NEW SERIES.

BEDFORD, PA., FRIDNING, OCTOBER 28, 1859.

VOL. 3, NO. 13.

NEW AGRICULTURAL SETTLEMENT. TO ALL WANTING FARMS,

A RARE OPPORTUNITY IN A DELIGHTFUL AND HEALTHY CLIMATE 25 MILES SOUTH-EAST OF PHILADELPHIA, ON THE CAM-DEN AND ATLANTIC RAILROAD,

NEW JERSEY. An old estate consisting of several thousand of acres of productive soil has been divided into Farms of various sizes to suit the purchaser. A population of some Fifteen Hundred, from various parts of the middle States and New England have settled these the next war improved their set. of the middle States and New England have settled there the past year, improved their places, and raised excellent crope. The price of the land is at the low sum of from $15 to $20 per acre, the soil of the best quality for the production of Wheat. Clover, Corn, Peaches, Grapes and Vegetables. IT IS CONSIDERED THE BEST FRUIT SOIL IN THE UNION. The place is perfectly secure from IS CONSIDERED THE BEST FRUIT SOIL IN THE UNION. The place is perfectly secure from frosts—the destructive enemy of the farmer. Crops of grain, grass and fruit are now growing and can be seen. By examining the place itself, a correct judgment can be formed of the productiveness of the land. The terms are made easy to secure the rapid improvement of the land, which is only sold for actual improvement. The result has been, that within the past year, some three hundred houses have been erected, two mills, one steam, four stores, some forty vinyards and peach orchards, planted, and a large number of other improvements, making it a pesirable and active place of business.

THE MARKET,

THE MARKET,

as the reader may perceive from its location, is the BEST IN THE UNION.

Products oringing double the price than in locations away from the city, and more than double the price in the West. It is known that the earliest and best fruits and vegetables in this latitude come from New Jersey, and are annually exported to the extent of millions.

In locating here, the settler has many advantages. He is within a few hours ride of the great cities of New England and Middle country where every improvement of comfort and civilization is at hand.—He can buy every article be wants at the cheapest price, and sell his produce for the highest, (in the West this is reversed.) he has schools for his children divine service, and will enjoy an open winter. dren, divine services, and will enjoy an open winter, and delightful climate, where fevers are utterly unknown. The result of the change npon those from the north, has generally been to restore them to an excellent state of health.

excellent state of health.

In the way of building and improving, lumber the town. can be obtained at the mills at the rate of $10 to $15 per thousand. Bricks from the brick yard with a load with a load with a load of the control o

"The mob arrested two men who came in the place, every article can be procured in the place; good carpenters are at hand, and there is no place in the Union where buildings and improvements can be made cheaper.

The reader will at once be struck with the advantages here presented, and ask himself why the advantages here presented, and ask himself why the advantages here presented, and ask himself why the is, at was never thrown in the market; and unless these statements were correct, no one would be invited to examine the land before purchasing. This all are expected to do. They will will used here in the legraph where here is no communication benefits before with a condictor of the Railroad Tonnage men, from Maryland. They will will uses the improvements and can judge the character of the population. If they come with a view to settle, they should come prize ticker for six months and an allegative and the provential tickers are the safe and an authentic character has yet been received.

The reader will at once be struck with the advantages here presented, and ask himself why the aging of negroes in thing."

[SECOND SPAJE].

BALTIMORE, Oct. 17.—1t is apprehended that the people here are willing to believe.—

It is apprehended that the people here are willing to believe.—

The reader will at once be struck with the advantages here presented, and ask himself why the advantages here presented, and ask himself why the advantages here presented and ask himself with a gang of negroes in the way on a derivation. They deep the proposal to two hundred and fifty whites, and the read that the troops of the tioters. Captain Cook was also devote of the toters. Captain Cook was also devote of the troops. All the other white men are unknown. They are supposed, however, to be men who have the affair at Harper's Ferry is more serious than the people here are willing to believe.—

Baltimore, Oct. 17.—1 is apprehended that the read that the people here are willing to believe.—

The reader will at once be struck with the affair at

THE TOWN OF HAMMONTON.

ncrease of business Town lots for good size, we wounded. Conductor Phelps was threatened, on not sell small ones, as it would affect the imdo not sell small ones, as it would affect the in-oprovement of the place can be had at from $100 and told that the train should not proceed. Un-the ferry.

The Hammonton Farmer, a monthly literary and agricultural sheet, containing full information of Hammonton, can be obtained at 25 cents per annum.

Hammonton, can be obtained at 25 cents per annum.

Title indisputable—warrantee deeds given, clear of all incumbrance when money is paid. Route to the land: leave Vine street wharf, Philadelphia for llammonton by Railroad, 7 ½ A. M., or 4½ P. M. Faie 39 cents. When there finquire for Mr. Byrnes. Boarding conveniences on hand. Parties had better stop with Mr. Byrnes, a principal until they have decided as to purchasing, as he will show them over the stop with the stop with the same of the stop with the same of the same insurectionists number 200 whites and blacks, and have full possession of the armory. They are commanded, or led by a man named Anderson, who lately arrived at Harper's Ferry.

Baltimore, Oct. 17—4 o'clock, P. M.—Another account brought by the train—which has the purchasing, as he will show them over decided as to purchasing, as he will show them over the land in his carriage, free of expense. Letters and applications can be addressed to Landis & Byrnes, Hammonton P. O., Atlantic Co., New Jersey, or . B. Coughlin, 202 South Fifth Street, Philadelphia. laps and information cheerfully furnished.

Allegheny Male and Female Seminary, RAINSBURG, Pa. FACULTY.

E. J. OSBORNE, A. B., Principal, Prof. of Languages and Philosophy. S. Smith. Prof. of Mathematics.

Jas. H. Miller, Adjunct Prof. of Mathematics. Rev. B. F. Stevens, Lecturer on Moral Philos Wm. A. Sterhens, Prof. of English Grammar &c.

Dr. J. Hughes, Lecturer on Anatomy &c. Mrs. E. V. Osborne, Preceptress, Teacher of Drawng French, Botany &c.

B. F. Drott, Prof. of Instrumental Music. Frice of Tuition for term of 11 weeks. Common English Branches ligher Branches, including common, each Latin and Greek, each German and French, each 2 50 Book-keeping and Commercial calculations 1 50 ORNAMENTAL.

Colored crayon, and water colors, each Oil painting 5 00 Hair and wax flowers, each 3 00 Pellis work Embroidery

Piano music, with use of instrument 10 00
Board S 1 75 per week including room rent, fuel, furniture &c. This is one of the best, and cheapest institutions in the country. The whole expense per term need not be more than twenty-hve dollars .-Second Quarter of summer session commences Teachers will be instructed free of charge in the Normal Department.

For particulars, address the Principal. E. J. OSBORNE, A. B. Rainsburg, Bedford co., April 22, 1859.

THE HAMMONTON FARMER-A new paper devoted to Literature and Agricul Fort McHenry. ture. also setting fort a full accounts of the new settlement of Hammonton, in New Jersey, can be subs acribed for at only 25 cents per annum.

Inclose postage stamps for the amount. Address to the Editor of the Farmer, Hammonton, P. O. At-lantic Co., New Jersey. Those wishing cheap land of the best quality, in one of the healthiest and most

Several companies of the Virginia

THE BEDFORD GAZETTE IS PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING, BY B. F. MEYERS,

the following terms, to wit: At the following terms, to wit:
$1.50 per annum, cash, in advance.
$2.00 "" if paid within the year.
$2.50 "" if not paid within the year.

So No subscription taken for less than six months.
No paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid, unless at the option of the publishers. It has been decided by the United States Courts, that the stoppage of a new spaper without the navment of arstoppage of a new spaper without the payment of ar-rearages, is prima facie evidence of fraud and is a criminal offence.

The courts have decided that persons are accountable for the subscription price of newspapers, if they take them from the post office, whether they subscribe for them, or not.

INSURRECTION AT HARPER'S FERRY.

THE PUBLIC OFFICES SEIZED BY THE MOB.

CIVIL WAR.

Citizens arrested and Imprisoned,

Murder and Bloodshed. GREAT EXCITEMENT.

"FREDERICK, Md., Oct. 17 .- An insurrection they still hold. is reported to have taken place at Harper's Some Ferry. An armed band of Abolitionists have killed.

"The mob arrested two men who came in BALTIMORE, Oct. 17 .- 3 o'clock, P. M .certain as to the condition of the bridge, he waited till after daylight, and was thus detained six hours. He says the insurrectionists num-just arrived, says the bridge across the Potomac was filled with insurgents, all of whom were

Every light in the town had been extinguished-the hotels were closed-all the streets were in possession of the mob-and every lane leading thereto is barricaded and guarded. Men were seen in every quarter with mus-muskets and bayonets, who arrested citizens and pressed them into service. They also treated many of the negroes in a similar manner.

The following dispatch has just been received "The mail agent on the Western-bound train capture.

has returned to Monocacy, and reports that his train was unable to get through. "The town is in possession of the negroes, who arrest and imprison every one they can after a determined resistance. "The train due here at 3, P. M., could not ty engine. All of the eastward bound trains, going West of the Ferry, have been seized. this station. There are from 500 to 800 efforts. whites and blacks engaged in the insurrection. BALTIMORE, Oct. 18.—Two o'clock, A. M -News of a serious character is now being transmitted over the wires, the line to Harper's Ferry having been repaired. An engagement had taken place at the bridge at an end. resulting in loss of life. BALTIMORE, Oct. 18-21 o'clock, A. M .-

The Government despatches are taking precedence of the press despatches, which causes a delay in the reception of the latter. We understand that Col. Lee has telegraphed that it is not necessary to bring on troops from Fort Monroe, but asks that they be detained at All the rioters, now living, are barricaded

A number of citizens are imprisoned with Several companies of the Virginia troops are Several citizens have been killed, as well ESTING DETAILS—CAPT. BROWN AND HIS several of the rioters.

following is the regular report:

HARPER'S FERRY.—The town has been ta TIMORE, Oct. 18.—The following interken possession of by companies from Charles narartive of the recent events at Harner's town and Sheppardstown, Va., and Frederick, is gleaned from the report of the editor Md. The rioters are entrenched in the Armo American, who accompanied the troops ry, and hold Mr. Washington and Mr. Lafen his city and returned this evening.

The insurrectionists, commanded by Captain existence of this insurrection, was, un-Brown, (of Kansas notoriety) numbered originally, Capt. John Brown, whose connections and the state of the st veral of whom were shot.

A portion of the insurgents here left under command of a leader named Cook, who, with a of Smith. He enquired about land in the large party of slaves, is supposed to be moving y, and made investigations about the toward Pennsylvania.

Allen Evans, one of the insurrectionists, is dat Sandy Point, a mile east of the Ferry lying in a dying condition here, having been absence of some months he reappeared on shot through the breast. He is from Connecticut, but has been in Kansas. He says the whole scheme was got up by Brown, who represented a larm on the Haryand bought a large that the negroes would rise by thousands, and are of picks and spades, and this confirmed Maryland and Virginia would be made free that they intended to mine for ores.

Col. Shriver, of Frederick, has just had an interview with Brown in the armory. He ask-BALTIMORE, Oct. 17, A. M.—The following and averred his intention of defending himself despatch has just been received from Frederick. to the last. His men are very strongly posted t seems very improbable and should be recei- in the Engine House, and cannon cannot be used against them for fear of injuring the prisoners all is of his preparation for the insurrection, range and thriving town has naturally arisen, which presents inducements for any kind of business, particularly stores and manufactories. The Shoe business could be carried on in this place and market to good advantage, also cotton business, and manufactories of agricultural implements or Foundries for casting small articles. The improvement has gang of blacks and whites. A colored assistant of the haggage master was shot and mortally and mortally and the force and market to good advantage, also cotton business, and manufactories of agricultural implements or Foundries for casting small articles. The improvement has gang of blacks and whites. A colored assistant of the haggage master was shot and mortally a farmer and prominent citizen; John Alstadt, Supposing it an attempt at robbery he broke and the force of the haggage master was shot and mortally and the force of the force of the farmer and prominent citizen; John Alstadt, Supposing it an attempt at robbery he broke and the force of the farmer and prominent citizen; John Alstadt, Supposing it an attempt at robbery he broke and the force of the farmer and prominent citizen; John Alstadt, Supposing it an attempt at robbery he broke and the force of the farmer and prominent citizen; John Alstadt, Supposing it an attempt at robbery he broke and the force of the farmer and prominent citizen; John Alstadt, Supposing it an attempt at robbery he broke and the force of the farmer and prominent citizen; John Alstadt, Supposing it an attempt at robbery he broke and the force of the farmer and prominent citizen; John Alstadt, Supposing it an attempt at robbery he broke and the force of the farmer and prominent citizen; John Alstadt, Supposing it an attempt at robbery he broke and the farmer and prominent citizen; John Alstadt, Supposing it an attempt at robbery he broke and the farmer and prominent citizen; John Alstadt, Supposing it an attempt at robbery he scale of the farmer and prominent citizen.

Fountain Breckman, a railroad agent, was shot dead from the armory.

George Turner, a graduate of West Point, was at the house of Col. Lewis Washington, and one of the most distinguished citizens in a large farmer and slave-owner, living about this vicinity, was shot yesterday, whilst coming four miles from the Ferry. A party, headed into town. He died during the night. He has by Cook, proceeded there, aroused Col. W. a brother living in Baltimore, married into the and told him he was their prisoner. They al-Patterson family.

streets; there are also three in the river, and two horses. When Col. Washington saw Cook several are said to be lying within the Armory he immediately recognized him as a man who

The following is the list of killed among the citizens and soldiers :- Fountain Beckham ; Haywood, a negre porter at the railroad station Jos. Burney, of Harper's Ferry; Evan Dorsey and Geo. Richardson, of Waterbury.

Another rioter, a negro named Lewis Leary, who has just died, confessed to the particulars of the plot, which he says was concocted by Brown, at a fair held in Ohio, two months ago. The rioters have just sent out a flag of truce, from Monocacy, this side of Harper's Fer- saying that if they are not protected by the soldiers here at present, they will hang all they

THE ARMORY STORMED.

HARPER'S FERRY, October 18-8 o'clock. -The armory has just been stormed and taken,

Col. Shutt approached with a flag of trucand demanded the surrender of the armory. get through. The agent came down on an emp- After expostulating for some time, the rioters charge, endeavoring to break open the door all the negroes within reach being forced to The mail train bound West has returned to with sledge hammers; but it resisted all their join themovement, they returned to the armory ram, and the door gave way. The rioters fired briskly and shot three of the Marines, who ex-The Marines then forced their way through the town throughly waked up and found the bridge break, and in a few minutes all resistance was

The rioters were brought out amidst the most intense excitement, many of the armed militia mediatey ensued, and the number of the insurpresent trying to get an opportunity to shoot

Captain Brown and his son were both shot the latter is dead and the former dying. He lies in the armory enclosure. He talks freely, and says that he is the old Ossawattomie Brown whose feats in Kansas have had such wide hotice. He says his whole object was to free the slaves and justify his actions; says that he had out to soply other bands in the mountains, stood, but there was only one return fire from possession of the town and could have murdered all the people.

J. G. Anderson was also shot down in the

DENT MOVEMENT-THE OTHER LEADERS-BALTIMORE, Oct. 18, 3 o'clock, A. M.—Thmencement of the insurrection—DE nally seventeen white men and five negroes, se-with the scenes of violence in the border re of Kansas, then made his name famil-Two men of the Martinsburg company potorious to the whole country. Brown were shot dead whilst charging on the armonis first appearance in the vicinity of Harry.

Ferry more than a year ago, accompanied two sons, the whole party assuming the illiy of finding ores, and for some time ivicinity, and the elder Brown rented or a farm on the Maryland side, about four Twere seen frequently in and about Harpeerry, but no suspicion seems to have ex-ishet "Bill Smith" was Capt. Brown, or the intended embarking in any movement perate or extraordinary. Yet the developt of the plot leaves no doubt that his visits he Ferry, and his lease of the farm, were Some sixteen persons are known to have been while supposed would be successful in extending slavery in Maryland and Western Viria. Iwn's chief aid was John E. Cook, a com to twice and one of the railroad hands, a negro, was killed while trying to get the train through Three rioters are lying dead under the bridge, aving been shot by the Shephardstand bridge, neane Ferry for some years. He was first war taught school on the Maryland side of Capt. Brown had been about here, and ren- the rer, and after a brief residence in Kansas, ognized Brown and Cook among the men, and soldiers are posted all around the grounds, and knowing them, he treated the matter as a joke, In connection with the agricultural settlement, a new and thriving town has naturally arisen, which a new and thriving town has naturally arisen, which railroad has just arrived. The officers confirm

The rioters have still the following persons the armory, which he found already in their a farmer, and son, 16 years old. The three last | way and his pursuers stumbling over, he esca-

> The next appearance of the insurrectionists so seized all the slaves near the house, and took Three of the rioters are lying dead in the the carriage and horse, and a large wagon with had called upon him some months previous, to whom he had exhibited some valuable arms in his possession, including an antique sword presented by Frederick the Great to Gen. George Washington, and a pair of pistols presented by Gen. Lafayette to Washington, both being heirlooms in the family. Before leaving, Cook challenged Col. Washington to a trial of skill at shooting, and exhibited considerable certain-Sunday night he alluded to his previous visits, and the courtesy with which he had been treahis duty to arrest Col. W. He, however, took From Col. Washington's the party proceeded with him as a prisoner, in his own carriage, and twilve of his negroes in the wagon, to the house of Mr. Alstadt, another large farmer, on house of Mr. Alstadt, another large farmer, on The Marines then advanced and made a lad of 16 gears of age, were taken prisoners, and A large ladder was then used as a battering have been made without exciting the slightest at the Ferry. All these movements seem to guardedby armed men, and a guard stationed at all th avenues, that the people found they were prsoners. A panic appears to have imrectionils at once increased from fifty (which was proably their greatest force, including the slaves wo were forced to join them,) to from 500 to 00.

was use to convey a way the Paymaster's safe containing $17,000 Government funds, and Occasionally shots were fired by the country also, that was filled with Minie rifles, taken volunteers-lor what purpose was not underwho wee to come down upon Harper's Ferry insurgents. in overhelming force. These suppositions both preed untrue, as neither money nor arms through the exertions of Superintendents onstrations of resistance were made to the in- communication was opened with Baltimore inkling of what you mean," replied the boy.

chiefly led by a man named Chambers, whose ployment. ouse commanded the armory yard.

resist them, had nearly all withdrawn within sorts of terrible rumors. the armory grounds, leaving only a guard on A dead stillness surrounded the buildings, the bridge. About noon the Charleston troops and except that now and then a man might be having crossed the river some distance up, and and a dog's nose slightly protroding, no sign of marched down on the Maryland side to the life, much less of hostility was given. mouth of the bridge, firing a volley, they made struck Mr. Fountain Beckham, Mayor of the town and agent of the Railroad Company, in he breast, passing entirely through his body. The ball was a large elongated slug, making a fight to the dreadful wound. He died almost immediately. Beckham was without arms and was exposed only for a moment whilst approaching the water station. His assailant, one of Brown's sons, was shot almost immediately, but managed to get back into the engine house, where his dead body was found to day. The murder of Mr. Beckham excited the populace, and a cry was mmediately made to bring out the prisoner, Thompson. He was brought out on the bridge maining, he was again riddled with balls. ed and released the whole of them. They were if they could not escape. however, but poorly armed, some with pistols Ocourse this was refused, and Lieut. Stuart of Sharpe's rifles, they were forced to fall back age of his aged flag-bearer, won warm praise. suffering pretty severely. Conductor Evan At this moment the interest of the scene was Dorsey, of Baltimore, was killed instantly, and most intense. The volunte Hammond, of Martinsburg.

A guerilla warfare was maintained during into the Potomac, and attempted to cross to the Maryland side, whether to escape or to convey information to Cook is not known. He was shot while crossing the river, and fell dead on secured his Sharpe's rifle, and his body was atterwards stripped of a portion of its clothing. In one of his pockets was found a Captain's commission drawn up in full form, and declaring that the bearer, Capt. Lehman, held that command under Major Gen. Brown.

A light mulatto was shot just outside the armory gate. The ball went through his throat, ty as a marksman. When he made his visit on tearing away all the great arteries, and killing him instantly. His name is not known, but he was one of the free negroes who came with ted, and regretted the necessity which made it Brown. His body was left exposed in the street, up to noon yesterday, to every indigniadvantage of the knowledge he obtained by his ty that could be heaped upon it by the excited former visit, to carry off all the valuable collec- populace. At this time a tall, powerful man, tion of arms, which Col. W. did not re-obtain named Evan Stephens, came out from the artill after the final defeat of the insurrection. mory, conducting some prisoners, it was said, and was shot twice in the side and breast. He was captured and taken to a tavern, and after

During the afternoon, a sharp little affair took place on the Shenandoah side of the town. The insurrectionists had also seized Hall's Rifle works, and a party of their assailants found their way in through the millrace and dislodged alarm is the town, nor did the detention of them. In this encounter, it was said, three of town atract attention. It was not until the but one dead body-that of a negro-on that side of the town.

Night, by this time, had set in, and the operations ceased. Guards were placed around the

HOW THE NIGHT PASSED.

The night passed without serious alarms, but not without excitement. The Marines marched over immediately after the arrival of Col. Lee, It was then believed that the large wagon and were stationed within the Armory grounds,

The broken telegraph was soon repaired, surrectionists. A general warfare commenced, | gave the Press representatives abundant em-

There was no bed to be had, and daylight A colored man, Hayward, a railroad por- was awasted with anxiety. Its earliest glimpses ter, was shot early in the morning, for refusing were availed of too survey the scene. A visit to join the movement. The next man shot was Joseph Burley, a citizen of the Ferry. He was of the insurrectionists were lying stark and shot standing in his own door. About this time bloody,—a peep, close or far, according to the Samuel P. Young, Esq., was killed while com-ing into town on horseback. The insurrectionists by this time, finding a general disposition to sight seeing, varied with the discussion of all under command of Col. Robert W. Baylor, seen peeping from the nearly closed centre door, Various opinions were given as to the num a gallant dash across the bridge, clearing it of ber of persons within, and the amount of resisthe insurrectionists, who retreated rapidly down tance they would be able to offer. Cannon towards the armory. In this movement one of could not be used without endangering the the insurrectionists, Wm. Thompson, was taken safety of Col. Washington, Mr. Dangerfield, Mr. Ball, and other citizens, whom they still The Sheppardstown troops next arrived, mar- held as prisoners. The doors and walls of the ching down the Shenandoah side and joining Armory had been pierced for rifles, but it was the Charlestown forces at the bridge. A des- evident that from these holes no range could be ultory exchange of shots followed, one of which had, and that without opening the door they would be shooting in the dark,

The murder of the prisoners held was thought by many to be determined upon, and then a fight to the death, as an ending of their desper-

Whilst the people thus looked and speculated, the door was thrown open, and one of the men came out with a flag of truce, and delivered what was supposed to be terms of capitula-

THE FORT OF THE INSURGENTS. The building in which the insurgents had made a stand, was a fire engine house, and no and shot down from the bridge. He fell into doubt the most defensible building in the Armothe water, and some appearance of life still re- ry. It has dead brick walls ton three sides, saining, he was again riddled with balls.

Sharp fighting ensued, and at this time a gesashes above, some 8 feet above the ground.

neral charge was made down the street from DEMAND FOR SURRENDER-ATTACK AND CAPTURE. the bridge towards the Armory gate, by the Shortly after 7 o'clock, Lieut. J. E. B. Charlestown and Sheppardstown troops and the Stuart, of the First Cavalry, who was acting as Ferry people from behind the Armory wall. A Aid for Col. Lee, advanced to parley with the fusilade was kept up and returned by the insur- besieged ; Samuel Strider, Esq., an old and rectionists from the Armory buildings. Whilst respectable citizen, bearing a flag of truce .this was going on, the Martinsburg levies arri- They were received at the door by Cap. Cook. ved at the upper end of town, and entering the Lieut. Stuart demanded an unconditional Armory grounds by the rear, made an attack surrender, only promising them protection from that side. This force was largely composed of railroad employees, gathered from the tonnage trains at Martinsburg, and their attack demanded, which were, substantially, that was generally spoken of as showing the great- they should be permitted to march out with est amount of fighting pluck exhibited during their men and arms, taking their prisoners with basing of, firing and thermal, and garants there that they should proceed unpursued to ly led by Capt. Alburtis, they carried the builting in which the armory men were imprisoners. The soldiers would then be done in which the armory men were imprisoners. ting in which the armory men were imprison- permitted to pursue them, and they would fight and others with shot guns, and when they came pressed upon Brown his desperate position and within range of the engine house, where the urged a surrender. The expostulation, though elite of the insurrectionists were gathered, and beyond ear shot, was evidently very earnest, became exposed to their rapid and dexterous use and the coolness of the Lieutenant and the cour-anductor George Richardson received a wound all around the buildings, cutting off escape in from which he died during the day. Several every direction. The marines, divided in two others were wounded, among them a son of Dr. squads, were ready for a dash at the door .-Finally Lieut. Stuart having exhausted all argument with the determined Captain Brown, the rest of the day, resulting in killing two in-surrectionists, and the wounding of a third.— walked slowly from the door. Immediately the signal for attack was given and the marines, One crawled out through the culvert leading headed by Col. Harris and Lieut. Green, advanced in two lines on each side of the door. Two powerful fellows sprung between the lines and with heavy sledge hammers attempted to batter down the door. The door swung and the rocks. An adventurous lad waded out and swayed, but appeared to be secured with a rope, the spring of which deadened the effect of the

Failing to obtain a breach, the marines were ordered to fall back, and twenty of them took hold of a ladder some forty feet long, and advancing at a 1un, brought it with tremendous effect against the door. At the second blow, one leaf falling inward in slanting position, the marines immediately advanced to the breach, Major Russell and Lieut. Green leading. A marine in the front fell, and the firing from the interior was rapid and sharp. They fired with deliberate aim, and for a moment the resistance is serious and desperate enough to excite the spectators to something like a pitch of frenzy. The next moment the narines pour in, the firing ceases, and the work was done, whilst cheers rang from every side, the general feeling being that the mariner had done with execrations, and only the precautions that had been taken saved them from immediate execution. The crowd, nearly every man of which carried a gun, swayed with tumultuous excitement, and cries of "shoot them! shoot them!" rang from every side. The appearance of the liberated prisoners, all of whom, through the steadiness of the Marines, escaped injury, changed the current of feeling and prolonged cheers took the place of howls and execrations. In the assault Private Ruffert, of the Marines, Armory, and every precaution taken to prevent to be fatally wounded. Another received a slight flesh wound.

[SEE INSIDE.]

No IRISHMAN .- At a Sabbath school lately, the question was put to a little girl-who was the first man? She said she did not know, when immediately a little Irish girl said, with Occasionally shots were fired by the country great composure : "Adam, sir.

Our little American said : "La, you needn't be so grand about it-he wasn't an Irishman !"

Do you understand me now ?" thunderdelightful climates in the Union, and where crops on the ground and have placed a guard on the are never cut down by frosts, the terrible scourge of the north, see advertisement of Hammonton the marines have charge of the Arrors of the marines have charge of the armory.

Several companies of the virginia troops are an analysis of the same of the marines of the virginia troops are on the ground and have placed a guard on the assault. He was from Connecticut. The dead on the proposition of the marines have charge of the armory.

Several companies of the virginia troops are on the ground and have placed a guard on the assault. He was from Connecticut. The dead on the proposition of the armory of thunder-beautiful climates and the announcement of the armory of the armo