M., for the purpose of putting in nomination a County Ticket and appointing Legislative Conference to meet similar Conference from Somerset county. ## THE VIRGINIA ELECTION.

The gubernatorial canvass in Virginia, now about coming to a close, has been violent and bitter. Mr. Letcher, the Democratic candidate, like all men of marked individuality, has a number of personal enemies who stop at nothing that may tend to secure his defeat. On the other hand, Mr. Goggin, the Opposition candidate, is also warmly opposed on personal grounds. In such a contest, however, the Opposition, owing to their unscrupulousness, are generally the gainers. The chivalric democracy of the Old Dominion, magnanimously refuses to take any other course. Principles, gives them over their opponents. Not so with the opposition. No trick so mean, no falsehood so atrocious, but they at once resort to it, if in their estimation it will damage the prospects of the Democratic candidate. From such premises as these, one would naturally conclude that the Democracy of Virginia will be defeated. But we have an abiding faith in the intelligence and cool-headedness of the Virginia people, and, therefore, have no fears for the result. The strength of the Opposition candidate, lies in the fact that he is a slave-holder and in all his speeches arrogates to himself the championship of the "peculiar institution." Hence his election would be, if possible, a severer rebuff to the Black Republicans, than even the success of his Democratic opponent. More than this, it would be the certain ruin of the Black Republican party, inasmuch as it would place Crittenden and Bell in a position to dictate terms to them in the coming contest for the Presidency. Should Goggin be elected, Seward and Weed and Greeley and the rest of the Black Republican leaders, will be compelled to play second fiddle to the Southern Know-Nothings, or set up independently for themselves, as they did in 1856. In either event, the defeat of their party would be inevitable. So, should the Opposition carry Virginia, the Democracy will not lose a single pawn on the Presidential chess-board, by the victory of their opponents.

BOOK BINDING.—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Mr. Geo. A. Brooks, of Harrisburg, which will be found in our paper to-day. Mr. Brooks' work is always well done and his charges are very moderate. Those desiring anything in his line, will do well to give him a call.

Read the confession of Marion Crop, the Baltimore rowdy who was lately hung for the murder of Police Officer Rigdon, which we publish on the first page. He was one of the ringleaders of the clubs that roll up the Know Nothing majorities in Baltimore.

MANOEUVRES OF THE ABOLITIONISTS.

A new attempt is about being made to abolitionize Bedford county. Finding that the labors of their local politicians, are not sufficient to accomplish their ends, the Abolitionists of this county are summoning to their aid the assistance of the New York Tribune, which paper they are now scattering broadcast among the good citizens of this neighborhood. The spirit of conservatism, and the strong and unvarying attachment to the Union, which have always characterized our people, compel the Abolitionists to this last desperate resort. Now, we have no objection to their circulating the Tribune, or any other of their newspaper organs, so long as they do it like men, in the light of day, and not sneakingly and clandestinely as they have been doing in some parts of this county. We are for free discussion—"freedom of thought and opinion" is our motto, and we shall never deny it, or prove false to it. Democracy never appears more beautiful than in the broad sunlight of Truth. Its principles need no "dark lantern" to give them a seeming of correctness. But whilst we are the advocates of a free press, we are decidedly opposed to all secret appliances of its power—to all clandestine operations on the part of those circulating its issues—for if these things be done, there is no freedom of discussion, the opportunity not being given to combat the doctrines of the sheet secretly circulated. It is but a new version of the trickery of Know-Nothingism, to insinuate into the hands of an unsuspecting citizen, a partisan newspaper filled with specious falsehoods which he may never see contradicted unless he subscribe to some other partisan journal of opposite politics.

We are informed that in Napier and Juniata townships, the Abolitionists are making it a regular business to supply Democrats gratis with copies of the New York Tribune. We have no doubt that such is the case in other parts of the county. Their object in doing this, is apparent. The New York Tribune is full of sugar coated lies and they think to deceive the people by spreading them before them. But they reckon without their host. The sturdy yeomanry of Bedford county, are too intelligent, and what is more, they are too patriotic, ever to be misled by Abolition fanatics, or Know Nothing wire-pullers. We say, therefore, let the Tribune be read by all who receive it. Scan its pages carefully. Note its disunion tendencies and its proclivity toward "negro equality." Remember, too, when you read it, that its editor, Horace Greeley, has been the advocate of Fourierism, of Free Love, of Abolitionism and of almost every disgraceful ism that has sprung up to degrade and demoralize society for the last twenty years. He is the same Greeley who but recently stigmatized laboring men as "POOR WHITE TRASH," "exceedingly tenacious of a distinction which enables them to take rank of the most accomplished and wealthy MEN OF COLOR!"

OPPOSITION HARMONICS.

In our last issue we made a brief allusion to the "Opposition" party in Pennsylvania. Since then we have had some additional evidence of the discordant feeling existing among the factions of which that party (?) is composed and it now seems almost certain that the coalition which was last year entered into by those factions, will soon be disrupted into various distinct and separate organizations. We do not pretend to predict when this disruption will occur, but (unless the cohesive power of public plunder prove stronger than their love of principle) the Black Republican and Know Nothing parties will ere long be as irreconcilably inimical to each other as they now severally are to their mutual opponent, the National Democracy. There is a strong leaven of old Silver Gray Whiggery in the Opposition loaf, and that leaven has always been disgusting to the taste of the Seward-ites. The latter have the power to reject this dose so nauseous to their appetite, and it is evident that they intend to do it at the first opportunity. Silver Grayism is aware of the intentions of the Seward-ites, and is busily preparing to meet them half-way. It calls a "Straight American" State Convention, to which delegates are elected from a number of counties in various sections of the State. It publicly announces its purpose to re-organize the American party. It elects "Straight American" delegates to the "Opposition" Convention which is to meet in June, and quarrels with the "Woolly Heads" wherever they dare to assert the doctrines peculiar to their creed. Hence there is a prospect of a very pretty row between the two wings of the Opposition, and if they don't have a nice little war among themselves, it will not be because they love each other too much, but because neither of them has the courage to tell the other what it thinks of its opponent.

The Philadelphia Daily News, ere while the organ of the "Straight Americans" of this State, but lately in partnership with the Black Republicans, has the following editorial on the American State Convention:

"The following call for an American State Convention, has been issued from Pittsburg, and has its origin with the Americans of the county of Allegheny:

At a mass Meeting of the Americans of Allegheny county, held at Pittsburg on Tuesday, April 20th, 1859, it was unanimously resolved that we, the Americans of Allegheny county, in Mass Convention assembled, earnestly request the Americans throughout the State of Pennsylvania, to meet in their respective counties and elect delegates, equal in number to their representatives in the State Legislature, to meet in their respective counties and elect delegates, equal in number to their representatives in the State Legislature, to meet in State Convention, at Harrisburg, in the Hall of the House of Representatives, on Wednesday, the 25th day of May, 1859, at 10 o'clock A. M., to take action in regard to the reorganization of the American party.

By order of the Committee.
Pittsburg, April 24th, 1859.

We are not advised of the design in view by those who have issued this call, but we take it for granted that the purpose is to protect that American sentiment which is so necessary to the well-being of our beloved country. We notice that delegates have already been chosen from the counties of Allegheny, Westmoreland, Armstrong, Washington, Green, Butler, Lawrence, Dauphin, and Cumberland—and that measures are being adopted to elect delegates from most of the other counties in the State, our own included. We doubt not but those who may attend this Convention will so act as to produce results which shall be conducive to the success of those conservative principles upon which the institutions of our country are based, and to promote that American sentiment of nationality which inspired our fathers, and for the establishment of which the American party was formed."

It will be seen from the News article that the "American" contagion has spread considerably, and that it has taken hold in some of the strongest Opposition districts in the State. We close our reflections upon this melancholy subject, by subjoining the telegraphic account of the proceedings of the "People's" Convention in Montgomery county. Truly our opponents are in a sorry plight.

NORRISTOWN, May 18.—The County Convention held here by the People's party has resulted in the selection of two sets of delegates to the State Convention to be held at Harrisburg. The split occurred between the Republican and Know-Nothing members.

The Republican delegates selected are Robert Ireuell, Caleb P. Jones, George Kenderdine, and William Minter; and the Know-Nothing delegates are W. P. Seymour, John Walton, James Rittenhouse, and Henry S. Hittner.

The seats of the Know Nothing delegates will be contested in the State Convention. The large body of opposition voters in the county did not participate in the election.

"MONSIEUR TONSON COME AGAIN."

The redoubtable editor of the Blair County Whig, publishes a second article in defence of the dirty trick at which we caught him a few weeks ago. His former effort to extricate himself from his ugly predicament, was a weak and flimsy affair, but, ye gods! what a miserable abortion is his last! Not a lie—not a word—does he dare to write concerning the real matter at issue between himself and the Gazette. All that he ventures upon, is the hackneyed, threadbare abuse of the National Administration, which has been in the mouth of every fledgling Opposition demagogue, for the last year and a half. What in the name of all that is logical, has the National Administration to do with the importation of seed-wheat? Could Mr. BUCHANAN prevent such importation, if he desired to do so? Why, if the Government were to lay an embargo such as the Whig seems to think it should, every Opposition dog,—mongrel, puppy, whelp and hound—would yelp till the crack of doom, about the tyranny and despotism of our National rulers. The Whig man says he makes "political capital out of the wheat," "we are an 'anti-right,'" say we, but you must be rather unsuccessful in that branch of business, Mr. Wino, or you wouldn't try to make "political capital" out of the importation of a few thousand bushels of seed-wheat. Just think of it! "The ruinous policy of James Buchanan's administration," bringing a new kind of wheat into this country, and that too, for the special benefit of the grain-grower! Horrible to tell!

The Whig admonishes us very kindly to "quit deceiving the people by false publications," &c., &c. This is the cry of "STOP THIEF,"—the would-be cunning out-cry of every thief caught in a tight place. The editor of the Whig had better pull the beam out of his own eye, before he talks about the mote in his brother's. We have never yet, knowingly or wilfully, published any false statement in our paper, and we defy the Whig man or any other person, to show that we have done so. "Truth is mighty and must prevail!"

THE RAILROAD LETTING.

The much talked of "Railroad Letting" came off in this place, on Wednesday last. The bidding for contracts, was very lively, some fifty or sixty contractors being in attendance. The contract for the whole of the road let (12 miles) was made to COLLINS, DELL & Co., at the sum of $64,000. The work is to be commenced on the 4th day of June, and to be finished by the first of January. Among other distinguished contractors present at the letting, we noticed MAL JAMISON, of Westmoreland county, Mr. BLAIR, of Wayne, Mr. WILSON, of Centre, and Mr. GOWAN, of Harrisburg. The presence of these "rail-rollers" enlivened our town considerably and already we see the "coming" railroad "casting its shadow before."

Trees! Trees! Trees!

Messrs. Cowles & Warren, proprietors of the "Highland Nurseries," at Syracuse New York, have furnished us with their catalogue of Fruit and Ornamental Trees and Plants, and desire us to state that their agents are about to canvass this county. Their trees are said to be of the choicest varieties, consisting of Apple, Pear, Cherry, Plum, Apricot, Nectarine, Peach, Quince and the various species of Ornamental Trees. Their Plants are unsurpassed, such as Grapes, Currants, Goose-Berries, Raspberries, Black-berries, Straw-berries, &c., &c. They have also Flowing Shrubs, Climbers, Bulbous Flower Roots, etc., etc. Their agents for Bedford county, Messrs. Cory, Neff, Kesaad and Spedker, may at present be found at Haler's Hotel. Give them a trial.

LATEST YET.—J. A. J. Esq., has returned from N. York, and Philadelphia, and says his selection of goods can't be excelled for beauty or quality, and that he intends selling them at an astonishing low figure. Go and examine.

THE MORNING PENNSYLVANIAN.—We neglected, last week, to notice the gratifying fact that Hon. NIMROD STRICKLAND, late Canal Commissioner, has become the editor of the Philadelphia Pennsylvanian. Judge Strickland wields an able pen, and his character as a man and a Democrat, is unblemished. Under his editorship, the old Pennsylvanian is bound to succeed.

The Philadelphia Argus, published by Jo. SEVERNS & Co., has been re-changed to an evening paper and enlarged to the general size of the Philadelphia dailies. The Argus has always been a reliable Democratic journal and as a newspaper is unsurpassed. Success to the "Evening Argus!"

This week we paid a "flying visit" to the Springs, and found everything about the buildings presenting quite an agreeable and inviting appearance. We, also, visited the garden belonging to the Springs, which is under the care of Mr. John Fleming, and judging from the large quantity of all kinds of vegetables there, (which are now ready for table use, as we have reason to know,) the Company were certainly fortunate in procuring a gardener in the person of Mr. Fleming.

DEATH OF BARON HUMBOLDT.—Recent advices from Europe, bring the news of the death of the philosopher and traveller, ALEXANDER VON HUMBOLDT. He was upwards of 90 years of age.

Messrs. OSTER & CARN are receiving at their store, "No 1, Cheap Side," a fine variety of Summer goods, which they will sell very low. For particulars, see advertisement.

See the advertisement of Ferguson and Manspeaker. Their stock of boots and shoes is extensive and their prices very low.

The steamship City of Baltimore passed off Cape Race yesterday morning, and was intercepted by the news yacht of the Associated Press, by which means the dispatches prepared by the Liverpool agent were obtained. The dates are from London and Liverpool, to Wednesday afternoon, the 11th instant, being five days later.

There had been no material change in political affairs, and the condition of matters in Italy remained as they were when the Canada sailed.

The latest intelligence from the seat of war received at London on the day the City of Baltimore sailed, states that there had been no action of moment between the hostile armies. The movements of the Austrians are viewed as inexplicable by the London press, and their conjectures are variable. Some can only account for their dilatory movements by the supposition that the unfavorable weather has prevented the General-in-Chief from carrying out the original plan of the campaign.

Their latest movements indicate the greatest indecision, positions being taken and then abandoned without any apparent motive. Up to the last accounts heavy rains continued to fall, carrying out the designs of the Sardinians to overflow the country and thereby distract the movements of the Austrians.

A Vienna bulletin says that the Austrian troops are awaiting better weather before assuming the offensive.

The Sardinian commander, Gen. Marmora, has made the river his strategical line.

The Emperor and Prince Napoleon left Paris for Genoa on the 10th. The Empress Eugenie was proclaimed Regent during the absence of the Emperor, according to the previous arrangement. The Emperor will assume the command of the allied forces in Sardinia.—The Sardinian Government are preparing a magnificent reception for Napoleon on his arrival at Genoa.

Marshal Canrobert, the French General, is directing the operations of the allies from Alessandria.

There is said to be much sickness among the Austrian troops, as was expected from the bad weather and the overflowing condition of the country to which their movements have so far been confined.

The Austrians are fortifying their positions along the line of the river Sesia. The Emperor is making constant additions to his reserve, and there will soon be 750,000 men under arms.

The Emperor had declared Ancona, on the Adriatic, in a state of siege, but the Pope protested and a reconsideration of the matter was promised.

The French army at Rome is to be increased, and placed on a war footing.

The English Parliamentary elections had been almost concluded. The Ministerial gain was variously estimated by the English press at from 19 to 28 members.

The Paris Monitor denies the report that the French army is about to concentrate on the Rhine.

THE LATEST MOVEMENTS OF THE AUSTRIANS.

TERIN, May 11.—The Austrians are re-crossing the river Sesia in haste.

MARSEILLES, Wednesday evening.—The Emperor arrived here at midday en route. He embarked on board the Hortense, where he received the city authorities and left in the afternoon.

It was said in Paris that the Emperor expects to be at Milan by the end of May or beginning of June.

LONDON, Thursday.—In the London Times it is said that the continued suspense between the hostile forces in Italy, excites daily, now conjectures.

The condition of Turkey has also been a subject of comment.

Marshal Canrobert has issued orders of the day to the troops under his command at Alessandria, concluding in a spirited and warlike tone.

A despatch from Rome has been sent to the Pope's Nuncio to leave Florence.

The Austrian war brig Triton had been accidentally blown up while the commander of the vessel was on shore. The number of dead, wounded and missing was estimated at about eighty.

Another report says that part of the crew were ashore when the explosion took place, and the number killed was only four.

TERIN, May 11, 10 o'clock, A. M.—On reaching Veretti the Austrians ceased their retrograde movements. To-day they made an excursion towards Porsara. Yesterday two batteries and thirty carts, with sick and wounded, passed through Gravelona.

Count Cavour leaves to-day to meet the Emperor Napoleon at Genoa.

PARIS, May 12.—The Monitor publishes the following telegram:

ROME, May 10.—According to orders from Vienna, the state of siege has been raised at Ancona, and the light-house is again lit.

VIENNA, May 20.—The Archduke is dead.

LIVERPOOL BREASTSTUFF MARKET.—The circulars quote a considerable decline on all qualities of breadstuffs. Messrs. Richardson, Spence & Co., report flour very dull at 11s 11d 6d.—Wheat, also, very dull and declined 6s 9d.

LIVERPOOL PROVISION MARKET.—The provision market closed quiet. Beet dull; sales unimportant. Bacon steady. Lard firm at 60s 6d.

LONDON MARKETS.—Wheat has a declining tendency, all qualities are 6s lower. Sugar is dull and 6d lower. Rice firm. Tallow quiet at 56s. Spirits of Turpentine firm at 44s 6d 4s 6d.

A Dead Failure.

An attempt to build up a new Democratic party under the dignified title of the "States Rights Democracy," with Forney as leader, has proven the most dismal political failure of the times. It would really be a work of charity, says the Patriot and Union, for some respectable Democratic paper to bestow a word of encouragement upon the ragged, bald, and crippled thing. The Anti-Leocompton press of the State refuses to acknowledge it, instead of giving the encouragement and support which were anticipated by the projectors of the movement, are unsparing in their blows. Of this class of Democratic newspapers, the Somerset Democrat is among the most able and vigorous. In commenting with deserved severity upon the proceedings at Altoona, it administers the following advice:

"We understand that it is the intention of this State Rights Democratic party, when the proper time arrives, to make an energetic effort to secure a majority of delegates to the next 4th of March Convention. To this we have no objection. But we tell them now, in advance, that unless they roll up their sleeves and go zealously to work for the success of the regularly nominated Democratic State Ticket at the next election, they will find themselves nowhere when these delegates come to be chosen. No disorganizing movement can carry the Anti-Leocompton sentiment of the State with it, and the sooner the leaders of this Democratic State Rights faction are made aware of this fact perhaps the better. There is a vast difference between a genuine Anti-Leocompton Democrat, and a bogus one who makes it his business to endeavor to defeat the regular party organization, and who gives 'aid and comfort' to the common enemy."

CONQUA MATTINGS.—We have just received a large lot of prime quality Mattings 1 & 14 check and plain white.

GENTS.—I am requested by Mr. T. A. C. Cochrane, of this place, to say to you that on the morning of the 4th instant, about 3 o'clock, his store took fire, and the entire stock of goods were destroyed. The heat became so suddenly intense that none of the goods could possibly be saved; but fortunately his books and papers which were in one of your Champion Safes, were all preserved perfectly. And well they may be called Champion, for during the whole conflagration there was one incessant pouring of flame directly upon the safe which contained them. And still, upon opening it, the inside was found to be scarcely warm, while the outside was most severely scorched.

Yours truly,
