DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

STATE TICKET.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL: RICHARDSON L. WRIGHT, OF PHILADELPHIA.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL: JOHN ROWE, OF FRANKLIN.

POLITICAL STATUS OF THE DISORGANIZERS.

We find in the Philadelphia Pennsylvania, a political biography of some of the signers to Forney's call for a "State Convention," from which we condense the following:

From Philadelphia, the headquarters of the conspirators, there is quite an array of names. Among them is that of John W. Forney, editor of the leading Opposition journal of this State, the man who last fall spoke at Black Republican meetings and who declared in one of his speeches, that "there would be no God in heaven if the Democratic State Ticket would be elected!"

Then there is W. E. Lehman, who opposed the Democracy last fall, voted against the regular Democratic nominees, and contributed his money to their defeat. David Webster, another "signer," has acted with the opposition for years, and during the last campaign was especially active against the Democratic ticket. E. G. Webb was one of the most bitter and uncompromising opponents of the Democratic party at the last election. He made a speech in which he said he "would rather vote for Belzob than for Mr. Buchanan."

From the county, we have John Hickman, of Chester county, elected to Congress last fall by the Know Nothings and Black Republicans, he himself voting the Black Republican ticket. S. Ringwalt are in the same boat with Hickman. H. L. Calk, of Schuylkill, is a notorious disorganizer and a tool of Simon Cameron. A. Jordan Schwartz, of Reading, is one of the leaders of the Opposition in Berks county. Diller Luther, always an unrelenting enemy of the Democratic party, never voted the Democratic ticket in his life. D. K. Jackman one of the managing men in the sale of the State Canals.

The list of Berks county names attached to this "Call," is well worthy the attention of Democrats. We give a few:—George Hickman, member in full standing of a Know Nothing lodge; Daniel Mauger, Know Nothing; S. L. Young editor of the Lauman German organ; Joseph Henry, a defeated candidate for County Treasurer, opposed the Democratic ticket last fall; A. G. Green, a Know-Nothing Republican, never a Democrat; Jas. Donagan, a factious Democrat; D. H. Hottensine ran against the Democratic ticket in October last; Isaac Sheets wanted to be coal agent—did not get it, voted for the Opposition; D. L. Eiber expelled from the party, for joining a Know-Nothing lodge, acts with the Opposition; D. Neff on the Opposition ticket in October; John Green, never a Democrat, except for office, he has acted with all parties; Isaac Ely, George Kline, Dr. D. Spatz, W. Diehl, D. Weant, all five Know-Nothings, and supported the Opposition ticket last fall; Henry Flannery supported the Opposition ticket at the same time.

Such are the men who arrogate to themselves the right to oppose and set at defiance the action of a regular Democratic State Convention, in which every county in the State was represented and the members of which were regularly and directly chosen by the people. Shall these miserable plotters, these knavish demagogues, thus insult the great Democratic party unrebuked? Shall they flout their foul imputations in the faces of Pennsylvania Democrats, and not be spurned as they deserve?—Heaven forbid! Every drop of Democratic blood boils to avenge the meditated wrong!—Let it be done! Let the Democratic masses rise in their might, buckle on their armor for the fray, and glorious victory—victory over open foes and treacherous friends—shall be their revenge on the day of the next election!

BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK, APRIL 6th.—The Herald has intelligence from Montevideo to the 10th February—17 days later—announcing a peaceful adjustment of the difficulties with Paraguay, through the friendly offices of President Urquiza of the Argentine Confederation. The precise terms of settlement are not stated, but it is known that ample indemnity has been conceded to the family of the person killed on the steamer Water Witch, and to the American company represented by Mr. Hopkins.

THE EXTRA PAY QUESTION IN THE SENATE.

How Democrats Deal With It. Senator Schell votes for the reduction of the pay of members of the Legislature.

The action of the State Senate, on Friday last, on the general appropriation bill, affords a strong contrast to the extravagance and prodigality of the House, in passing upon the same subject. The reason of this is obvious. The Senate is composed of a majority of Democrats, whilst the House is strongly Opposition. The appropriation bill, lately passed by the latter, continued the $200 extra pay to members of the present Legislature. To this the Senate has refused to agree, and has adopted an amendment to the House bill, which reduces the pay of members from $700 to $500. Our Senator, Mr. SCHELL, voted for this amendment, as did also Senator Wright, who is the Democratic candidate for Auditor General. The proceedings of the Senate, on this subject, were as follows:

The fourth section of the Appropriation Bill, was read, to wit:

Sec. 4. For the payment of the expenses of the Legislature, including the pay and mileage of the members, clerks and officers thereof, and the amount authorized by law for stationery, newspapers and light, the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

Mr. WELSH moved to amend by inserting after the words, "sum of," in the fourth line, the words, "123,400," and that so much of the fourth section of the act, entitled "An Act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the government, &c.," as increases the compensation of the Legislature, from $500 to $700 per annum, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Mr. SCHELL moved to amend the amendment by adding the following:

Provided, That the State Treasurer be, and he is hereby directed to retain two hundred dollars out of the compensation of each of the members of the session of 1858.

Mr. Schell's amendment to the amendment, was adopted, Senators Schell and Wright, both voting in the affirmative.

Mr. KELLER moved further to amend, by striking out five hundred dollars and inserting three hundred dollars, which amendment was lost.

The question recurring upon the amendment as amended,

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. RANDALL and Mr. WELSH, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS.—Messrs. Baldwin, Brewer, Coffey, Craig, Fetter, Harris, Keller, Miller, Nuncmacher, Rutherford, SCHELL, Scofield, Schaefer, Schindel, Steele, Thompson, Turney, Welsh, WRIGHT and Yardley—20.

NAYS.—Messrs. Francis, Gazzam, Gregg, Marselis, Myer, Palmer, Parker, Penney, Randall and Cresswell, Speaker—10.

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

This reduces the pay of members to $500, and authorizes the State Treasurer to retain two hundred dollars out of the compensation of the members of the last session. So much for Democratic economy. Will the Black Republicans and Know Nothings of the House, agree to this amendment of their bill, or will they cling to their spend-thrift appropriations, in spite of this action by the Senate? We shall see.

ST. CLAIR TOWNSHIP.

The Black Republicans affect to be rejoiced over the result of the late election in St. Clair. Ye gods and little fishes! what a subject to rejoice over! A Black Republican Constable elected in that strong Democratic township of St. Clair, which was wont to give the Opposition a majority of 70 and 80, and last Fall gave the K. N. Black Republican candidate for Canal Commissioner, 25 over Westley Frost! What a triumph, to be sure! How will the Democracy survive it?

The only consolation the Democrats of St. Clair have, is: they elected their candidate for Assessor, one of the Supervisors, one of the School Directors and an Inspector; a greater Democratic success in that township, than any accomplished for the last twelve years! Another such a victory for the Amalgamationists of St. Clair, and they are a ruined party.

Lovejoy's Letter.

On our first page will be found one of the most eloquent and interesting political documents, that has been given to the public for many a day; Lovejoy's letter to his brother in Congress. Lovejoy was formerly an Abolitionist, and to that account, his testimony is doubly damning to Abolitionism. Intelligent reader! peruse this letter, and if you hold the same opinions once entertained by Lovejoy, and you are convinced that they are wrong, like him, be a brave, an honest man, and cast them out from your mind, at once and for ever.

NEW FIRM.—Oster, Manspecker and Carn have dissolved the partnership heretofore existing between them, in the business of merchandising. Oster and Carn will continue at the old stand, where goods of every variety will be sold cheaper than ever.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of O. C. Clark & Co., Cumberland, Md., which will be found in this week's Gazette. We are well acquainted with the junior partner of the firm, and know him to be a gentleman of strict integrity in all his dealings. We cordially recommend Messrs. Clark & Co., to those who may wish any thing in their line.

DEMOCRATIC TRIUMPH IN BROOKLYN.

BROOKLYN, APRIL 6th.—The charter election yesterday resulted in the success of the whole Democratic ticket. The majority of Mr. Powell, the candidate for mayor, is three thousand.

THE LADY OF THE ISLE. BY MRS. ENNA D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH. Complete in one large volume, neatly bound in cloth, for One Dollar and Twenty-five Cents; or two volumes, paper cover, for One Dollar.

This work will prove to be the most attractive one ever written by Mrs. Southworth, for she is excelled by no living female writer. Whoever reads the first page, is sure to be carried on to the last. Her style is free from insipidity on one hand, and bombast on the other; and though we meet with forcible, we are never startled with inflated language. Her characters are rarely under, but never overdrawn. Her scenes are life pictures, her incidents founded on facts, and her sentiments are characterized by singular purity both of conception and expression. In short, she possesses in an eminent degree those qualifications which are the peculiar characteristics of a good and great writer; while she delights the reader's imagination with her descriptive beauty, she applies home truths to his understanding with the force of rational conviction. The "Lady of the Isle" will be pronounced by all those who examine it, to be her best work. This is sufficient to commend it to perusal by all, and we anticipate for it a large sale and unqualified popularity.

Rev. Samuel Barnes, the new pastor of the M. E. Church, at this place, delivered his inaugural sermon, on Sunday morning last. Mr. Barnes is a fluent and pleasing speaker.

CORRECT INFORMATION.

To show how utterly groundless is the charge which Forney and the rest of the Opposition editors make, that Leocompton controlled the recent Democratic State Convention, we quote the following from the Pennsylvania, for the entire correctness of which we unhesitatingly vouch:

"In the Platform of Resolutions reported by the Committee to the Convention, and adopted WITHOUT A DISSENTING VOICE by that body, containing one hundred and thirty-three members, and representing the County Conventions respectively of every county in the State, nothing whatever was said for or against Gov. Packer. It was found to be utterly impossible without the slightest reference to any supposed principle involved in the Leocompton controversy, to bring a majority of the Delegates to the point of consenting to endorse his course and conduct. Consequently, it was thought best to say nothing whatever about him, leaving him a chance in the future to retrieve himself. But after the passage of the resolutions, a member of the Convention, first apologizing for certain indefensible conduct of the Governor's offered a general resolution in his behalf, on which a ballot was taken. On this vote, by yeas and nays, thirty-seven persons voted for the resolution, and of these, a majority were what have been called Leocompton Democrats! Of the two nominees for the post of Auditor General, the one, Richardson L. Wright, was what has been called a Leocomptonite, and the other, Jacob Ziegler, was what has been known as an Anti-Leocomptonite. Now, of the twenty-seven votes received by Mr. Ziegler, a majority were what have been called Leocompton men, and of the votes received by Mr. Wright, a considerable number were of those known as Anti-Leocomptonites. Mr. Rowe, who received the compliment of a unanimous nomination, was either uncommitted on the question, or else was possessed at one time with the Anti-Leocompton view of the old [dead] Leocompton issue."

Mr. Turney, of Westmoreland, one of the two Anti-Leocompton Democratic State Senators, and who was a member of the Convention, voted against the resolution proposing to endorse Gov. Packer.—Gellsburg Compiler.

THE WAVERLY NOVELS.

The well-known firm of T. B. Peterson & Brothers, 306 Chesnut Street, Philadelphia, are now engaged in publishing a remarkably cheap edition of these unapproachable works of fiction. The first, "Ivanhoe," appeared on Saturday, March 5th, next, "Guy Rannering," on March 12th, "Rob Roy," was issued on March 19th, Kenilworth on March 26th, and so on, one novel will be published regularly on each and every coming Saturday, until the whole number of volumes—twenty-six—is completed.—The low price fixed by the publishers for them, is only twenty-five cents a volume, or the whole twenty-six volumes for five dollars. A complete set will be forwarded, free of postage, by mail, to any part of the United States, to any one, by the publishers, on receiving a remittance of five dollars for the twenty-six volumes; or a remittance of three dollars will pay the first twelve volumes; or a remittance of one dollar will pay for the first four volumes. The novels will be neatly printed, and each volume will contain about 125 pages printed on fine white paper, and neatly bound with paper cover. The revised uniform Edinburgh edition, from which this is reprinted, comprises forty-eight volumes, the cost of which is seventy-two dollars; and this edition will contain every word of the Edinburgh edition.—We commend the determination of this enterprising Philadelphia firm, to furnish the works of an author like Walter Scott, at a price so reasonable, that all persons may possess a full set, and direct the especial attention of our readers to the fact, and would advise them all to call and subscribe, or make a remittance of Five Dollars at once, per first mail, to the publishers, for the entire set, which will send them complete to any one, free of postage, on receipt of that sum.

Troublesome Coughs and Colds. The health of the community is always a subject of serious consideration to those who are supposed to direct public opinion, and there is no more prevalent source of untimely deaths than the coughs and colds, which make their appearance during the winter and spring months. We would advise all such who are afflicted with any lung difficulty to apply at once to Dr. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP, a medicine prepared by a careful physician of the old school, who cured himself by this great medicine, nearly twenty years ago, and has since used it with wonderful effect. We know Dr. Keyser to be a man entitled to the respect of the public, and as such, we would recommend his PECTORAL SYRUP as a superior remedy. Sold at Alsip's, Bedford, and at Colvin's, Schellsburg.

Invested by several hundred young men during the past fall and winter, for tuition, books, board, all expenses in full, at the Iron City College, Pittsburg, Pa., has secured for a great majority of them employment this spring, at rates varying from $40 to $50 per month.

MARRIED:

On the 31st ult., by the Rev. B. H. Hunt, Mr. John E. Colvin, to Miss Annie L. Schell, all of Schellsburg.

We tender our hearty congratulations to the happy pair, and hope, as printers always do, (especially when incited thereto by the inspiration derivable from a gold dollar, which same—not the inspiration, but the dollar—accompanied the above notice) that their wedded life may be one of lasting and unbroken happiness.

DIED.

On the 30th day of March, Laura Debaugh, daughter of Samuel and Lavinia Debaugh, aged 7 years, 8 months and 29 days.

It is with feelings of sorrow we learn the death of our little friend, Laura, noticed above. She died, leaving kind and affectionate parents, brothers and sisters, to mourn her loss. The scene was one that was deeply affecting to all those who saw it. A few minutes before her spirit was wafted home, her kind sister spoke to her of the Saviour, the Comforter in the hour of death—asked her if she would not like to die and go to Heaven where her sufferings would be no more. Her answer, in a sweet and distinct voice, was: "Yes! I would like to die, and go to meet my little brothers and sisters!" What comfort to the bereaved family, to know that their dear little Laura has gone to that "land of pure delight" where angels and archangels surround the throne, interceding for her and us.
