Democratic Meeting.

A Mass Meeting of the Democracy of Bedford county, will be held at the Court House, on Monday evening of Court Week, the 29th inst. Able speakers are expected to be present to address the meeting.

By order of the Democratic Co. Com. O. E. SHANNON, Chairman.

NUMBER 157.

Our friend and neighbor, Mr. JOHN TAYLOR, has suffered himself to be made the nominee of the Know Nothing-Black Republican-Amalgamation party, of this county, for the office of Associate Judge, and as such is employing himself busily in electioneering with such Democrats as he thinks he may be able to wheedle into voting for him.

"In the presence of Almighty God and these witnesses, your right hand resting on this HOLY BIBLE and CROSS; and your left hand raised towards heaven, in token of your sincerity, you do solemnly promise and declare that you will not VOTE nor give your influence for any man for ANY OFFICE in the gift of the people, unless he be an AMERICAN BORN citizen in favor of AMERICANS BORN ruling America, nor if he be a ROMAN CATHOLIC, &c., &c."

We warn Democrats against the soft speeches and insinuating cajolery of No. 157. We do this not out of any personal enmity toward Mr. TAYLOR, for we like him as a neighbor, but because he is a most bitter and relentless enemy of the Democratic party.

The Abolitionists say that the Bill to prevent the intermarriage of whites and blacks, which the last Black Republican House of Representatives refused to pass, (and in opposition to which was recorded the vote of Geo. W. WILLIAMS,) was an "abundant law," was "unconstitutional," and that its passage would have been a disgrace to the State.

"How would Pennsylvania look in the eyes of the world, if she would confess, as she would by the passage of such an absurd law, that her people were so much in the habit of marrying negroes that she had to pass a law to prevent it?"

Such is the apology made by the Black Republican Amalgamation supporters of Geo. W. WILLIAMS, for his vote, last winter, against the Bill to prevent the intermarriage of whites and blacks. They might as well say because Pennsylvania has laws to prevent murder, arson and theft, she must appear, "in the eyes of the world," a commonwealth of Cain, house-burners and thieves.

But, say the Amalgamationists, it is not necessary to have a law to prevent whites and blacks from intermarrying. We answer, time was when such a law would have been unnecessary. In the days when the Abolition party was confined to a few counties in New York and Ohio, and before it spread from one end of the North to the other, as it has within the last few years, marriages between whites and blacks were unward-of.—But how is it now? The disgusting history of the Michigan case, the daughter of an Abolitionist (Judson) marrying a greasy, hideous old negro, is familiar to all.

Local and Miscellaneous. — For sale at this office—a large lot of blanks, neatly printed, including Deeds, Subpoenas, Summonses, Executions, Fee Bills, &c., &c.

—A Por Visit.—Mr. J. R. DUNDING, editor of the Reading "Daily Times," paid us a pop visit on Saturday evening, and extracted a promise from us to visit the "State of Berks," and take a look at Lauer's Artesian Well.—Patriot & Union.

—In Massachusetts a foreigner cannot vote until he has been naturalized two years. In Rhode Island he cannot vote unless he is the owner of real estate. Both these States are in the hands of the Opposition.

—On Monday last, a serious accident occurred at the Union School House building, in this place. A German hod-carrier named Hoss, whilst on the scaffolding erected by the builders, happening to tread on a board that was defective, it gave way beneath him, and caused him to fall to the ground.

—To all who are desirous of obtaining a good article in the hat line, we recommend the manufactory of Messrs. Wm. & J. C. Keyser, of this place. We speak "by the card," as we have worn a "title" of their "make" for several months, and have found it quite "the thing."

—Bah!—The favorite interjection of the Bedford Abolition Organs. See the article on "Geo. W. Williams," in the last number. The writer of that article may bleat like a sheep, but he can't make people believe that he isn't an ass.

—Gen. Sam Houston, it is reported, has been elected Governor of Texas. Old San Jacinto is hard to beat, especially when he is on a good platform. He was defeated both for Governor and U. S. Senator when a Know Nothing, but since his renunciation of Know Nothingism and since he has become a warm supporter of President Buchanan's administration, he seems to have regained the popularity he formerly enjoyed.

—Ex. Gov. Johnston is at present staying at the Springs. Although a man of much greater worth than most of the Opposition leaders in this State, he seems to be in bad odor with the politicians of his own party.

—We learn from the Somerset papers that some thieving scoundrel broke into the dwelling of Jacob Kimmell, Esq., of Berlin, one night last week, with intent to commit a robbery, but was discovered by Mrs. Kimmell (who was lying awake at the time of his entrance) before he had succeeded any further in his depredations than to rifle Mr. Kimmell's breeches pockets of what money they contained.

—Dr. S. P. Brown, of Greensburg, and Jas. L. Brown, Esq., of Madison, Westmore county, are on a visit to our town. We have never met gentlemen of more agreeable manners or better social qualities than the Browns. Long may they wave.

—Col. G. W. Hughes has been nominated for Congress by the Democrats of the Fourth Congressional District of Maryland. This district was represented in the last Congress by Gen. Bowie.

—In Montgomery county the Opposition are fighting like Kilkenny cats. The two wings, American and Republican, have each a separate organization and are dealing each other the heaviest blows they can strike.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—The August number of this magazine is before us. The following is its table of contents: "The Dramatic Element in the Bible;" "The Ring Fetter;" "The End of All;" "Birds of the Night;" "A Trip to Cuba;" "Daniel Gray;" "The Minister's Wooing;" "Roba di Roma;" "Enceladus;" "The Zouaves;" "My Palm;" "The Professor at the Breakfast Table;" "The Italian War;" "Reviews and Literary Notices." Our readers will not need to be told that these articles are all excellent, when they are informed that they are from the pens of such writers as R. H. Dana, H. W. Longfellow, O. W. Holmes and Mrs. H. B. Stowe.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.) Pitsburg, Aug. 12, 1859.

EDITOR GAZETTE: The Douglas men here are just now making strenuous efforts to fix up the Charleston Convention in their favor. If the (Douglas) is nominated, all right, and I applaud him, but at the same time, I think it rather premature. Mr. Buchanan, like Jackson, is the best abused man of his day, in my opinion. He has ably and faithfully administered the Government, and has with his whole heart and soul, worked for the interest of the country, and the whole country, and will get due credit for it some day, if he should not in his own lifetime. He has labored to preserve the unity of the Government and to scatter the elements of discontent and disunion, which, at the commencement of his term of office, threatened more than at any previous period. In this he has done a service to his country for which posterity will honor him and for which his memory will be employed forever in the hearts of his countrymen. I am no politician. I look for no office. I am a Democrat and heartily regret the discord that has been sown in our ranks. I hope for the sake of our common country, that in 1860 there will be "Union of the Democracy for the sake of the Union." If we have this victory, will again perch upon our banner, and our country will be saved. Yours truly, K.

THE ELECTION IN LOUISVILLE.

The Louisville Democrat gives the following account of the "freedom of elections" in that city. How long will it be blighted with the curse of know-nothingism? The Democrat says:

"The old game of the 'know-nothing party'—that of beating voters at the polls for voting their honest sentiments—swelled the majority of the opposition. From noon till the close of the polls, few democratic votes were cast at the Lafayette engine-house and at the Walnut street precinct in the second ward, and the few who voted were generally knocked down and beaten as they were retiring from the polls.— This is the freedom of elections in Louisville. Any low vagabond could vote the opposition ticket with impunity, and all well with the crowd, who generally undertook to interpose and decide knotty points for the officers of the election. Such was the meddlesome interference of the out side regulators that they undertook to punish those very indiscreet citizens who would persist in voting the democratic ticket. There were hundreds of legal voters deterred from the polls.

When shall this thing cease to be? It is a vile blot upon the fair fame of our city. The pretension that yesterday's election expressed the real sentiments of our people and showed the condition of parties in Louisville is too absurd for serious consideration. Every policeman and scores and hundreds of citizens, know better. At Sharades precinct, in this county, the conduct of the rounders and bullies was most disgraceful. Dozens of inoffensive Germans were threatened and knocked down for presenting themselves at the polls. Some were mobbed for being present at all, and shot at, as they ran away, to precipitate their flight.

This, too, was the "freedom of election" tendered the democracy by the regulators who following their city brethren, undertook to regulate the county.

In the central wards of the city, where no open breaches of the peace occurred, many illegal votes were cast. A number of lads in their teens, and under twenty one years of age, were marshalled in some cases, we are informed by the police, and voted in the Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth wards. Think of this, and of the boasted free elections in Louisville. It is a thing we read of—a myth, a something that we have not seen for years past in Louisville. It is a poorly bestowed honor, that of holding office under the state of things presented in a Louisville election.

THE KENTUCKY VOTE.—The vote cast in Kentucky at the late election, was very heavy. It considerably exceeds that given at the Presidential election. MAGOFFIN'S majority will be about eight thousand three hundred and Mr. Boyd's for Lieutenant Governor, will be about eleven thousand; still, Mr. Boyd's vote is not as large as Mr. MAGOFFIN'S by several thousands.

THE GROUP.—The Journal of Health says: "When a child is taken with croup, instantly apply cold water—ice water if possible—suddenly and freely to the neck and chest with a sponge. The breathing will almost instantly be relieved. Soon as possible let the sufferer drink as much as he can; then wipe it dry, cover it warm, and soon a quiet slumber will relieve all anxiety. A friend of ours who has repeatedly tried this remedy, informs us that it never failed to afford almost instant relief."

A Letter from Utah states that the Mormons have nominated Gen. S. Eldredge as their Delegate in Congress, to take the place of Mr. John M. Bernhisel, who has occupied that position for several years. Affairs in the Territory presented no features of marked interest.

"OLD BERKS" IN MOTION.—The Democracy of Old Berks held its annual County Meeting at Reading, on the 1st inst. Hon. J. Lawrence Getz, president. The meeting was very large, and the best feelings prevailed. Old Berks will redeem herself in October.

DICKENS IS COMING.—A private letter received by a well-known literary gentleman in New York (per Persia) states that Dickens, the novelist, will visit this country in the early part of November, on a professional tour. He will deliver a course of lectures throughout the country.

PENN'S STATE FAIR.—The Pennsylvania Agricultural State Fair will be held at Philadelphia, on the 27th, 28th, 29th and 30th of September next. All the Railroads leading to Philadelphia have agreed to issue excursion tickets to persons wishing to attend the Fair, good from the 25th of September to the 1st of October, inclusive.

THE SLEEP OF ITALY.—Apropos of Longfellow's poem, in which sleeping Italy is pictured in the image of Enceladus under Etna, Pretence of the Louisville Journal, suggests: "Longfellow may shout and sing 'Enceladus, arise!' but the question is, can he shake off the effect of the third Nap?"

NEW AGRICULTURAL SETTLEMENT. TO ALL WANTING FARMS. A RARE OPPORTUNITY IN A DELIGHTFUL AND HEALTHY CLIMATE 25 MILES SOUTH-EAST OF PHILADELPHIA, ON THE CAMDEN AND ATLANTIC RAILROAD, NEW JERSEY.

An old estate consisting of several thousand acres of productive soil has been divided into Farms of various sizes to suit the purchaser. A population of some Fifteen Hundred, from various parts of the middle States and New England have settled there the past year, improved their places, and raised excellent crops. The price of the land is at the low rate of $15 to $20 per acre, the soil of the best quality for the production of Wheat, Clover, Corn, Peaches, Grapes and Vegetables. IT IS CONSIDERED THE BEST FRUIT SOIL IN THE UNION. The place is perfectly secure from frosts—the destructive enemy of the farmer. Crops of grain, grass and fruit are now growing and can all be seen. By examining the place, a correct judgment can be formed of the productiveness of the land. The terms are made easy to secure the rapid improvement of the land, which is only sold for actual improvement. The result has been, that within the past year, some three hundred houses have been erected, and the place is now a winter and a delightful climate, where fivers are utterly unknown. The result of the change upon those from the north, has generally been to restore them to an excellent state of health.

In the way of building and improving, lumber can be obtained at the rate of $10 to $15 per thousand. Bricks from the brick yard opened in the place, every article can be procured in the place; good carpenters are at hand, and there is no place in the Union where buildings and improvements can be made cheaper.

The reader will at once be struck with the advantages here presented, and ask himself why the property has not been taken up before. The reason is, it was never thrown in the market; and unless these statements were correct, no one would be invited to examine the land before purchasing. This is the reason why it is so desirable. They will sell land under cultivation, such is the extent of the settlement, that they will no doubt, meet persons from their own neighborhood; they will witness the improvements and can judge the character of the population. If they come with a view to settle, they should come to stay a day or two and be ready to purchase, as locations cannot be had in the future.

There are two daily trains to Philadelphia, and at all stations, who improve, THE RAILROAD COMPANY GIVES A FREE TICKET FOR SIX MONTHS AND A HALF-PRICE TICKET FOR THREE YEARS.

THE TOWN OF HAMMONTON. In connection with the agricultural settlement, a new and thriving town has naturally arisen, which particularly suits for any kind of business. The reader will at once be struck with the advantages here presented, and ask himself why the property has not been taken up before. The reason is, it was never thrown in the market; and unless these statements were correct, no one would be invited to examine the land before purchasing.
