Hence, the endeavor of these spoils-seekers to forestall in the minds of the unitiated and unobserving of their party, the impression which they fear may be made upon them, when the differences and dissensions among their captains, shall be noised abroad. But we apprehend that all the thunder of their editorial drums, cannot drown the sounds of the harsh discord which at present prevails in the "Opposition" camp .-The rank and file will soon take up the cry, one shouting for Seward, another for Crittenden, a third for Cameron, a fourth for Fremont, and so on to the end of the chapter of the factions, each striving to out-vie the other in his to each other and ardently desiring each other's late occasion, Messes. Washburne and Gid-DINGS, both Black Republicans, made speeches in the House, shadowing forth as the platform of their party, the doctrine enunciated by Mr. Seward in his Rochester speech, viz. the doctrine of antagonism between the North and the South. Mr. MARSHALL, of Kentucky, a leading Know Nothing, replied to their speeches in herce style. We give below the telegraphic report of his remarks, to which we ask the earnest attention of all such as still claim to be "Americans."

Mr. Marshall (Ky.) replied to the remarks of Mr. Washourne (Maine,) and Mr. Giddings .-He said the Republicans lost much of their strength at the last autumn elections. Hereafter the conservative men will refuse to coalesce with them. If a National ticket could be formed on the Compromise measures of 1850, there would be some hope of a return of a well regulated prosperity to the country. The new party which Mr. Washburne here led into the field under the banner of Senator Seward, was based on a single idea, and that was sectional, and it could not be much larger nor more respectable than the Abolition party of 1852, which supported Senator Hale for the Presidency. Mr. Marshall denounced the Democratic plan of "squatter sovereignty." He would not give the toss of a copper between it and the Wilmot proviso.

So much for integrity in an office-holder.

CLAIM THE CREDIT.

As usual, when the Democracy succeed in carrying a measure which redounds to the ben efit of the country, the Opposition now claim that they have brought about the recent reduction of the State Debt. We should like to see the man that could lay his hand on his heart and make such a declaration as that. The Opnsition have not had a majority in our State Legislature for four years, and yet they claim to have passed laws which have operated to reduce the State Debt fwelve millions of dollars !

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18th, 1859. Prospects of harmony among the Democracy Senator Douglas on the right trock-Sliell and Douglas friends-Hickman refuses to drink to the health of Douglas-Forney for war on the President.

Never before have I seen a more favorable isposition on the part of the Democracy to heal up the breach occasioned by the disaffection of Douglas than at the present time. From present appearances, Douglas will soon again be in full fellowship with the Democratic Party .-If the gap is filled up, and the union between the Democratic party and Douglas, and those of the friends who wish the party well, completed, it will be a death blow to the hopes of the Opposition who expect to defeat us in 1860 by ivisions in our ranks.

Forney, and a few of the malignants who revolve about him, and who echo and re-echo his will, are opposed to the union of the Democracy. Forney is for war. He desires Douglas to arise in the Senate and boldly denounce the Administration -- to carry on the war to the knife, and the knife to the hilt, against the President. But Douglas is too old a stager to gratify the rash wishes of Forney, in his personal quarrel with Mr. Buchanan. He sees now that in opposing the Administration he is dividing and defeating the Democratic Party, and that a defeat of the Democracy may dissolve the Union and destroy Almost the entire press of the country has our glorious Confederacy of States. Amalgamation: THE BLACK REPUBLICAN THEORY

REDUCED TO PRACTICE!! white heiress elopes with a

A young girl named Sarah Judson, whose of the intention of the parties was conveyed by the fact of their flight. They imediately passed over to Windsor, upon reaching this city, cial or clergyman could have been found who the slightest sign of insanity. would have so far transgressed the bounds of decency as to unite the couple, the appearance of the girl being such as would forbid the union in the mind of any sensible man, to say nothing of the law in the case. Some individual was found in Canada who performed the ceremony, however, and the two were made one. They are now in Windsor, enjoying the sweets of the

The brother of the girl came on the next day, arriving here on Sunday, and, ascertaining their whereabouts, went to her and implored her to return. She was contented, howeverloved her ebony half-was happy in his arms, and could'nt think of going back. The emotions of a brother at such a sight can better be imagined than described. Some men would have blotted out their disgrace with a single blow, but he had been taught that it was no sin against God or man that his young sister should repose in the embrace of a negro, and at the same time calmly look him in the face and say that she was contented. He went home as he had come, alone.

The girl is about eighteen years old. The family are said to have occupied a position in society which was first class, and the blow is consequently a terrible one. The father is rich, and the girl an herress, which makes it very nice for the African of her choice. The matter has caused an intense excitement in the neighborhood where the parties are well known, the girl having been born and brought up where her parents reside. It is difficult to imagine and intelligent girl could be brought to form a connection so repugnant to all the senses, yet the fact exists. A more complete retribution for the crime of fanaticism we never heard of. The least we can wish is, that the father, undoubtedly well cured of his belief by this time, may be able to save his young daughter from the terrible future which now opens to her.

The Free Press says the father is a "red-hot Abolitionist," and has always advocated amal-

Further particulars.

The Free Press of a later date gives further particulars of the affair .

The late rumpus in the family affairs of the amalgamationist Judson, caused by his daughter's running away with a negro, has excited the talkative propensities of his neighbors, who give publicity to numerous little incidents which go to show what makes up men of his creed. Some time since, as they aver, a young man was engaged to marry the girl Sarah, the heroine of the nasty elopement, and returned home from San Francisco, California, for that purpose. His father and the Judson family were neighbors, and the pious Judson, having quarreled with the young man's father, the cause of the dispute being two bushels of apchildren; that he ate with them, slept in the directed, may be accounted for in this way. same room, and went to church with the family, being in all respects exalted above any decent white laborer in the vicinity. The son openly avows that the affair is a just retribution for the detestable course which his father has always taken in this respect. According to the assertions of those who knew the latter well, he has often avowed his preference to having his daughter marry a negro than a Democrat. If his present imbecile hatred to everything in the shape of a nigger, brought about by the ruin* of his daughter through himself, is any indication, he has changed his mind.

The modern Othello came near falling a victim to the treachery of some wags who were entrusted by the girl's father with a message from him. When he prevailed upon his daughter to return home with him, it was by the exercise of arts that might be expected from such a source, viz: promises that the negro might reply of the President to the resolution of the come and see her whenever he chose, and stay nate, asking for information concerning cor- as long as he liked in the exercise of his marirespondence which may have passed between tal privileges. DEEDS FROM PRE-EMPTORS .- The Supreme Court of Minnesota has decided that a deed made by a pre-emptor, at any time before the entry and receipt of his duplicate certificate from the District Land Office, is a valid deed, and conveys the fee simple to the purchaser .-The case before the court was this

Anson Northrup in 1855 pre-empted forty acres and a fraction in Minneapolis, embracing the St. Anthony Falls water-power on the west side of the river, now of immense value. He sold and conveyed this property by a warantee deed to Isaac Atwater, who re-conveyed the property again to Hon. Robert Smith, of Illinois and others, composing the Minneapolis Water Power Company. After the issuance of the patent, Northrup again made a deed of conveyance to George A. Camp, who accordingly entered into possession of certain lots in Minneapolis laid out a portion of the property pre-emp ted. Smith brought a suit in the District Court to eject him, and gained the cause in that

The case was appealed to the Supreme Court with the result above stated. It was contended by the defence that the conveyance by Northrup to Atwater was void under the act of Congress of 1841, which declares that any assignment or transfer of pre-empted land before the actual issuance of the patent shall be absolutely void. The Courts held otherwise, and the Minneapoany train of circumstances by which a young lis Water Power Company was put into full possession of its valuable property.

DEATH OF THE VICTIM OF A LEGAL ERnon.—A Paris correspondent gives the following sad history of one Lesiner: The 30th of June, 1848, he was tried, convicted, and sentenced to the "hulks" for life, as being guilty of murder and arson. He was in the bulks treated as a convict for seven years, when it was discovered that he was innocent of the gamation, and the girl has been reared under crimes, the true culprit having confessed his the demoralizing influences of such abhorrent guilt. The government did everything they could to atone for the error : they made him chief commissary of administrative inspection of the southern railways, and gave his father a tobacco seller's place; but seven years of agony seven years spent in conscious innocence and proclaimed guilt, are too heavy trials for human nature, and the unhappy man died a day or two ago, only six-and-thirty years old, and only two years since his liberation. Instances of these mistakes are not unfrequent in France, where the criminal practice is very imperfect, and the judge is made the prosecuting Attorney. But the French hold it is better that ten innocent should suffer, than one guilty man should es-

Neal Dow the great temperance and negro-equality champion and a colored man named Peter Francis, were the principal competitors. There being but an indifferent selection of candidates, comparatively few votes were cast; but the people generally preferred the white man to the Republican of a darker shade, and so "temperance and freedom" triumphed by a majority of 772 votes. How Neal Dow could have conscientiously lent himself to defeat so rare an opportrnity for the practical elevation of the colored race, we can't

The contract price was £4, 500, but it is said to have cost considerably more. The cause of the disaster was most probably owing to the contraction of the iron during the severe cold last week.

NEWS FROM EUROPE. - We have interesting and important news from Europe, by the arrival at New York of the steamship City of Washington, with the English dates to the 5th At the New York levee, at the Tuileries, the Emperor Napoleon made a threatening remark cent. on the Paris Bour, and a half percent. The emphatic tone of the Emperor, and his animated gestore, attracted the attention of the assembled diplomatic corps. At Vienna, also, news from all parts is pregnant with alarm .-The steps taken in Lombardy are almost tantamount to a state of seige. The Spanish ministry have declared that Spain would never sell Cuba, and protested against the insulting hypothesis to the contrary implied in President Buchanan's message. Olozaga introduced a motion in the Cortes supporting the ministerial declaration, and it was unanimously affirmed. Spain has obtained full satisfaction from Mexico in the Tampico affair. Run.ors prevail of the discovery of a formidable conspiracy at Cracow. Numerous arrests of parties said to be implicated have been made in Cracow. All was quiet in Servia. The Bombay mail of December 9, had reached England. The news includes an account of a large army of rebels having been defeated by the commander-in-chief. LATER FROM HATTI .- We have just received the first official bulletin of the army of the Hay-tien Emperor. It gives a diary of the movements of the army from December 28th to Jan. 3d, but contains little worthy of repetition.

On the 30th a small French boat, manned by four men, and bringing M. Clesca to Gonaves, was seized, and the arrested persons detained until evening, and then allowed to continue

On the 2d January the Emperor inspected the army. On the 3d the Emperor visited the ramparts constructed during the night, and was ubseduently told that the insurgents, who occupied a position on the river Mont-Roins, had led, leaving their ammunition.

The Imperial troops then occupied the evacnated position. The most perfect order reigns, and the army exhibits no signs of disaffection.

The bulletin of course treats the revolution, of which we have heretofore had only the insurgents' accounts, from the Souloque point of view, as a mere temporary riot, not endangering the stability of the empire.
