PERSONAL.

The scribblers for the Abolition organ have charged us in nearly every number of their paper for the last two years, with having established Know Nothing councils, &c., &c. As long as this was intended merely to injure ourselves, we did not think it worth while to refute it. But since it is used for the purpose of injuring others, we deem it our duty to say that it is untrue in every particular.

"WATER ON BOTH SHOULDERS."

We have been informed that Mr. John Taylor, the Abolition-Know-Nothing candidate for Associate Judge, is in the habit of telling Catholics and Foreigners privately that he has renounced Know Nothingism. This is done, of course, to secure their votes. But Mr. Taylor does not say anything about having given up his Know Nothingism when he is electioneering with persons who are, or once were, Know-Nothings. It was but the other day that he said to a gentleman residing in Bedford township, "How dare you who were a sworn Know Nothing, vote against me?" Such is Mr. Taylor's method of electioneering. To use a somewhat trite expression, he "carries water on both shoulders."

The Associate Judge Question.

The Plot of the Know-Nothing Abolitionists exposed.

The chief desire of the mongrel Opposition in this county, at the coming election, is to secure to themselves the important office of Associate Judge. They care for nothing else, hope for nothing else. It is their pillar of cloud by day and their pillar of fire by night. To effect the election of their nominee for that office, they are determined to try every scheme, they think may avail them, no matter how unfair or dishonorable. They are even ready to trade off some of their other candidates, to obtain votes for Mr. JOHN TAYLOR. The reason of their anxiety to secure this office, is obvious. They hope to be able, by the assistance of the Opposition counties of Franklin and Somerset, to elect the Judge for this district in 1861, and then should JOHN TAYLOR be on the bench, a majority of the Judges would be of their party and they would have a merry time removing Democratic officials, refusing license to Democratic tavern-keepers, and discriminating against and persecuting their political opponents generally. "So much for Buckingham! off with his head!" would be their salutation to every Democrat that holds office, or that would ask an appointment, from Court. There is no exaggeration in this picture. It is true to the life. Mr. TAYLOR has taken an oath which he considers as binding upon him to this hour (for he has never publicly renounced it) by which he is bound in the most solemn manner, not only to vote against all FOREIGNERS and CATHOLICS, but if elected to office, to refuse to appoint them to any station of profit or trust, or if he finds them in such station, to remove them from it. What, therefore, but persecution of the most unrelenting sort, could our foreign-born and Catholic friends expect, if the Opposition should succeed in obtaining a majority of the Judges? And, if no quarter is to be given to Foreign-born and Catholic citizens, by their proscriptive enemies, can it be hoped that the Democrats as a body, who have always defended the rights of those citizens, will fare any better? Is not the danger apparent? Is it not imminent?

The plot of the enemy is deeply laid. The first step was to nominate a man who could control as many Democratic votes as possible. John Taylor was chosen, for the reason that it was known that he has a considerable number of Democratic relatives who have always been firm and reliable Democrats, and who, it was supposed by the Opposition wire-workers, could be forced into the support of their kinsman. The Opposition leaders boast and brag of this trick, and are already congratulating themselves upon the prospect of its success. It remains to be seen whether this game of trying to force Democrats to vote against their own ticket, will be tamely submitted to by those for whom it is intended. The Democratic plan, is to try to injure CAPT. STATES privately, by sneaking insinuations against his character and by hunting up individuals with whom he has had personal difficulties, in order to stir up their prejudices against him. This is the role played by a number of the Abolition-Know-Nothing scavengers about this town, and some of them seem to pride themselves in the dirty work allotted them. The leaders of the Opposition dare not assail CAPT. STATES in a public manner. They dare not publish any thing against him in their newspapers. They cannot make a single objection to him, either with regard to his fitness, or to his claims, for the office. Hence they resort to this covert, unfair and unmanly process. We have thus hastily sketched the object of the hybrid Opposition in nominating Mr. JOHN TAYLOR for Judge, the manner in which they are trying to elect him, and some of the probable consequences should he be elected. Let every Democrat take the alarm and fly to his post! This effort of our opponents to carry the Associate Judge, is intended as a blow to the best interests of the Democracy of Bedford county. Arouse, therefore, fellow Democrats, and let us overwhelm the conspirators that are plotting against us!

To Work, Democrats!

The contest which is to decide whether Pennsylvania is to be counted on the side of the negro as against the white man, is fast approaching. The black legions of Negroism are marshalling their forces "thick as leaves in Vallombrosa." Their serried ranks are crowding forward to the battle. The Democracy must rally to meet them. The Democracy can and must overthrow them. The reveille is sounded. Awake! Arise! Prepare for the onset!

Let not the lesson taught us last fall be forgotten. Then our voters staid at home and the enemy marched forward to an easy victory. Let us go to work and have every Democrat at his post. Our enemies are vigilant and active. Let us profit by their example. Bedford county can give 500 Democratic majority, if we but have a full turn-out. The eyes of the Democracy every where are turned to gallant old Bedford. We are expected to do our share in redeeming the State from the enemy. Go to work, then, fellow Democrats, and show what can be done by the Democracy of Bedford county when they make an effort. Bring out the vote! Rally your neighbors to the polls! See that no man is defrauded of his vote! Take your wagons and let those who cannot walk, ride with you to the election. Rally! Rally! Rally! and let your watch-word be, "Pennsylvania for the Democracy."

BIOGRAPHICAL.

We have been honored by Mr. Fr. Jdan with a historical sketch of our political career. We appreciate this distinguished favor too highly to suffer it to pass without paying our respects to the author. We owe Mr. Jdan some return for his kindness, and we kneo no better way to make that return than by writing his political biography. We propose, therefore, to begin with the

DEDICATION.

To the "Middletown Bank," in the hope that its worthy President will be satisfied with the services rendered by the subject of this work, this biography is respectfully dedicated.

PREFACE.

Few men have ever lived who rivalled the subject of this sketch in that facile expensiveness with which he has been able to change his political opinions. This admirable quality of the character of Mr. Jordan, singular as it may appear, has made him some enemies in his own party. To these we give notice that the chapters which follow were not written with any intention to give color to their strange and unaccountable hallucinations concerning Mr. Jordan, but because we desire to delineate particularly the unparalleled facility with which our hero assumes one political character after another.

Chapter I.

It is not necessary to carry this narrative farther back than 1853. In that year Fr. Jordan was a Whig. His attachment to that party was ardent and sincere, so much so that in 1854, he helped to draw the Know Nothing dagger out of its back, and assisted in burying its remains by the precarious light of a Dark Lantern. It is said that the renowned "Sam" officiated as sexton.

Chapter II.

In 1854 Mr. Jordan was known as an "American." He ever loved one party more dearly than another, it was the "American" party. He made speeches for it—traveled for it—refused to have "Bazaar Feasts" made for it—and, indeed, a naughty fellow by the name of Bucher Swoope, has said that Mr. Jordan and his Bedford county friends loved it so well that they wouldn't sell it out for less than $500.

Chapter III.

In 1856, the subject of this sketch was a fiery Fillmore man. Oh! how he admired that personification of every thing that was lovely in politics. Fillmore was his beau ideal of a politician—he was the ne plus ultra of statesmen—he was the savior of his country—the second Washington! Mr. Jordan's organ hoisted the Fillmore electoral ticket, and kept it aloft with such persistency, that it is said Tom Ford, of Ohio, had to come this way to have it taken down. Mr. Jordan's attachment to the Charles Gibbons, the Chairman of the Fremont State Committee, wrote to him about the purchase and sale of the Fillmore vote, he asked him whether he was not "a little too fast," and advised him to wait a while. His admiration for Fillmore was so sincere that he voted the Union Electoral Ticket gotten up for the benefit of Fremont.

Chapter IV.

In 1857, our hero "pitched in" for Wilmot, the Black Republican candidate for Governor. He might have gone for Hazlehurst, the American candidate, but his love for Americanism had been so intense in 1855 and 1856, that its very heat had consumed it, and so there was not enough of it left to attach him to the cause of that gentleman. Besides, David Wilmot was well known to have been a great protective tariff man (!) though some of the old Whig presses had stigmatized him as the only "free trader in all Pennsylvania," and this was an over-powering reason why an enthusiastic friend of a high tariff, like Mr. Jordan, should support him.

Chapter V.

In 1858, Mr. Jordan became violently attached to Douglas and Squatter Sovereignty, but the defeat of Lincoln by Douglas, soon relieved him of this spasmodic affection. He was observed suddenly to fall back upon his old doctrine of Congressional intervention and to denounce Squatter Sovereignty as furiously as ever. In 1859 he has become a great friend of the Foreigner, and is most obsequious in his editorial attentions to Catholics, in all of which he must certainly be sincere, as in 1855 his organ teemed with abuse of Foreigners and did not hesitate even to assail the venerable and universally respected Father HENDEX.

Conclusion.

Such has been the remarkable political career of this most remarkable of all remarkable politicians. How wonderful his changes! How admirable his fickleness! One thing to-day; another to-morrow. Where shall we look for him next!

FINIS.

The mongrel Opposition, we are informed, do not intend holding any public meetings in this county, this fall. They are afraid to meet the people face to face and discuss the issues before them. The Amalgamation vote of Geo. W. Williams stares them in the face, and they dare not meet his outraged constituency to apologise for it. But another reason why they will not hold any meetings, is, they want to make Democrats believe they are indifferent to the result of the election, and expect by this game to keep back the full Democratic vote. Let us not be fooled by such trickery! up guards and at them!

The "Extra" Georges!

A POOR RULE THAT DOESN'T WORK BOTH WAYS.

Last year the great argument made by the Opposition against DAVID HAY, one of the Democratic candidates for Assembly, was that he had voted against the "Extra Pay," but nevertheless had taken it. He was called "Extra Davy," and was ridiculed and abused without stint, on account of his having received the $700 salary. We find in the Bedford Abolition organ, of Oct. 8th, 1858, the following article:

David Hay and Extra Pay!

Remember, taxpayers of Bedford County that DAVID HAY, the Locofoco candidate for the Legislature from Somerset County took the two hundred Dollars EXTRA PAY, of the last Locofoco Legislature, and applied it to his own use. If you oppose Legislators pocketing your money in the shape of EXTRA PAY, vote against him on next Tuesday. Gen. Burns is in the same boat with EXTRA PAY DAVY HAY, and will no doubt do all he can to get some of the extra too, in case he should be elected.

GEORGE W. WILLIAMS and GEORGE G. WALKER have pledged themselves against extra pay in any shape. Which will you choose, taxpayers of Bedford County? HAY, BURNS and EXTRA-PAY or WILLIAMS and WALKER AGAINST EXTRA PAY?

Now, it is said that it is "a poor rule that doesn't work both ways." By the above article Messrs. Williams and Walker were pledged against "Extra Pay in any shape," which meant, of course, that they would have nothing to do with it, that they would not only vote against it, but that if the Legislature appropriated it to its members, they would refuse to receive it. By turning to the Pennsylvania House Journal, for 1859, pages 1159 and 1160, it will appear that Geo. W. Williams and Geo. G. Walker both received the Extra Pay salary of $700! These men were solemnly pledged to receive only $500, which is the salary of members without the Extra Pay of $200 added by the Legislature of 1858, but they have not kept their pledges; they have deceived the people, and speculated on their confidence.

We repeat it, it is a "poor rule that doesn't work both ways," and if the Extra Pay argument was good against David Hay last fall, it is ten times stronger against Williams and Walker, for they had made pledges in regard to it, and Hay never had. We, therefore, apply the language used by the Abolition organ last year, to its own candidates:

"REMEMBER, taxpayers of Bedford county, that Geo. G. WALKER, the Black Republican candidate for the Legislature from Somerset county took the two HUNDRED DOLLARS EXTRA PAY, of the last Black Republican Legislature, and applied it to his own use. If you oppose Legislators pocketing your money in the shape of Extra Pay, vote against him.—Geo. W. WILLIAMS is in the same boat with EXTRA PAY GEORGE WALKER, and will, no doubt, do all he can to get some more of the Extras in case he should be elected."

"TWO DOLLARS A DAY AND ROAST"

The Opposition asked the people, last fall, to vote their ticket, on the ground that if their candidates would be elected, there would be "better times". Well, the opposition were successful. They carried 67 of the 100 members of the Legislature, and at a special election held in Berks county, elected Gen. W. H. KEIM to Congress, who took his seat and served his term last winter. This same KEIM is now their nominee for Surveyor General. Geo. W. Williams and Geo. G. Walker were among the 67 Opposition members of the Legislature, and they are also again before the people as candidates. Now these men, MESSRS. KEIM, WILLIAMS and WALKER, were voted for by many persons because the opposition leaders promised that if they (Messrs. Keim, Williams and Walker) would be elected, they would put an end to the "hard times." But how has this promise been kept? what did Mr. KEIM, the great Berks county mogul of the Tariffites do, or even try to do, in Congress? What did Messrs. Williams and Walker do in the Pennsylvania Legislature? Nothing! absolutely nothing! Therefore, let the people hereafter place no confidence in Black-Republican promises. "Two dollars a day and roast beef," was a promise in 1840, and it has remained a promise to this day. "The opposition ticket, and better times," was the outcry last fall, but not a whimper do we hear now about the opposition having produced those "better times." We append the following, which we copy, word for word, from the Bedford Abolition organ, of October 1, 1858, to show how the immaculate opposition then did their electioneering:

[From the Abolition Organ, Oct. 1, 1858]

Democratic times.

How do the people of Bedford county like these great Democratic times, which are now upon us, and which we are now enjoying or enduring as well as we can? They are the genuine articles, and no mistake. We have a democratic President, a democratic Governor, a democratic Congress, and a democratic Legislature, and democratic national and State laws, administered by democratic office holders; and these times are the genuine fruits of democracy, practically in force upon the people and the country. How do you like them? If they meet your approbation, and you consider every thing right, vote for their continuance, by supporting the democratic ticket at the next election. If on the contrary, you do not like these democratic times, and desire a change for the better, vote for the other ticket, and the other candidates, and other principles, to the end that you may have other and better times.

Our local column is crowded out this week by an excess of other matter. We will find room for that letter forwarded from Ray's Hill as soon as possible. It is decidedly rich.

The election comes on Tuesday, the 11th of October.

Look Out!

Counterfeiters About!

We have just been shown a ticket with all the names of the Democratic candidates on it, except that of WILLIAM STATES, in place of which is printed the name of John Taylor.—This ticket was given to a German Democrat residing in Harrison township, as a full Democratic Ticket! This is a pretty game for Mr. John Taylor and his friends to play. We should like to know the difference between this and any other species of fraud. If they desire Democratic votes for their candidate they would better not try to deceive Democrats in this way. Let them tell the truth about such tickets, when they present them to the people. We warn our Democratic friends to be on their guard against these spurious tickets. They will, doubtless, be sent to all parts of the county.—Look out for them!

The Poor House.

The Know-Nothing-Black-Republican-Abolition demagogues of this town, always make it a point to start some outrageous story about the Poor House just before the election comes off. This same old trick is now being tried again. Last year they told the most unmitigated falsehoods about John Amos, the Democratic candidate for Director of the Poor. Their stories about the Poor House this year are of the same stripe. Read their article on John Amos, published in their paper of Oct. 8th, 1858, which we append, and judge from their wilful lying then, of the falsity of the statements they are making now:

Poor Director.

We warn the people of Bedford County against the election of John Amos, the Locofoco candidate for Poor Director. He is in every way unqualified for the office, and if unfortunately, he should be elected, the people of the County will regret the choice. It is well known that he openly expresses the determination in case of his election, to have CHRISTIAN STOUFFER, his son-in-law appointed as the Miller! Mr. Stouffer, several years ago, had charge of the Poor House Mill, and the people know how badly affairs were then managed, and if they wish to return to the same state of affairs, they will elect JOHN AMOS. Remember our prediction, as sure as he is elected, Stouffer will be the Miller. He also intends to have his own son appointed to the Stewardship, and then with the father as Director, the son as Steward, and the son-in-law as Miller, the family of Mr. Amos will have things all to themselves in that institution. Let the voters beware!

Wm. Schaffer.

Our candidate for Treasurer has a record of which no man can say any thing in disparagement. Steady, upright, and persevering, he has won the friendship and esteem of all his neighbors. As a public officer he has already been tried, and not a word has ever been uttered against his official conduct. He is the best man in the county. We earnestly commend Wm. Schaffer to all who desire a safe and reliable Treasurer. He is worthy of the support of every Democrat and will make a fit successor to Maj. Davis, who is universally admitted to be the best Treasurer we have had for a number of years. The Opposition will doubtless, try to foist tickets upon Democrats, with Mr. Way's name in place of Mr. Schaffer's. Our friends in the country can look out for this.—Mr. Schaffer can be elected by at least 300 majority, if every Democrat does his duty.

NINETY MILES FROM SCHELLSBURG TO SOMERSET!

By reference to the Pennsylvania House Journal, for 1859, pages 1159 and 1160, our readers will find that Geo. W. Williams received mileage for 320 miles circular, making the distance from his home to Harrisburg, 160 miles direct! It will also be found that Geo. G. Walker, of Somerset county, received mileage for 500 miles circular, or 250 miles direct! making the distance between the homes of Walker and Williams 90 miles direct, or 180 circular! Surely this is some what singular. Can any body explain the matter? It looks so queer!

THE GAME OF SNEAK!

The Opposition are resorting to their old Know Nothing plan of doing their electioneering in a covert and secret manner. The leaders in Bedford have sent out written circulars covering three pages of fools-cap, in which they urge their leaders in the country to get out the vote, and say that their success will be sure. They intend to cheat the Democrats by pretending to be idle and to care nothing about the election. They are working harder, now, to carry this county than they have for years. Let our friends in the country be on their guard. There is a conspiracy against us which must be watched. In order to defeat it, every Democrat must go to the polls and vote the whole Democratic ticket. Let there be no splitting, or scratching. Whenever a man asks you to do that, depend on it he is in the employ of the Opposition and wants to cheat you. Look out for Know Nothing tricks!

COUNTY SURVEYOR.

We have before spoken of Mr. Ketterman, the Democratic nominee for County Surveyor, as a man who is well worthy of the support of the people. He has made a first-rate officer and deserves to be re-elected. Since his election in 1856, he has settled many old disputes that had arisen between neighbors, about their boundaries, and has invariably given satisfaction to all parties. He is a good Surveyor, and as a calculator of areas, he has few superiors. Let the Democracy stand by him.

Capt. States.

The prospects of the triumphant election of this gentleman over the most unscrupulous opposition that ever was made against any candidate, are daily becoming brighter and brighter. His worth as a citizen is acknowledged by all. His capability for the office for which he has been nominated, is undisputed even by his political opponents. They cannot, dare not, say any thing against him as a man. Their only hope of defeating him, lies in secret, Know Nothing, manoeuvring and in swindling Democrats by giving them counterfeit tickets. This being the case, it behooves every true Democrat to fight for him the harder, and to stand by him the more firmly. When a Democrat is thus secretly assailed, it becomes us to lay aside every personal feeling, and to rally to his aid as a political brother who needs our assistance. Captain States has been of service to the people of this county, and especially to the farming and stock-raising interest. When farmers wanted money, he was the man they went to with their cattle and horses. Let him not be forgotten by the men whom he has thus benefited. He deserves their votes and should receive them.

GUMP AND COFFROTH.

Vote for Gump and Coffroth. They are opposed to Williams' doctrine of white and black amalgamation.

Vote for Gump and Coffroth. They are opposed to the "irrepressible conflict" of Seward, which is intended to keep the North and South at war until the institutions of the one, or the other, are blotted out.

Vote for Gump and Coffroth. They are opposed to the multiplication of rotten banks of issue, which swindle the people and break down the industry of the country.

Vote for Gump and Coffroth. Try them. Williams and Walker have been tried and they have done nothing for either Bedford or Somerset.

COMMISSIONER.

Wm. M. Pearson, the Democratic candidate for Commissioner, is a gentleman who is respected wherever he is known, for his integrity of character, his steady habits, his neighborly kindness and gentlemanly deportment in every respect. He is a man of good business qualifications, sound judgment, and is well fitted in every particular to fill the office for which he is a candidate. He is descended from good old Democratic stock, his father, Edward Pearson, Esq., having been on the Democratic ticket in years gone by. The people of Bedford county can do no better than to elect him Commissioner. Let us rally to his support.

DIRECTOR OF THE POOR.

If you want an honest, upright man in the Board of Directors of the Poor, vote for JOHN KEMERY.

If you want a Director of the Poor who will do his whole duty and who has the capacity to do so, vote for JOHN KEMERY.

If you want to reward a good citizen and a consistent and thorough-going Democrat, vote for JOHN KEMERY.

Let the old war-horse not be forgotten.

AUDITOR.

The Democracy present for this office, a man who cannot be beaten as an accountant and who is well-known in his own neighborhood as possessing business qualifications of high order, Daniel Fletcher is just the man for Auditor, and with a board composed of Fletcher, Crisman and Devore, the accounts of the County will be honestly, carefully and correctly audited.

OBITUARY.

On the 7th inst., Mrs. Ann Bowles, in the 82d year of her age.

She was born in Lancaster County, Pa., Sep. 17, 1777, and her age lacked but 10 days of 82 full years. A life so prolonged could not pass without many trials; but it was marked, beyond what is usual, perhaps, by God's bounties. Gifted with unwonted physical health and vigor, and endowed with a calm and peaceful spirit, she was conducted to extreme old age, with scarce a trace of that decay, which commonly prepares us for the tomb. A tall, commanding figure, and a face majestic, yet placid and benign, gave no mournful expression of years long past, or dissolution near at hand.

A week before her death, the ruddy hue of life had not yet faded from her cheek, and even death itself left no sad ravage there. It seemed almost as if her Savior God had redeemed her ransomed body, as well as her immortal spirit, from the power of the grave. She made a good confession of that Savior many years and before many witnesses. She loved, on her sick bed, to talk of God's goodness and covenant faithfulness. She magnified his ways and dealings with her, and his mercies, rejoiced in his salvation, and humbly submitted to his will. She was a worthy member of the Presbyterian church of Bedford. Her absent Pastor will miss her venerable form from among his people, her devoted family will mourn that true-hearted mother, whose mild face was ever to them as a present blessing, the light-hearted youth and the strong-hearted man will often bedew the bronzed cheek with the gushing tears of a son, as he remembers such a mother; but to them we say, mourn not bitterly! for God has taken her to himself; and you, if you are faithful, shall follow her there.

BUCHANAN CLUB

will meet at the Court House, on Saturday evening next, at 7 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

JOHN H. RUSH, President.
