DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

The Democracy of Bedford county, and all others opposed to the irrepressible conflict...

O. E. SHANNON, Chairman Dem. Co. Com.

A WORD TO PHILADELPHIA.

The repeated defeats sustained by our Democratic brethren in Philadelphia, during the last two years, should, it seems to us, have taught Democratic politicians in that neighborhood...

We say to the Democracy of Philadelphia, the next State Convention has work enough to do, without being called upon to decide contested seats and settle local quarrels.

THE "STATE JOURNAL."

According to the announcement contained in its prospectus, the above-named paper, "endeavors to advocate the American-Republican cause, with all the energy and ability it can command."

The conduct of J. WYETH DOUGLAS, the super-sensible Attorney of the Virginia authorities, and Judge KIMMELL, of the Bedford, Somerset, and Franklin districts...

Our readers will be astonished to learn that Judge Kimmell is a resident of Chambersburg...

AN APOLOGY FOR OLD BROWN KNOCKED IN THE HEAD.—Several of the Republican prints put in a plea for the conduct of old Brown at Harper's Ferry...

In the spring of 1856, when the news of the threatened siege of Lawrence reached John Brown, Jr., who was a member of the Topeka Legislature...

It was not until the 30th of August, three months after the Pottawatomie massacre, that the attack was made on Osawatimie by the pro-slavery forces...

Local and Miscellaneous.

The Democrats have gained largely at all the recent elections except in Minnesota. In New York state, we have gained over two hundred thousand votes since the last Presidential election.

MURDER IN SOMERSET COUNTY.—Some ten or twelve days ago, a dead body was found in Milford township, Somerset county, which was identified as the remains of a man by the name of Weimer...

REAL ESTATE SALES.—A considerable amount of real estate has changed owners in this neighborhood, within the last two weeks.

CHANGE OF TIME.—By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that the Passenger Train between Hopewell and Huntingdon, leaves the former place at 10.20, A. M.

Question for discussion: Was the execution of Charles J. Justifiable? Leader on the Affirmative, C. N. Hickok; on the Negative, G. H. Spang.

LOST.—A cross-shaped breast-pin, with pearl setting, was lost, some time since, on Pitt st., Bedford.

CORRESPONDENCE.

NEAR PLEASANTVILLE, Bedford Co., Pa. Nov. 11th, 1859.

Having observed that you invite communications from your readers in the country, I have concluded to write you a few lines, though I have nothing of any importance to send you.

The weather here since yesterday morning, has been very cold, and fogs of Broad Top Coal are kept blazing brightly, in the enjoyment of which luxuries we sometimes think with pity of the "outside barbarians" who have to shiver over their ten plate stoves...

SAXTON, Nov. 14th, 1859.

MR. EDITOR: The weather here since yesterday morning, has been very cold, and fogs of Broad Top Coal are kept blazing brightly...

The shipments over the Huntingdon and Broad Top R. R., for the week ending Nov. 9, 1859, were: Anthracite 3,000 tons; Total amount shipped, 107,335 tons.

The graduation on the Bedford Rail Road, has been completed on seven and one fourth miles, of the twelve miles under contract.

TRIBUTE OF LOVE AND RESPECT. The Congregation of Friends' Cove, Bedford Co., Pa., have manifested their love and respect toward the deceased consort of their Pastor...

THE HEAD STONE IS FIVE INCHES THICK, with the inscription on top in large raised letters, "OUR PASTOR'S WIFE," neatly finished at the marble yard of Mr. Charles M. Howell, Lancaster, Pa.

TRIAL OF THE HARPER'S FERRY INSURGENTS.

Copeland found Guilty of Conspiracy and Murder, but not of Treason.—Stephens Transferred to the Federal Authorities at the instance of Gov. Wise and the consent of the prisoner.—Northern Abolitionists to be brought before the Federal Court.—Captain Cook tried and convicted.

THE CASE OF CAPT. COOK. The Court assembled at 10 o'clock on Monday, and was called to order by Judge Parker.

A number of witnesses were summoned and the Jury was absent for about two hours. The case of Stephens called led to D. Stephens was then brought into Court and placed on a mattress.

After a considerable number of jurymen had been obtained, Mr. Hunter arose and stated that he had just received a despatch which would probably interfere with further proceedings in the empanelling of a jury.

RICHMOND, Nov. 7th. Mr. Hunter stated that he had been in correspondence for several days with Governor Wise...

Mr. Hunter stated that he had been in correspondence for several days with Governor Wise, and had in his possession a number of facts, important to the development of this case...

Mr. Sennott remarked that he had not consulted with his client, and as the jury had been chosen, he would not consent that the State should hand over to the Government the prisoner...

Mr. Hunter then remarked that he would then proceed immediately with the case of Stephens, and hand over the case of Hazlett, who has not yet been indicted, to the Federal Court.

Mr. Sennott then asked a delay of a moment for a consultation with Stephens, after which he announced that the prisoner accepted the offer of the State to hand him over to the Federal authority...

Mr. Harding desired the Clerk to enter his protest against the whole proceedings. He considered the whole proceedings wrong, and wished it so shown on the docket.

The prisoner was then handed over to United States Marshal Martin and lodged in jail, where he will remain until the term of the Federal Court at Staunton, which will not meet for some time.

TRIAL OF COOK COMMENCED.—HIS CONFESSION READ IN OPEN COURT. CHARLESTOWN, Nov. 8.—The trial of Cook was commenced this morning, the opening speech being made by Mr. Harding.

CHARLESTOWN, Nov. 10.—The Court remained in session until 1 o'clock, when the jury in the case of Cook rendered a verdict of guilty on the charge of murder and insurrection.

Mr. Harding, the District Attorney, refuses to sign a nolle prosequi in favor of Stephens, demanding that he shall be tried by the Virginia State Court.

It is rumored that Green, Coppee, Copeland and Cook will all be executed on the same day with Brown.

From the New York Herald. Prominent Republicans Implicated. We present from the published correspondence of Col. H. Forbes, such facts as would appear to connect many prominent Republicans with the operations of the notorious Capt. Brown.

THE SHALLOW PROVERB, "Familiarity breeds contempt," has a very limited application. Familiarity with that which is admirable, useful and beneficent, breeds respect, gratitude and enthusiasm.

THE WORLD AMAZED. ALL NATIONS THANKFUL. The shallow proverb, "Familiarity breeds contempt," has a very limited application.

THE ANSWER HE GOT FROM HORACE GREELY. In this same letter to Sanborn, Forbes says that Mr. Greely told him that he (Forbes) was alone to blame...

REFERENCE TO SENATOR SUMNER AND AMOS LAWRENCE. You express surprise at my letter to Mr. Sumner, as if that were the first you ever heard on the subject.

THE DWELLING OF MR. WM. NYCUM, in Harrison tp., was burned on Thursday night of last week, nothing of its contents being saved but a bureau.

HEALTH AND ITS PLEASURES, OR DISEASE WITH ITS AGONIES! CHOOSE BETWEEN THEM!

The next letter is to the same person, and is prefaced by the following head note:—On the 15th January Mr. Sanborn replied to mine of the 9th.

SECRET SERVICE MONEY. The $600 for secret service you speak of as being enough for the purpose, is not enough. This is another error, and a serious one.

INTERVIEW WITH SEWARD. Washington, May 6, 1858.—To Dr. S. G. Howe, M. D., Boston, Mass.—On Saturday (1st May) I had an interview with Senator Wm. H. Seward, of New York, having been introduced to him through a letter from a leading Abolitionist, Dr. Bailey, of the Era.

Forbes next mentions an accidental meeting with John P. Hale, but such was the distress of his family that he did not then refer to Brown's plan.

PLEASE SHOW TO MESSRS. SANBORN, LAWRENCE, & CO. Copies will be sent to Governor Chase, who found money, and Governor Fletcher, who contributed arms, and to others interested, as quickly as possible.

BROWN'S PLAN. Brown had a different scheme. He proposed, with some twenty-five or fifty colored and white men, well armed, and bringing a quantity of spare arms, to beat up a slave quarter in Virginia.

Half, or thereabouts, of this first lot he proposed to keep with him, mounting 100 or so of them, and make a dash at Harper's Ferry manufactory, destroying what he could not carry off.

THE WORLD AMAZED. ALL NATIONS THANKFUL. The shallow proverb, "Familiarity breeds contempt," has a very limited application.
