1857. There was also a decrease quite contrary to expectation, in the exports to Russia in river country, a speedy increase of trade in that direction had been anticipated. Of lumber filty-eight cargoes, or 18,035,000 feet were exported to fireign countries from Paget Sound and Humboldt Bay. The agricultural interests of the State are represented as very prosperous. Cattle, grain and fruits are grown with encouraging success; and in vine culture, the success already attained is regarded as a sure guarantee that the product of the vine in grapes, aisins, wmes and brandies, will soon be second to no other interest. The population of the State is estimated at 600.000.

The Tariff.

The Philadelphia Argus concludes an ediorial on the present political phase of the Tariff

What are the eleven Republican members of Congress from this State doing now to secure protection for Pennsylvania enterprise and industry ? It is true that Mr. Morris has read an ssay, and published it, in favor of the doctrinof protection, but here their z-al has stopped, and they have found employment in silly investigations of the management of Government workshops, and in more silly denunciations of a Democratic Administration. Will such conduct satisfy our people ? Will they be satisfied to see political animosity gratity its spleen, when questions of vital importance nen of all creeds are pending in our national councils ? We think not. Our people, impulsive as they may be at times, are too intelligent and patriotic to permit the interests and honor of their State to be periled in this manner, and we much mistake them if they do not call he Republican members of Congress to a serious reckoning. Let us hear no more, then, about Democratic insincerity on the tariff question : the facts are before the country, and they speak
