B. F. MEYERS, G. W. BENFORD.

OUR TICKET COMPLETE.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Legislative Conference of this district, published in another column, it will be seen that GEO. W. GUMP, Esq., of this county, and Gen. A. H. COFFROTH, of Somerset, have been put in nomination as the candidates of the Democracy of Bedford and Somerset, for members of the next Legislature.

Of the candidate presented by the Democracy of Somerset, Gen. Coffroth, it is scarcely necessary to speak, as he is well known to the citizens of this county, as a man of fine abilities, an able lawyer, a good speaker, and an ardent and enthusiastic Democrat.

The nomination of Messrs. Gump and Coffroth completes our ticket. Our candidates are now all in the field, and a better ticket than ours, from Auditor General down to County Auditor, we venture to say, has never been nominated by any party.

A DELIBERATE FORGERY.

The Abolition Amalgamationists defend Mr. Williams' vote on the Bill to prevent the intermarriage of whites and blacks, on the ground that that bill was made to apply to "yellow" or "colored" persons as well as to the jet black negro.

The Buchanan Club will meet at the Court House, on Saturday evening next. Several speeches will be made on the occasion. Turn out, Democrats of Bedford borough! An important election is drawing nigh, and it is our duty to organize. Come, one and all!

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS. GREAT OUTPOURING OF THE PEOPLE! The principles of the Democracy reaffirmed!

Abolition-Negroism rebuked and denounced! According to previous announcements, the Democracy of Bedford county assembled in Mass Meeting, at the Court House, in Bedford, on Monday evening, the 29th ult., and on motion of Hon. W. T. DAUGHERTY, organized by the appointment of the following officers:

- President, HON. JOS. B. NOBLE. Vice Presidents, Samuel Deffenbaugh, Geo. Reckley, T. W. Horton, Esq., Wm. Berkheimer, Elias Gump, Esq., Dr. C. Olleig, A. Perdew, Esq., M. Fluke, Esq., Nicholas Boor, Jos. Crisman, Esq., Jacob Devore, John B. Fluke, Esq., Geo. Elder, Cad. Evans, John S. Schell, E. Foster, Esq., Wm. Rock, Nicholas Knous, Lewis N. Eyan.

The meeting having been thus organized, on motion of B. F. MEYERS, the Chair appointed a committee of seven to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. The committee was composed of B. F. MEYERS, H. J. Bruner, Esq., J. T. Gephart, Major M. McIlwaine, Capt. John Altstadt, Wm. A. Powell and Sam'l W. Statler.

On motion, the meeting was addressed by MAJ. TATE, who made an eloquent and stirring appeal in behalf of the principles and candidates of the Democracy. The Major never fails to interest his audience and on the present occasion his speech did great credit to himself and was received with marks of unmistakable approbation on the part of his hearers.

After MAJ. TATE had concluded, JOHN CESSNA, Esq., being loudly called for, appeared and addressed the crowd in a speech which we have never heard surpassed in clearness of statement, closeness of reasoning and general forcefulness of argument. Mr. Cessna referred with great effect to the position occupied by Geo. W. Williams, the late amalgamation representative in the Legislature from this county, and completely annihilated the excuse set up for Williams by his party, that the anti-amalgamation bill against which he voted, was intended to include mulattoes.

At the conclusion of Mr. Cessna's address, O. E. SHANNON, Esq., was called for, who responded in a short, but happy and effective effort. Shannon is one of our best speakers and is always listened to with marked attention.

ISAAC HUGES, Esq., of Somerset, was the next speaker. Owing to the peculiar political position which Col. Hugus has occupied for some time—it being a well-known fact that his name was signed to the call for Forney's bogus Convention—the Black Republican leaders and wire-workers in this town, when they heard that the Colonel was to make a speech, came flocking into the meeting, expecting, doubtless, that he would throw them a crumb of comfort from the Democratic table.

Col. Hugus having concluded his speech, B. F. MEYERS, from the committee on resolutions, reported the following, which were unanimously adopted: Resolved, That the Democracy of Bedford County reassert their unalterable attachment to the principles of the National Democratic Party; those principles which, since the days of Jefferson, have formed the ground-work of our nation's prosperity, which underlie every system of free government, and which are the very essence of the liberty for which the fathers of the Revolution fought and died.

Resolved, That the preservation of the Federal Union, and the peaceful submission of all sections and parties to the compromises of the Constitution, are objects that should be near and dear to the hearts of all true patriots, and that the growing power and bold and reckless conduct of the disunionists, demand that Pennsylvania shall once more enter the lists as the champion of Conservatism and Nationality.

Resolved, That the agitation of the slavery question, is a withering blight to the best interests of the nation, and should be frowned upon and discouraged by every citizen who has the good of the country at heart. It consumes whole sessions of Congress in angry and useless debate; it embitters and debauches our politics; it produces civil war in the Territories; it tends to the degradation of the white man and the elevation of the black; it lights up the torch of insurrection among the slaves of the South; it begets schemes for the dissolution of the Union and does good to none but a few Abolition office-seekers who manage to use it with success as a political hobby.

Resolved, In the language of the Cincinnati Platform, "that we recognize the right of the people of all the Territories, including Kansas and Nebraska, acting through the legally and fairly expressed will of a majority of actual residents, whenever the number of their inhabitants justifies it, to form a Constitution with or without domestic slavery, and be admitted into the Union upon terms of perfect equality with the other States; and further, in the language of President Buchanan, in the 'Silliman letter,' that 'when the people, bona fide residents of a territory, proceed to form a State Constitution, then it is their right to decide the important question for themselves, whether they will continue, modify, or abolish slavery.'"

Resolved, That we refer with pride to the Administration of James Buchanan, the first and only President that Pennsylvania ever gave to the Union. Under his faithful and unerring guidance, our government has been eminently successful and our nation greatly prosperous. His policy has given peace to Kansas, order to Utah, protection to the frontier; he has vouchsafed to all sections their Constitutional rights; he has maintained, amid important and complicated negotiations, our rights on the High Seas; he has prosecuted the claims of our citizens against foreign states, with zeal and integrity; he has done all in his power to suppress the nefarious African Slave trade; he has reduced the expenses of the Federal Government twenty millions; and during the past six months, he has conducted the affairs of the P. O. Department without a dollar of appropriations from Congress; he has preserved the Union of the States, amid the clamor of fanatics, the war of sections and the intrigues of base and unprincipled men; he has proved himself the President of the whole country, a national, conservative, dignified Executive, worthy of the party that elevated him to office, worthy of the State that claims him as a citizen, worthy of the mighty nation over which he presides.

Resolved, That in the Hon. Jeremiah S. Black, the present able and learned U. S. Attorney General, we recognize a son of Pennsylvania of whom we may well be proud. We especially commend his recent decision on the question of the rights of naturalized citizens, maintaining as it does, that such citizens are entitled to the same protection, whether at home or abroad, as is guaranteed by our government to citizens born on American soil.

Resolved, That the Hon. Wm. Bigler, U. S. Senator for this State, and the Hon. Wilson KELLY, late member of Congress for this district, deserve our cordial endorsement for the able and faithful manner in which they have represented their constituents.

Resolved, That the course of the Hon. W. P. SCHILL, in the State Senate, merits our unqualified approbation, and that as a representative of the interests of our county, we believe him to have done faithfully his whole duty.

Resolved, That Geo. W. Williams, late member of the Lower House of the State Legislature, in voting in favor of the indefinite postponement of the bill to prevent the intermarriage of whites and blacks, as well as by his vacillating votes on the Extra Day question, has rendered himself deservedly unpopular and his re-election should be vigorously and steadily opposed by all who are unwilling to subscribe to the doctrine of white and black amalgamation.

Resolved, That during the last campaign the Opposition to the Democratic party, promised in all their newspapers and proclaimed from every stump, that if they were successful at the election the hard times then existing would cease; and Resolved further, that as the aforesaid Opposition carried the last election, and as they have done nothing to redeem their promises, the leaders of that party have proved themselves deceitful tricksters, unworthy of the future confidence of the people.

Resolved, That in Richardson L. Wright, of Philadelphia, and John Rowe, of Franklin, the Democratic party of Pennsylvania have a State Ticket composed of honest and capable men and sound and worthy advocates. We pledge them our enthusiastic and untiring support at the coming election.

Resolved, That the nomination of Gen. A. H. Coffroth, of Somerset, and Geo. W. Gump, Esq., of Bedford county, as candidates for Assembly, meets with our heartiest approbation and that we will use every honorable effort to secure their election.

Resolved, That the County Ticket nominated by the late Democratic County Convention, is worthy of the support of every true Democrat and that we hereby pledge ourselves, individually and collectively, to labor actively and assiduously for its triumphant election.

The meeting then adjourned with three loud and hearty cheers for the whole State and County Ticket.

The Democratic meeting on Monday evening last, was one of the largest that we have ever attended in Bedford. The best feeling prevailed and every body present, with the exception of a few melancholy Abolitionists, seemed greatly pleased with the proceedings. The Court room was crowded to overflowing, many being unable to obtain seats. The Democratic fires are blazing brightly, and depend on it, on the second Tuesday of October, the glorious light of a sweeping Democratic victory, will beam from every hill-top and in every valley of Bedford county.

The Abolition Amalgamation meeting on Tuesday night, was in strong contrast with the Democratic meeting the night before. The crowd was much smaller—the speeches a tissue of falsehoods—the enthusiasm, if such it may be called, feigned and spurious. Few country people were present, but the members of the party in the borough, were drummed up, and every town-boy belonging to Abolition pretents, was brought out to shout and clap his hands, to give an air of enthusiasm to the meeting. We would suggest that next time they hold a meeting, they give the boys a lot of horns and dinner-bells, and tie a tinpan to their principal orator's coat-tails.

VISITORS FROM SOMERSET.—Isaac Hugus, Esq., formerly Senator for the Somerset and Westmoreland district, Sam'l. Gaither, Esq., Col. J. A. Garman, Sam'l. Walker, Esq., and Dan'l. Hilly, Esq., all of Somerset county, paid us a visit during the present week. They are old and true friends, whom we are always glad to take by the hand.

Owing to a press of other matter, our local column is crowded out this week.

NUMBER 157 AGAIN.

The redoubtable Know Nothing Abolition candidate for Associate Judge, has found a defender in that other redoubtable Know Nothing Abolition office-seeker, Fr. Jordan. But such a defender! Well might Mr. Taylor exclaim, "save me from my friends!" Mr. Jordan's defence of his "friend," as he facetiously terms Mr. Taylor, does not make a single point in contradiction of our article on "Number 157." It starts out with the declaration that Mr. Taylor has "incurred the political wrath," and, of course, the abuse of the Gazette.

Now we deny most emphatically that we "abused" Mr. Taylor in our former article.— Instead of doing so, we said of Mr. Taylor that we liked him as a neighbor, and our objections to him as given in that article, were purely of a political nature. We say nothing against Mr. Taylor, personally, but we do say, and will continue to say, that as a Know Nothing and Abolitionist as JOHN TAYLOR, has no right to expect Democrats to elect him to office. But Mr. Jordan denies that his "friend," Mr. Taylor, is an Abolitionist. Will Mr. Taylor answer the following questions in the negative, if he is not an Abolitionist?

Mr. Taylor, did you not, in 1857, vote for DAVID WILMOT, for Governor, who was supported by the Abolitionists of Pennsylvania for that office, and did you not refuse to support ISAAC HAZLETTON, the Straight American, anti-Abolition candidate of your party?

Did you not vote, last Fall, for JOHN M. READ, the candidate for Supreme Judge of this State, supported by the Abolitionists? Would you not vote for WM. H. SEWARD, if nominated by your party for President, the man who recently declared that there is an irrepressible conflict between freedom and slavery, which will never cease till the cotton and rice-fields of the South shall be cultivated by free labor, or the eye or wheat fields of the North by slave labor?

Will you not vote for Geo. W. WILLIAMS, the model Abolition-Amalgamationist, who voted against the Bill to prevent the intermarriage of whites and blacks? Lastly, as you are still a sworn Know Nothing, never having renounced your oath, would you not be compelled to vote for Gerrit Smith, W. Lloyd Garrison, or any avowed and unadulterated Abolitionist, if nominated by your party?

Let Mr. Taylor answer these questions in the negative, if he dare. He cannot purge himself of his Abolitionism in any other way. We shall see whether he will do it.

Again we warn Democrats against Mr. Taylor's insidious manœuvring and electioneering. He expects to purchase—by Democratic votes, by doing small favors to such Democrats as he thinks will be influenced by them. True Democrats, no matter how poor they may be, never sell their principles, neither for money, nor for leather. Let Mr. John Taylor, alias "Number 157," "shiny on his own side."

Final.—On Friday night last, between the hours of ten and eleven, it was discovered that the stable belonging to Mr. Nicholas Lyons, on the lot occupied by O. E. Shannon, Esq., was on fire and fast burning to the ground. The building, with its contents, was totally destroyed.

Our late court was a slim affair, lasting but two days. The Assize Judges hold an adjourned Court to-day (Tuesday).

CONFERENCE MEETING. The Democratic Conference from the counties of Bedford and Somerset, met at the Washington Hotel in Bedford, on Monday, the 29th of Sept., 1859.

On motion, the conference was organized by the appointment of John Sill, of Bedford county, President, and S. Walker, of Somerset, Secretary.

The following conferees presented their credentials: From Bedford county,—John Sill, Hiram Lentz and John Cossin. From Somerset county,—S. Walker, Jos. A. Garman and Dan'l. Hilly.

On motion, Gen'l Alexander H. Coffroth, of Somerset, and George W. Gump, Esq., of Bedford county, were unanimously nominated as the Democratic candidates for the Legislature, for the District composed of the counties of Bedford and Somerset.

On motion, it was unanimously resolved that we recommend both the candidates just nominated, to the people of Bedford and Somerset, as men well qualified to discharge the duties of the offices for which they have been named, and as being in every way worthy of their support.

On motion, adjourned. S. WALKER, Sec'y. JOHN SILL, President.

A BLACK REPUBLICAN SLAVE DEALER.—The Ohio Democratic papers are having fine pickings at the expense of Judge Gholson, formerly of Mississippi, whom the Republicans have nominated for the office of Supreme Judge, in place of the late incumbent, Judge Swan, who proved to be too honest for them, having persisted in conforming his decisions to the Constitution and laws, and therefore was superseded by the Nominating Convention and Judge Gholson nominated in his stead.

The Democratic papers publish affidavits and bills of sale, showing that Judge Gholson while in Mississippi was a slaveholder and that he sold his slaves before leaving the State. The following are specimens: Know ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That we, William Y. Gholson and Elvira Gholson, for and in consideration of Seven Hundred Dollars to us in cash paid, the receipt of which is acknowledged, have bargained and sold and do hereby bargain and sell unto Sarah K. Dazett, wife of Stephen Dazett, ONE NEGRO BOY, NAMED NED, A SLAVE FOR LIFE, aged about 22 years, to have and to hold in ABSOLUTE PROPERTY; and we WARRANT THE TITLE AND SOUNDNESS OF SAID NEGRO BOY.

Given under our hands and seals this 16th day of December, 1844. W. Y. GHOLSON, [SEAL] ELVIRA GHOLSON, [SEAL]

Know ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That we, William Y. Gholson and Elvira Gholson, for and in consideration of Seven Hundred dollars to us in cash paid, the receipt of which is acknowledged, have bargained and sold and do hereby bargain and sell unto Stephen Duggett, ONE NEGRO BOY NAMED DAVE, A SLAVE FOR LIFE, aged 19 years, to have and to hold him in ABSOLUTE PROPERTY, and we hereby WARRANT THE TITLE AND SOUNDNESS OF SAID NEGRO BOY.

Given under our hands and seals this 16th day of December, 1844. W. Y. GHOLSON, [SEAL] ELVIRA GHOLSON, [SEAL]

These bills of sale are certified to by the Clerk of the Probate Court of Pontotoc county, Mississippi.

In addition to the above, says the Cleveland National Democrat, we have the affidavit of Henry Duke, taken before the Clerk of the U. S. District Court of Mississippi, that he is now the owner of another slave sold by Gholson to George W. Payne and by the said Payne sold to Duke; and another affidavit, signed by five gentlemen of standing in Pontotoc, taken before the same Clerk, establishing the fact of Gholson being the owner of slaves in Mississippi, and of his sale of them.

This is the way, says the Ohio Statesman, that Judge Gholson manumitted his patrimonial slaves. He parted company with these two boys for the sum of $1,400 to him in cash paid and he left them in Mississippi, slaves for life, while he made his way to Cincinnati with the money in his pockets. That is what the Hamilton county delegates to the Republican State Convention call setting his negroes free, and by which story they completely captured Old Giddings, and he gave his orders that Swan must be defeated, Spalding laid aside, and Gholson nominated.

The Chiriqui Gold Excitement.—Great Stamps for the Grand Diggings—One Thousand Dollars out of one Excavation. The Chiriqui gold discoveries form the topic of discussion in the Panama papers: The schooner Carolina had sailed for the region with fifty passengers on board, and another vessel was shortly to leave.

The Panama Star and Herald says: Letters received in this city from David, dated July 14th, state that the people from all directions continue to flock to the gold diggings, and that the yield of gold obtained from the "huacas" continues undiminished.

A letter received at this office yesterday, from Sir Carlos Wegener, dated June 24th, though rather out of date, contains a few items worth transcribing: "An old half cast Indian, who lives in Dolega, (Roberto Delsi, whom you probably know) who has been in the habit of digging up Indian graves for the sake of the earthenware and piedras de molder generally found therein, took it into his head to dig a little deeper, which brought him to the real grave, where the body is deposited in a coffin of rudely fixed stones and there he found the skeleton of the deceased; together with a beautiful worked 'bat' in gold. Since then it has been ascertained that every 'huaca' contains gold images in more or less number, the earthenware and other articles having been buried only half way down; and this explains why, up to the present time, so few of the remains of the bodies had been found in the graves.

One man took out of one grave in one day, $1,000 worth of things, among which were three gold plates of the size of desert plates, and the thickness of a stout tin plate, an eagle of the size of a span, and many other animals and insects beautifully manufactured. This is the richest grave that has been found as yet, but none have been opened that have not produced something. The old man who made the discovery kept his secret for some time, and it is reported that he succeeded, in accumulating about $4,000. The place where the first discovery was made is called Bugaba, situated on the other side of the river Piedra, on the road toward the Costa Rica frontier, but as the whole of the foot of Cordillera in Chiriqui, is full of 'huacas' it will take many thousand people many years before the whole will be dug up. The finding of so much worked up gold in the 'huacas' is a positive proof that the country must be very rich in gold, and I have no doubt that as soon as the above facts become known to the real mining public, rich and extensive deposits of the ore will be discovered.

OREGON CONGRESSIONAL ELECTION.—Official Returns.—At last we have the full official returns of the late election in Oregon, and they confirm our previous accounts as to the probable result. Losing Stout, the Democratic candidate for Congress, has been elected by a majority of 45 over his Republican opponent, Logan. This is very unwelcome news to the Black Republican presses of the Atlantic States, which, for a week or so past, have been filled with exultant leaders upon what they considered the redemption of Oregon, and the defeat of Joe Lane and Buchanan's administration. Some of them even went so far as to publish a biography of Logan, whom they introduced to their readers, with an air of great triumph, as "the Republican Representative of the new State of Oregon." They will have to take it all back now. Oregon remains a Democratic State, and Joe Lane is still "right side up."—Reading Gazette.

THE AURORA BOREALIS PROBLEM SOLVED.

On Sunday night and Monday morning, there was an unusually brilliant exhibition of the Aurora Borealis, which covered one half of the Northern heavens from East to West. This mysterious light has ever puzzled natural philosophers, who have advanced the most contradictory explanations for the phenomena. Some have ascribed them to the refraction of the sun's rays from Arctic icebergs; others have believed that the refraction is from Northern ice or snow, and the tremulous motion to be caused by the perpetual vibrations of the earth's atmosphere; but the magnetic telegraph has solved the problem. On Sunday evening, when the sky was perfectly clear, the stars shined and the wind still, the only unusual appearance being the reddening of the Northern and Eastern heavens, one of the operators in the Harrisburg office chanced to touch the wire and was thrown, by the violence of a shock which he received, across the room. At the same time the Superintendent of the Canadian lines of telegraph informs us that the line between Quebec and Father Point was in perfect working order. Yet it proved impossible to dispatch the foreign news across the wires. The Aurora Borealis had so charged the air with electricity as to partially destroy the insulation. The phenomena of the Northern Lights may therefore be ascribed to electricity, an undulating disputed question of science is definitely explained.—Patriot & Union.

WONDERFUL ESCAPE FROM DROWNING.—A letter from Norfolk in the Richmond Dispatch, states that on Tuesday last week, Capt. John Doughty was washed from the deck of his ship about 5 o'clock in the morning, when about five miles off Smith's Island. The sea was running very high at the time, and, being unable to regain his vessel, he swam towards the shore and attempted to land; the breakers, however, prevented his doing so, and he then swam around the southern end of island, where he made a second attempt; this failed also, and after having passed four miles along the beach, he was taken by a current and washed inside of the caps; here he was picked up by Capt. Conkling, after having been swimming eight hours, and carried into Alexandria, from which place he came to Norfolk and proceeded to his residence in Northampton county, where he will appear as one arisen from the dead, since it was generally supposed that he was drowned. He must have swam nearly fifteen miles, and that with his clothes on, except his boots, which he pulled off in the water.—When rescued he was nearly exhausted, and must have drowned in a few minutes.

A Nut For Abolitionists to Crack. A colored man, William Braxton, manumitted by the last will and testament of Elijah Greenwell, deceased, of Hampshire county, Va., and who has been enjoying the blessings of freedom among the Abolitionists of Pennsylvania until he has become heartily tired of the blessing, latterly returned to Virginia, and has petitioned the county court of Hampshire to permit him to become the slave of Mr. Samuel House, of that county.

Baltimore Ruffians—A Newspaper Pre-ripleter Attacked.—The Assailant Shot. BALTIMORE, Aug. 26, Henry M. Fitzhugh, one of the proprietors of the Daily Exchange, was assailed this afternoon in an omnibus by a notorious rascal named Paul Placide. Mr. Fitzhugh drew a revolver and fired three balls, which took effect in the hand and arm of the assailant. The affair produced considerable excitement.

The Columbia Democrat, published at Allensburg, by Levi L. Tate, puts up the name of John C. Beckenridge for President, subject to the decision of the Charleston Convention. The Democrat says: "The positive declaration of Mr. Buchanan, to be regarded as a candidate for the succession, renders it proper and expedient, that his friends should in due time select a suitable candidate for the standard bearer of the American Democracy. That man, we have every reason to believe, will be Vice President Beckenridge."

BLONDIS A MYTH.—Citizen of Niagara, writes to the New York Times that there is no such person as M. Blondin known in that community—that he has never crossed the Falls on a tight rope, or any other kind of a rope—that he never cooked omelettes, carried a man on his back, stood on his head, turned somersets, or did any other wonderful thing—that, in short, the public have been egregiously humbugged. This is certainly a wonderful revelation, and it rather takes the public all aback. Will the Buffalo Republic, Blondin's organ, be so kind as to give us the facts?

LAND FOR SALE. THE subscriber offers for sale his farm situated on the Mile Hill, near Schellsburg, containing 63 acres, more or less, adjoining lands of Emanuel Statter, Daniel Miller, Peter Schell and others. The improvements are a good Log House, one and a half story high, with a cellar under the same, a good double barn, and a good Apple orchard, with other fruit trees, a good well of never-failing water near the door; 45 acres cleared and 14 acres timbered and all the land under fence.
