To give color to If you erase the name of a single canthis allegation they interpolated the words yel- didate, you pluck a star from the folds pronounced a deliberate forgery. We published the Bill from the Legislative Record, the official paper of the Legislature, and the words yellow, or colored, are not to be found in it as given there. The Record can be seen at you're Wright, then Rowe ahead !" our office, and if any there be who doubt the correctness of this statement, we invite them to come and see for themselves. But if the Record will not satisfy them, we refer them to the Abolition organ of May 13th, 1859, in which the Bill is published, word for word, the same as we gave it in the Gazette, and not a line is contained in it about yellow or colored people, but standing of the Lutheran Church of this borthe language is plainly and simply, blocks and whites. Who is the forger now?

Down with amalgamation! Vote for Coffroth and Gump, who are oppoblacks may intermarry !

BEWARE OF "ROORBACKS."

The Opposition are reckless and desperate. Their next organ will teem with electioneering "roorbacks." Don't believe them! They are lies and Foreigners that he has regotten up at the eleventh hour, so that they nounced Know Nothingism and then cannot be refuted. Even their own leaders don't believe these electioneering stories .-Remember their lies about John Amos, and their story, last Fall, that Commissioner Beck- dare vote against him, when they

Williams' Record!

The course of Geo. W. Williams in the last Legislature, has but rarely had a parallel in infamy. When GEO. BERGNER, the Black Republican applicant for the job of publishing lent alteration of the contract between himself and the House, Geo. W. Williams was in favor of sustaining him. He was a Bergner man throughout. When the Extra Pay ques tion came up, in regard to which he had covered himself with pledges, GEO. W. WILLI-AMS voted for propositions that were gotten up for the special purpose of defeating, the efforts of those who were opposed to the Extra Pay When the Black Republican House refused to repeal that Extra Pay, GEO. W. WILLI-AMS violated his pledges and pocketed the $200 which he had frequently deciared he was not entitled to and would refuse to receive .-But, to cap the climax of his legislative enormities, when he came to vote on the Bill to prevent the intermarriage of Whites and Blacks, he gave his voice in favor of its undefinite postponement and thus planted himselt squarely upon the hideous doctrine of white and negro amalgamation! Such is Mr. Williams' record! Such the prominent features of his legislative career! Where is the man that dares to sustain before the public, a record like this ? Where is the freeman, untrammeled by the shackles of Black Republican party drill, who will say by his vote, next Tuesday, that Mr. Williams' conduct deserves his endorsement? Why, even the Abolition leaders hang their heads in shame for their amalgamation candidate. Even they, whose brazen impudence knows no qualification, are afraid to meet the people face to face, to discuss Mr. Williams' votes. Even they have not the hardihood to electioneer for him, except by stealth and in secret. The intelligent and unbiased voters of the Opposition, will not touch Mr. Williams. They do not believe in having a representative at Harrisburg, who tee, takes pleasure in announcing that meetings of the people will be held at the times and declaring, in substance, that people will be held at the times and declaring, in substance, that people will be held at the times and declaring. enough to make husbands for their daughters They are determined to resent this degrading mo us doctrine that White and Black Amalga- insult, and all the conspiracies, palliatives. tricks and denunciations of the leaders, will not drive them from their position.
