DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

STATE TICKET.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL: RICHARDSON L. WRIGHT, OF PHILADELPHIA.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL: JOHN ROWE, OF FRANKLIN.

COUNTY TICKET.

FOR ASSEMBLY: GEO. W. GUMP, of Bedford county, A. H. COFFROTH, of Somerset.

FOR ASSOCIATE JUDGE: WM. STILES, of W. Providence tp.

FOR TREASURER: WM. SCHAFFER, of Bedford Borough.

FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY: GEO. H. SPANG, of Bedford Borough.

FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR: SAM'L KETTERMAN, of Bedford Bor.

FOR COMMISSIONER: WM. M. PEARSON, of M. Woodberry tp.

FOR DIRECTOR OF THE POOR: JOHN KEMERY, of Schellsburg Bor.

FOR AUDITOR: DANIEL FLETCHER, of Monroe tp.

WHY IT WAS DONE.

The nomination of MR. JOHN TAYLOR for Associate Judge, was made by the Know Nothing Abolition wire-workers, for the express purpose of entrapping such Democrats as from their personal and family connexion with Mr. Taylor, would be inclined to vote for him.

"WORSE THAN A YANKEE."

Mr. JORDAN says we are worse than a Yankee, because when he asks us a question, we answer him by asking him half a dozen in turn. We can say nothing in extenuation of this sad habit of ours, except that Mr. Jordan's political history is of such a questionable nature that we can't resist the temptation of putting a few interrogatories to him, now and then.

IS HE AN ABOLITIONIST?

MR. SAMUEL J. WAY, who is a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, was busily employed during the last summer, in getting subscribers to the "N. Y. Tribune," an Abolition newspaper of the rankiest sort, whose editor has proclaimed that "rather than tolerate national slavery as it now exists, let the Union be dissolved at once, and then the sin of slavery will rest where it belongs, and whose correspondent, JAMES REDPATH, has said of Southern slave-dealers, "Drive them into the sea as Christ once drove the swine."

A SHAMELESS FALSEHOOD.

We are informed that some of the scavengers of the Abolition-Amalgamation-Know-Nothing-Party, are circulating the story that JOHN KEMERY, the Democratic candidate for Director of the Poor, is a foreigner by birth. This is a deliberate, wanton falsehood.

The pibald Opposition—the redoubtable "ring-streaked and striped"—are trying to make capital against GEN. COFFROTH by representing that he is a Forney man. This is untrue and unfair. Gen. Coffroth never sympathized with Forney in his efforts to distract and divide the Democracy.

Local and Miscellaneous.

A PRACTICAL PHASE OF THE NEGRO QUESTION.—A WHITE MAN ASSAULTED WITH KNIVES AND CLUBS BY NEGROES—GREAT EXCITEMENT! On Saturday night last, as Mr. Geo. Meloy, a young man living with Mr. Steckman, of this place, was sitting in front of the "Mengel House," he was assaulted by a gang of negroes who, it seems, were armed with knives and clubs.

The Union Church, near the house of SAMUEL M. BOOR, in Cumberland Valley township, will be consecrated on Sunday, the 2d day of October next. Services will commence on Saturday previous. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

SENATOR DOUGLAS has recently addressed large assemblages of people at Pittsburg, Columbus and Cincinnati.

The Pittsburg Post, which recently nominated Mr. Buchanan for the Presidency, has become a rampant advocate of the nomination of Senator Douglas.

The Blair County Democratic Convention at a recent meeting, passed a resolution recommending Col. John Cresswell as the next Democratic candidate for Governor.

Messrs. Reed and Minnich have dissolved partnership, and the new firm of Jacob Reed and Co., takes their place. The new firm is composed of Jacob Reed, J. G. Minnich and David W. Kauffman.

The weather has been unusually dry the past two weeks, and the farmers complain of the parched and dusty state of their seed-ground.

There is said to be an extraordinary crop of buckwheat in Somerset county. We wish our frosty neighbors much joy of their prospective buckwheat-cakes.

The "Republican" party of Kentucky is a monster! Just think of it! Its candidate for Governor, Cassius M. Clay, received one vote, and a "Republican" named Whittemore, 12 votes for Congress. How extensive!

We are under obligations to our esteemed friend, of South Woodberry, who was kind enough to send us a copy of the "N. Y. Observer." We appreciate his attention highly.

The Buchanan Club was addressed on Saturday evening last, by O. E. SHANNON, Esq., in an able and well-timed speech. Geo. H. SPANG, Esq., our talented nominee for District Attorney, will address the Club on Saturday evening next. Turn out, one and all.

We have a scholarship in the Iron City Commercial College—the best institution of the kind in Pennsylvania—which we will sell low for cash, or grain.

TO THE CITIZENS OF BEDFORD CO.

I have concluded to commence the surveys for the Map of Bedford Co., and as I will have to ask a good many questions as I pass along, I have to request that the desired information be cheerfully given, otherwise mistakes will occur which would be unpleasant to me and to those who get the maps. I am desirous of making a work which may safely be referred to, to ascertain the proper spelling of names in particular, and on this subject, I wish to say that I consider very many names misspelled in this county, (as well as elsewhere) but in all cases I will spell each man's name as he spells it himself, if he will be pleased to tell me how he spells it. Otherwise I will use my own standard and will let each one judge for himself whether it is good, or not, after the map is completed.

EDWARD L. WALKER.

DEMOCRATIC VIGILANCE COMMITTEES.

The following persons were chosen Vigilance Committees for the several Townships and Boroughs of this county, by the Democratic voters, at the De-legate elections held on the third Saturday of June last:

- Bedford Borough.—Joseph W. Tate, Thomas H. Lyons, J. Selby Mower. Bedford Township.—Daniel Fetter, J. T. Gephart, John W. Scott. Broad Top.—Maj. Jas. Patton, Col. T. W. Horton, S. S. Fluck. Colerain.—Josiah Shoemaker, Joseph Cessna, Godfrey Yeager. Cumberland Valley.—J. C. Vickroy, Geo. Bennett, H. J. Bruner, Esq. Harrison.—Geo. Elder, Geo. W. Horn, Jacob Comp. Hopewell.—William Gorsuch, Samuel Bollerger, Abr'm Steel. Juniata.—Gen. Jas. Burns, Wm. Gillespie, John Corley, Sr. Liberty.—I. Kensing, Esq., Geo. Rhoads, John Homan. Londonderry.—John Barth, Henry Miller, Jas. C. Devore. Monroe.—Phil. Barkman, D. Evans, Andrew Steckman. Nipier.—John Sill, Sam'l. W. Miller, William Abaugh. Providence.—D. A. T. Black, Cad. Evans, H. Chamberlain, Jr. Providence W.—John D. Lucas, Josiah Baughman, Col. S. B. Tate. St. Clair.—Thos. B. Wisegarver, Jacob Beckley, A. J. Crisman. Schellsburg.—Peter Dewalt, B. E. Horn, Henry Culp. Snake Spring.—Hon. J. G. Hartley, Nicholas Koons, Dan'l. L. Debaugh. Southampton.—Thos. Donahoe, Al-x. Fletcher, Wm. Adams. Union.—Jacob Corle, Jr., John H. Walter, Abraham Croyle. Woodberry S.—C. B. Kochendarfer, Wm. Tetwiler, Levi S. Fluke. Woodberry M.—Henry Fluke, W. J. Galbraith, D. K. Barley.

To the above-named committees, chosen by the direct vote of the Democracy of the county, the organization of the party in the several townships and boroughs, is entrusted. It is their duty to see that voters are properly assessed, that harmony and good feeling prevail among Democrats, and that the candidates of the party are not secretly injured by their political or their personal enemies, that the whole Democratic vote of their respective districts is brought to the polls, and that the interests of the party generally are attended to in a proper manner. These Committees are all composed of good men and we, therefore, confidently expect that they will render great service to the Democracy between this and the election.

One vote.

The importance of one vote is rarely made more manifest than it was in the recent elections in Kentucky and Tennessee. One opposition candidate for Congress, in the former State, was elected by three votes, and in another district the vote was a tie. In the latter State one opposition candidate for Congress was elected by eight votes, another by twenty-six, and another by fifty. In all of these cases there were doubtless Democrats enough remained at home to have turned the scale in favor of the Democratic nominees, had they gone to the election and deposited their ballots, as it was their duty to have done. We hope that Democrats will bear these instances in mind, this fall, in this county and State, and not underestimate the importance of one vote in determining the result of the election.

The Baltimore Reform Meeting.

The town meeting, held the other day in Baltimore, for the purpose of devising means to rescue that city "from its present deplorable condition," was attended by imposing numbers of respectable people from all parties. The crowd which was assembled in Monument Square is estimated at some 10,000. The resolutions which were passed, and speeches made on the occasion reveal a state of affairs in that unfortunate community that is perfectly horrible, and calling for the most determined action on the part of all well disposed citizens. They must not relax in their efforts. The eyes of the country, whose sympathies are with their cause, are upon them. If they should fall now, the evil consequences flowing from such failure would not be confined to Baltimore alone. It would encourage the elements of rowdiness and bloody anarchy elsewhere; but for Baltimore, it would result in utter ruin, were the present authorities allowed to continue in power another term.

What has become, under their blighting rule, of the rights guaranteed by the Constitution of this "land of the free" to every citizen, may be inferred from the following graphic description, by one of the orators of the town meeting, of the manner in which elections are managed and carried in Baltimore.

A reference to the political proceedings of the past few weeks will illustrate what I mean. An important election is coming on, which will determine the character of our city Government for the next year. Candidates were to be nominated, and it has been done. But how was it accomplished? Instead of an orderly assembly of peaceable citizens to select the best men for important offices, we have seen a mustering all over the city of political clubs, whose vile purposes are best indicated by the names which they assume. These were the active and efficient instruments in the nomination. Play Uglies, Blood Tubs, Black Snakes and Tigers are some of the names in which these people rejoice and by which they characterized themselves. The vilest reptiles and most savage beasts in the judgment of these men of the club, form their most appropriate designations and fittest emblems. These clubs comprise the individuals who seek to control and often do control the primary meetings of the people. Their services are to be had by those who pay the highest or intrinsically most successful, and they accomplish their work by fraud and violence, with knife and pistol, the cowardly slung-shot and iron knuckle. They have indeed come to be a recognized element in the political canvass, and even honorable gentlemen are not ashamed to seek for and accept nominations from such unclean hands.

The effect of the disorderly government of the city upon her reputation abroad, her trade and material interests, is described by another as follows:

"As a merchant I must tell you how it has affected the trade and commerce of our city. Last winter I made a trip to our Western country; I visited many parts of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and Iowa. I called to see many merchants in those States, and invited them to come to Baltimore and deal with us, and I am pained to tell you their answer. We used to deal in Baltimore, said some of them—we would like to deal in Baltimore, said others, but we can do just as well in Philadelphia and New York, and we do not wish to incur the risk of going to Baltimore. Your laws and authorities are powerless against the banded outlaws of your city, and we are afraid to come there.

Every now and then we receive a remittance from some country merchant about the time we are expecting him to come to Baltimore and buy his goods, making the announcement therewith that he will not come to Baltimore this season, but will go east by the northern route. We ask for no explanation—we all understand it.

Many of those who do come here make their calculations when they leave home to arrive here in the morning, so that they can make a few special purchases in Baltimore, and leave again in the evening train for Philadelphia. It was only last week that a merchant introduced him to spend the night here, as he said he had already violated the promise he had made to his wife when he left home, which was that he would not come to Baltimore at all.

Another instance occurred in the case of one of my own customers from a neighboring city. He came here to purchase goods, and finding that he could not complete all his purchases in a day, returned home by the evening train, and came back again the next morning. And the evil reputation of Baltimore is not confined to the western hemisphere. I crossed the ocean a short time since upon a business mission. I visited a remote town in England to make a purchase. The manufacturer with whom I was dealing had never seen me before. He was an humble man, and I had no reason to think that he had ever heard of Baltimore. He inquired what market in the United States I bought for. I told him I bought for Baltimore. Baltimore! said he, with a sudden impulse; why, that's the place where the rowdies shoot people down in the street? These remarks need no comment—they speak for themselves.

Numerous as the meetings was, the audacity of the rowdies was such as to appear in force and attempt to disturb its proceedings. But the ringleaders were promptly arrested this time. We trust that the right cause will conquer, and that the reform movement will be successful. The power is in the hands of the respectable classes of the community. It is their burden, sacred duty to assert it, and if need be, to make an example that will strike terror into the souls of the evil disposed.—Pennyjournal.

"Does the Republican Party Propose to Interfere with Slavery in the States?"—Advertiser.

To the above inquiry propounded by the Advertiser, we will give the response of its party chiefs. They shall answer the important question, and people can then judge whether they intend to interfere with slavery in the States, and intend to uphold the Constitution and the Union, as made and understood by the patriot fathers. Read and judge: "There is a higher law than the Constitution which regulates our authority over the domain. SLAVERY MUST BE ABOLISHED, AND WE MUST DO IT!"—Wm. H. Seward.

"The time is fast approaching when the cry will become too overpowering to resist.—RATHER THAN TOLERATE NATIONAL SLAVERY AS IT NOW EXISTS, LET THE UNION BE DISSOLVED AT ONCE AND THEN THE SIN OF SLAVERY WILL REST WHERE IT BELONGS."—N. Y. Tribune. "This Union is a lie. The American Union is an imposture, a covenant with death and an agreement with hell. We are for its overthrow! Up with the flag of disunion, that we may have a free and glorious republic of our own.—William Lloyd Garrison.

"I look forward to the day when there shall be a servile insurrection in the South; and when the black man, armed with British bayonets, and led on by British officers, shall assert his freedom, and wage a war of extermination against his master. And though we may not mock at their calamity, nor laugh when their tear cometh, YET WE WILL HAIL IT AS THE DAWN OF A POLITICAL MILLENNIUM."—Joshua R. Giddings.

"In the alternative being presented of the CONTINUANCE OF SLAVERY or a DISSOLUTION OF THE UNION, WE ARE FOR A DISSOLUTION, and we care not how quick it comes."—Rufus P. Spaulding.

"The fugitive-slave act is filled with horror—WE ARE BOUND TO DISOBEY THIS ACT."—Charles Sumner.

"THE ADVERTISER HAS NO HESITATION IN SAYING THAT IF IT DOES NOT HOLD TO THE FAITHFUL OBSERVANCE OF THE FUGITIVE-SLAVE LAW OF 1850."—Portland Advertiser.

"I HAVE NO DOUBT BUT THE FREE AND SLAVE STATES OUGHT TO BE SEPARATED."—

"THE UNION IS NOT WORTH SUPPORTING IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE SOUTH."—Horace Greely.

"THE TIMES DEMAND, AND WE MUST HAVE AN ANTI-SLAVERY CONSTITUTION, ANTI-SLAVERY BIBLE, AND ANTI-SLAVERY GOD."—Anson P. Burdette.

"THERE IS MERIT IN THE REPUBLICAN PARTY. IT IS THIS: IT IS THE FIRST SECTIONAL PARTY EVER ORGANIZED IN THE COUNTRY. * * * IT IS THE NORTH ARRIVED AGAINST THE SOUTH. * * * THE FIRST CRACK IN THE ICEBERG IS VISIBLE: YOU WILL HEAR IT WITH A CRACK THROUGH THE CENTRE."—Wendell Phillips.

"The cure for slavery prescribed by Redpath is the only infallible remedy, and MEN MUST FOMENT INSURRECTION AMONG THE SLAVES, in order to cure the evil. It can never be done by concession and compromise. It is a great evil, and must be extinguished by still greater ones. It is positive and imperious in its approach, and must be overcome with equally positive forces. You must commit an insult to arrest a burglar, and slavery is not arrested without a violation of law and the cry of fire!"—Independent Democrat, leading republican paper in New Hampshire.

"I MORE THAN AGREE WITH THE DISUNION ABOLITIONISTS. They are in favor of a non-northern republic. So am I. But as to BOUNDARY LINES WE DIFFER. While they would fix the southern boundary at the dividing line between Ohio and Kentucky, Virginia and the Keystone State, I would wash it with the warm waters of the Gulf of Mexico. "BUT WHAT SHALL WE DO WITH THE SLAVES? Make free men of them. And with the slaveholding class? Abolish them. And with the Legation of the South? Drive them into the sea AS CHRIST ONCE DROVE THE SWINE, or chase them into the dismal swamps and black morasses of the South. Anywhere out of the world!" Redpath, correspondent of N. Y. Tribune during Fremont campaign and author of "The Roaring Editor: or, Talks with Slaves in the Southern States;" by Jas. Redpath, New York.
