made us the great, happy, and prosperous people we are.

That the approaching election in Pennsylvania is one of great moment, not only to the Democratic party, but to the whole country, no one at all familiar with the history of political events will deny. The great Democratic Party, with JAMES BUCHANAN at its head, occupies truly a proud position, for it is now fighting the great battle of "Equal Rights," "solitary and alone," against such a combination of isms, headed by bad and unscrupulous men, as never before appeared on the field of political strife. But, although the fight will be a fierce one, we have every confidence in the triumph of our cause. It is gratifying to perceive with what diligence and good will the Democracy are marshalling for the contest, and how magnanimously they are burying past differences upon the altar of public good. There is certainly no plausible reason why any Democrat should alienate himself from his party at this time. It is true some of our best men were, for a season, misled by the clamor of J. W. Forney, and others of the same stripe on the subject of the admission of Kansas, under the Lecompton Constitution, but now that he has joined hands with the Black Republicans, and is literally arrayed against every candidate nominated by the Democratic party, his power for evil is at an end. The vexed question of Kansas, which, for a time, threatened a dissolution of our happy Union, having been settled by an honorable compromise, we have every reason to believe that the party will stand united, with a firm determination to defeat ABOLITIONISM in all its shapes. In this great contest, Pennsylvania Democrats will stand shoulder to shoulder in the good fight.

By recurring to the events of the last four years, we find the enemies of Democracy sailing under four distinct party names during that brief period. In the early part of the year 1854 they dubbed themselves "Democratic Whigs"—about midsummer of the same year they appeared as Know Nothing Americans, in which capacity they acted until 1857, when they decreed themselves with the doctrine that a negro was better than a German or an Irishman—and now, in 1858, they re-adopt all the names by which they were heretofore known, and muster their speckled column as the "Party of the People" again attempting to humbug the masses on the question of the Tariff, assuring them that the defeat of the Democracy is the only way to give sure "protection" to the labor of the country; whilst all history proves that the great and leading principle of Democracy is, to elevate and give dignity to the laboring man.

The Tariff Act of 1846, was represented as the certain destruction of the coal, iron, agricultural, and mechanical interests of Pennsylvania, and yet under that act, we enjoyed a degree of prosperity unparalleled in the history of the world. The farmers and mechanics never before realized such prices for their stock and produce as they did after the passage of the Tariff of 1846, and it was optional with them to take gold and silver, or Bank paper in payment. Whilst receiving the highest prices for their stock and produce, they were enabled to buy their store goods on the most favorable terms.

The "Toll" with our opponents has always been a "Toll," a base imposition to deceive and mislead honest and unsuspecting men, as will be seen by a few plain references. Notwithstanding the vindictive war made upon the Tariff of 1846 by our opponents from "knee-high-to-a-duck upwards," only last year they headed their State Ticket with the man who had been its warmest advocate, and the only member of the Pennsylvania delegation in Congress who had voted for the repeal of the Tariff of 1842.—Even now their State Ticket is led by Hon. JOHN M. REED, who, on the 29th day of July, 1846, addressed a letter to Vice-President Dallas, congratulating him in his own name, and on behalf of the "tolling millions" for having decided the fate of the new Tariff Bill by his casting vote! But this is not all. In the last Congress, the House of Representatives was controlled by the Black Republicans—in fact, they boasted that we had not members enough in that body for a sed— and what did they do with the Tariff question? Pause and consider! Did they increase the duties? No, indeed, instead of increasing, they reduced them, as the record proves, and they are responsible for the very Tariff of which they now so bitterly complain. The Tariff of 1846 imposed a duty of 30 per cent. upon iron. The Black Republican and Know Nothing Tariff of 1857 reduced the duty on that article from 30 to 24 per cent. a fact also proved by the record. Such duplicity and low trickery as our opponents have exhibited on this subject, should and will, disgust every man who has judgment enough to think for himself. The people have a President in whose integrity and capacity they have unbounded confidence. In standing by him they have a sure guaranty that he will lead them safely through every difficulty that may present itself, and conduct the affairs of the nation in such a way as to promote the best interests of our common country. This is his object, and his highest earthly ambition.

Our State Ticket is headed by a gentleman who stands pre-eminent as a citizen and jurist. In fact, few men of his years have acquired a higher reputation for integrity and capacity, consequently it is to be hoped that he will receive the cordial and united vote of the Democracy of the Commonwealth. In WILLIAM A. PORTER, the people have a Judge in whom they can safely entrust their dearest interests.

The nominations for candidates for Congress, throughout the State, are nearly all made. In the first District, Hon. THOS. B. FLORENCE, has been re-nominated. This is a compliment well deserved. No member has ever served his constituents with more untiring energy and industry. I have been astonished to witness the extraordinary perseverance of Col. F. in every thing pertaining to his duties as a Representative. He is truly a man of the PEOPLE, and will, without doubt, be triumphantly re-elected. Should, however, the toiling masses in his District lose his services in Congress, their loss will be irreparable. He is recognized here, by every body, as the "poor man's friend," and I honestly believe, if he had but a dollar in the world, he would give it to the first object of charity that presented itself. He labors day and night, when rendered necessary, and when he is called upon to perform a public duty touching his own, or any other District, it honorable exertion will accomplish the end he never fails. It is a matter of surprise that any working man can cast his vote against Florence, for, in all that is personal, he will as readily minister to the wants of political foes as though they were his friends. All classes here feel interested in his success.

In the 2d District, Mr. MARTIN, a well-known Merchant and active Democrat, has been placed in nomination, and it is sincerely hoped that he will be elected, for from my own knowledge of the man, I take it he would make a very valuable Representative for Philadelphia. Mr. LADDY from the 3d, Mr. PHILLIPS from the 4th, and Mr. OWEN JONES from the 5th District, have all been re-nominated. All three of these gentlemen are men of ability and sterling worth. Mr. PHILLIPS is certainly one of the most ready and able debaters in the National House of Representatives, and reflected great credit upon his District last winter.

"Old Berks" has again placed in the field, Hon. J. GRACY JONES, one of the best abused men in this country. The gallant yeomanry of that county have shown how well they can appreciate the services of a good and faithful representative, by tendering to this gentleman a unanimous re-nomination. Mr. Jones as Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, (the most responsible in Congress,) proved himself to be a Statesman of no ordinary ability. His triumphant election is a foregone conclusion, of course. He has a malignant opposition to contend with, but Berks is the county that knows how to deal with such material.

In the Lancaster District, Mr. HOPKINS, a firm and reliable Democrat, has received the nomination. THADDEUS STEVENS, of "Backshot War and Gettysburg Rail Road" memory, is his opponent. It is said the "old line Whigs" will not touch him with a ten foot pole, and, if this be true, the election of Mr. Hopkins is certain.

Mr. DEWART, of the 11th District, has been re-nominated, and, although some dissatisfaction seems to exist in his District, it is believed he will be elected. Dewart is a noble, generous man, and is entitled to the cordial support of his party.

Mr. LADDY, of the 12th, I believe has not yet succeeded in a re-nomination. He stood up firmly in Congress, as a party man, and should by all means, be returned. I don't know what may be the usage of the Democracy of that District, but I think a representative who has faithfully served his people, should, at least, receive a second term.

Mr. DIMON, of the 13th, Mr. WHITES, of the 15th, and Mr. REILLY, of the 17th Districts, who so well served their constituents and their party during the last session, have all been placed in nomination, by the unanimous voice of their party, and no doubts are entertained of their election.

The warm and numerous friends of Dr. AHL, of the York District, feel deep regret that so much difficulty exists in regard to his re-nomination. Pennsylvania never had a more honest and faithful Representative than Dr. AHL, and it is hoped all differences will be amicably settled, and he triumphantly elected.

The "Star of the West," old Westmoreland, has placed in nomination Hon. HESSEY D. FOSTER, a gentleman well known and highly esteemed. With the endorsement he has received, he is entitled to the united support of the Democratic Party, regardless of past differences. No one doubts his devotion to the Democratic party; and that he would make a valuable and reliable Representative of the Democracy of Pennsylvania is the belief of all who know him, his election will be hailed with lively satisfaction.

In the Pittsburg District, the party have nominated a very able man, indeed, in the person of Mr. BERKS. This gentleman is well known in Pennsylvania as one of the ablest lawyers in it, and, as a high-toned gentleman, he certainly has no superior. The election of such a man as Mr. Berke would be a credit to the great manufacturing city of Pittsburg, and it is very generally believed that it is the purpose of the business men there to give him a general support.

The "Wild Cat District" has, of course, re-nominated that good old Democrat, Judge GILLES. A late letter from Senator BIGLER, who has been canvassing his District, says his election is certain. By the way, Senator BIGLER, has been making some very able speeches this Fall, such as he so well knows how to make, and they ought to be extensively published. His Speeches are always to the point, and always read.
