DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

STATE TICKET.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL: RICHARDSON L. WRIGHT, OF PHILADELPHIA.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL: JOHN ROWE, OF FRANKLIN.

A REVOLUTIONARY CENTENNARIAN.

On Tuesday last, our town was honored with a visit from Gen. Jas. Burns, Sr., of Juniata township, one of the surviving soldiers of the American Revolution.

O for the swords of former time, O for the men who bore them! When armed for right, they stood sublime, And tyrants crouched before them!

The Harrisburg Telegraph, ashamed of the action of the Black Republican House of Representatives in refusing to repeal the Extra Pay law, and anxious to bolster up that corrupt and unprincipled body, assails Messrs. Welsh and Schell, the two Democratic Senators who originated the anti-Extra Pay movement in the Senate, and endeavors to place them before the people in a false position.

On Friday, the first inst., when the Appropriation Bill was in consideration by the Senate, Mr. Welsh offered an amendment to reduce the pay of members from $700 to $500 per year, to which amendment Mr. Schell offered another to authorize the State Treasurer to retain $200 of the salary of members of the last session.

The Washington Union.—It has been announced that the Washington Union will soon pass into the hands of Gen. Geo. W. Bowman, at present Superintendent of Public Printing.

On Saturday last, as Mr. Samuel Barnhart, of this place, was driving his six horse road team over the bridge at the "Narrows," a short distance below town, the flooring and supporting timbers of the bridge, gave way, and the wagon and four of the horses attached to it, dropped through into the stream beneath!

Horrible Death by Fire.—William Croyle, a young lad, a son of Joseph Croyle, of Union township, in this county, was burned to death on the night of the 6th inst., at Mr. Reese's, between Ebensburg and Strongtown, Cambria county.

The Sickles Trial.—This interesting case has been in course of trial at Washington City, during the past week. The details of the trial, are very lengthy, and cannot, by any process of compression, be squeezed into our columns.

The Lovejoy Letter.—The Abolitionists winced under the home-thrusts given them by their former co-worker, Joseph C. Lovejoy, and for want of any other defence, talk about the re-opening of the slave-trade, etc., etc.

Ferguson & Manspecker.—Among our new advertisements, will be found that of the above-named firm, who have recently associated themselves in business.

Crowded Out.—The unusual press of legal and other advertisements, has crowded out a number of articles intended for this number.

GEN. BOWMAN.

The wolves of the Opposition press, howl most piteously over the purchase of the Washington Union by Gen. Bowman. They tremble at the power of that pen which they long since learned to fear.

Gen. Bowman has changed the name of his paper to that of the "Constitution." We have not, as yet, received a copy of the publication.

The Washington Union.—The telegraph announces that Gen. Bowman, Superintendent of Public Printing, has purchased the above paper.

CONNECTICUT ELECTION.

The Black Republicans, Abolitionists and Know Nothings combined, have been successful in Connecticut, as they have been invariably for the last five years.

The Democratic State Committee appointed by the President of the 16th of March Convention, met pursuant to the published call of the Chairman, at the Merchants' Hotel, Philadelphia, on Thursday, 17th inst., and after effecting permanent organization, adopted an Address written with great ability, and containing sound and wholesome views concerning the present condition of the party.

Democracy of Pennsylvania, with energetic preparation and with true hearts, we have victory within our grasp. Our lines broken, not by the enemy, who had not the strength to do it, but by ourselves, have been re-established.

PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA, for the PURCHASE OF MOUNT VERNON.

Chosen to represent, in this State, the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association of the Union, I venture to appeal to the generous and patriotic people of Pennsylvania, on this day, the anniversary of the birth of WASHINGTON, for their aid, in union with people of other States, to complete the purchase of MOUNT VERNON, the place of his residence and his tomb; and to secure it forever as a public and enduring monument of their unabated gratitude for his life-long services, and increasing veneration for his illustrious name.

Gratitude to one whose life was so generous and exalted; veneration of an example, such as his, of virtues that have so elevated the character of a public man, may well enlist the deepest sympathies of the women of America, and embolden them to claim the aid, not of their own sex alone, but of every one who justly glories in being a countryman of WASHINGTON, and whose heart is moved by actions the purest and noblest that man can render to mankind.

The object of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association is to obtain, by voluntary contributions, a sum necessary to purchase and hold forever, two hundred acres of the Mount Vernon Estate, including the mansion where WASHINGTON dwelt and died, his tomb, the garden and grounds around them, and the landing at the Potomac by which they are approached. To collect this sum, Vice-Regents have been appointed in different States, with lady-managers, associated committees of ladies, and advisory committees of gentlemen, in the various counties, cities, and principal towns.

Every person by whom one dollar, towards this fund, is paid, becomes thereby a permanent member of the Association, and is inscribed as such in a record which will be preserved at Mount Vernon. Similar arrangements will be immediately organized throughout the State of Pennsylvania, and a public announcement will be given of the persons by whom subscriptions will be received and the registry of the names be made.

A large amount has been already collected from places where these arrangements have been completed. The public press, so influential in good works, has lent its powerful aid.—Associations established for philanthropic purposes—the fraternity of Free Masons, to which WASHINGTON himself belonged; that of the Odd Fellows; the voluntary military companies and firemen, and numerous bodies assembling together for objects of utility and benevolence, have everywhere exhibited the deepest interest, and united in this noble effort with the most liberal spirit. Patriotic individuals have come forward, with prompt sympathy, to lead and encourage their several communities; and the cheering prospect is held out that this wide-spread spirit, spreading through all parts of our common country, is insuring complete success.

Into this alliance of generous fellowship Pennsylvania is now to enter. Always distinguished by a devotion to works of voluntary benevolence, which is an inheritance blended with her name, she has, besides, peculiar associations connected with WASHINGTON, which
