B. F. Meyers, Editor.

HELPER "REPUBLICANISM." In our last issue we gave an article from the Pennsylvanian, showing that a certain Mr. disclosures have been made which show that indeed. SIXTY EIGHT BLACK REPUBLICAN MEMBERS OF CONGRESS, endorsed Hel- the Republican party exists as a distinct parper's book and circulated under their frank, ty, the tone of their organs has become more one hundred thousand copies of that infamous and treasonable work! Among the members who have thus disgraced themselves is JOHN that they are disgusting very many persons by COVODE, of this state, a prominent candidate constantly asserting that their party is not secfor the Opposition nomination for Governor. tional, and that they respect the constitutional Another of the sixty eight is JOHN SHER-MAN, the Black Republican candidate for Speaker of the National House of Representa-OUT FIRST BECOMING AN ABOLITION- pear that "protection to American industry IST," and that there should be "no co-operation with pro-slavery politicians; no fellowship with them in religion; no affiliation with them in society," and as a large majority of the "Republican" members of Congress endorsed and circulated that book, is not the "Republican" party abolitionized to all intents and purposes? It is impossible to deny it. The evidence is too overwhelming. We append the names of the sixty eight Congressmen above another column in which they will find the character of Helper, the pet of "Republicanism," delineated in its true colors.

Schuyler Colfax, J. F. Farnsworth. Anson Burlingame, C. L. Knapp, Owen Lovejoy, R. E. Fenton, Amos. P Granger, Philemon Bliss, Edwin B. Morgan, Mason W. Tappan, Galusha A. Grow, Charles Case, Joshua R. Giddings, T. Davis (Iowa,) James Pike, Edward Wade. Calvin C. Chaffee, Homer E. Royce. Wm. H. Kelsey, Isaac D. Clawson, Wm. A. Howard, A. S. Murray, Rob't B. Hall, JOHN SHERMAN, Val. B. Horton, George W. Palmer, Freeman H. Morse, Daniel W. Gooch, David Kilgore, Henry L. Dawes, Wm. Stewart, Samuel R. Curtis, Justin S. Morrill, I. Washburne, Jr., John M. Wood, J. A. Bingham, John M. Parker, Stephen C. Foster, Wm. Kellogg, E. B. Washburne, Chas. J. Gilman, Benjamin Stanton, Chas. B. Hoard, Edward Dodd, John Thompson, J. W. Sherman, C. B. Tomkins. JOHN COVODE, Wm. D. Brayton, Cad, C Washburn, Jas. Buffinton, Sam'l G. Andrews, O. B. Matteson, Abraham B. Olin, Richard Mott. Sidney Dean, Geo. R. Robbins, Nath'l B. Durfee, E. P. Walton, Emery B. Pottle, James Wilson. DeWitt C. Leach, S. A. Purviance. F. E. Spinner, John F. Potter, T. Davis, (Mass.,) S. M. Burrough licited by Senator Mason's resolution for the this because Brown was, and Helper is a good man was saying over night at the house appointment of a Committee to investigate the "Republican." Harper's Ferry insurrection. Mr. Trumbuli tigated by a Committee from the other House.

Congress.

In the House the contest for the Speakership purchased traitors-purchased by Black Republican support when they were candidates-and their treason is not unexpected. The rest of the Anti-Lecompton men are true to the party. A brisk fire has been kept up against the Republicans, from the Democratic side, and some of the former have been handled without gloves. Thaddeus Stevens, of this State, received a severe rebuke, the other day, from Mr. Lamar, of Mississippi. Mr. Stevens said something about timid people talking about danger to the Union. Mr. Lamar replied that talking about timid people reminded him that the "Republican" party wanted no better leader than Mr. Stevens, the hero of the "Buckshot War." His experience in leaping out of windows, would always enable him to run away from danger .- Mr. Clark's resolution declaring no member eligible to the office of Speaker, who endorsed Helper's book, was still pending. A number of speeches have been made on it. Mr. Sherman, the

Mr. Kellogg, another "Republican," said he did not know what it was about, but supposed it was for the benefit of mankind. Of such stuff are "Republican congressmen made.

An unkind Cut.

The Philadelphia Daily News of the 7th inst., has an article severely reviewing the recently published "Address of the Republican Helper, alias Helfer, formerly of North Caro- Central Committee." The News is the organ lina, had published a book entitled the "Im- of the Hazlehurst, or Straight American party, pending Crisis of the South," in which the which polls some 30,000 votes in this State, most ultra Abolition sentiments are expressed, and therefore, has the power, at any time, to and which advocates even such a course of con-defeat the "Republicans." Had the Hazlehurst duct as that pursued by John Brown. In that vote been cast for a separate candidate, as it article numerous prominent "Republicans" was in 1857, the Democratic State Ticket and embittered by injuries he received at the were named as contributors to a fund for the would have been elected, last fall, by a plurality circulation of Helper's book, and the sums con- of 15,000, at least. So we advise our sanguine tributed respectively by each were set opposite friends on the "Republican side of the house," their several names. This statement is unde- to look after Jos. R. Flangen and the Daily nied by the "Republicans" therein named and News. Meanwhile the annexed extract above will not be denied by them. Since the publi- referred to, will serve to show the News' opincation of the Pennsylvanian's article, further 10n of Republicanism. It is an "unkind cut,"

There can be no question that in States where abolitionized than at any former period: and although they seem to think that they are moulter is filled with malignant sneers, ridicule and abuse of Southern people. The tone of these journals is not calculated to strengthen tives. Now, as Helper's book says that "NO Republicanism in Pennsylvania, and the at-MAN CAN BE A TRUE PATRIOT WITH- tempt of Republicans in this State to make it apis a principle of that party, will deceive no man who has an ounce of brains.

Local and Miscellaneous.

-FIRE IN BEDFORD TOWNSHIP .- On Wednesday night of last week, between the hours of eleven and twelve o'clock, "the dwelling house of Mr. George Biddle, in Bedford ip., those within the house were scarcely able to spoken of and refer our readers to an article in escape with their lives. There was a considerable quantity of grain and flour stored away this place. The cases, however, that have proved fatal, have thus far been few in comparison with those in other parts of the county and elsewhere. In Union township, we are informed, some seventy-five deaths have occurred from husband's voice in complaint. * * Next

-Read the Thanksgiving Sermon of Rev. JOHN CHAMBERS, published on our first page .-Mr. Chambers is well known in this community and has many warm friends and admirers among our people, who will be glad to read his John Chambers is worthy of emulation.

We suppose if the Helper of "Republicanism," slavery cause, so as to aggravate the Abolitionshould be taken to North Carolina, convicted of stealing, and punished according to law, it In the Senate considerable discussion was e- would be some other judicial outrage. And all Harris, of Franklin county, Kansas. Mr. Sher-

-The confession of John E. Cook, one of the (Rep.) of Illinois, moved to amend the resolu- Harper's Ferry insurgents, has been published tion by extending the power of Committee to and is for sale at Dr. Harry's Drug and Book asked to walk out. Mr. Harris, in his affidavit, investigate the taking of arms and munitions Store in this place. Cook implicates no other says: "Old man Brown asked Mr. Sherman to persons than those already known as connected go out with him, and Sherman then went out The object of Mr. Trumbull was to hamper and with the affair. The reason of this is, that he stifle the investigation of the Harper's Ferry was merely a private in Brown's company, unbusiness, but he was soon informed that the affair til the day on which the attack was made up- we heard a cap burst, and then these two men at Liberty had already been thoroughly inves- on Harper's Ferry, when, we believe, he was elevated to the rank of Captain, and, conse-Mr. Mason's resolution will pass without doubt, quently, was not in the secrets of the leaders of whilst Mr. Trumbull's amendment will be re- the insurrection. If John Brown had confesjected. Mr. Slidell has given notice that he will sed all he knew, the population of Canada creek and examined it. Mrs. Whiteman was would have been increased by thousands.

-Dr. McLane's Vermifuge and Liver Pills still continues. The South Americans and belong to that class of patent medicines which Anti-Lecompton men still stand aloof from the have become almost indispensable in every famother parties. The Illinois Douglas men vote ily. We know them to be excellent remedies for the regular Democratic nominee and are a- and nothing so well attests their good qualities mong the most efficient Democrats in the House. as the fact that they are extremely popular .-Hasken, Clark and Hickman, however, are with The sales of these medicines have increased the Black Republicans, at heart, and are fast during the last twenty-four years, from combeginning to show their true colors. They are paratively nothing, to the enormous amount of 1,500,000 boxes and vials. Fleming Bros., proprietors, Pittsburg, Pa.

-In our notice of the Poor House appointments, last week, we neglected to state that George Blymine was re-appointed Treasurer, and Thomas R. GETTYS, JR., Clerk.

-Mr. Alex. Henderson, of this place, killed a hog a few days ago, which weighed some 340 pounds. Considerable porker, that !

-The weather has been rather cold for some time past. Ice has formed on the river and our people are busy filling their ice-houses .-If there is no thaw for a week, what a time for mint juleps and ice-cold-lemonades there will bed, when we heard some persons come into be next summer. "The long straw and the large tumbler, if you please, landlord!"

-The next meeting of the Bedford Lyceum, will take place on Saturday evening next.

Question for discussion: "Was the repeal of the Missouri Compromise right ?" Affirma-"Republican" candidate for Speaker, said be tive, S. L. Russell ; Negative, R. D. Barclay. did not know what the book contained when he Declaimer, O. H. Gaither; Essayist, Juo. W. recommended is. The poor ignorant fellow! Palmer.

cast his vote for JOHN SHERMAN who enDrury—out, and then took my husband and cuse that it was an indiscretion of youth, althat "no man can be a good citizen without My son John was spared, because I asked them the Presbyterian church, and, as he says himfirst becoming an abolitionist." What do the in tears, to spare him. In a short time after- self, was seventeen years of age. It is due to Straight Americans of this county that voted wards I heard the report of pistols; I heard the Presbyterian church to say that this man is for Mr. McPherson, think of this ?

From the Westport (Mo.) Border Star. The True Character of John Brown.

THE MASSACRE AT POTTA WATOMIE CREEK. The Abolitionists of the North are trying to get up sympathy for Old Brown, by representing him to be a worthy but misguided man, and one whose nature nature had been warped bands of pro-slaveryites. This is all stuff .-Brown came to Kansas, not as a peaceful settler but as a guerilla fighter. He never was driven from his property by border ruffians, as he never had any property to be driven from. All the hostility he met with was in retaliation for his own barbarous and brutal deeds. The first murders in Kansas were those committed by Old Brown. He opened the bloody ball, an he more than any one else is responsible for the terrible scenes that marked the protracted the acts in the "Bleeding Kansas," tragedy, the first in order of time were the murders commit-Pottawatamoie Creek. In this massacre conduct- and makes outb according to law, that the a-Doyle and his two sons, William and Drury. day and year above written. The heart-broken survivors of this massacrethe widows and orphans-came to Westport and deposed to the facts of the bloody affair before Esquire Goforth, and the record is now few paragraphs:

-Some sudden deaths from scarlet fever, I have, but they are not here, and I cannot go wanted to put on his boots, and get ready, so as long enough cried out for justice and satisfaction. permit of no compromise between right and wrong." We will make Joseph R. Flanigen morning Mr. Wilkinson's body was found aside. Others said he was cut in the throat twice.

Mr. Wilkinson was a poor man; of course his eloquent and patriotic address. It is cheering widow was left destitute; but regardless of this to know that the pulpit yet contains some ministers who are ready to stand up in favor of law, order and the government, as against a wild fa- presented at Westport, Missouri. with the nenaticism that would rend asunder our social She had two small children. Mrs. Wilkinson's system and shatter our political existence from description of the leader of the men who mur-"turret to foundation-stone." The example of dered her husband suits Captain John Brown, a well known character in the Abolition party. -The Somerset Herald calls the execution was not engaged in arresting or disturbing of Brown a "judicial murder." What next ! anybody. He took no active part in the pro-ists; but he was a pro-slavery man. The circumstances attending William Sherof Harris, when, on the 24th of May, about 2 o'clock, Capt. John Brown and a party came there, [and after taking some property and with Brown. I heard nothing more for about left. Next morning, about 10 o'clock, I found William Sherman, dead, in the creek near my house. I was looking for him; as he had not come back, I thought he had been murdered. with me. Sherman's skull was split open in two places, and some of his brains were washed out by the water; a large hole was cut in his book, as to the reliability of the authority on little piece of skin on one side." In relation to the assassination of Jas. P. Doyle, and sons, the affidavit of Mrs. Mahala Doyle, the widowed mother, is as follows :-

MAHALA DOYLE'S DEPOSITION. The undersigned, Mahala Doyle, states on oath: I am the widow of James P. Doyle .-We moved into the Territory, that is my husband, myself and children moved into the Territory of Kansas some time in November, A. D. 1855, and settled upon Musketo Creek, about one mile from its mouth, and where it empties into Pottawatomie Creek in Franklin county. On Saturday, the 24th day of May, A. D. 1856, about 11 o'clock at night, after we had all retired, my husband, James P. Doyle, myself and six children - five boys and one girl. The eldest is about twenty-two years of age; his name is William. The next is about twenty years of age; his name is Drury. The next is about seventeen years of age; his name is John. The next is about thirteen years of age; his name is James. The next is about five of age; his name is Henry. We were all in the yard, and rap at the door, and call for Mr. Doyle, my husband. This was about 11 o'clock on Saturday night, of the 24th of May last .-

-The Hon. Edward McPherson, member of | The men were armed with pistols and large | that he was entired to the act by some ambigumoaning as if a person was dying. Then I heard a wild whoop. They had asked before they went away for our horses. We told them I know not, except he defines Helper—one who

> (Signed,) MAHA
> Witness, T. J. GOFORTH.
> STATE OF MISSOURI, MAHALA MOYLE.

Jackson County. SS. On the seventeenth day of June, A. D 1859, political squabbles of the Territory. Of all personally appeared before me, the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace in and for the County and State aforesaid, Mahala Doyle, whose name ted on the night of the 24th of May, 1856, on appears to the above and foregoing statement, d by Old Brown, five persons were killed, viz: bove and foregoing statement is true as therein Allen Wilkinson, Wm. Sherman, old Wm. P. set forth. Given under my hand and seal the widow, Louisa Jane Wilkinson, testified that on the night of the 25th of May, 1856, between the hours of midnight and daybreak, she thinks, a parly of men came to the house where they were residing and forcibly carried her husband away; that they took him in the name of the "Northern army," and 'that next morning he was found about 150 yards from the house, dead. Mrs. Wilkinson was very ill at the time with fine measles. Here follows an extract from her affidavit:

THOS. J. GOFORTH, J. P. [SEAL.] The testimony of John Doyle confirms that

My Wilkinson stay

The Infamous Helper.

It will be recollected that during the Kansas debate we had several evening sessions, at one of which, that of the 20th of March, I was gen's malignity, is a gentleman of unsullied bout 150 yards from the house, in some dead The Senator from Massachusetts (Mr. Wilson) not present in consequence of indisposition. - moral character, of honesty of purpose and acbrush. A lady who saw my husband's body on that occasion delivered a speech, which, in a monetary crisis such as we have never known on that occasion delivered a speech, which, in the Globe, was not published until Friday last, and my attention to it was not called until Saturday. Among other points made by the Sen- in an eminent degree the confidence of the stockator, he seeks to give a faithful account of holders, without solicitation and even against southern society-slaveholders and non-slave- his desire, he has been again and again re-elecholders; and as I presume he could not testify from personal observation and knowledge, and by a fiend in human shape, who fattens upon as I suppose he preferred it, he introduces as reliable testimony extracts from a book, entitled "The Impending Crisis of the South," said to be written by a "Mr. Helper, of North Caro-willing that such testimony shall go upon the Abandoned socially, his moral bankruptcy has permanent legislative history of the country brought him to despair, and as the sun gives from North Carolina, without cing in the same form the character of the witman's assassination are testified to by James ness. It is due to North Carbon to the Senator from Massachusetts, it is due to ness. It is due to North Carolina, it is due to the Senate and the country, particularly the people of the non-slaveholding States, to ex- we must now be pardoned for speaking of this pose to public contempt the author of a work whose position, whatever it is, probably greatly to flay him rightly in a short series of articles, depends upon his representing himself as "of and to expose the motives which prompt his North Carolina." I feel a becoming pride that reckless assaults upon private character. the word of a North Carolinian is so generally considered reliable; and, therefore, the mor imperative is the duty to mark emphatically, as I propose to do on this occasion, any one that hails from that State who slanders her so- ard, which weighed 206lbs. The skin, when please be present with their exonerations, &c., for ciety and writes in a book to deceive and delude others. The Senator from Massachusetts is a striking example of the dupes, thus made by this catch-penny book; and the delusion is acter of the witness, it is placed in permanent sympathizers with John Brown and to reaffirm form as evidence from North Carolina as to the state of southern society.

I want to disabuse the mind of the Senator from Massachusetts, and those who read this breast, and his left hand was cut off, except a which he relies. Who, then, is this Mr. Helper, of North Carolina, relied upon in the Senate of the United States as evidence from the South of the state of southern society? I speak from authority that cannot be doubted. Hinton Rowan Helfer, the author of the "Impending Crisis," is a native of Davie coun- &c.—Disease is indiscriminate in the selection ty, North Carolina. His first appearance in of its victim—the king possesses no more imactive life was as a clerk of Michael Brown, a munity from the twinges of gout or neuralgia merchant in Salisbury, North Carolina. Mr. in his weather-proof palace, than the beggar twelve Directors for the ensuing year. Brown is an elder of the Presbyterian church; from the attacks of rheumatism in his time batand after Helfer removed to Salisbury he also tered hovel. Wealth of itself can neither cure joined the Presbyterian church, and, so far as sickness nor preserve health-else it would be was publicly known, conducted himself with a monopoly of the rich—on the contrary, the propriety. After living with Mr. Brown sev- gouty or rheumatic millionaire would willingly eral years as clerk, it was understood at Salis- exchange half his possessions for the robust conbory that he formed a co-partnership with Mr. stitution of the dally laborer. To the millions Coffman in the book business, and left for the whose subsistence depends on toil, health is North to lay in a stock of books. He did not truly wealth, and the loss of it entails on them return as expected, but shortly thereafter went the misery and sufferings which are the bane of turn, wrote a book called "Land of Gold." he remained some time without any apparent direful effects of the weather. business. In the summer of 1857, as is reported and believed, he procured surety for, and

Congress from this district, does not hesitate to knives. They first took my husband out of the ous expression of a friend of his that it was dorsed the infamous Helper book, which says these two boys (William and Drury) away. - though, at the time, he was in full standing in that our horses were out on the prairie. My nelps filmself from the purse of others without husband and two boys, my sons, did not come their consent; and therefore concluded the back any more. I went out next morning in change of name appropriate to his character .search of them, and found my husband and He is a dishonest, degraded and disgraced man, William, my son, lying dead in the road, near and although-much to be regretted -a native together, about 200 yards from the house .- of the State, yet he is an apostate son, ruined They were buried the next day. On the day in fortune and character, and catering to a of the burying, I saw the dead body of Drury. diseased appetite at the North, to obtain a Fear of myself and the remaining children, miserable living, by slanders upon the land of induced me to leave the home where we had his birth; and I deeply regret that the Senator miserable living, by slanders upon the land of been living. We had improved our claim a from Massachusetts has, by a reference, so diglittle. I left and went to the State of Missouri. Infied the creature as to render necessary this exposure. Such is Mr. Helper, of North Carolina, author of the "Impending Crisis of the South," alias Mr. Helfer, once of North Carolina, but who has left the land of his birth for the good of the State.

Now, sir, I would respectfully suggest to the ionorable Senator from Massachusetts to append note to the edition of his speech, giving the rue character of the author of this book upon which he has relied; so that the readers of his speech may not be, as he has been, so unwittingly misled by authority so degraded and unreliable. - Speech of Senator Biggs.

> [From the Huntingdon Uniou.] Joseph R. Flanigen.

Independence and fearlessness, when guided of his mother generally, and we only copy a by a love of truth, are noble qualities; but a recklessness of all honor and an utter disregard of

was discovered to be on fire, the devouring el- fine measles. Here tollows an extract from her Northern men talk—that is, their language and ow of Broad Top, and having constant opporwith me, saying that I was sick and helpless, talked. An old man commanded the party.— unwilling to remain silent under this abuse, or and could not stay by myself. My husband He was dark complected, and his face was slim. to permit to go unrefuted slanders that are conalso asked them to let him stay with me, until We had lighted the candle, and about eight of ceived by a mind that never had an honest in the house, all of which was consumed. In he could get some one to wait on me; told them entered the house. There were some out thought and brought forth by a heart that nevin the house, all of which was consumed. In fact none of the contents of the building could be saved. Mr. Biddle's loss is estimated at about $1000. We believe there was no insu- bent $1000. We believe there was no insu- bent $1000. We helieve there was no insu- bent $1000. We had to ask the pardon of our readers for stirring the slime that surrounds Joseph R. Flanlooked at me, and then around at the children, and replied, 'you have neighbors.' I said, 'so I have, but they are not here, and I cannot go Such is old Brown! If ever a man richly for them.' The old man replied (it matter) and belonged to the law and order ligen, and we now have to repeat that request, when and where all interested may attend, if they see proper. Sheriff's Office, Bedford, Dec. 16th, 1859. Sheriff. have recently occurred among the children in for them.' The old man replied. 'it matters deserved hanging, it is this hoary-headed villain official integrity. "The duty of a journalist is not,' and told him to get ready. My husband and cut-throat. The blood of his victims has a stern one, and if faithfully performed, will feel the force of his own words. Mr. L. T. Watson, the President of the Broad consequence of the great press of business upon here before, he stood with singular devotedness ted. And yet this man is to be daily traduced like the blind copper-head in the dog-days, he December 16th, 1859. Being informed as to this author, I am un- belches his slime at every approaching object. ments, so his efforts at defamation become stronger as his steps in vice grow deeper.

We have remained silent on this subject as long as our sense of justice would permit, and creature Flanigen as he deserves. We propose

Our friend, Capt. S. S. Fluck, of Hopewell, writes us that a deer was killed in Broad Top tp., a few days ago, by Mr. Wm. Lockdry, weighed 1041bs. Broad Top is ahead in Tunion meetings have been held in Bosso strong that, without inquiry as to the char- ton, Philadelphia and Harrisburg, to rebuke the Northern respect for Southern institutions. The meetings are unusually large.

Gov. Chase, of Ohio, is out in a declaration the effect that he had no knowledge of Old Brown's intention to create an insurrection among slaves, but admits that he contributed money in aid of "freedom," in Kansas. The Governor does not tell if he intends to leave the country for Canada.

HEALTH IS WEALTH .- GOUT, RHEUMATISM, to California, and there, or shortly after his re-poverty; but the cheapness of Holloway's Pills and Ointment obviate this evil by placing them He returned to Salisbury about 1854, where within their each of, all who are exposed to the Hollowar's Pills and Oinfment .- "Messengers obtained money. He, however, about that time, left for the North, where he now resides, never on Saturday night, of the 24th of May last.—

My husband got up and went to the door.—
Those outside inquired for Mr. Wilkinson, and where he lived. My husband said he would tell them. Mr. Doyle, my husband, and several came into the house, and said they were from the army. My husband was a proslavery man. They told my husband that he and the boys must surrender; they were their prisoners.

Since having returned to North Carolina. After leaving North Carolina, he changed his name from Helfer to Helper; and it was disclosed last year that while a clerk for Brown he purloined from him three hundred dollars, and after an exposure by Brown, Helfer, making a merit of necessity, himielf publicly confesses in a handbill which I have before me, this thieving on his part, and excuses it upon the ground dies will quickly penetrate and give instant relief; but perseverance is necessary to effect a ware. Six or eight Pills should be taken nightly according to circumstances. A trial of these remedies will be attended with satisfactory results.

DRUGS AND BOOKS: H. C. REAMER,

Juliana Street, Bedford, Pa. (At the Stand formerly occupied by Dr. F. C.

Medicaler in Drugs,
Medicales, Chemicals, Dye
Stuffs, Oils, Paints, Yarnishes, Turpentine, Window Glass, Glassware, &c. Just received, a large stock of American, French and English perfumery. Also, a great variety of fine
Soaps for toilet use. Tooth pastes, Hair Tonics, Hair Dyes, that will color various shades, from a light brown to a jet black, Tooth, Nail; Hair, Shaving, and Clothes brushes, Combs, Pocket Knives, Pocket Books, Portmonnaies, Segar cases, &c.

—ALSO—

Have and will keep constantly on hand, a sapply Have and will keep constantly on hand, a supply of Coal Oil, Burning fluid and Camphine, with a great variety of the most modern and best style of coal oil and fluid lamps.

Pure Wines and Brandies for medical use, Fig.

oring Extracts and Spices of all sorts, Fine Segars, mutts, Chewing and Smoking Tobacco. Having the agency for all the principal patent medicines in use, will keep a full supply constantly Dealer in Books, &c., consisting of Geographical, Scientific, Religious, Poetical, Historical, Law, Medical, School and Miscellaneous Works, in connection with a great variety of plain and fancy Stationery, Cap, Note, 'Post, and Wrapping Paper, Elank Books, of every size and quality. Diagree Blank Books, of every size and quality, Diaries, Blank Deeds, Mortgages, Notes and Receipts. DFOrders promptly filled and satisfaction guarnteed, with regard both to price and quality.

Physicians' Prescriptions carefully and accuately compounded at all hours of the day or night.

Dec. 16, 1859.

NOTICE OF INQUISITION.

WHEREAS, Benjamin Ridgway, late of Southamp. ton Townshir, Bedford County, dec'd., died seized of the following real estate, to wit: One tract of land containing 258 acres and allow-

Allen Wilkinson was a member of the Kansas Legislature—a quiet, inoffensive man. His widow, Louisa Jane Wilkinson, testified that on the night of the 25th of May, 1856, between the hours of midnight and daybreak, she thinks, Ohio, and Benjamin residing in Monroe county, Missouri, Elsie, Nathan, Edward, Mary, Rachel,

APPEALS.

NOTICE is hereby given to the taxable inhabl-ants of Bedford county, that the appeals will be ld by the C ommissioners, at the Co flice, in the Borough of Bedford, on the days spe-

For the Townships of Hopewell, St. Clair, Union, iddle and South Woodberry, on Monday, the 9th lay of January next.

For the Townships of East and West Providence, Snakespring, Liberty, Monroe and Broad Top, on Tuesday, the 10th day of Jan., next. For the Townships of Colerain, Cumberland Val-

For the Townships of Colerain, Cumberland Val-ey, Harrison, Londonderry and Southampton, on Wednesday, the 11th day of January next. For the Townships of Bedford, Juniata, Napier and the Boroughs of Bedford and Schellsburg, on Thuraay, the 12th day of January, next.

When and where all persons, or corporators, feeling themselves aggrieved at the enumeration and valuation of their taxable property, are requested to attend and state their grievances; for redress ac-

J. BECKLEY. W. M. PEARSON. Commissioners.

TIMELY NOTICE.

Terms as Published!

MY BOOKS will be ready for settlement on, or before the 1st of January, next. All interested will please take notice and square their accounts by CASH or NOTE. I am in debt for many of the goods sold. The debts must be paid, and though thankful to those who have allowed me to make a percentage off them, they will please prepare in time to help foot the city accour WM. HARTLEY.

Dec. 16, 1859.

Notice to Collectors of 1859.

THE Military Board of Auditors of the 1st Brigade, 16th Division, P. M., will meet at the House of Ccl. John Hafer, in Bedford, on Wednesday, the 4th day of January, 1869, at 10 o'clock A. M., at which time the Collectors of Tayes for 1859, will prease be present with their exonerations, &c., for said year, properly authenticated, in order that the Board of Auditors may adjust and make all abate-ments of the Military Taxes of said year. [A. J. SANSOM, Brigade Inspector, 1st Brigade, 16th Division, P. M. Dec. 16, 1859.

Notice to Creditors.

LETTERS testamentary baving been granted the Register of Bedfi by the Register of Bedford county, to the un-dersigned, upon the Estate of Frederick Rice, dec'd. late of Cumberland Valley, tp., all persons indebted to said Estate are hereby notified to make imme-diate payment and those having claims will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

FRANCIS A. RICE; Walce. The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Huntingdon and Broad Top Mountain Rail Road and Coal Company, will be heid at the office of the Company, on Tuesday, the 10th day of January, 1860, at 11 o'clock, A. M., when an election will be held for a President and J. P. AERTSEN, Dec. 16th .- 3t.

DAIL ROAD ELECTION .- An

Lection will be held at the Rail Road Office n Bedford, for the election of a President and 12 directors for said Company, on Monday, the 9th day of January, 1869, between the hours of one and four o'clock, P. M., of which the Stockholders will take

Dec. 16th, 1859. Secretary.

DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE .- Letters of admin istration having been granted to the subscriber, residing in Napier Township, upon the Estate of John Ellis, late of said township, deceased, he calls upon all persons indebted to come forward and make payment immediately, and all having claims a-gainst the estate, are requested to make the same properly authenticated for settlement. HENRY TAYLOR,

Dec. 16, 1859.

Notice. ALL persons knowing themselves indebted to the subscriber on Note or Book account, or otherwise, are hereby notified that their accounts will be pla ced in the hands of the proper officers for collection unless paid by the first of February, next. MICHAEL LUTZ.

Dec. 16, 1859. *